Three are orders of sattva or thought, rajas or energy, and tamas or matter. This makes the thrice seven, the four other beautiful orders of existence may be interpreted as mana (mind), buddhi (discriminative intelligence), chitta (memory) and ahankara (I-sense or existential personality). Another interpretation could be the four Vedas, knowledge, the corresponding order of existence in terms of awareness and expression.

Vasishtha, the most brilliant seeker and teacher, a man of versatile mind and boundless possibilities who was gifted with a radiative spirit and passion for enlightenment, received the pure, applied, beatific and life giving Word of the Veda, the first, original and eternal gift of the lord of omniscience into his yajna of cosmic creation, from Agni, sustainer of the light of knowledge, Vayu, vibrant sage with passion and strong will, Savita, i.e., Aditya, brilliant and inspiring like the sun, and Angiras, the sage inspiring as omnipresent Vishnu and breath of life. (Rg. 10-181-1)

(This Vasishtha, the brilliant disciple of the four sages, Agni, Vayu, Aditya and Angira, who then became the teacher of the Vedas, was Brahma. Swami Brahmamuni explains this interpretation of this mantra in his commentary on Rgveda and cites authoritative evidence from the Brahmana works. Swami Dayananda explains the cosmic process of creative evolution and Vedic revelation in his Introduction to his Commentary on the Vedas, Rgvedadi Bhashya Bhumika, saying on Vedic and ancient authority that the Vedas were first revealed to four sages: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva veda to Angira. Brahma, the brilliant disciple and later the inspired teacher, learnt the Veda from these four sages and passed on this knowledge to his disciples.)

(Soma in the physical sense is an exhilarating drink, in the aesthetic sense it is ecstasy, in the psychic sense it is ananda, and in the spiritual sense it is elevation of the soul to the experience of divinity. It is the peace, purity and glory of life, any power physical, social or divine that leads to satyam (truth), shivam (goodness), and sundaram (beauty) of life, anything, power and person that gives us an experience of sacchidananda, the real, the intelligent and the blissful state of the life divine. In short, Soma is satyam, shivam and sundaram, the sat, the chit and the ananda of life. It is not restricted to a particular herb and a particular drink. The meaning of soma is open-ended on the positive side of life and living joy.)

859. Pavamana Soma Devata, Parashara Shaktya Ṛshi

तिस्रो वाच ईरयति प्र वह्निर्ऋतस्य धीतिं ब्रह्मणो मनीषाम् ।

Tisro vāca īrayati pra vahnirṛtasya dhītiṁ brahmaṇo manīṣām. Gāvo yanti gopatiṁ pṛcchamānāḥ somaṁ yanti matayo vāvaśānāḥ.

Soma inspires three orders of speech: practical speech that carries on the daily business of life, the thought that conceives of the vibrant immanent divine presence, and the deeper language of silence which is the mode of transcendent reality. The language operations of daily business move in search of the master source of world mystery as in science and philosophy, and the speech of thought and imagination and of love and worship moves to the presence of peace and bliss, Soma. (Rg. 9-97-34)

(The three speeches in Vedic language are Ida, Sarasvati, and Mahi or Bharati as described in Rgveda 1, 13, 9 and Yajurveda 21, 19. Explained another way these are the language of the Rks or knowledge, Yajus or karma, and Samans or worship.)

860. Pavamana Soma Devata, Parashara Shaktya Ṛshi

Somam gāvo dhenavo vāvaśānāḥ somaṁ viprā matibhiḥ pṛcchamānaḥ. Somaḥ suta ṛcyate pūyamānaḥ some arkāstriṣṭubhaḥ saṁ navante.

Dynamic and creative languages of love and faith celebrate Soma, the languages of scholars enquiring into reality with thought and analysis concentrate on Soma. It is Soma which, distilled from observation and experience and crystallised in nature and function, is sought to be comprehended or apprehended in the language medium. Indeed all speech media of description, definition, comprehension, apprehension, celebration or adoration arise from Soma and merge into Soma. (Rg. 9-97-35)

The dynamics of the lord's creation instantly in motion, energising the sleeping existences, joyous and joyously moving everything to ecstatic being, all together move across the web of life conceived and created by the lord omnipotent, Indra. Not without Indra does any particle, any wave, any world, move pure and sacred as it is. (Rg. 9-69-6)

Sākam ukṣo marjayanta svasāro daśa dhīrasya dhītayo dhanutrīḥ. Hariḥ paryadravajjāḥ sūryasya droṇaṁ nanakṣe atyo na vājī.

Ten generous, agile, spontaneous and simultaneous sister faculties of the self-controlled, self-established yogi together concentrate, communicate and glorify Hari, Soma spirit of divine joy that eliminates want and suffering, and the Spirit, pervading the vibrations of divinity, the light born of the sun, radiates like a constant wave, reaches and settles in the heart core of the blessed soul, the seat of divinity. (The faculties are faculties of perception, thought and will which normally wander over the world of outside reality but which are controlled, concentrated and inverted in meditation and focussed on the presence of divinity within, and then the presence reveals itself in all its refulgent glory.) (Rg. 9-93-1)

1419. Pavamana Soma Devata, Nodha Gautama Ṛshi

Saṁ mātṛbhir na śiśur vāvaśāno vṛṣā dadhanve puru varo adbhiḥ. Maryo na yoṣām abhi niṣkṛtaṁ yantsaṁ gacchate kalaśa usriyābhiḥ.

Like a child fulfilled and secure with mother's and grandmother's love, the loving Soma, generous treasure home of universal gifts of life, fulfils the celebrant with showers of pranic energy and, like a lover meeting his lady love, blesses his consecrated heart, and therein vibrates with the dedicated soul with divine radiations of light in thought, word and deed. The radiations of light, currents of energy and the words of wisdom all shine and elevate the soul in all situations of life with spiritual food as they shower him with the wealth and honours of immaculate order. (Rg. 9-93-3)

1421. Indra Devata, Medhyatithi Kanva Ṛshi

Pibā sutasya rasino matsvā na indra gomataḥ. Āpirno bodhi sadhamādye vṛdhe ३'smāँ̆ avantu te dhiyaḥ.

Indra, resplendent and mighty, karma yogi, great performer, come and have a drink of our delicious festive soma distilled and mixed with milk and cream, share the ecstasy in the yajnic halls, enlighten us, your own people, for progress and prosperity, and may your thoughts and wisdom protect, promote and guide us in life. Trirasmai sapta dhenavo duduhrire satyāmāśiraṁ parame vyomani. Catvāryanyā bhuvanāni nirṇije cārūṇi cakre yadṛtair avardhata.

Thrice seven 'cows', creative powers of natural evolution, generate the milky strain of vitality added to the evolving reality in the service of the creator Soma in the cosmic yajna in absolute time and space, Soma who also created four other beautiful orders of existence for the glory and sanctity of existence which grows by the laws of cosmic dynamics. (Rg. 9-70-1)

(The seven cows may be interpreted as the seven evolutes of Prakrti: mahan, ahankara and five subtle elements of ether or akasha, energy or vayu, fire or agni, water or apah, and earth or prthivi. Three are orders of sattva or thought, rajas or motion, and tamas or matter. This makes the thrice seven, the four other beautiful orders of existence may be interpreted as mana (mind), buddhi (discriminative intelligence), chitta (memory) and ahankara (I-sense or existential personality). Another interpretation could be the four Vedas, knowledge, the corresponding order of existence in terms of awareness and expression.)

1424. Pavamana Soma Devata, Renu Vaishvamitra Ṛshi

He, loving, sharing and pervading the immortal beauty of existence, orders and adorns both heaven and earth with his art, intelligence and poetic sublimity, also vesting the vapours of the middle regions with his might and splendour. Those who know the reality of the lord's creation alongwith his power, love and generosity really know and share the bliss. (Rg. 9-70-2)

O Soma, pure and purifying, resounding across the spaces, flow, sung and celebrated, and bring peace, progress and fulfilment to humanity, to the man of vibrant enthusiasm, to the man of love and judgement. To humanity, bring readiness of intellect and understanding, firm and undisturbed yet dynamic like a master of the chariot sitting at peace, unmoving and undisturbed, while the chariot may be speeding at the velocity of light. So also flow to Indra, master ruler of the arms of thunder, virile and generous, mighty yet calm. (Rg. 9-97-49) existence. Vibrant lord of the knights of horse, that joy of the drink of life is exciting, the very thrill of being. Lord virile and generous, you are the shower of bliss and that soma is soothing like the moon, tempestuous as waves of energy, yes, and a thousand-fold invitation to live, the call of life, for you. Indra, ruler and protector of the world, great you are, valiant and generous, dispenser, disposer, giver and unifier. Inspire and accelerate the chariot of humanity. Heroic and courageous lord of challenges, burn the lawless brute with your light and lustre of justice as the blaze of fire burns an empty vessel on the hearth (because there is nothing in it except its empty self). (Rg. 1-175-3)

Agni, save us by the first voice, and by the second, by three voices, and, O lord of cosmic power, ultimate haven and home of existence, protect and promote us by the four. (Rg. 8-60-9)

(This is a very simple and yet a most comprehensive verse. The first voice could be the voice of average humanity; second, words of the sages; third, voice of the soul; fourth, the voice of divinity. Another way to understand: One, two, three or all the four Veda's voice. Yet another: voice of the soul in the rising sequence of the four mantras of Aum as described in the Upanishads. And then the four stages of language in the descending order from divine to the human: Para, Pashyanti, Madhyama and Vaikhari.)

Indra, lord of life, power and prosperity, you promote and overfill the yajna and bless the yajamana like the deep sea and protect the earths, cows and the grass for them. As a good cowherd protects and feeds the cows and guards the fodder for the cows, so do you, O man, protect and promote the yajna. And as the cows gain the food, and as the rivers and rivulets reach the sea for self-fulfilment, so would you enjoy the delicacies of life and reach the Lord, Indra, for self-fulfilment. Ashvins, scientist and technologist of fire and water, both of you thus from the sun create the mantra, light and energy and bring it for us and the people for common use. (Rg. 1-92-17)

1737. Agni Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Ṛshi

अग्निं तं मन्ये यो वसुरस्तं यं यन्ति धेनवः। अस्तमर्वन्त आशवोऽस्तं नित्यासो वाजिन इषं स्तोतृभ्य आ भर॥ १७३७॥

Agniṁ taṁ manye yo vasur astaṁ yaṁ yanti dhenavaḥ. Astam arvanta āśavo'staṁ nityāso vājina iṣaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Agni is that power and presence of energy, I believe, which pervades everything and in which and by which all things abide and function. The cows abide in it, move by it and end up into it. Horses abide in it, move by it and end into it. So do all fast moving streams and objects, permanent forms, and all forms of energy move by it and retire into it. O scholar of Agni, universal energy, produce and bring up food and energy for the celebrants and supplicants for Agni. This energy is originally set in motion by Agni, the Cosmic omnipotent Spirit. (In the mantra agni is described as astam, i.e., set into motion.) (Rg.5-6-1)

अग्निर्हि वाजिनं विशे ददाति विश्वचर्षणिः। अग्नी राये स्वाभुवं स प्रीतो याति वार्यमिषं स्तोतृभ्य आ भर॥ १७३८॥

Agnir hi vājinaṁ viśe dadāti viśvacarṣaṇiḥ. Agnī rāye svābhuvaṁ sa prīto yāti vāryam iṣaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

Agni, light and energy of existence, alone provides fast modes of transport for the people. Studied and developed for wealth, Agni provides automatic and self-sustaining energy for the people. O scholar scientist, create and bring choice foods and energies for the celebrants and supplicants. (Rg. 5-6-3)

1739. Agni Devata, Vasushruta Atreya Ṛshi

So agnir yo vasurgṛṇe saṁ yam āyanti dhenavaḥ. Sam arvanto raghudruvaḥ saṁ sujātāsaḥ sūraya iṣaṁ stotṛbhya ā bhara.

That is Agni which is the abiding power, pervasive and moving force, and that is what I study and celebrate. The cows and horses, stars and planets and the rays of light, and sound and word come from, move by and go unto it, from which and into which and by which the slow moving ones move and function; and by which and toward which brave and eminent scholars rise to fame and create and produce the wealth of food and energy for the celebrants and supplicants. (Rg. 5-6-2)

(Rg. 5- 79-1)

(Swami Dayananda interprets this mantra as an address to the lady of the house.)

Daughter of the light of heaven, lady of justice and moral guidance who ride a chariot of pure brilliance, as you have shone before, so may you ever shine now and after in future, O lady, forbearing and challenging, renowned for truth and righteousness, extensive, nobly born and blest with prosperity, achievement and discrimination between truth and untruth of thought and speech. O creators and makers of the sweets of existence, the celebrant prays: Listen to my song of adoration and accept the invitation to live and create the joy of life. (Rg.5-75-1)

Agni is seen and known while rising by the burning samidhas lighted by the yajakas at dawn coming up like a cow early in the morning, and the flames, like branches of a mighty tree, rise brilliantly and touch the sky where there is no pain, no darkness. (Rg. 5-1-1)

When the pure and lustrous fire of yajna, as the sun, rises with its pure bright flames and takes over the reins of the conduct of the yajnic world around, then the invigorating and powerful dakshina offering is made with the ladles, the flames of fire rise high, and the fire higher and higher up voraciously consumes the offering. (Rg. 5-1-3)

Here comes this dawn, light of lights, supreme, wonderful, bright and enlightening, rising and expanding. Just as the night comes over for regeneration of the sun, so does it uncover the womb of darkness for the coming of dawn. (Rg. 1-113-1)

1750. Usha Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Ṛshi

The bright dawn comes shining with light, bearing the bright sun new born. The dark night leaves its regions open for the light. Both, like sisters of the same one brother, immortal, assume their own form of light, one bright, the other covered and both come in succession, each retiring and succeeding the other. (Rg. 1-113-2)

1751. Usha Devata, Angirasa Kutsa Ṛshi

Samāno adhvā svasror anantas tam anyānyā carato devśiṣṭe. Na methete na tasthatuḥ sumeke naktoṣāsā samansā virūpe.

One and the same is the path of the two sisters, which is space, endless and infinite, existentially speaking, which they follow one after the other as ordained by the Divine. They neither overlap, nor encroach, nor clash, nor stand still for a moment. Fixed and firm, each on its own, and of harmonious nature are they, although the night and the dawn are of different forms which are apparently contradictory as light and darkness. (Rg. 1-113-3) adoration. O Ashvins, vitalities of divinity, reach here by chariot of the dawn and join the rising fire of the house-hold yajna of noble men and women.(Rg.5-76-1)

Ashvins, divinities of nature and humanity, most auspicious harbingers of peace and joy, invoked and invited to the yajna here, celebrated and adored, coming at the fastest, almost instantly reaching with protection and promotion at the rise of the day, you do not destroy, nor restrict, nor confine what has been refined, seasoned and sanctified by yajna. In fact, you bring safety and security against adversity and self-betrayal for the generous yajamana at his closest. (Rg. 5-76-2)

The seed of life lay in the waters, universal form, light and lustre of being which emerged on the earth. It established its own potential and power in the firmament. Thus does the seed of potent life raise and realize its voice and will to be in existence (bearing light of sun, lying in space, spatial waters, the oceans, in the firmament and on the earth).

When the sun in the third, highest, heaven, shining on the oceans and vapours in the skies with the light of its fervent rays reaches the clouds of vapour, then the blazing heat with pure and powerful energy catalyses the clouds and condenses the vapours into dear valuable drops that shower in rain upon the earth. Noble people of brilliant, generous and divine nature, help us to hear with our ears what is good and beneficial. Noble people dedicated to yajna, may we, by your favour and kindness see with our eyes what is good and elevating. May we, enjoying with firm and strong bodies and body parts, thanking the Lord Divine and praising the things given by Him live a full life fit for and blest by the divinities. (Rg. 1-89-8)

Foreword

Veda Bhashya by Prof. Tulsiram - A step to make Vedas available to the English World

I have had the privilege of going through some of the chapters of Yajurveda Bhashya written by Prof. Tulsiram, a well known Vedic scholar and author of English language and literature. I congratulate him because he has done this translation for an average English reader who is keen to know the Vedas. Knowledge of the Vedas is like the knowledge of science. Vedic language is a scientific language and nobody can understand that without the profound knowledge of Vedangas, especially Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini and Patanjali. Nobody can interpret the Veda mantras without these two. This translation proves that Prof. Tulsiram has done this insightful translation after doing hard work in both Vedangas.

In translating the Vedas, only literal meaning is just not sufficient, sometimes it may create confusion and contradiction. Prof. Tulsiram deeply merges himself into Vedic Mantras, thinking deeply about words, derivatives and analyzes the hidden nuances of meaning in their context. For example, 'Sumitriya na aapa oshadhayah santu…..Yajur. 36, 23': If we take literal meaning in the ordinary sense, "may the waters, vital forces of life, and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate", it will not make acceptable sense. After raising some questions, he says, "How can we accept this?" So, after going deeply into the words and context he gives this meaning of the said mantra: May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health system and immunity and let the same waters, tonics, pranic energies herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy, moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too help the negativities and injure us.

After giving the actual sense of the Mantra he writes that this Mantra is a reasonable prayer for the health programme of an advanced society, and then, logically in the next Mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Tacchakshurdevahitam purastat-Yajur.36, 24).

The translation by Prof. Tulsiram is without any extraneous motive and without any extra-academic intention. The translation has been done purely as communication of the Vedic message for the welfare of mankind.

While giving his opinion on the Vedas Prof. Tulsiram writes in his Introduction….Veda is the Voice of God revealed in scientific Vedic Sanskrit free from local color and historical facts, therefore Vedic language is to be interpreted and understood according to its own laws and structure, and the only key available for such interpretation is the Nirukta of Maharshi Yaska and the grammar of Panini & Patanjali. According to Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati, 'without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation certain words have been given a distorted meaning in the translations of Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney and even Sayana.' Actually the torch light for proper translation today, as Aurobindo says, is the Arsha tradition followed by Maharshi Dayananda Saraswati.

At the end I will say that this translation of Yajurveda, based on Nirukta and Grammar, follows the known ancient Indian tradition. It is factual, without prejudice or hidden motive. Prof. Tulsiram thinks deeply on every word of the mantra, looks into the context and etymology according to Nirukta and then does the translation. I congratulate him on this one more pioneering step to make the knowledge of Vedas available to the western world and the average English knowing reader. May God give him long and healthy life so that he continues to do this kind of stupendous work.

About Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma's English translation of the Yajurveda

I feel myself fortunate and blest with the Grace of God that I received a few pages of the English translation by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma with introduction of the Yajurveda. The comparative views expressed by him about the Vedas are essential for every student of the Veda since it is a further pointer to scientific research in the field of Vedic interpretation.

Its conclusion is true: "In short Veda is an eternal articulation of omniscience, the voice of God". Each work of Prasthana Trayi i.e. Vedanta, Upanishads and Gita is not a take off from the Vedas but a continuation of Vedic studies in its own context of meditation, meditative teaching and a rousing call to action in a situation of karmic crisis. This English translation is a welcome addition to Vedic studies opening truly a new path establishing with ease the Vedas in the service of humanity.

English Translation of Vedic Hymns: An Opinion

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has taken an uphill task of translating all the four Vedas in lucid and thought provoking English. Most of the translations of Vedas by European scholars depend on the ritualistic meaning given by the medieval commentators like Sayana and others. But Dr. Sharma has taken a new course of translation. He agrees with the idea that the Yajurveda basically propounds the theory of Karma which it explains as Yajna, which neither denotes sacrifice nor mere ritual (Agnihotra etc.). The term Yajna carries a threefold meaning: the worship of God, unification of diverse factors of human society, selfless charity and replenishment of nature and the environment.

The hymns of the Yajurveda carry lofty ideas of spiritual and ethical significance. Most of these mantras are, however, complicated and tough. It is difficult to make out useful meaning and draw important conclusion out of the text. But Dr. Sharma has fully succeeded in drawing out the natural and meaningful content of these mantras. In brief I can say that the present translation of the Vedas will be appreciated by the scholars of this Vedic lore as well as by the lay man who wants to understand the deep meaning of the Vedic texts or at least the basic knowledge hidden in these ancient works. It is all the more satisfying that Dr. Sharma has followed the dicta laid down by Maharshi Yaska and Swami Dayananda Saraswati in translating and explaining the inner wisdom of the sacred mantras.

AUM

It has been gratifying to go through the English translation of the Vedas rendered by Dr Tulsi Ram Sharma in as much as it conveys to the English-knowing world effectively the profound meaning and transcendental secrets enshrined in the Vedas. The most salient feature of this translation is its simple and lucid English. The Vedic words have been expounded here following the yaugik method of the Arsh tradition set up by Yaska, Panini and Patanjali (as opposed to the rudhi method which takes only the historically fixed meanings of words caring little for the context and the subject). As per the Arsh tradition name words like Agni, Vayu, Indra, Marut, etc., are synonyms indicating the various attributive names of the One that is the greatest and the most comprehensive 'Tattva' of existence, the Cosmic Spirit. It was Maharshi Dayananda who for the first time after Yaska and Patanjali advocated and followed this principle of interpretation on the basis of ancient supporting material. Dr. Sharma has religiously stuck to this theory while unfolding the truths enshrined in the Vedas. Obviously Dr Sharma's interpretation of Vedic hymns enjoys the authenticity of the Arsh tradition and challenges the western Vedic perspective and the medieval Indian interpretations of the Vedas which now need to be seriously reviewed in our present day context of science and inter-cultural communication

Message

Above the narrow boundaries of country, time, caste and creed, the Vedas have been a treasure house of eternal universal knowledge and spiritual wisdom. There have been numerous attempts by Indians and foreigners to make the knowledge of these Vedas available to the people at large. Among them the Vedic commentaries of the great social and spiritual leader, Maharshi Dayananda are the best works in this field. Inspired by Swami Dayananda, the translation of the Yajurveda into English by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma is a commendable work in this line. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has been a great devotee of sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, and various philosophies. His life long study of the Vedas has given him deep insight into Vedic philosophy. His translation of the Yajurveda reveals it fully. Here he has translated the Yajurveda, the Veda of Karma, in such a way that even a common reader can grasp its essence. He has very effectively brought out how this Veda teaches us to apply spiritual knowledge in practical life. Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma deserves our congratulations and best wishes for having done translation of all the four Vedas in simple and clear English for the international community.

APPRECIATION

I have gone through some chapters of the English translation of Yajurveda by Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma. As he has stated at the very beginning of the Introduction, this translation of Yajurveda is meant for an average English-knowing reader who is keen to know: What is Veda? What is it about? Is it old or new? To achieve this object, he has followed the Arsh method of interpretation. Accordingly, for example, he has mostly followed the etymological method of literal translation. But whenever he finds that the literal is not helpful in achieving his intended objective, he adds the implied explanation so that the essence of the Vedic hymn is quite clear. For example, his translation of, 'Yathemam Vacham Kalyanimavadani janebhyah' is rendered as follows-'Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world, whosoever, whatsoever, where so ever they be'. That is the technique of Swami Dayananda also.

I regard Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma as one in the commendable line of Pundit Damodar Satavalekara who studied Sanskrit at a mature age and did unique work in that language. Dr. Sharma has also mastered the Sanskrit language after his retirement and done full justice to the translation of the Veda. He richly deserves our gratefulness, our expression of gratification and our appreciation for succeeding in his sacred mission of presenting an understandable, logical and above all sensible English translation of Vedas which hitherto was unavailable. Thus a long felt need has been fulfilled. I am sure Dr Sharma's method of translation will not only be widely approved but will also be followed by others while translating the Vedas in other languages.

Sadbhavana (Good wishes)

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma, is a profound scholar of English, Hindi, Sanskrit and Urdu. But his heart felt devotion goes to sacred literature, especially Vedas, Upanishads, Darshan Philosophy, Puranas, Ramayana, and Mahabharata with concentration on the Bhagwad Gita, Greek, Roman, Sumerian and English Epics, Gathas of Zarathustra, Bible, Quran and the writings of Swami Dayananda and Swami Vivekananda, in search of the essential values of Veda and Sanatan Vedic Dharma. It seems his real spirit and scholarly interest lies in the interpretation of the Vedas. I have gone through some portions of his English translation of Yajurveda and on perusal of this translation, I have marked two characterizing features:

1. His language is perfectly lucid and
2. His translation is faithful to the word and spirit of the Mantras.

Dr. Tulsi Ram Sharma has very correctly observed, "Veda is knowledge of existence, pure and simple, as Science is knowledge. Science is the knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In Science, there is no story, no history. Similarly, in the Vedas, there is no story, no history. And just as Science is knowledge in Scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations of form and meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language, free from local colour and historical variations."

Veda is 'Knowledge' and knowledge is eternal. The interpretation of the Vedas requires the knowledge of the Arsh technique as explained by the Rshis like Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo.

As Veda is pure knowledge, so is this translation in theArsh tradition, free from myth and history with no local colour, no attitude, no motive, except pure communication of the Original for all.

With best wishes to the author and specially to the readers,

–Umakant Upadhyaya
Formerly Professor of Economics,
Calcutta University.

To the Reader

This translation of the 'Hymns of Yajurveda' is an English Version of the Yajurveda for the common reader who wants to acquaint himself or herself with the content of this divine message of the dynamics of Karma, both human and divine, in the context of the nature, structure and purpose of the universe and the condition and position of the human being in it. While the opening mantra launches the human being on life with the exhortation: "Be vibrant as the winds", the closing mantra seals the success of vibrant humanity in action with the final achievement of "Om Kham Brahma" with Grace Divine.

Life according to the Yajurveda is a journey from the beginning-less beginning to the endless end with the message:

Immortal child of Divinity,
Your roots go deep to Eternity,
Your reach is unto Infinity.
And your path is up and onwards,
Never never downwards.

This version is a scientific translation of the text within the parameters of Yaska and Dayananda with rational understanding of Sayana at the one end and the western scholars at the other. Sayana's translation is ritualistic especially with reference to yajna. It came at a time when the "Renaissance, Re-awakening of Learning" was far off, not yet just at the next door. Even communication between the East and the West was not as hectic as it became after the advent of the East India Company into India. Thus mutual criticism and appreciation too was silent rather than vocal. Hence Ritualism was just the thing acceptable to a society settled on the side of stagnation more than of fermentation.

Ritual, of course, is sacred. It is the most meticulous programme of action in pursuit of a holistic plan of life and living which arises from a spiritual vision of Divinity. It is conducted with unreserved commitment of will in faultless action, and completed with total surrender in absolute faith. For this reason yajna in Veda and Upanishad, is described as the highest human action, "Shreshthatamam karma". This view is accepted in this translation too. But in addition, an extended interpretation of the same view of yajna is incorporated and followed in the light of Swami Dayananda, and also as warranted by the exhortation in the opening mantra: "Apply yourself to the highest form of action, yajna, in the service of Indra, lord of the universe, for the glory of the human nation". The highest actions in the world of existence, the creative evolution of the universe under the immanent presiding presence of Divinity, and the total corporate action of humanity for progress, peace and freedom, all this is yajna. And this idea leads us to discover for ourselves and understand the science, art and technology of participative living for progress, from the individual level, through the social, to the cosmic, as universal Yajna, human, natural and divine.

There may or may not be an escape from Sayana, but there is no possible escape from Dayananda, and even from westerners especially for the sake of caution and self correction.

I respect the western translators for their clarity and their art of communication. In addition, I find that they did recognise that the ideal way to interpret and explain the Sanskrit words of Indian scriptures such as Vedas was to trace back every word to its root, deconstruct and reconstruct it with the addition of the affixes, and then structurally explain its meaning. That precisely was the approach of Yaska, Panini, Patanjali and Swami Dayananda. Monier Williams, author of the well known Sanskrit English Dictionary, himself admired the Indians for their scientific approach to language, specially Sanskrit:

"I draw attention at the very threshold to the fact that the Hindus are perhaps the only nation, except for the Greeks, who have investigated, independently and in a truly scientific manner, the general laws which govern the evolution of language." (Introduction, p. xii)

He continues in relation to Sanskrit: "The synthetical process which comes into operation in the working of those laws may be well called Samskarana, 'putting together', by which I mean that every single word in the highest type of language (called Sanskrita) is first evolved out of a primary 'Dhatu'—a Sanskrit term usually translated as 'Root', but applicable to any primordial constituent substance, whether of words, or rocks, or living organisms, and then, being so evolved, goes through a process of 'putting together' by the combination of other elementary constituents." [Sanskrit, thus, becomes a language correspondence of the evolution, structure and dynamics of the world of reality, and Veda as articulation of the reality of existence.]

"Furthermore, the process of 'putting together' implies, of course, the possibility of a converse process of vyakarana. by which I mean 'undoing' or decomposition (deconstruction), that is to say, the resolution of every root-evolved word into its component elements. So that in endeavouring to exhibit these processes of synthesis and analysis, we appear to be engaged, like a chemist, in combining elementary substances into solid forms, and again in resolving these forms into their constituent ingredients." (p. xii). And in respect of this special character, Sanskrit, he says, is a different language from the Semitic languages (of which the Bible and the Quran are expressions).

And yet, in spite of this clear understanding of Sanskrit, an Arsha dictionary remained with him only "a beautiful philological dream, a dream, however, which could not receive practical shape without raising the Lexicon to a level of scientific perfection unsuited to the needs of ordinary students." (p. xiii)

Why unsuited? The answer lies in his mission and the main object of his mission. The scientific way of interpretation and explanation was counter to the purpose for which Monier WiIliams was appointed Professor of Sanskrit at Oxford where he occupied the Boden Chair after H.H.Wilson who had been a member of the Committee of Public Instruction in India under Lord Macaulay as Chairman and Lord William Bentinck as Governor General of India. And then English had been accepted and introduced as the medium as well as the content of Education.

Monier Williams says: "One consideration which led my predecessor (Professor H.H.Wilson) to pass on to me his project of a root-arranged Lexicon was that, on being elected to the Boden Chair, he felt that the elaboration of such a work would be incompatible with the practical objects for which the Boden Professorship was founded. . . The main object was really a missionary one, as I have shown in the Preface of this volume." (p. xi)

The object, Professor Williams explains in the Preface to his Dictionary (p. ix): "I must draw attention to the fact that I am only the second occupant of the Boden Chair, and that its founder, Colonel Boden, stated most explicitly in his will (dated August 15, 1811) that the special object of his munificent bequest was to promote the translation of the Scriptures (that is, the Bible) into Sanskrit, so as 'to enable his countrymen to proceed in the conversion of the natives of India to the Christian Religion'.

"Surely then it need not be thought surprising, if following in the footsteps of my venerated master, I have made it the chief aim of my professional life to provide facilities for the translation of our sacred Scriptures into Sanskrit, and for the promotion of a better knowledge of the religions and customs of India as the best way to a knowledge of the religious needs of our great Eastern Dependency (India). My very first public lecture delivered after my election (to the Boden Chair) in 1860 was on 'The Study of Sanskrit in Relation to Missionary Work in India' (published in 1861)". (pp. xxi)

For any student of Veda, specially in India, in fact anywhere, it is difficult to overlook the words of Monier Williams in the Preface and Introduction to his Dictionary of Sanskrit, for the reason that from translation of Christian Scriptures into

Sanskrit with a missionary motive, the translation of Sanskrit Scriptures into English was but the next and 'logical' step with that same missionary motive of conversion, one to extol, the other to denigrate:

One example, of extolment, is the following translation of the Bible, 'The Gospel according to John':

Yohana-likhitaḥ Susamvādaḥ;
Īshvarasya vākyam Yishor mahatvam avatāra kathā ca.

Jesus here is presented as an Avatara, someone a very God for the traditional Hindu, although the Gospel does not mention the incarnation at all. (The translation of The Bible in Sanskrit by J.Wenger is available on the internet.)

The other example, of denigration, is given here below from W.D. Whitney's translation of the Atharvaveda (7, 107, 1) edited and revised by K.L. Joshi, published by Parimal Publications, Delhi, 2004:

Namaskṛtya dyāvāpṛthivībhyāmantarikṣāya mṛtyave.
Mekṣāmyūrdhvastiṣṭhan mā mā hinsiṣhurīśvarāḥ.

"Having paid homage to heaven and earth, to the atmosphere, to Death, I will urinate standing erect; let not the Lords (Ishvara) harm me."

I give below an English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Satavalekara in Hindi:

"Having done homage to heaven and earth and to the middle regions and Death (Yama), I stand high and watch (the world of life). Let not my masters hurt me."

An English rendering of the same mantra translated by Pundit Jai Dev Sharma in Hindi is the following:

"Having done homage to heaven and earth (i.e. father and mother) and to the immanent God and Yama (all Dissolver), standing high and alert, I move forward in life. These masters of mine, pray, may not hurt me."

I would like to quote my own translation of the mantra now under print:

"Having done homage to heaven and earth, and to the middle regions, and having acknowledged the fact of death as inevitable counterpart of life under God's dispensation, now standing high, I watch the world and go forward with showers of the cloud. Let no powers of earthly nature hurt and violate me."

'Showers of the cloud' is a metaphor, as in Shelley's poem 'the Cloud': "I bring fresh showers for the thirsting flowers", which suggests a lovely rendering.

The problem here arises from the verb 'mekshami' from the root 'mih' which means 'to shower' (sechane). It depends on the translator's sense and attitude to sacred writing how the message is received and communicated in an interfaith context with no strings attached (or unattached).

This extolment and denigration was happening around the time when the English language, English education and missionary work had been introduced into India and was raging on top. Swami Dayananda faced this challenge with boldness and caution, still with an open mind, all prepared even for correction. He based his interpretation of the Vedas on Nirukta and the etymological principles of word interpretation, and interpretation of the word in the context, both local and total, because the local is an integral part of the total whole.

We are living in an age of science and reason, democracy and freedom, globalism and global communication, and we feel the need for a free and frank interfaith dialogue. In such an age, ritualism and mythology is not enough. If we want to understand and present Veda as a body of universal knowledge and articulation of divine awareness of existence, there is no escape from Yaska, Panini, Patanjali, Dayananda and Aurobindo, because they provide the key principles and practice of scientific interpretation of an ancient scientific language such as Vedic Sanskrit which has no historical parallel for comparison. The language of science tells no stories, no myths. It states the truth pure and simple. Hence the resort to Swami Dayananda, either before or after Sayana and the western scholars, is indispensable.

There is one observation I must make on Swami Dayananda. Swami Dayananda has given a socio-economic orientation to the Vedic mantras because he underscores the relevance of the Vedas to the social, economic and political situation of humanity, especially in India, which was necessary and highly meaningful. For example, the Ashwins, in general, are the complementary powers of nature and humanity working as twin forces like the positive and negative currents of electricity, or like the theoretician and the laboratory man, or the curative and recuperative powers of medicine and nature's powers of rejuvenation. Swami Dayananda often explains such powers in the interest of practical understanding: he defines them as teacher and preacher, or father and mother, sun and moon, fire and water, prana and Apana energy, ruler and council, scientist and engineer, and so on, depending on the mantra context. Sometimes it appears as if he is delimiting the open-ended general meaning of the Veda. But we should be careful before we say so, and realise that the definiteness of his meaning is illustrative and in no way exhaustive. In this translation such situations have been appreciated and the meaning has been kept open ended, inclusive of the meanings given by Swami Dayananda, as suggested by Yaska and the etymology of the terms. In short, this translation has been done with cautious reference to Sayana, under the guidance of Swami Dayananda, with respect for Pundit Satavalekara and with very careful observance of the western anglers.

Pundit Satavalekara comes in between Sayana and swami Dayananda for his excellent syntactic structures of mantra meanings in continuous Hindi. But he explains words such as Indra, Agni, Ashwins, Vrtra, Trita, Bhujyu, Kashyapa, Jamadagni, etc. as proper names so that the mantra appears to be a mythical or historical statement of either fact or fiction. But Swami Dayananda interprets these terms in the yaugic manner and explains them as scientific terms of the forms, functions, orders and attributes of the powers of existence representing the manifestive diversity of one Divinity and one Prakrti in the state of objective existence. These words are not historical names, because the time context of the creation of the Vedas remains unknown beyond history and imagination as even Max Muller confessed in his Gifford lectures in 1890.

This translation respects the entire tradition of Vedic interpretation, and under the guidance of this tradition takes Vedic interpretation to the original level of scientific rationality in the context of modern consciousness, modern language and global culture, a message both sanatan and, at the same time, modern (ref. Atharva, 10,8,23).

Take just one example of the problem I have faced, with the solution I have suggested: Yajurveda (36, 23) says, if we take the literal meaning in the ordinary sense: "May the waters, pranic energies and herbs be friendly to us and may they be enemies to those who hate us and whom we hate." How can we accept this? How can the same waters, tonics and herbs be good friends to us and enemies to those we hate or those who hate us? Medicine is medicine after all. This is excellent stuff for a translator who believes that Vedic poetry is nothing but the voice of a tribal society in the barbaric, not civilized, state of social evolution. But let us think deeply. What is the context? Who are our enemies in that context? Who or what are those that injure us? What are those we hate or want to injure and destroy? The context is health. In the context of health, they are the ailments, diseases, germs and bacteria, viruses, negativities and side effects of medicines in our system. So the correct and scientific interpretation in the context of health would be: "May waters, tonics, pranic energies and medicinal herbs be good friends of our health and immunity system and let the waters, tonics, pranic energies and herbal medicines act against those ailments, diseases and negativities which injure us, which we hate to suffer and which we love to destroy. Moreover let them have no side effects because side effects too aggravate the negativities and injure us." This is the reasonable prayer and health programme of an advanced society. And then, logically in the next mantra, follows the prayer for a full hundred years and more of life and healthy living (Yajurveda, 36, 24). Veda thus is food for thought.

In human terms: If a legendary celebrity can admire another human figure as "inscrutable, apocalyptic, a mysterious poem written in flesh and blood", how much more – infinitely more– mysterious, inscrutable, apocalyptic would be the Cosmic Poem (Devasya Kavyah) created in the language of the Ultimate Vision?

Veda is a Cosmic Poem: the more we know, the more we know the Veda, and the more we know the Veda, the more we know.

Indeed, every reader should stand before the Veda, every verse of It in fact, as Arjuna stood before the Cosmic Krishna, waiting and watching intently, for the burst of a thousand suns, for the Dawn on top of the Earth, for the Revelation.

May the light burst forth, I pray.

Introduction

This translation of Yajurveda is meant for an average English knowing reader who is keen to know:

What is Veda? What is it all about? Is it old or new? If it's old, what is its relevance today? And if it is relevant, is it relevant to me also? Or is it relevant only to some particular community in some particular country at some particular time.

These are relevant questions especially in an age of science, democracy and globalism.

Veda is Knowledge. The very word 'Veda' means knowledge. It is derived from the root 'vid', which means: 'to be, to know, to think, and to benefit from'.

So whatever is, is Veda, the very world of existence is Veda. The knowledge of the world of existence is Veda. The extension of knowledge through thought and research further is Veda. And to use that knowledge for the benefit of mankind with the protection and preservation of nature and environment, without hurting any form of life, that is Veda.

Veda is knowledge pure and simple as science is knowledge. Science is knowledge of nature as nature is and as it works according to its own laws. In science, there is no story, no history. Similarly in the Veda, there is no story, no history. And just as science is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations of meaning, so Veda too is knowledge in scientific language free from local colour and historical variations. Therefore Vedic language has to be interpreted and understood according to the laws and technique of its own structure as stated by seers such as Yaska, Panini and Patanjali and as explained by Swami Dayananda in his grammatical works and his notes on Vedic words in his commentary on the Vedas.

But there is a difference between scientific knowledge and Vedic knowledge: While science is knowledge of nature to the extent that man has been able to discover it, Veda is the quintessential knowledge of all that is, including Nature, all that happens, all that we are, all that we do, and all that we reap in consequence of our action. It is the Original and Universal knowledge of the Reality of Existence and the Ideality of our aspirations, covering the facts and processes of existence, their interaction and the laws that operate in the interaction. In short, Veda is an eternal articulation of Omniscience, The Voice of God.

Vedic knowledge is classified thematically into three: Stuti, Prarthana and Upasana. Stuti is, praise, solemn reverential remembrance and description and celebration of the attributes, the nature, character and function of divine powers. Prarthana, prayer, is an autosuggestive resolution to realise our limitations and rise above those limitations by calling on Divinity for aid and blessings when we have exhausted our effort and potential. Upasana is meditation, the surrender of our limited identity to participate in the Divine Presence. Stuti implies knowledge (Janana), Prarthana implies humility and action (Karma), and Upasana implies total love and surrender (Bhakti). So formally Vedic knowledge is divided into four:

Rgveda is the Veda of Knowledge, Yajurveda is the Veda of Karma, Samaveda is the Veda of Bhakti, and Atharva-veda is Brahma Veda, an umbrella, celebrating the Divine Presence as in Book 10, hymns 7 and 8.

Yajurveda is Karma Veda, knowledge of the application of knowledge in practical living in a positive, creative and constructive manner at both the individual and the collective level. This way of living and working is "Yajna" which, in simple words, means a selfless and participative way of life and thereby creating the maximum out of the minimum for all, including nature, humanity, the environment and the whole universe, with complete faith in the living, breathing, self-organising, self-conscious, Sovereign System. Living the yajnic way, we realise that Nature is a tree, Ashwattha, and the entire cosmos including ourselves is a Purusha, and we as human beings are but cells in this Divine Purusha. Without living this way in a state of full awareness, we cannot realise that you and I, Mother Nature and the Supreme Brahma are all together, one in union and communion.

Vedic knowledge then is the Divine knowledge of existence from the dimensionless point and particle unto Infinity. And prayerful living and communion in meditation and yoga means: Self-integration of the particle, Re-integration of the part with the whole, and Re-Union of the finite with the Infinite.

This is the climactic close of Yajurveda: The light and life that shines in and beyond the sun is that Supreme Purusha. That is there, and that is here in me.

Om is the saviour. Om is Brahma. Brahma is Infinite, Sublime!

The message of Yajurveda begins with the rousing divine call to live: "Be vibrant as the winds!" But we must be gratefully vibrant: "O Lord we pray for and thank thee for the gift of food and energy for life, for the health and efficiency of body, mind and soul." All of us must dedicate ourselves to Savita, giver of life and light, with devotion to the highest, yajnic action, we must not hurt the cosmic 'Cow', and we must not allow a thief to boss over us and deprive us of our freedom of thought, word and deed.

As you open the text of Yajurveda, you find the words: Savita Devata, Prajapati Parameshthi Rshi. 'Devata' here means the subject which is dealt with in the mantra. 'Devata' as a Vedic term means a presence, a power, a force, which is brilliant, illuminative, and generous. The 'Devata' of a mantra may be God, the One Sacchidananda Brahma as in the closing mantra quoted above, or Savita, the same One self-refulgent God as in the opening mantra; or it can be a generous divine power of Nature such as the sun, moon, earth; or it can be a noble person of brilliant quality of nature, character and performance as a ruler, leader, commander, teacher, etc. What the 'Devata' means in any particular mantra depends on the total context that emerges from the mantra.

Prajapati Parameshthi is the Rshi of the opening mantra. The Rshi in the Arsh tradition is not the author of the mantra, Rshi is the exponent of the meaning of the mantra. As Maharshi Yaska says in the Nirukta, Rishis are the 'seers of the mantras': they are the sages who went into deep meditation unto the universal frequency of the Cosmic Mind and experienced the voice of Divinity speaking in the mantra; the mantra, a Semantic correspondence of the Divine Voice; the Divine Voice, a sound correspondence of Divine Awareness of the Reality of Existence in the modes of Being and Becoming.

Who then is the poet of the Vedas? The answer is in Yajurveda 40, 8: That Cosmic Spirit which pervades and rules every moving particle in the moving universe is "the poet, thinker, all-comprehending, and self-existent". That is the Lord who creates the world of existence, ordains the Laws of its dynamics, and reveals the poetry of its beauty and majesty, the Vedas. "From that Lord of universal yajna were born the Rks and Samans. From Him were born the chhandas of Atharva-veda and from Him were born the Yajus" (Yajurveda 31, 7). The Vedic lore comes in Pura-kalpa, the beginning of the world of humanity (Shvetashvataropanishad, 6, 22) and when its function is over at the end of the kalpa, one cycle of existence, it retires into Brahma-loka (Atharva-veda 19, 71, 1).

The Vedas were revealed by the Lord Omniscient to four primeval Rshis: Rgveda to Agni, Yajurveda to Vayu, Samaveda to Aditya, and Atharva-veda to Angira, directly in their spiritual consciousness. The Sage Brahma received and collected the four from them and passed them on to other sages.

When were the Vedas revealed? What is their age? How old are they? As old as the age of humanity on earth. The Lord who creates humanity leaves them not to nature like animals. He enlightens them with the knowledge of existence and their place in the world, with the vision of their journey, and its culmination.

Swami Dayananda works out the age of the Vedas on the basis of Surya Siddhanta which in the year 2010 A.D. comes to 1,96,08,53,110 years. If someone does not accept it and insists on historical proof, we learn the problem but no possibility of solution on scientific and historical grounds from Max Muller, a world renowned Vedic scholar and exegesist of the West: Max Muller once ventured to pronounce a purely arbitrary date based on unproven assumptions that around 1200 B.C. was the date of the Rgveda. Later, he himself warned his students that "Whether the Vedic Hymns were composed in 1000 or 1500 or 2000 B.C., no power on earth could ever fix .... Whatever may be the date of the Vedic hymns... they have their own unique place and stand by themselves". The daring presumptions of western scholars about the date of the Vedas are exposed by Graham Hancock in his latest researches, in his book: Underworld : The Mysterious Origins of Civilization (2002). If no history, no Science, no human imagination can help, better follow the sages, tradition, Surya Siddhanta, and the daily sankalpa of the dedicated Brahmanas, and lastly follow the internal evidence of the Vedas themselves: Vedas are the Original, Universal, Eternal articulation of Divinity, by Divinity, for humanity at the beginning of human creation.

Since Vedas are the oldest recorded knowledge of the world, no one can guess how much time, even ages, might have passed between the Vedas and the next work in Sanskrit. If so, there is no other work in Sanskrit comparable to the Vedas. Consequently the language of any other work would not provide any clue for the interpretation of Veda mantras. Vedic language then has to be interpreted on its own, and the only key available for such independent interpretation is the Nirukta and Nighantu of Maharshi Yaska, the grammatical works of Pinini and Patanjali, and Swami Dayananda's notes in his commentary on Vedic verses explaining the structure and meaning of words. Without reference to these bases of Vedic interpretation, certain words have been given a very twisted meaning in other translations, by Max Muller, Griffith, Whitney, and even Sayana. The torch light for proper translation today is the Arsh tradition followed by Swami Dayananda.

The Arsh way is the only right way, the key, to discover the truth of the Vedas. According to Shri Aurobindo, Swami Dayananda alone, in modern times, possessed this key to the secret of the Vedas. Interpreted this way the Vedas shine in their essential scientific refulgence. As science is pure knowledge, no story, no history, no mythology, so are the Vedas, pure knowledge: knowledge of nature, mind, spirit, human society, Dharma, the dynamics of existence and the right way of living as individuals and as members of organised society upto the international level. Even Max Muller, though he was once committed to uprooting the religion of India by his arbitrary translation of Rigveda, had to admit in his Biographical Essays that: "To Swami Dayanand, everything contained in the Vedas was not only perfect truth, but he went one step further and, by their interpretation, succeeded in persuading others that everything worth knowing, even the most recent inventions of modern science, were alluded to in the Vedas. Steam Engines, Electricity, Telegraphy and Wireless Marconogram were shown to have been at least in the germ known to the poets of the Vedas". In fact Shri Aurobindo in his essay on "Dayananda and the Veda" goes even further: "There is nothing fantastic in Dayananda's idea that Veda contains truth of science as well as truth of religion (i.e., Dharma). I will even add my own conviction that Veda contains other truths of a Science the modern world does not at all possess, and in that case, Dayananda has rather understated than overstated the depth and range of the Vedic wisdom". (see Bankim, Tilak, Dayananda, p. 57).

The basic requirement of scriptural interpretation for us is faith and intellingential solemnity, not doubt and cynicism. This way, if we want to confirm our faith in the scientific vision of the Veda, refer to Rgveda 1, 34, 7 and 9 for three-stage rocket chariot of the Ashwins, to 1, 36, 18 for Agni missile, to 1, 37, 3 for winds and communication, to 1, 46, 10 for concentration of light, to 1, 52, 1 and 1, 36, 1 for the science of missile defence and space-craft, to 6, 46, 11 for missiles and war heads, and so on. Position of the solar system with planets and satellites, earth's and sun's gravitation, solar healing, parliamentary democracy, organisational structure of the nation and the international world, water and electric energy, and so many other subjects are hinted at in Vedic verses. We need serious research to work out the details. Had even Einstein read the Purusha Sukta of the Vedas and Brahma Sutras and Sankhya Vaisheshika philosophy, probably he would have found clues to his Unified Field theory of the universe.

Beyond faith and intelligential solemnity we need vision, potential Darshan of the Vedic Rshis. Once you have had the vision of truth, doubts disappear and questions recede into silence because then, nothing shines but the Truth, and Divinity Itself reveals It's Reality with showers of Grace. In this mood and in this spirit, I suggest, you start your search for Vedic Truth and the Mystery of Existence.

Lastly, if the Vedic lore is as old as humanity itself, what is its relevance today in the modern world? Ask yourself other questions: What is the relevance of Galileo or Newton or the Theory of Relativity, two plus two makes four, Swaraj, the Vedic word for freedom and self-discipline? Truth is truth, when the statement was made is irrelevant. Vedic truth, if you find it convincing and acceptable, is relevant not only for today but also for all time, to every person, everywhere.

Yajurveda itself says (26, 2):

"Yathemam vacham kalyanim avadani janebhyah":

Just as I speak (reveal) this auspicious holy Word of the Veda for all people (without any discrimination of high or low), so should you too communicate it to all people of the world whoever, whatever, wherever they be.

In this cosmic yajna of Lord Savita, holy fire and wind are two carriers of yajna, sanctified by the ceaseless showers of the purest rays of the sun. The holy waters electrified by the sun, raised by the fire and carried by the wind travel through space and sky and shower on the earth to feed the growth of life. May the same divine rays of the sun, fire and wind, and the holy water carry the yajna ever forward, and may these and the yajna bless the yajnapati to move ever onward with health, wealth and noble virtue.

In the cloud-break-up, Indra, the sun, raises the waters. On the break-up, the waters act under Indra, Sun and wind. The waters are holy and you are sanctified by the showers. I consecrate yajna for the sake of agni, fire. I sanctify yajna for the sake of agni and soma, fire and water. Be pure and seasoned for noble action, for godly yajna. If there be things gone impure and polluted, I purify the same with yajna for you.

14. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

The home of yajna is blessed. Evil is washed off. Selfishness and want is eliminated. Yajna is the shield of the earth, this home is the shield of the earth. Know this and the earth knows this and responds in covenant.

Yajna is the cloud in the vast sky, replete with water for the earth. It feeds and is fed by the greenery. It is the preserver of the earth and the sky. Know this and the yajna responds in covenant.

15. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Yajna is the metaphor of Agni in fire, wood and soma stone, speaking in the divine voice. I do it for the gods to receive the gift of divine bliss. Prepare, prepare the holy food for the fire. Offer it to the gods and receive the divine bliss. Come, come fragrance of life, from the flames of yajna-fire.

Lord of rain as you are, open for us the flood-gates of showers. Sin is washed off, miseries are gone, evil is eliminated. May the wind refine and carry your gifts around. May the Lord of life and light hold you fast and bless you with his hand of gold.

Firm as you are, hold the earth steady and advancing. Protect the Brahmana for knowledge, protect the Kshatriya for justice and peace, protect all mankind and living beings. I call upon you for the protection of life, for the destruction of the enemies of life.

Lord of yajna, Agni, you are the centre-hold of the universe. Accept our hymns of praise and worship. Expand the light and love in our heart. I hold on to you for the protection of knowledge, justice and love for all like myself and for the elimination of the enemies of the joy of life. Lord of the cosmic dance of existence, protect and extend our vision of higher knowledge, justice and love of life as ourselves, and eliminate the enemies of the joy of life. We hold on to you for freedom and fearlessness from all directions in time and space. Children of the earth, be sanctified in freedom and fearlessness in your heart and soul, be consecrated in the bright and blazing discipline of the energy of life and the law of existence.

Yajna is the source of joy, it is joy itself. Evil is eliminated, selfishness is eliminated. It is the protective cover of the earth. Let the children of the earth know this. The chant is the voice of omniscience. It is the light of heaven and main-stay of the stars. The chant is the music of the showers and the thunder of the clouds. Let the children of the earth know, let the beneficiaries of heaven know and realize.

20. (Savita Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

It is food consecrated by yajna, water purified by yajna. It is food for the gods, our body, senses, mind and soul. Take it for strength and energy, for smartness and vitality, for virtue and action toward a long and full life. May the Lord Savita, with His unstinted and generous hand, bless us with the gifts of light and life on the earth in abundance.

21. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

With the joint action of the light of the sun and the vital warmth of the earth, and with the up and down movement of the breath of air, I carry on a triple yajna in this creation of Lord Savita. The waters join and nourish the herbs, and the herbs join to produce the juices. The juices are mixed with the soothing herbs, and the soothing herbs with the honey-sweet juices. The yajna goes on. Keep it up and on for the sake of life and good health.

22. (Yajna Devata, Antyasya Aagni Sautram Devate Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

The yajna I perform is for the well-being and prosperity of all on earth. The materials I offer is for Agni, to atomize in the fire. It is for Agni and Soma, generative powers of nature, for the production of food. The fire of yajna is the life of the earth, it is universal. Expand it, O man, and join the generative powers of nature. May the Lord of Yajna, Agni, expand it for universal happiness. May the fire never injure your protection of body and wealth. May Lord Savita mature and perfect your yajna and bring about a very heaven of bliss on the earth.

Fear not, be firm in faith. Yajna is an act of faith. May the yajaman's children and other people be faithful. Keep it up for three: fire, action and the materials; for the purification of air and rain; and for the sole aim of happiness and well-being.

24. (Dyauvidyutau Devate, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। आददेऽध्वरकृतं देवेभ्यऽइन्द्रस्य बाहुरसि दक्षिणः सहस्त्र-भृष्टिः शततेजा वायुरसि तिग्मतेजा द्विषतो वधः ॥२४॥

In this world of Lord Savita's creation, I perform the sacred act of yajna for the well-being of the holy ones, for benefit from the light of the sun, soothing peace of the moon and the vital breath of air. It is the mighty arm of the sun working with a hundred thousand rays maturing the vegetation on earth. It is the caressing power of the wind and the generative shower of the clouds on all forms of life for growth and energy. It is the death of mutual opposition, the elimination of hate and resolution of contradictions.

25. (Savita Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Lord Savita of light and glory, I shall never do violence to the fertility of the earth, mother of vegetation. The earth is sacred, seat of yajna for the holiest of the holy. May the fragrance of yajna rise to the clouds and reach the sun and shower rain and light on the earth from heaven. On this holy seat of yajna, whoever oppresses us, and whom we oppose, bind him down with a hundred bonds and leave him not.

26. (Savita Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

I destroy the evil from the earth which is the holy seat of yajna. Go to the congregation for knowledge, and shower the rain of knowledge and light of heaven on the earth. Lord Savita of light and glory, who ever opposes our yajna and whoever we oppose, bind him with a hundred bonds and leave him not. The wicked must not stop the light of heaven. The bubbles of his drink must not vitiate the nectar. Keep going to the congregation, bring the light of heaven on earth.

27. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

The earth is beautiful, kind and gracious, rich in comfort and security, food and energy, overflowing with the honey-sweet juices of fruits. It is so by virtue of yajna. I dedicate myself to yajna with the inspiring music of gayatri, ecstatic freedom of trishtubh, and illuminating expansiveness of jagati.

28. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Lord of virtue and power, having taken up the earth with its generative power, you placed it in the region of the moon in life-friendly space. Brave men of honour and virtue take up mighty arms and eliminate the destructive, and restore its powers and dignity. Pious men in advance perform yajna with oblations of rejuvenating materials and restore the generative powers of the earth. Men of virtue perform yajna, fight negativities and keep the balance of nature. Yajna is the death of the enemies of life.

29. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Yajna is not a sharp-edged weapon of destruction but a peaceful mode of regeneration. The lawless are uprooted, the selfish are driven out. I take up the yajna materials for the recuperative purpose and consecrate these for the offering. The force of yajna is positive, of love and non-violence, but it is most effective in operation. It corrects the lawless, converts the selfish and eliminates the destructive. I honor this power for the sustenance of nature, life and humanity.

Yajna, you are the nectar of life for the earth. You are the presence of Vishnu, the creative power of yajna. You are life on the earth and light in the sky. You are the tongue of Agni, tasting the sweets of life. I see this presence in truth with steady and blessed eye for the sake of food, energy, and the light of life, in every place and in every chant of mantra. You are so close, invoked so freely, so be gracious for me too.

You are the heaven, you are the Word, you are the darling of the gods, fearless and inviolable, you are the lord of worship for the pious, you are the light and life for humanity.

CHAPTER–II

1. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

कृष्णोऽस्याखरेष्ठोऽग्नयेे त्वा जुष्टं प्रोक्षामि वेदिरसि बर्हिषे त्वा जुष्टां प्रोक्षामि बर्हिरसि स्रुग्भ्यस्त्वा जुष्टं प्रोक्षामि॥१॥

Yajna is seated in the vedi carved out on the ground, and it is carried to the sky by the window. I refine and consecrate the holy offerings for the fire in the vedi. The fragrance rises to the sky for the higher vedi there for the formation of waters. I refine and enrich the holy materials/offerings consecrated by the fire for the yajna in the sky. The yajna is holy waters floating in the sky for showers on the earth. I refine, enrich and consecrate the holy materials of oblations, offered with ladles into the fire, for yajna from the sky.

2. (Yajna Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

अदित्यै व्युन्दनमसि विष्णोः स्तुपोऽस्यूर्णम्रदसं त्वा स्तृणामि स्वासस्थां देवेभ्यो भुवपतये स्वाहा भुवनपतये स्वाहा भूतानां पतये स्वाहा ॥२॥

Yajna is shower of life for the earth. It is the fiery flag-pole of Vishnu. I refine the offerings with the stony grinder and cover the snug and beautiful vedi with food for the gods. The yajna is for the Lord of the earth, it is for the Lord of the world, it is for the Lord of all the creatures, it is for the best creative souls among humanity.

3. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

गन्धर्वस्त्वा विश्वावसुः परिदधातु विश्वस्यारिष्ट्यै यजमानस्य परिधिरस्यग्निरिडऽईडितः। इन्द्रस्य बाहुरसि दक्षिणो विश्वस्यारिष्ट्यै यजमानस्य परिधिरस्यग्निरिडऽईडितः। मित्रावरुणौ त्वोत्तरतः परिधत्तां ध्रुवेण धर्मणा विश्वस्यारिष्ट्यै यजमानस्य परिधिरस्यग्निरिडऽईडितः ॥३॥

Agni, Lord Supreme of the light and life of the universe, worthy of worship and worshipped through yajna, is Gandharva, the rest and haven of the world that holds the earth and the Divine Word. It is Agni, the fire and the sun, and Indra, the wind and rain of the cosmic energy that feeds and sustains the dynamics of existence. It is Mitra and Varuna, complementary motions of the cosmic circuit which feed and maintain the vitality of life. May Gandharva uphold the yajna and be all-round protector of the yajaman for the welfare of the world. May yajna, the right hand of Indra, provide for all-round protection of the yajaman toward the welfare and advancement of humanity. May Mitra and Varuna by their natural and inviolable dharma, provide for the yajaman's protection from above for the peace and progress of the world. Agni, worthy of worship, study and meditation, and worshipped, studied and researched through yajna, is the ultimate haven of the world, and yajna is the highest creative and productive action of humanity performed individually and collectively.

4. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Agni, Lord Omniscient, may we, in this act of love and non-violence, light the fire of yajna, great and blazing giver of the gift of joy and prosperity, and may we, through this yajna, worship, study and meditate on you, Lord Almighty, greater than the greatest, most glorious and most generous giver of the light of happiness.

Yajna: you are samidha, food of Agni, for the illumination of rare qualities. May the sun, with its twofold power of illumination and rejuvenation, protect and prepare you in advance for the sacrifice and higher life. May all the eight Vasus (abodes of life), eleven Rudras (sustainers of life) and twelve Adityas (lights and durations of life in time) come and participate in the rejuvenation as in the spring session of yajna. For this refinement and advancement of life I cover the yajna-vedi, snug, beautiful and pleasing, with holy offerings.

You are Upabhrta by name, close by to carry offerings for the fire. With your own dear position and power, bless this happy home with all the gifts of joy. You are Dhruva by name, firm and inviolable in yajna. With your own dear power and potential grace this blessed home with all the gifts of peace, freedom and progress. Be with this happy place, dwell here with all power, potential and grace, firm, secure, inviolable, in this blessed home of yajna, the seat of truth and righteousness. Vishnu, Lord Omnipresent and Universal yajna, protect all these, preserve and advance the yajna, protect and bless the yajnapati, save me and protect and advance the organization and system of yajna.

7. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्नेऽ वाजजिद् वाजं त्वा सरिष्यन्तं वाजजितꣳ सम्मार्ज्मि। नमो देवेभ्यः स्वधा पितृभ्यः सुयमे मे भूयास्तम् ॥७॥

Agne vājajid vājam tvā sariṣyantaṁ vājajitaṁ sammārjm. Namo devebhyaḥ svadhā pitṛbhyaḥ suyame me bhūyāstam.

Agni is the Lord of light and life, it is fire both physical and vital. It is the giver and purifier of food and the secret of victory and glory. It is fast in motion and action, burning up the libations and sending them up into the sky. I worship Agni and refine agni through yajna for food and energy, light and victory. Salutations to the Devas, celestial powers of light; food for the Pitris, powers of nourishment. May they both help us with food and energy to win honour and glory for us.

8. (Vishnu Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Vishnu, Lord Omnipresent, universal yajna, I bring libations of ghee, pure and secure, for the devas through the fire of the vedi. Agni, Lord of Yajna, may I never neglect or violate yajna, and I pray I may always live in your protective shade. The fire in the vedi is the seat of Vishnu. It rises from the vedi to the vast sky and from there the sun and wind carry it all round and convert it into the noblest acts of the devotees.

9. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Agni, Lord of light and life, protect the act of yajna into the fire, protect the fiery rise of fragrance into the sky, protect the heaven and the earth, and may the heaven and the earth carry on your blessed purpose of yajna. May the sun, light of the world, with its radiance convert the libation of holy materials into the richest food for nature and for holy men. This is the voice of Divinity.

May Indra, Lord Supreme of power and glory, in-vest me with the powers of sense and mind. May He enrich us all with the knowledge wealth and prosperity of the world. May all our hopes and aspirations come true and turn into blessings for all of us. May the mother earth invoked and served by us be kind and bless us. Heavenly Father, invoked and worshipped! May the Heavenly Father receive me into His care and bless me with the gifts of fire from the vedi, the seat of yajna. In this blessed world of Savita's creation, you receive a free flow of good health and nourishment from the arms of Ashwinis and the hands of Pusha, nature's currents of energy and the motions of vital air. Yes, with my own mouth, I take in the food and inhale the breath of life from the vital fire of the Lord's yajna. This is the voice of Divinity.

12. (Savita Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

एतं ते देव सवितर्यज्ञं प्राहुर्बृहस्पतये ब्रह्मणे ।

Etaṁ te deva savitaryajñaṁ prāhurbṛhaspataye brahmaṇe. Tena yajñamava tena yajñapatiṁ tena māmava.

Lord Savita, this is the yajna of creation, the dynamics of existence and the paths of living in Dharma with knowledge, action and worship together in yajna. This yajna is for thee, they say. It is for Brihaspati, man of knowledge, and Brahma, man of faith and vision, to know and receive the highest gifts of yajna. Lord of existence, save yajna by yajna, save yajnapati by yajna, save me by yajna.

13. (Brihaspati Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

The mind is fast, instant in motion. May my mind benefit from the offerings of yajna. May Brihaspati, Lord of the wide world, expand the yajna of existence. May the Lord sustain this yajna of ours in love and peace without violence. May the powers of nature be ever fresh, may all good people ever rejoice by yajna. Be firm by Om, the voice of existence, the Eternal Word, the very name of the Divine. Om and yajna is our haven. Let it be so in our heart.

14. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

एषा तेऽअग्ने समित्तया वर्धस्व चा च प्यायस्व । वर्धिषीमहि च वयमा च प्यासिषीमहि । अग्नै वाजजिद्वाजं त्वा सस्रवाꣳसं वाजजित्ꣳसम्मार्ज्मि ॥१४॥

Agni, Lord of the fire of Yajna, this samidha (fuel wood) is food for you. Burn with it, grow, expand and illuminate. With the growth of yajna, expand us too in body, mind and soul. We shall grow, and we shall expand in body, mind and soul. Agni, you are food. You are knowledge, speed and motion. You are the lord of knowledge, speed and progress and the winner of victories. For the growth of food and knowledge, for the acceleration of speed and motion, and for the sake of victory over want and evil in life, we study, refine and multiply the power of fire through yajna for the common good.

15. (Agni-Shomau Devate, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Let us follow Agni and Soma, lords of fire and water and win whatever this duo has won. With inspiration for growth and development, we dedicate ourselves to study and work. May Agni and Soma ward off whoever hates us. For the sake of growth and development, we reject whatever we don't approve. Let us follow Indra and Agni, lords of power and fire, and win what this duo can win. With inspiration for growth and development, we dedicate ourselves to study and research. May Indra and Agni ward off whatever/ whoever hates us. For the sake of growth and development, we reject whatever we all hate.

16. (Dyavaprthivi and Mitravarunau Devate, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi vyantu iti Uttrardhasy Agni Devata)

वसुभ्यस्त्वा रुद्रेभ्यस्त्वादित्येभ्यस्त्वा संजानाथां द्यावापृथिवी मित्रावरुणौ त्वा वृष्ट्यावताम् । व्यन्तु वयोक्तꣳरिहाणा मरुतां पृषतीर्गच्छ वशा पृश्निर्भूत्वा दिवं गच्छ ततो नो वृष्टिमावह । चक्षुष्पाऽअग्नेऽसि चक्षुर्मे पाहि ॥१६॥

Yajna is dedicated to the study of eight Vasus, supports of life, eleven Rudras, catalytic agents of the justice of existence, and twelve Adityas, centres of gravity and balance of nature. May we, with science and reason, know with reference to the sun and the earth what we can achieve with the yajna extended in space. May Mitra and Varuna, currents of vital energy, protect and enrich the world with rain. May the oblations in yajna rise to the sky with the wind, and from the sky to the sun with the cosmic currents, and bring down from there showers of rain to feed the rivers of earth. Just as birds go to rest in their nests, so do we, devotees of the Lord, meditate on the secrets of vaidic hymns to discover the mysteries of yajna. Agni, Lord of light and life, you are the giver of vision. Protect my eye and bless me with vision.

17. (Agni Devata, Devala Ṛshi)

Yam paridhiṁ paryadhatthā'agne deva-paṇibhirguhyamānaḥ, Tam ta'etamanu joṣam bharāmyeṣa nettvadapacetayātā'agneḥ priyaṁ pātho'pītam.

Agni, Lord of light and life, you hold and sustain the law of Dharma observed by the powers of nature and celebrated in the songs of the seers. I accept and act within the bounds of that law and feed upon the foods provided by nature and yajna. May I never neglect or violate that law. May I never be ungrateful to the Lord. May I never lose the vision of Divinity.

18. (Vishvedeva Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Stay firm, dedicated children of the earth, on the rock-bed foundations of knowledge and justice, and, great and expansive within the bounds of Divine law, sit around this yajna fire on seats of grass, chanting the holy songs of praise, offering the honey-sweets of your produce to the fire and receiving from agni, in return, the nectar of life. Thus you celebrate the Lord's gift of life. Thus you enjoy in unison. Surrender and play your part, this is the voice of Divinity.

19. (Agni-Vayu Devate, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Ghṛtacī stho dhuryau pātaṁ sumne sthaḥ sumne mā dhattam. Yajña namaśca ta'upa ca yajñasya śive santiṣṭhasva sviṣṭe me santiṣṭhasva.

Fire and wind are foremost movers of the wheels of yajna. Replete in nutriments such as ghee and water, they are nature's agents of the growth and sustenance of humanity in comfort and joy. Yajna and humility are auspicious for you. Be firm in your devotion and performance and you will live happy in the protective shade of the Divine.

20. (Agni-Sarasvati Devate, Parameshthi Prajapati Ṛshi)

Agni, Lord of universal yajna, giver of life, free and without fear, save yajna from evil and violence, save me from suffering, save me from bondage, make our food free from poison and inedibles, may our home be a blessed place of peace and happiness. This oblation is for Agni, protector of the home and the earth, this is for Sarasvati, voice of the Divine, sister of honour.

21. (Prajapati Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

वेदोऽसि येन त्वं देव वेद देवेभ्यो वेदोऽभवस्तेन मह्यं वेदो भूयाः। देवा गातुविदो गातुं वित्त्वा गातुमित । मनसस्पतऽइमं देव यज्ञꣳस्वाहा वाते धाः ॥२१॥

Vedo'si yena tvaṁ deva veda devebhyo vedo'-bhavastena mahyaṁ vedo bhūyaḥ. Devā gātuvido gātum vittvā gātumita. Manasaspata' imaṁ deva yajñaṁ svāhā vāte dhāḥ.

Prajapati, Lord of the universe, omniscient, you are Veda, Divine Word Itself. The knowledge by virtue of which you are omniscient for the seers and sages, who know the Veda and the ways of the world, is the knowledge for me too. Enlighten me with that. The seers, having realized that knowledge of existence, sing the hymns and follow the paths of virtue. Lord of mind and knowledge, take this yajna with the winds to the heights of heaven and place it there. Our oblations for that yajna.

22. (Indra Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Saṁbarhiraṅktāṁ haviṣā ghṛtena samādityair-vasubhiḥ sammarudbhiḥ. Samindro viśvadeve-bhiraṅktāṁ divyaṁ nabho gacchatu yat svāhā.

Let the yajna-vedi be covered with havan materials seasoned with ghee and offered by the best of devotees and let the fragrance, carried by fire, wind and currents of energy, rise to the heights of the sky with Adityas, Vasus and Maruts and, there in the regions of light, the sun would mix the fragrance with its rays and convert it into vital vapour to shower on earth as water.

23. (Prajapati Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Kastvā vimuñcati sa tvā vimuñcati kasmai tvā vimuñcati tasmai tvā vimuñcati. Poṣāya rakṣasāṁ bhāgo'si.

(i) Who leaves (offers) the oblations into the fire? Who releases nature-materials into the cosmic yajna of creation? The yajnapati. Prajapati, Lord Creator and father of His creatures. For what purpose? For self realization. For His purpose of creation. For nourishment, for preservation and protection, for destruction of the destroyers.

(ii) Who gives you away/up? He gives you away/up. For what purpose/to what end? For self-realization/self-negation. For nourishment: you are the share of the good and the protectors; even of the wicked and the destroyers, but, for their punishment and destruction.

24. (Tvashta Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

May Lord Tvashta, eternal maker and generous giver, bless us with lustre of character and light of knowledge, food for body, mind and senses, peace and nobility of mind, good and glowing health of body. May the Lord grant us all kinds of wealth and stability. May He complete and perfect whatever is wanted in our body and mind and refine us with culture and virtue.

Let us advance with holy light and lustre, honey-sweets of food and blooming health, and a mind at peace with noble aspirations, and attain all round prosperity. And may Tvashta, Eternal Maker and generous giver, complete what is lacking in our life and refine us to a state of perfection.

Vishnu, yajna, performed with the ecstatic chant of jagati verses, reached the regions of the sun, and from there eliminated all that opposes us and all that we oppose for the sake of life. Vishnu, yajna, performed with the spontaneous chant of trishtubh verses, rose up to the middle regions of the sky, and from there eliminated all that opposes us and all that we oppose for the sake of life. Vishnu, yajna, performed with the joyous chant of gayatri verses, went over the earth, and from there eliminated all that opposes us and all that we oppose for the sake of life. Feeding on the gifts of nature purified by yajna, let us rejoice, and in the service of the balance and harmony of life and existence, let us rise to the heights of heaven and we'll be one with the light of knowledge and Dharma.

Agni, Lord of the House of Existence, Master of knowledge and the fire of yajna, great as you are as the keeper and sustainer of the world, so may I too, with you as the ideal, be a good and efficient house holder. And you too, over me, head of this family, be the protector and sustainer of this household. May we two, husband and wife, together perform the duties of the home for a good hundred years. May I follow the path of life like the sun in orbit, the path of Dharma revealed by you.

Agni, Lord of vows in the discipline of Dharma and Truth, whatever vows at your behest I have followed or would follow, I have followed and would follow because you made it possible and would make it possible. This me here, whatever I am, I am. Whatever I sow, so shall I reap.

29. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Agnaye kavyavāhanāya svāhā somāya pitṛmate svāhā. Apahatā' asurā rakṣāṁsi vediṣadaḥ.

This oblation is for Agni, Lord of knowledge and giver of the gifts of knowledge and yajna through the science of yajna-fire. This is for Soma, lord of peace and prosperity and the beauty of the seasons and powers of nourishment. In truth and according to the voice of the Veda, the ignorant, the wicked, the cruel and unjust, robbers and grabbers of the vedi, seat of yajna, asuras of the earth are eliminated by righteous action for humanity.

30. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Ye rupāṇi pratimuñcamānā'asurāḥ santaḥ svadhayā caranti. Parāpuro nipuro ye bharantyagniṣṭāmllokāt praṇudātyasmāt.

And who are the asuras? They are masters of hypocrisy and the art of changing faces. Friends and allies of the wicked, they encroach upon the rights of others and fill their coffers with ill-gotten wealth. Enemies of humanity, they roam around the world like giants. Agni, Lord of light, justice and social yajna, let them be thrown out and eliminated from the face of the earth.

Trustees and guardians of society, men of knowledge and wisdom, justice and merit, take your share as you deserve and, in your own right and proper place here, rejoice and celebrate the victory of yajna. Make all others happy and, as they deserve on merit, let them too rejoice and celebrate.

Salutations for the fight against suffering for the advent of happiness. Salutations for righteous anger against the wicked. Salutations to the seniors, leaders and the guardians of knowledge, justice and well-being, life of good health, prosperity and happiness. Come to our homes and institutions and bless us with your gifts. Come that we may offer you the best we have. Come and accept our hospitality and gifts of clothes as mark of gratitude.

Teachers of knowledge, masters of wisdom, admit into your house of learning this boy wearing a lotus garland as a mark of desire for education. Accept him and hold him here as a mother bears the foetus in her womb so that he grows and is shaped into a brave and cultured young man.

Ūrjaṁ vahantīramṛtaṁ ghṛtaṁ payaḥ kīlālaṁ parisrutam. Svadhā stha tarpayata me pitṝn.

Be masters of your own wealth and power and manage it well with justice and in virtue. Offer liberal hospitality with love and reverence to the senior benefactors of society, men of knowledge, experience and wisdom. Offer them delicious drinks of water and nourishing juices, health giving milk and ghee, sumptuous foods and honey-sweet fruits to their satisfaction.

CHAPTER–III

1. (Agni Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

स॒मिधा॒ग्निं दु॑वस्यत घृ॒तैर्बो॑धय॒तात्थिम् ।
आस्मि॑न् ह॒व्या जु॑होतन ॥१॥

Samidhāgniṁ duvasyata ghṛtairbodhayatāthim.
Āsmin havyā juhotana.

Light up the fire and raise it with fuel, serve it like an honourable guest with pure ghee, and offer rich oblations of samagri into it, with love and faith.

2. (Agni Devata, Sushruta Ṛshi)

सुस॑मिद्धाय शो॒चिषे॑ घृ॒तं ती॒व्रं जु॑होतन ।
अ॒ग्नये॑ जा॒तवे॑दसे ॥२॥

Susamiddhāya śociṣe ghṛtaṁ tīvraṁ juhotana.
Agnaye jātavedase.

To the fire, omnipresent, lit up, rising bright and blazing, sanctifying everything around, offer libations of ghee, pure, inflammable and purifying.

3. (Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

तं त्वा स॒मिद्भि॑रङ्गिरो घृ॒तेन॑ वर्द्धयामसि ।
बृ॒हच्छो॑चा यविष्ठ्य ॥३॥

Taṁ tvā samidbhiraṅgiro ghṛtena vardhayāmasi. Bṛhacchocā yaviṣṭhya.

O agni, bright and beautiful, young and powerful, generous giver of things, we offer samidhas and ghee and raise you to the heights.

4. (Agni Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

उप॑ त्वाग्ने ह॒विष्म॑तीर्घृ॒ताचीर्य॑न्तु हर्यत ।
जु॒षस्व॑ स॒मिधो॒ मम ॥४॥

Upa tvāgne haviṣmatīrghṛtācīryantu haryata.
Juṣasva samidho mama.

O fire, bright and beautiful, generous giver, here come to you my samidhas soaked in ghee and fragrant things. Accept them, accept them.

5. (Agni Vayu Surya Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

भूर्भु॒वः॒ स्व॒॑र् द्यौरि॑व भू॒म्ना पृ॑थि॒वीव॑ वरि॒म्णा । तस्या॑स्ते पृथिवि देवयजनि पृ॒ष्ठे॒ऽग्निम॑न्ना॒द॒म॒न्ना॒द्या॒या॒द॑धे ॥५॥

Bhūr bhuvaḥ svar dyauriva bhūmnā pṛthivīva varimṇā. Tasyāste pṛthivi devayajani prṣṭhe' gnimannādamannādyāyādadhe.

In expanse as vast as the bright heaven, in virtue as firm and generous as the earth, agni is ever present on the earth, in the sky and in heaven. Earth Mother, seat of yajna by the devas (noble people and the powers of nature) for the devas (good people and the powers of nature), here on the ground in the vedi on your surface, I place the sacred fire, consumer of the oblations of food, for the sake of food and energy.

6. (Agni Devata, Sarparajni Kadru Ṛshi)

आय॑ गौः पृ॒श्नि॑रक्रमी॒दस॑दन् मा॒तर॑ं पु॒रः ।
पि॒तर॑ं च प्र॒यन्त्स्वः॥६॥

Āyaṁ gauḥ pṛsnirakramīdasadan mātaraṁ puraḥ. Pitaraṁ ca prayantsvaḥ.

This earth, child of the sun and waters in space

— solid concentration of agni (fire) and apah (waters) — revolves in its orbit round the sun, its father and sustainer in heaven, through the presence of its mother, the waters in space.

7. (Agni Devata, Sarparajni Kadru Ṛshi)

अन्तश्चरति रोचनास्य प्राणादपानती ।
व्यख्यन् महिषो दिवम् ॥७॥

Antaścarati rocanāsya prāṇādapānatī.
Vyakhyan mahiṣo divam.

The power of Agni is light and energy/electricity which creates and produces the circuitous currents- going up as prana in the universe as well as in the body, and the complementary current going down as apana in the body as well as in the universe. This universal energy of Agni is a mighty power which is the light of heaven and burns in the sun.

8. (Agni Devata, Sarparajni Kadru Ṛshi)

त्रिꣳशद्धाम विराजति वाक् पतङ्गाय धीयते ।
प्रति वस्तोरह द्युभिः ॥८॥

Triṁśaddhāma virājati vāk patańgāya dhīyate.
Prati vastoraha dyubhiḥ.

Vak, the speech mode of Agni, dominates thirty abodes of life (out of thirty-three) and is used in the service of its lord, Agni, for the expression of the light of knowledge with which the omniscient and omnipresent power illuminates the world.

9. (Agni-Surya Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्निर्ज्योतिर्ज्योतिरग्निः स्वाहा सूर्यो ज्योतिर्ज्योतिः सूर्यः स्वाहा । अग्निर्वर्चो ज्योतिर्वर्चः स्वाहा सूर्यो वर्चो ज्योतिर्वर्चः स्वाहा । ज्योतिः सूर्यः सूर्यो ज्योतिः स्वाहा॥९॥

Agnirjyotirjyotiragniḥ svāhā -sūryo jyotirjyotiḥ sūryaḥ svāhā. Agnirvarco jyotirvarcaḥ svāhā sūryo varco jyotirvarcaḥ svāhā. Jyotiḥ sūryaḥ sūryo jyotiḥ svāhā.

Agni, Supreme Spirit, is the light (jyoti) of existence, and Light (jyoti), Eternal Consciousness, is the identity of the Spirit. Vak, the virtual speech of Eternity is the common attribute of both spirit and consciousness.

Sun, the Lord of Life, is the light (jyoti) of the world, and Light (jyoti), Omniscience, is the identity of the Sun, the Divine teacher of teachers. Veda, the universal voice of Divinity is the common attribute of both the knower (sun) and knowledge (Omniscience).

Fire is the power and prosperity of the world, and power and prosperity from the heat energy of fire is converted to power by science and technology. Tecknowledge with its language is for the common benefit of both, the fire and the user.

The sun is the power and prosperity of the world, and power and prosperity flows from the vital energy of the sun converted to power by science and technology. Tecknowledge with its language is for the common benefit of both, solar energy and the user.

Light is the Lord and the Lord is Light. Light and the Lord are one. Veda, knowledge, is coexistent with both in unison. We offer the oblations to the Lord for the Light in faith with reverence.

10. (Agni-Surya Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

स॒जूर्दे॒वेन॑ स॒वि॒त्रा स॒जू रात्र्येन्द्र॑वत्या । जु॒षा॒णोऽअ॒ग्निर्वे॑तु॒ स्वाहा॑ । स॒जूर्दे॒वेन॑ स॒वि॒त्रा स॒जूरु॒षसेन्द्र॑वत्या । जु॒षा॒णः सूर्यो॑ वेतु॒ स्वाहा॑ ॥१०॥

Sajūrdevena savitrā sajū rātryendravatyā. Juṣāṇo' agnirvetu svāhā. Sajūrdevena savitrā sajūruṣasendravatyā. Juṣaṇaḥ sūryo vetu svāhā.

May Agni, along with Savita in His creation and the dark night of energy, receive this oblation.

May the Sun, along with Savita in His creation and the dawn of morning energy, receive this oblation.

11. (Agni Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

उप॒प्र॒यन्तो॑ऽअध्व॒रं मन्त्रं॑ वोचेमा॒ग्नये ।
आ॒रेऽअ॒स्मे च॑ शृण्व॒ते ॥११॥

Upaprayanto' adhvaraṁ mantraṁ vocemāgnaye. Āre' asme ca śṛṇvate.

Close to the vedi, while we are performing this sacred yajna, we chant the mantras for Agni who hears the chant near at hand as well as far away.

12. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

अ॒ग्निर्मू॒र्द्धा दि॒वः क॒कुत्पतिः॑ पृथि॒व्याऽअ॒यम् ।
अ॒पाꣳरेताꣳसि जिन्वति ॥१२॥

Agnirmūrdhā divaḥ kakutpatiḥ pṛthivyā' ayam. Apāṁ retāṁsi jinvati

This Lord of the earth, Agni, who rules on high on top of heaven, constantly refreshes the generative powers of the waters for the earth.

13. (Indragni Devate, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

उ॒भा वा॑मिन्द्राग्नीऽआहुवध्या॑ऽउ॒भा राध॑सः स॒ह मा॑द॒यध्यै॑।
उ॒भा दा॒तारा॑वि॒षाꣳर॑यी॒णामु॒भा वाज॑स्य सा॒तये॑ हुवे वाम् ॥१३॥

Ubhā vāmindrāgnī' āhuvadhyā' ubhā rādhasaḥ saha mādayadhyai. Ubhā dātārāviṣāṁ rayīṇāmubhā vājasya sātaye huve vām.

Indra (wind and electric energy) and Agni (heat and fire), givers of energy, food, power and wealth, I call upon you both and invoke you for the gift of knowledge, energy, and food for joy and well-being.

14. (Agni Devata, Devavata and Bharata Rshis)

अयं ते योनिर्ऋत्वियो यतो जातोऽअरोचथाः ।
तं जानन्नग्नऽआरोहाथा नो वर्द्धया रयिम् ॥१४॥

Ayaṁ te yonirṛtviyo yato jāto' arocathāḥ. Taṁ jānannagna' ārohāthā no vardhayā rayim.

Agni, Lord of the Universe, the fire is born of vayu, wind and electric energy, and, according to the seasons, rises and shines and, like the suns, brightens the world. Knowing that, and with the knowledge of that, raise us and develop our power and wealth.

15. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

अयमिह प्रथमो धायि धातृभिर्होता यजिष्ठोऽअध्वरेष्वीड्यः।
यमप्नवानो भृगवो विरुरुचुर्वनेषु चित्रं विभ्वं विशेविशे॥१५॥

Ayamiha prathamo dhāyi dhātṛbhirhotā yajiṣṭho' adhvareṣvīḍyaḥ. Yamapnavāno bhṛgavo virurucurvaneṣu citraṁ vibhvaṁ viśeviśe.

Here in the world of Lord Agni, the fire, placed and lighted in the vedi by the devotees, is the first and foremost agent of yajna for production and development. Adorable and worthiest of pursuit in study and research through collective action of the most cherished kind as it is, scholars of the science of heat and energy should maintain and continue through their disciples the tradition of research and development of this wonderful and versatile power in laboratories and institutions in every country for every community.

16. (Agni Devata, Avatsara Ṛshi)

अस्य प्रत्नामनु द्युतꣳशुक्रं दुदुह्रेऽअह्रयः ।
पयः सहस्रसामृषिम् ॥१६॥

Asya pratnāmanu dyutaṁ śukraṁ duduhre' ahrayaḥ. Payaḥ sahasrasāmṛṣim.

The Rishis and scholars dedicated to the study of the heat and light of agni in yajna have discovered and received the purest showers of the waters of life from this timeless source-power of a thousand gifts of achievement (just as you tend and milk the mother cow and receive the gift of the purest nourishment for life).

17. (Agni Devata, Avatsara Ṛshi)

तनूपाऽअग्नेऽसि तन्वं मे पाह्यायुर्दाऽअग्नेऽस्यायुर्मे देहि वर्चोदाऽअग्नेऽसि वर्चो मे देहि । अग्ने यन्मे तन्वाऽऊनं तन्मऽआपृण ॥१७॥

Tanūpā' agne'si tanvaṁ me pāhyāyurdā'agne'-syāyurme dehi varcodā' agne'si varco me dehi. Agne yanme tanvā' ūnaṁ tanma' āpṛṇa.

Agni, you are protector of the body with health and nourishment. Protect my body. You are the giver of life. Give me full life. You are the giver of lustre and glory. Give me lustre and glory. Whatever is short and wanting in me, that, I pray, fulfil and complete and perfect.

18. (Agni Devata, Avatsara Ṛshi)

इन्धानास्त्वा शतꣳहिमा द्युमन्तꣳसमिधीमहि । वयस्वन्तो वयस्कृतꣳ सहस्वन्तः सहस्कृतम् । अग्ने सपत्नदम्भनम-दब्धासोऽअदाभ्यम् । चित्रावसो स्वस्ति ते पारमशीय॥१८॥

Indhānāstvā śataṁ himā dyumantaṁ samidhīmahi. Vayasvanto vayaskṛtaṁ sahasvantaḥ sahaskṛtam. Agne sapatnadambhanamadabdhāso' adābhyam. Citrāvaso svasti te pāramaśīya.

Agni, wonderful lord and treasure-home of the wealth of the world, we, men of full life and vigour, strong yet forbearing, fearless and irresistible, having lighted the fire of yajna in worship of you — you, bright and blazing, giver of life and health, strength and forbearance, irresistible destroyer of enemies —we pray that we keep the fire of yajna burning and bright in honour and service of you. May we, by your grace and blessing, overcome the want and hurdles of life and attain prosperity and happiness. May we thus live on for a hundred years and more.

19. (Agni Devata, Avatsara Ṛshi)

सं त्वमग्ने सूर्यस्य वर्च्चसागथाः समृषीणाꣳस्तुतेन । सं प्रियेण धाम्ना समहमायुषा सं वर्चसा सं प्रजया सꣳ रायस्पोषेण गमिषीय ॥१९॥

Sam tvamagne sūryasya varcasāgathāḥ samṛṣīṇāṁ stutena. Saṁ priyeṇa dhāmnā samahamāyuṣā saṁ varcasā saṁ prajayā saṁ rāyaspoṣena gmiṣīya.

Agni, celebrated by the Rishis' songs of praise, come full well with the light and glory and energy of the sun to your own home of celebrity. Come that I may also, with the same songs of praise and the pranic energy of the sun, come to attain a happy home, full age, honour and lustre, a good family and liberal means of life.

20. (Apo Devata, Yajnavalkya Ṛshi)

अन्ध॒ स्थान्धो॑ वो भक्षीय॒ मह॑ स्थ॒ महो॑ वो भक्षी॒योर्ज॒ स्थोर्जं॑ वो भक्षीय रा॒यस्पोष॑ स्थ रा॒यस्पोषं॑ वो भक्षीय॥२०॥

Andha sthāndho vo bhakṣīya maha stha maho vo bhakṣīyorja sthorjaṁ vo bhakṣīya rāyaspoṣa stha rāyaspoṣam vo bhakṣīya.

There are foods for health — herbs, vegetables, grains, etc. — I would feed upon these to be strong. There are foods for greatness — agni, vayu, electricity, knowledge, etc. —I would feed upon these and be great. There are foods for energy — water, milk, ghee, honey, etc. — I would take these and be smart and energetic. There are rich tonics — invigorating, rejuvenating — I would take these to increase my competence and efficiency.

(Know the quality of foods and drinks and take what is good to maintain your health and efficiency).

21. (Vishvedeva Devata, Yajnavalkya Ṛshi)

रेव॑ती॒ रम॑ध्वम॒स्मिन्योना॑व॒स्मिन् गो॒ष्ठेऽस्मिँल्लो॒केऽस्मिन् क्षये॑। इ॒हैव स्त॒ माप॑गात ॥२१॥

Revatī ramadhvamasminyonāvasmin goṣṭhe'-sminlloke' smin kṣaye. Ihaiva sta māpagāta.

Revati — all the variety of wealth, good health, sense and mind, knowledge, ethics, good conduct, cows, etc. — may abound in this life, this body, this home, this farm-house, everywhere in this world. Rejoice, never forsake these. May these too never forsake you.

22. (Agni Devata, Vaishvamitra Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

सꣳहितासि विश्वरूप्यूर्जा माविश गौपत्येन । उप त्वाग्ने दिवेदिवे दोषावस्तर्धिया वयम् । नमो भरन्तऽएमसि॥२२॥

Saṁhitāsi viśvarūpyūrjā māviśa gaupatyena. Upa tvāgne divedive doṣāvastardhiyā vayam. Namobharanta' emasi.

Immanent in all the forms of existence, universal energy, come, inspire and bless me, as a protector and sustainer. Agni, dispeller of darkness of the night, we come to you for light day in and day out. With all our wealth of food and energy, mind and intelligence, in all humility and faith, we come to you.

23. (Agni devata, Vaishvamitra Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

राजन्तमध्वराणां गोपामृतस्य दीदिविम् ।
वर्द्धमानꣳस्वे दमे ॥२३॥

Rājantamadhvarāṇām gopāmṛtasya dīdivim. Vardhamānaṁ sve dame.

With all our wealth and power, in all faith and humility, we come to Agni, bright and blazing, protector and sustainer of yajnas, illuminater of Truth, Right and the Law of existence, thriving in His own state of bliss.

24. (Agni Devata, Vaishvamitra Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

स नः पितेव सूनवेऽग्ने सूपायनो भव ।
सचस्वा नः स्वस्तये ॥२४॥

Sa naḥ piteva sūnave'gne sūpāyano bhava. Sacasvā naḥ svastaye.

Agni, as father to the child, be the father, guardian and protector for all of us. Be with us always, for happiness and well-being.

25. (Agni Devata, Subandhu Ṛshi)

अग्ने त्वं नोऽअन्तमऽउत त्राता शिवो भवा वरूथ्यः । वसुरग्निर्वसुश्रवाऽअच्छा नक्षि द्युमत्तमꣳरयिं दाः ॥२५॥

Agne tvam no' antama' uta trātā śivo bhavā varūthyaḥ. Vasuragnirvasuśravā' acchā nakṣi dyumattamaṁ rayim dāḥ.

Agni, life of our life, saviour, kind and gracious, be an intimate friend and giver of goodness. Vast abode of all, brilliant and all-percipient, bless us richly with the brightest wealth and knowledge of the world.

26. (Agni Devata, Subandhu Ṛshi)

तं त्वा शोचिष्ठ दीदिवः सुम्नाय नूनमीमहे सखिभ्यः । स नो बोधि श्रुधी हवमुरुष्या णोऽअघायतः समस्मात् ॥२६॥

Taṁ tvā śociṣṭha dīdivaḥ sumnāya nūnamīmahe sakhibhyaḥ. Sa no bodhi śrudhī havamuruṣyā ṇo' aghāyataḥ. samasmāt.

Lord of the universe, Light of life, purest of the pure and self-luminous, we pray sincerely for happiness for us and our friends. May the Lord enlighten us and hear our chant of yajna, may He save us from sin and evil.

27. (Agni Devata, Shrutabandhu Ṛshi)

इडऽएह्यदितऽएहि काम्याऽएत ।
मयि वः कामधरणं भूयात् ॥२७॥

Ida'ehyadita' ehi kāmyā' eta. Mayi vaḥ kāmaḍharaṇaṁ bhūyāt.

Come earth, come freedom, justice and abundance. May all desires come true wholly. May the Lord in-vest me with the stability of ambition and fulfilment thereof.

28. (Brihaspati Devata, Prabandhu Ṛshi)

सो॒मान॒ꣳस्वर॑णं कृणुहि ब्रह्मणस्पते ।
क॒क्षीव॑न्तं य॒ऽऔ॑शि॒जः ॥२८॥

Somānaṁ svaraṇaṁ kṛṇuhi brahmaṇaspate.
Kakṣīvantaṁ ya'auśijaḥ.

Lord of Eternal knowledge, keen as I am for knowledge and learning like a very child of Wisdom, shape me into a scholar with a sense of ethical values, a persuasive speaker and a teacher and maker of rejuvenating tonics.

29. (Brihaspati Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

यो रे॒वान् योऽअ॑मीव॒हा व॑सु॒वित्पु॑ष्टि॒वर्द्ध॑नः ।
स नः॑ सिषक्तु॒ यस्तु॒रः ॥२९॥

Yo revān yo'amīvahā vasuvitpuṣṭivarddhanaḥ.
Sa naḥ siṣaktu yasturaḥ.

May He who is Lord of wealth and knowledge, who destroys pain, grief and disease, who is the knower of all the good things of the world, who gives all physical and spiritual strength, who is keen and instant in doing and having things done, may He bless us with all virtues and good actions.

30. (Brahmanaspati Devata, Varuni Saptadhriti Ṛshi)

मा नः॒ श꣡ꣳसो॒ऽअर॑रुषो धू॒र्तिः प्रण॒ङ् मर्त्य॑स्य ।
रक्षा॑ णो ब्रह्मणस्पते ॥३०॥

Mā naḥ śaṁso' araruṣo dhūrtiḥ praṇaṅ martyasya. Rakṣā ṇo brahmaṇaspate.

May our songs of praise never be lost. Lord of the universe and of the Divine Word, save us against the selfishness and violence of the mrtals.

31. (Aditya Devata, Varuni Saptadhriti Ṛshi)

महि॑ त्रीणामवो॑ऽस्तु द्यु॒क्षं मि॒त्रस्यार्य॒म्णः ।
दु॒रा॒धर्षं॑ वरु॑णस्य ॥३१॥

Mahi trīṇāmavo'stu dyukṣaṁ mitrasyāryamṇaḥ Durādharṣam varuṇasya.

Lord of the universe, may the generous and inviolable protection of the three, Mitra (pranic energy both internal and external), Varuna (air and water), and Aryama (sun and stability) be ours for the divine knowledge of the Veda, illuminating, irresistible, and great.

32. (Aditya Devata, Varuni Saptadhriti Ṛshi)

न॒हि तेषा॑म॒मा च॒न नाध्वसु वार॒णेषु॑ ।
ईशे॑ रि॒पु॒र॒घशं॑सः ॥३२॥

Nahi teṣāmamā cana nādhvasu vāraṇeṣu. Īśe ripuraghaśaṁsaḥ.

Never in their homes, nor in their paths of life, nor ever in their defences, shall there be any enemy or a supporter of evil. The Lord is in command of the life of the pious devotees.

33. (Aditya Devata, Varuni Saptadhriti Ṛshi)

ते हि पु॒त्रासो॒ऽअदि॑ते॒ः प्र जी॒वसे॒ मर्त्या॑य ।
ज्योति॒र्यच्छ॒न्त्यज॑स्रम् ॥३३॥

Te hi putrāso' aditeḥ pra jīvase martyāya. Jyotiryacchantyajasram.

Mitra, pranic energy, Varuna, air and water, and Aryama, the sun, they are the children of Imperishable Nature. They provide inexhaustible light and energy for the life and sustenance of the mortals on earth.

34. (Indra Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

क॒दा च॒न स्त॒रीर॑सि॒ नेन्द्र॑ सश्चसि दा॒शुषे॑ ।
उपो॒पेन्नु म॑घव॒न् भूय॒ऽइन्नु ते॒ दानं॑ दे॒वस्य॑ पृच्यते ॥३४॥

Kadā cana starīrasi nendra saścasi dāśuṣe. Upopennu maghavan bhūya' innu te dānam devasya pṛcyate.

Indra, lord of generosity and well-being, when is it that you don't wholly favour the man of charity, overwhelming him with gifts of knowledge and joy? Lord giver of power and prosperity, your gifts of reward for karma (action), again and again, constantly, follow upon the philanthropists' acts of charity.

35. (Savita Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

तत् स॑वि॒तुर्वरे॑ण्यं॒ भर्गो॑ दे॒वस्य॑ धीमहि ।
धियो॒ यो नः॑ प्रचो॒दया॑त् ॥३५॥

Tatsaviturvareṇyam bhargo devasya dhīmahi. Dhiyo yo naḥ pracodayāt.

Let us meditate on the blazing glory of Savita, Lord Creator, pure and generous giver of light and happiness — glory which is magnificent, most worthy of our choice. And may the Lord with His grace inspire our mind and will to dedicate ourselves to noble actions.

36. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

परि॑ ते दू॒डभो॒ रथो॒ऽस्माँ२॥ऽअ॑श्नोतु वि॒श्वत॑ः ।
येन॒ रक्षं॑सि दा॒शुषः ॥३६॥

Pari te dūḍabho ratho'smāṁ' aśnotu viśvataḥ.
Yena rakṣasi dāśuṣaḥ.

That formidable chariot of knowledge by which you protect and redeem the man of charity in all ways from all sides, by that very chariot protect us too, Lord of the Universe, and let us cross the panorama of existence.

37. (Prajapati Devata, Vamedeva Ṛshi)

भूर्भु॒वः॒ स्व॒ः सु॒प्र॒जाः॒ प्र॒जाभि॑ः स्याꣳसु॒वीरो॑ वी॒रै॑ः सु॒पोष॒ः पोषै॑ः । नर्यं॑ प्र॒जां मे॑ पाहि॒ शꣳस्यं॑ प॒शून् मे॑ पा॒ह्यर्थर्य॑ पि॒तुं मे॑ पाहि ॥३७॥

Bhūrbhuvaḥ svaḥ suprajāḥ prajābhiḥ syāṁ suvīro vīraiḥ supoṣaḥ poṣaiḥ. Narya prajām me pāhi śaṁsya paśūn me pāhya-tharya pitum me pāhi.

Lord Existent, Intelligent and Blissful, merciful to the noble people, protect my people, Lord worthy of praise, protect my wealth and cattle, Lord firm and irresistible, protect my food, I pray, may I be a happy family man with noble people and children, nobly brave with heroic friends around generously supportive, blest with rich means of health and support.

38. (Agni Devata, Asuri Ṛshi)

Āganma viśvavedasamasmabhyam vasuvittamam. Agne samrāḍabhi dyumnamabhi saha'āyacchasva.

Agni, Lord of the Universe, blesses with all round honour and glory, all round enduring strength. Light of the world, may we realize and attain to the spirit omniscient of the universe, to the power omnipresent in the abodes of life in the world.

39. (Agni Devata, Asuri Ṛshi)

अ॒यम॒ग्निर्गृ॒हप॑ति॒र्गार्ह॑पत्यः प्र॒जाया॑ वसु॒वित्त॑मः।

Aymagnirgṛhapatirgārhapatyaḥ prajāyā vasuvittamaḥ. Agne gṛhapate'bhi dyumnamabhi saha'āyacchasva.

This agni that resides in the home with the inmates is the sustainer of the home and brings all kinds of wealth to the family. Agni, Lord of Light and Energy, bless us with honour and glory all round and bless us with enduring strength all round.

40. (Agni Devata, Asuri Ṛshi)

अ॒यम॒ग्निः पु॑री॒ष्यो॑ र॒यिमा॑न् पु॒ष्टि॒व॑र्धनः ।
अग्ने॑ पुरीष्या॒भि द्यु॒म्नम॒भि सह॒ऽआय॑च्छस्व ॥४०॥

Ayamagniḥ purīṣyo rayimān puṣṭivardhanaḥ. Agne purīṣyābhi dyumnamabhi saha'āyacchasva.

This agni is the source of wealth, with it we grow and develop in health and prosperity, it helps to complete our plans and projects, to make up all our wants and to grow further. Agni, Lord of Light and Energy, bless us with all round honour and prosperity, bless us with strength and endurance all round.

41. (Vastu Agni Devata, Asuri Ṛshi)

गृहा॒ मा बि॑भीत॒ मा वे॑पध्व॒मूर्ज॑ं बिभ्रतऽएमसि ।

Gṛhā mā bibhīta mā vepadhvamūrjam bibhrata' emasi. Ūrjam bibhradvaḥ sumanāḥ sumedhā gṛhānaimi manasā modamānaḥ.

Masters of the house, inmates of the home, fear not, tremble not. Bubbling with energy and power, go forward. With energy, power and enthusiasm, with a happy heart and high intelligence, I come home rejoicing at heart, for you.

42. (Vastupati Agni Devata, Shamyu Ṛshi)

येषा॑म॒द्ध्येति॑ प्र॒वस॒न् येषु॑ सौमन॒सो ब॒हुः ।

Yeṣāmadhyeti pravasan yeṣu saumanaso bahuḥ. Gṛhānupahvayāmahe te no jānantu jānataḥ.

The man far away, the visiting guest, remembers the homes abundant with happiness of the mind and open doors of welcome. We, the guests and chance visitors call at such homes. They know us, may they continue to know.

43. (Vastupati Devata, Barhaspatya Shamyu Ṛshi)

उप॑हूताऽइ॒ह गाव॒ऽउप॑हूताऽअजा॒वयः॑ । अथो॒ऽअन्न॑स्य

Upahūtā' iha gāva' upahūtā'ajāvayaḥ. Atho' annasya kīlala' upahūto gṛheṣu naḥ, Kṣemāya vaḥ śāntyai prapadye śivaṁ śagmaṁ śamyoḥ śamyoḥ.

The cows are brought and called in, sheep and goats are brought and called in, and then, plenty of food is brought in and stored in our homes for your comfort and safety and for our comfort and protection. With all the means of comfort in safety, I am at peace with the joy of well-being. Peace! peace! and joy!

44. (Maruts Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प्रघासिनो हवामहे मरुतश्च रिशादसः ।
करम्भेण सजोषसः ॥४४॥

Praghāsino havāmahe marutaśca riśādasah. Karambheṇa sajoṣasaḥ.

We home-keepers invite and treat guests and learned men dedicated to yajna who, free from ignorance, are men of universal love, who fight evil and remove human weakness, and who welcome our hospitality and love and enjoy good food.

45. (Maruts Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद् ग्रामे यदरण्ये यत् सभायां यदिन्द्रिये ।
यदेनश्चकृमा वयमिदं तदवयजामहे स्वाहा ॥४५॥

Yadgrāme yadaraṇye yatsabhāyāṁ yadindriye. yadenaścakṛmā vayamidam tadavayajāmahe svāhā.

Whatever wrong we have done or might do in our village community, in the forest among the foresters (Vanaprasthis), in the assembly or in the mind with our senses, that we abjure and give up, and whatever is true and good, to that we commit ourselves and dedicate.

46. (Indra and Maruts Devate, Agastya Ṛshi)

मो षू णऽइन्द्रात्र पृत्सु देवैरस्ति हि ष्मा ते शुष्मिन्नवयाः।
महश्चिद्यस्य मीढुषो यव्या हविष्मतो मरुतो वन्दते गीः॥४६॥

Mo ṣū ṇa' indrātra pṛtsu devairasti hi ṣmā te śuṣminnavayāḥ. Mahaścidyasya mīḍhuṣo yavyā haviṣmato maruto vandate gīḥ.

Mighty Indra, in the battles of this life, protect us well along with the learned and the wise, hurt us not. Lord of infinite power, surely the high and divine voice of yours reveals the nature and virtue of those who, in every season, with appropriate samagri, perform the yajnas. The yajamana, host-performer of yajna, with his offerings sings the songs of praise in honour of the lord of rain and the carriers of the yajna, the winds.

47. (Agni Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

अक्रन् कर्म कर्मकृतः सह वाचा मयोभुवा ।
देवेभ्यः कर्म कृत्वास्तं प्रेत सचाभुवः ॥४७॥

Akran karma karmakṛtaḥ saha vācā mayobhuvā. Devebhyaḥ karma kṛtvāstaṁ preta sacābhuvaḥ.

Men of noble action, yajna, who act together in the company of the pious and dedicated people, using the delightful language of love in communication in accordance with the sacred Word of the Divine, Veda, having played their part, go home and retire from life in peace and tranquillity.

48. (Yajna Devata, Aurnavabha Ṛshi)

अवभृथ निचुम्पुण निचेरुरसि निचुम्पुणः । अव देवैर्देव-कृतमेनोऽयासिषमव मर्त्यैर्मर्त्यैकृतं पुरुराव्णो देव रिष-स्पाहि ॥४८॥

Avabhṛtha nicumpuṇa nicerurasi nicumpuṇaḥ. Ava devairdevakṛtameno'yāsiṣamava martyair-martyakṛtaṁ pururāvṇo deva riśaspāhi.

Cleansed and purified by knowledge and Dharma, I am calm and constant. You are calm and constant too. I collect and arrange the Samidhas (fuel wood for yajna) and through yajna, give up the sins committed with the mind and senses as well as the evil done with the body. You too save yourself from sin and evil. Lord Supreme, save us from violence, sin and evil, the cause of long suffering.

49. (Yajna Devata, Aurnavabha Ṛshi)

पूर्णा दर्वि परा पत सुपूर्णा पुनरापत ।
वस्नेव विक्रीणावहाऽइषमूर्जꣳ शतक्रतो ॥४९॥

Pūrṇā darvi parā pata supūrṇā punarāpata. Vasneva vikrīṇāvahā' iṣamūrjaṁ śatakrato.

The ladle, full with ghee and samagri, goes up (to the sky from the vedi). It comes down to the earth, full again (with water). Lord of infinite vision and a thousand yajnas, may we too, yajamana and the priest, give and take, as in exchange,yajna, food, energy and other things.

50. (Indra Devata, Aurnavabha Ṛshi)

देहि मे ददामि ते नि मे धेहि नि ते दधे ।
निहारं च हरासि मे निहारं निहराणि ते स्वाहा ॥५०॥

Dehi me dadāmi te ni me dhehi ni te dadhe. Nihāram ca harāsi me nihāram niharāṇi te svāhā.

In truth of word: you give me, I give you. You use what I give you, I use what you give me. Give me for a price, I pay the price to you.

51. (Indra Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

अक्षन्नमीमदन्त ह्यव प्रियाऽअधूषत । अस्तोषत स्वभानवो विप्रा नविष्ठया मती योजा न्विन्द्र ते हरी ॥५१॥

Akṣannamīmadanta hyava priyā'adhūṣata. Astoṣata svabhānavo viprā naviṣṭhayā matī yojā nvindra te harī.

Lord of the world/assembly, Indra, your people, learned and wise, brilliant in their own right, with latest application of their mind and discovery/invention, sing in praise of the Lord, celebrate their success, feast and enjoy themselves and, dear even to others who are opposed, shake the enemies of humanity. Saddle your horses fast, Indra. Rise up, nation, with all your might and mind.

52. (Indra Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

सुसन्दृशं त्वा वयं मघवन् वन्दिषीमहि। प्र नूनं पूर्णबन्धुर स्तुतो यासि वशाँ२॥ऽअनु योजा न्विन्द्र ते हरी ॥५२॥

Susandṛśam tvā vayam maghavan vandiṣīmahi. Pra nūnaṁ pūrṇabandhura stuto yāsi vaśāṁ' anu yojā nvindra te harī.

Lord of the world/President of the assembly. Indra, lord of all the wealth and power, brilliant and blissful to the eye, we sing songs of praise for you. Sung and celebrated, full of love and kindness, everything in bond with you, you proceed to us with all the gifts and blessings for us. Saddle your horses fast, Indra. Rise up, nation, with all your might and mind.

53. (Mana Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

मनो॒ न्वाह्वा॑महे नाराश॒ꣳसेन॒ स्तोमे॑न ।
पि॒तॄणां च॒ मन्म॑भिः ॥५३॥

Mano nvāhvāmahe nārāśaṁsena stomena.
Pitṝṇām ca manmabhiḥ.

With the contribution of our predecessors, continuous sacrifice and dedication of our colleagues, and the generous resources of our seniors, we concentrate on the mind to develop its power and potential all round.

54. (Mana Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

आ नॅ॑ऽएतु मन॒ः पुन॒ः क्रत्वे॒ दक्षा॑य जी॒वसे॑ ।
ज्योक् च॒ सूर्यं॑ दृ॒शे ॥५४॥

Ā na' etu manaḥ punaḥ kratve dakṣāya jīvase.
Jyok ca sūryam dṛśe.

May the mind, seat of memory, come to us whole and entire, again and again, from birth to birth across time, for continuous and cumulative retention of knowledge, karma and sanskaras — seeds and impressions of thoughts, actions and ideas — for growing strength and competence, for increasing health and longevity of life and for a constant vision of the Sun, the Supreme Spirit of life and the universe.

55. (Mana Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

पुन॑र्नः पितरो॒ मनो॒ ददा॑तु दैव्यो॒ जनः॑ ।
जी॒वं व्रात॑ꣳसचेमहि ॥५५॥

Punarnaḥ pitaro mano dadātu daivyo janaḥ.
Jīvam vrātaṁ sacemahi.

May this wonderful sagely man, with the blessings of our forefathers who protected, prepared and shaped him, help us regain, here and hereafter, a noble mind and intelligence, so that with him we live a virtuous life of discipline and holy vows.

56. (Soma Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

व॒यꣳसो॑म व्र॒ते तव॒ मन॑स्त॒नूषु॒ बिभ्र॑तः ।
प्र॒जाव॑न्तः सचेमहि ॥५६॥

Vayaṁ soma vrate tava manastanūṣu bibhrataḥ.
Prajāvantaḥ sacemahi.

Soma, Lord of peace and creator of the universe, giver of health and vitality, may we, biding within the holy bonds of your discipline and our vows, with alert minds and healthy bodies, live on in peace and joy with our children and the community.

57. (Rudra Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

ए॒ष ते॑ रुद्र भा॒गः स॒ह स्वस्राम्बि॑कया॒ तं जु॑षस्व॒ ।
स्वाहै॒ष ते॑ रुद्र भा॒गऽआ॒खुस्ते॑ प॒शुः ॥५७॥

Eṣate rudra bhāgaḥ saha svasrāmbikayā taṁ juṣasva svāhaiṣa te rudra bhāga' ākhuste paśuḥ.

Man of justice, Rudra, this is your share of knowledge. Take it with its sister, companion, the vision of the Veda. Serve it with reverence. Extend it in creative action through yajna. Man of justice and power, this is your share of wealth. Take it with its sister, companion, the voice of the Veda. Serve it with reverence. Use and enjoy it with restraint. Take up the tool, the spade, and dig your garden. Work is wealth and worship. Use the tool and the wealth with the voice of the Veda.

58. (Rudra Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

अव॑ रु॒द्रम॑दीम॒ह्यव॑ दे॒वं त्र्य॑म्बकम् । यथा॑ नो॒ वस्य॑स॒स्कर॒द्यथा॑ न॒: श्रेय॑स॒स्कर॒द्यथा॑ नो व्यवसा॒ययात् ॥५८॥

Ava rudramadīmahyava devaṁ tryambakam. Yathā no vasyasaskaradyathā naḥ śreyasas-karadyathā no vyavasāyayāt.

We worship Rudra, Lord of justice, destroyer of evil, brilliant and generous, constant in vision and awareness in the three phases of time, past, present and future. We worship him so that we eliminate want and suffering, so that he may bless us with comfortable homes, greatness and honour, and firm resolution in hard work and industry.

59. (Rudra Devata, Bandhu Ṛshi)

भे॒ष॒जम॑सि भेष॒जं गवेऽश्वा॑य॒ पुरु॑षाय भेष॒जम् । सु॒खं मे॒षाय॑ मे॒ष्यै ॥५९॥

Bheṣajamasi bheṣajaṁ gave'śvāya puruṣāya bheṣajam. Sukhaṁ meṣāya meṣyai.

You are the panacea, universal cure for the ailments of the body, mind and soul, saviour against the evils of ignorance, injustice and poverty. You are the healer for the cows, horses, humans, rams and their females. You are health and happiness for all.

60. (Rudra Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

त्र्य॑म्बकं यजामहे सुग॒न्धिं पु॑ष्टि॒वर्ध॑नम् । उ॒र्वा॒रु॒कमि॑व॒ बन्ध॑नान्मृ॒त्योर्मु॑क्षीय॒ माऽमृता॑त् । त्र्य॑म्बकं यजामहे सुग॒न्धिं प॑ति॒वेद॑नम् । उ॒र्वा॒रु॒कमि॑व॒ बन्ध॑ना॒दि॒तो मु॑क्षीय॒ मामुत॑: ॥६०॥

Tryambakaṁ yajāmahe sugandhiṁ puṣṭi-vardhanam. Urvārukamiva bandhanān-mrtyormukṣīya mā'mṛtāt. Tryambkaṁ yajāmahe sugandhiṁ pativedanam. Urvārukamiva bandhanādito mukṣīya māmutaḥ.

We worship Rudra, Lord of the Universe, constant and invariable in all the three phases of time, and the first cause of health, growth, prosperity and happiness. May we, with His grace, be released from the bonds of death into freedom, immortality and eternal joy (ananda), just as the ripe fruit of melon falls off from the stalk on the branch to fullness and freedom. And may we never fall off from the state of freedom, immortality and eternal joy in the company of the Lord. We worship the Lord, Rudra, constant and invariable through time, purest and purifying, sustainer and protector who reveals Himself to His devotees. May He with His grace release us from the bonds of mortality here just as the melon fruit is released from the stalk, but we may never fall off from freedom, immortality, ananda and the presence of the Lord.

61. (Rudra Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

एतत्ते॑ रुद्रावसं॒ तेन॑ प॒रो मूज॑व॒तोऽतीहि ।॒ अव॑ततधन्वा॒ पिना॑कावस॒ः कृत्ति॑वासा॒ऽअहि॑ꣳसन्नः शि॒वोऽतीहि ॥६१॥

Etatte rudrāvasaṁ tena paro mūjavato'tīhi. Avatatadhanvā pināākāvasaḥ kṛttivāsā' ahiṁsannaḥ śivo'tīhi.

Rudra, warrior of the bow in readiness, strong in position with shield and armour, this is the way you defend and protect. Come down from the mountain heights and be with us wholly. Hurt us not, be good and kind and gracious.

62. (Rudra Devata, Narayana Ṛshi)

त्र्या॒युषं॑ ज॒मद॑ग्नेः क॒श्यप॑स्य त्र्यायु॒षम् ।
यद्दे॒वेषु॑ त्र्यायु॒षं तन्नो॑ऽअस्तु त्र्यायु॒षम् ॥६२॥

Tryāyuṣaṁ jamadagneḥ kaśyapasya tryāyuṣam.
Yaddeveṣu tryāyuṣaṁ tanno' astu tryāyuṣam.

Bless us with the threefold life — of the body, mind and spirit, for the three stages of life - childhood, youth, and age, upto 300-400 years, for all the ashrams (functional periods), and all the varnas (professional communities). Give us the threefold life of the eye, internal and external, of knowledge of the body, mind and soul, and of the world. Give us the threefold life of creativity for service, growth and spirituality. Give us the threefold life of the devas, the learned, wise, generous people, for excellence, contribution and removal of ignorance, injustice and poverty.

63. (Rudra Devata, Narayana Ṛshi)

शि॒वो नामा॑सि स्वधि॑तिस्ते पि॒ता नम॑स्तेऽअस्तु॒ मा मा॑ हिꣳसीः। निव॑र्त्तया॒म्यायु॑षे॒ऽन्नाद्या॑य प्र॒जन॑नाय रा॒यस्पोषा॑य सुप्रजा॒स्त्वाय॑ सु॒वीर्या॑य ॥६३॥

Śivo nāmāsi svadhitiste pitā namaste'astu mā mā hiṁsīḥ. Nivarttayāmyāyuṣe'nnādyāya prajananāya rāyaspoṣāya suprajāstvāya suvīryāya.

Rudra, Lord and father, Shiva you are by name, saviour, giver of knowledge, peace and prosperity. Salutations to you in reverence and worship. Hurt me not, father. I abide and pray for life and health, food and sustenance, virility, children, family, strength and prowess, prosperity, and freedom from suffering.

इति तृतीयोऽध्यायः ॥

CHAPTER–IV

1. (Apah and Oshadhis Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

एदमगन्म देवयजनं पृथिव्या यत्र देवासोऽअजुषन्त विश्वे। ऋक्सामाभ्यांꣳसन्तरन्तो यजुर्भी रायस्पोषेण समिषा मदेम। इमाऽआपः शमु मे सन्तु देवीरोषधे त्रायस्व स्वधिते मैनꣳहिꣳसीः ॥१॥

Edamaganma devayajanaṁ pṛthivyā yatra devāso' ajuṣanta viśve. Ṛksāmābhyāṁ santaranto yajurbhī rāyaspoṣeṇa samiṣā madema. Imā' āpaḥ śamu me santu devīroṣadhe trāyasva svadhite mainaṁ hiṁsīḥ.

Lo! here we come to this holy place of yajna for the gods, powers of health, where the noblest of the world collected and delighted in their sacred enterprise. With joyous recitation of Riks, Yajus and Samans (with knowledge and action in the hope of joyous benefits) we offer food for the fire with libations of rich materials energetically and enthusiastically and cross the hurdles and suffering. May the holy waters bring health and peace. Noble herb, cure and save; unfailing power, do not hurt or kill this person.

2. (Apah Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

आपोऽअस्मान् मातरः शुन्धयन्तु घृतेन नो घृतप्वः पुनन्तु । विश्वꣳहि रिप्रं प्रवहन्ति देवीरुदिदाभ्यः शुचिरा पूतऽएमि। दीक्षातपसोस्तनूरसि तां त्वा शिवाꣳशग्मां परिदधे भद्रं वर्ण पुष्यन् ॥२॥

Āpo' asmān mātaraḥ śundhayantu ghṛtena no ghṛtapvaḥ punantu. Viśvaṁ hi ripram pravahanti devīrudidābhyaḥ śucirā pūta' emi Dīkṣātapasostanūrasi tāṁ tvā śivāṁ śagmāṁ pari dadhe bhadraṁ varṇaṁ puṣyan.

Mother waters purify us: with their essence and efficacy, they sanctify us. The waters are sacred powers of nature: they wash off the entire dirt and let all the wanted health and knowledge flow in. Pure and sanctified by the waters, I come up. This body is a gift of Diksha and Tapas, commitment to health and laws of nature, and hard discipline of body, mind and soul. That body I bear as a blessing, lovely, strong and graceful, shining with the golden glow of good health.

3. (Megha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

महीनां पयोऽसि वर्चोदाऽअसि वर्चो मे देहि ।
वृत्रस्यासि कनीनकश्चक्षुर्दाऽअसि चक्षुर्मे देहि ॥३॥

Mahīnāṁ payo'si varcodā'asi varco me dehi. Vṛtrasyāsi kanīnakaścakṣurdā'asi cakṣurme dehi.

The waters of life flow to the earths from the sun. The life of the cloud radiates from the sun. The sun is the giver of light and lustre. Give me the light and lustre of life. The sun is the giver of the light of the eye. Give me the light of the eye internal as well as external.

4. (Paramatma Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

चित्पतिर्मा पुनातु वाक्पतिर्मा पुनातु देवो मा सविता पुनात्वच्छिद्रेण पवित्रेण सूर्यस्य रश्मिभिः । तस्य ते पवित्रपते पवित्रपूतस्य यत्कामः पुने तच्छकेयम् ॥४॥

Citpatirmā punātu vākpatirmā punātu devo mā savitā punātvacchidreṇa pavitreṇa sūryasya raśmibhiḥ. Tasya te pavitrapate pavitrapūtasya yatkāmaḥ pune tacchakeyam.

Lord of intelligence and awareness, I pray, enlighten me. Lord of the Divine Vak, I pray, sanctify me with the voice of the Veda. Savita, Lord Creator of the universe, I pray, consecrate me with a ceaseless shower of the purest rays of the sun. Lord of purity, purest of the pure, whatever the desire for which I pray for purity, that desire may be fulfilled. Bless me that I may make it possible.

5. (Yajna Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

आ वो॑ देवासऽईमहे वा॒मं प्र॑यत्य॒ध्व॒रे ।
आ वो॑ देवासऽआ॒शिषो॑ य॒ज्ञिया॑सो हवामहे ॥५॥

Ā vo devāsa' īmahe vāmaṁ prayatyadhvare.
Ā vo devāsa' āśiṣo yajñiyāso havāmahe.

Devas of Yajna, mother powers of nature, learned and wise men, experts of the science of yajna, through the performance of this yajna, we pray for virtues of character, competence and of noble action. We, devotees of yajna, ask for your blessings that our desires and projects may be fulfilled and completed with success.

6. (Yajna Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

स्वाहा॑ य॒ज्ञं मन॑स॒ः स्वाहो॒रोर॒न्तरि॑क्षात् । स्वाहा॒
द्यावा॑पृथि॒वीभ्या॒ꣳस्वाहा॒ वाता॒दार॑भे॒ स्वाहा॑ ॥६॥

Svāhā yajñaṁ manasaḥ svāhororantarikṣāt. svāhā dyāvāpṛthivībhyāṁ svāhā vātādārabhe svāhā.

With the voice of the Veda, in the language of expertise through education and training for the illumination of knowledge, with the sentiments of truth and love in togetherness for the sanctity of dealings in the business of living, I begin the yajna from the purity and sincerity of the mind, from the wind, and then from the vastness of the sky and space, in the service of the earth and heaven.

7. (Agni-Ap-Brihaspati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

आकूत्यै प्रयुजेऽग्नये स्वाहा मेधायै मनसेऽग्नये स्वाहा दीक्षायै तपसेऽग्नये स्वाहा सरस्वत्यै पूष्णेऽग्नये स्वाहा । आपो देवीर्बृहतीर्विश्वशम्भुवो द्यावापृथिवीऽउरोऽअन्तरिक्ष। बृहस्पतये हविषा विधेम स्वाहा ॥७॥

Ākūtyai prayuje'gnaye svāhā medhāyai manase'gnaye svāhā dīkṣāyai tapase'gnaye svāhā sarasvatyai puṣṇe'gnaye svāhā. Āpo devīrbṛhatīrviśva-śambhuvo dyāvāpṛthivī' uro' antarikṣa. Bṛhaspataye haviṣā vidhema svāhā.

This oblation is for lighting of the fire for the resolution and dedication of the mind to virtue and the voice of the Veda. This is for the development of intelligence and the study of science and electricity for the general good in the language of common understanding. This is for commitment to Dharma and the teaching and learning of solar energy and the original universal heat in the language of universal understanding. This is for knowledge and education and the study of nourishment and vital heat of the body with scientific language for all. We study the heavenly waters of great and universal good and peace, earth and heaven and the vast middle regions of the sky. And we study all these with oblations of appropriate samagri materials with the chants of the divine revelations of the Vedas.

8. (Ishvara Devata, Atreya Ṛshi)

विश्वो॑ दे॒वस्य॑ ने॒तुर्मर्तो॑ वुरीत स॒ख्यम् ।
विश्वो॑ रा॒यऽइ॑षुध्यति द्यु॒म्नं वृ॑णीत पु॒ष्यसे॒ स्वाहा॑ ॥८॥

Viśvo devasya neturmarto vurīta sakhyam. Viśvo rāya' iṣudhyati dyumnaṁ vṛṇīta puṣyase svāhā.

May all mankind choose and pray for the love and friendship of the Lord and Ruler of the world, and may all, with prayers to Him, try for the attainment of wealth and prosperity for health and growth.

9. (Vidvan Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

ऋ॒क्सा॒मयो॒: शिल्पे॑ स्थ॒स्ते वा॒मार॑भे॒ ते मा॑ पात॒मास्य य॒ज्ञस्यो॒दृच॑: । शर्मा॑सि॒ शर्म॑ मे यच्छ॒ नम॑स्तेऽअस्तु॒ मा मा॑ हिꣳसीः ॥९॥

Ṛksāmayoḥ śilpe sthaste vāmārabhe te mā pātamāsya yajñasyodṛcaḥ. Śarmāsi śarma me yaccha namaste' astu mā mā hiṁsīḥ.

After the study of Rigveda and Samaveda, both treasures of science and technology, in which study the content of the verses is actually realized, I begin this practical yajna of science and technology (in the laboratory and the workshop). May the two protect me and bless me. Reverence and salutations to you, to the teacher, to the Lord. Accept my salutations. Hurt me not, put me not off. You are peace and comfort. Give me peace and comfort of mind.

10. (Yajna Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

ऊर्गस्याङ्गिर॒स्यूर्णम्र॑दाऽऊर्ज॑ मयि॑ धेहि । सोम॑स्य नी॒विर॑सि॒ विष्णो॒: शर्मा॑सि॒ शर्म॒ यज॑मान॒स्येन्द्र॑स्य॒ योनि॑रसि सुस॒स्याः कृ॒षीस्कृ॑धि । उच्छ्र॑यस्व वनस्पतऽऊ॒र्ध्वो मा॑ पा॒ह्यꣳह॑स॒ऽआस्य य॒ज्ञस्यो॒दृच॑: ॥१०॥

Ūrgasyāṅgirasyūrṇamṛadā' ūrjam mayi dhehi. Somasya nīvirasi viṣṇoḥ śarmāsi śarma yajamānasyendrasya yonirasi susasyāḥ kṛṣīskṛdhi. Ucchrayasva vanaspata' ūrdhvo mā pāhyaṁhasa'āsya yajñasyodṛcaḥ.

You are tecknowledge, giver of wealth and power, realized with the energy of fire (heat), revealer of the secrets of energy and cover of safety for the creations of power. Give me energy and power.

You are the source of comfort and prosperity, gifted by yajna created by the man of knowledge, meant for the people devoted and dedicated to yajna by the grace of Indra. Increase and multiply the products of agriculture. Herbs and trees, grow and increase. Nourish, protect and help me to grow and rise high. Nourish and protect the man of yajna who has realized the mysteries of the power of the divine knowledge of nature. Save us from sin and evil.

11. (Agni Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

व्र॒तं कृ॑णुता॒ग्निर्ब्र॑ह्मा॒ग्निर्य॒ज्ञो वन॒स्पति॑र्य॒ज्ञिय॑: । दैवी॑ं धिय॑ं मनामहे सुमृडी॒काम॒भिष्ट॑ये वर्चो॒धां य॒ज्ञवा॑हसꣳसु॒ती॒र्था नौ॑ऽअस॒द्वशे॑ । ये दे॒वा मनो॑जाता मनो॒युजो॒ दक्ष॑क्रतव॒स्ते नौ॑ऽवन्तु॒ ते न॑: पान्तु॒ तेभ्य॒: स्वाहा॑ ॥११॥

Vratam kṛṇutāgnirbrahmāgniryajño vanaspatir-yajñiyaḥ. Daivīm dhiyam manāmahe sumṛḍīkāmabhiṣṭaye varcodhām yajñavāhasaṁ sutīrthā no'asadvaśe. Ye devā manojātā manoyujo dakṣakratavaste no'vantu te naḥ pāntu tebhyaḥ svāhā.

Keep the vow of yajnagni, the fire of yajna. Agni is Brahma, the ultimate existent, omniscient, blissful Reality. Agni is yajna, individual, collective and ultimate act of creation. Agni is the nourishing and sustaining power of the forests, and must be served through yajna. We work and pray for sacred intelligence — excellent instrument of the knowledge and pursuit of science and spirituality, source of brilliance and power and the means of the extension and development of yajna — for the sake of happiness and well-being. May this intelligence, bright and gracious, saviour as a 'tirtha' for pilgrimage, ever shine in our mind and faith. May the masters of the science of yajna, men of genius, dedication and application of mind protect us, nourish us, advance us. Theirs is the language of enlightenment. They have it for us, for yajna, for Agni, for Brahma. Keep up the vow.

12. (Apah Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

श्वात्राः पीता भवत यूयमापोऽअस्माकमन्तरुदरे सुशेवाः। ताऽअस्मभ्यमयक्ष्माऽअनमीवाऽअनागसः स्वदन्तु देवीरमृताऽ-ऋतावृधः ॥१२॥

Śvātrāḥ pītā bhavata yūyamāpo' asmākamantarudare suśevāḥ. Tā' asmabhyamayakṣmā' anamīvā' anāgasaḥ svadantu devīramṛtā' ṛtāvṛdhaḥ.

Taste and drink deep of the celestial waters of immortality, so sweet and agreeable to assimilate and internalize. Free from sickness, disease and sin, peace-giving and replete with knowledge and wisdom for all of us, they extend the frontiers of our knowledge of truth and divine law. They protect you against diseases like fever, dysentery and tuberculosis.

13. (Apah Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

इ॒यं ते॑ य॒ज्ञिया॑ त॒नूर॒पो मु॑ञ्चामि॒ न प्र॒जाम् । अꣳहो॑मुच॒ः स्वाहा॑कृताः पृथि॒वीमा॑विꣳशत पृथि॒व्या सम्भ॑व ॥१३॥

Iyam te yajñiyā tanūrapo muñcāmi na prajām. Aṁhomucaḥ svāhākṛtāḥ pṛthivīmāviśata pṛthivyā sambhava.

This body of yours is for yajna by yajna. I release the waters but not my creation and my people — I save my people. Mix the waters — sterilized, purified, reinforced, invigorated — wholly and fully with the earth, and you too be one with the earth (to regain health and vigour).

14. (Agni Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

अग्ने॒ त्वꣳ सु जा॑गृहि व॒यꣳ सु मं॑न्दिषीमहि ।

Agne tvaṁ su jāgṛhi vayaṁ sumandiṣīmahi. Rakṣā ṇo' aprayucchan prabudhe naḥ punaskṛdhi.

Agni is universal, ever awake. It is awake while we are awake. It is awake while we are asleep. Never relenting, it protects and preserves us. And after our sleep it wakes us up again.

15. (Agni Devata, Angiras Ṛshi)

पुनर्मनः पुनरायुर्मऽआगन्पुनः प्राणः पुनरात्मा मऽआगन्-

After sleep, after death, after Pralaya, annihilation, we get back the mind, we get back the life, we get back the vital pranic energy, we get back the spirit, we get back the eye, the ear, and all other senses. May Agni, immanent life and lord of the earth, irresistible and indomitable, save and protect us from despicable evil and sin.

16. (Agni Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

त्वमग्ने व्रतपाऽअसि देवऽआ मर्त्येष्वा । त्वं यज्ञेष्वीड्यः ।

Tvamagne vratapā'asi deva' ā martyeṣvā. Tvaṁ yajñeṣvīḍyaḥ. Rāsveyatsomā bhūyo bhara devo naḥ savitā vasordāta vasvadāt.

Agni, Lord of the universe, immanent vitality and energy of the world, you are the guardian and preserver of our spiritual vows, moral commitments and projects and resolutions in the mortal human world. You are worthy of adoration, of study, service and development, through yajna and collective enterprises. Soma, lord giver of honour and glory through art and industry, give us the wealth of success and honour again and again.

Savita, Lord Creator of the world, giver of stability and security of home, give us inspiration, security and stability of the good life.

17. (Agni Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

एषा ते शुक्र तनूरेतद्वर्चस्तया सम्भव भ्राजङ्गच्छ ।

Eṣā te śukra tanūretadvarcastayā sambhava bhrājaṁgaccha. Jūrasi dhṛtā manasā juṣṭā viṣṇave.

O man, virile and brave, this body is yours, borne with love and service and maintained for Vishnu, sustainer of the world, and for yajna, noble action. It is your honour and glory. Be with it, act with mind and soul and achieve the glory of life. You are fast in action and vibrant in spirit. Act fast with your mind and soul and achieve the brilliance of knowledge and wonder of succes in enterprise.

18. (Vak & Vidyut Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

तस्यास्ते सत्यसवसः प्रसवे तन्वो यन्त्रमशीय स्वाहा ।

Tasyāste satyasavasaḥ prasave tanvo yantramaśīya svāhā. Śukramasi candramasyamṛtamasi vaiśvadevamasi.

Lord Creator, true and glorious, in the yajna of creation of yours, with electric energy and the divine knowledge of the Veda in unison, I pray, I may design an instrument and apparatus of the form and structure which would be faultless and a source of comfort, peace and happiness for all in general, and a matter of pride and satisfaction for the scholars.

19. (Vak & Vidyut Devate, Vatsa Ṛshi)

चिदसि मनासि धीरसि दक्षिणासि क्षत्रियासि यज्ञियास्य-दितिरस्युभयतः शीर्ष्णी । सा नः सुप्राची सुप्रतीच्येधि मित्रस्त्वा पदि बध्नीतां पूषाऽध्वनस्पात्विन्द्रायाध्यक्षाय ॥१९॥

Lord of truth and glory, in this creation of yours, great is the use of the vision and power of the language of Divinity, Veda, in the development of human society. So is the use of the power of universal electric energy. It gives us an awareness of knowledge, which makes thought and communication possible. It is a tool and instrument of intelligence and will. It facilitates expertise and the business of governance. It augments yajna and production, which is efficacious and powerful both internally and externally. It is permanent and indestructible, and a source and means of comfort and well-being before and after. We pray that Pusha, the powers of nourishment and development friendly to mankind, may hold and control the use of these powers in the way of their application in the service of the Lord Supreme, observer and controller of the wealth of the world, and may the Lord protect humanity in the course of their progress.

20. (Vak & Vidyut Devate, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Anu tvā mātā manyatāmanu pitā'nu bhrātā sagarbhyo'nu sakhā sayūthyaḥ. Sā devi devamacchehīndrāya somaꣳ rudrastvā varttayatu svasti somasakhā punarehi.

May your mother approve and bless your pursuit of energy and the literature of knowledge. May your father permit and bless and help, may your brother agree and support, may your friend in the community consent and cooperate in your project. May that goddess of light and energy come and bless you with sweet success in your programme for the glory of Indra and the happiness of humanity with beneficent means of comfort and well-being. May the Lord of justice and love inspire you. May the scholar of Rudra discipline and knowledge guide you. May success and honour come to you again and again, friend of humanity and devotee of the Lord Supreme, for the sake of life and the environment.

21. (Vak & Vidyut Devate, Vatsa Ṛshi)

वस्व्यस्यदितिरस्यादित्यासि रुद्रासि चन्द्रासि ।

Vasvyasyaditirasyādityāsi rudrāsi candrāsi. Bṛhaspatiṣṭvā sumne ramṇātu rudro vasubhi-rācake.

This energy and the language (which you pursue) pertains to the heat of agni that supports life on earth, pursued by scholars of twenty four years discipline. It relates to the pranic energy of life, pursued by scholars of forty-four years discipline. It pertains to the solar radiation, pursued by scholars of forty-eight years discipline. It is blissful as the light of the moon. It is correct and beneficent like the justice and love of Rudra, it is brilliant like the glory of the sun. And this energy is indestructible, eternal. May the great lord of knowledge, Brihaspati, inspire you; may Rudra, lord of love and correctness, dedicate you; may they bless you to enjoy this noble pursuit of yours and shine with the scholars dedicated to life-energies of nature.

22. (Vak & Vidyut Devate, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Energy and Word of the Divine, you are on top of the sky, in the middle of the earth, and in the chant of the divine verses in celebration of the devas in yajna. I light up and activate the energy and the Divine voice with rich libations of ghee and chant of the vaidic hymns. You too light up and activate this energy and the Divine voice. Come with us and rejoice. It is our brother, our love, yours too. Wealth is yours. Mine too. The wealth of knowledge, power and materials you gain. We too. Knowing, resolving and doing, we may never be void of this wealth of life for health and happiness.

Samakhye devyā dhiyā saṁ dakṣiṇayo-rucakṣasā. Mā ma'āyuḥ pramoṣirmo' ahaṁ tava vīraṁ videya tava devi sandṛśi.

With a vision and intelligence, inspired, enlightened and versatile, precise, scientific and practical, I clearly see the divine gifts of natural energy and the voice of the Veda, and describe and show them applied and enacted in actual life. May this energy and this voice never hurt my life. May I never neglect or lose it. May I never be unfair to your heroes. You too never be unjust to my heroes.

24. (Yajna Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

"This is that part of Soma-Yajna which you can realize for yourself with the Gayatri verses", say this for me, to the seeker of the chemistry of Soma. "This is that part of Soma-Yajna which you can realize for yourself with the Trishtubh verses", say this for me, to the seeker of the manufacture of Soma. "This is that part of Soma-Yajna which you can realize for yourself with the Jagati Verses", say this for me, to the seeker of the value of Soma. "Perform the Soma-Yajna with the specific verses for social management and governance and be on top of success", say this for me, to the seeker of the power of Soma. You are pure, specialist of Soma-Yajna, you are purifier, you are ours, so wise, knowledgeable, so adorable. We, the seekers of knowledge and discrimination, accept you, support you and advance the yajna.

25. (Savita Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

For the love of the people I adore the lord of light, creator of earth and heaven and the middle regions of the skies, the eternal poet who composed this wonderful world of paradisal beauty and truth adorned with the jewels of life from His inexhaustible treasure of nature, lord so dear to the learned and the wise, the brilliant manifestation of whose existential form blazes in the heaven above and the earth below which He made. With His infinite mercy He created the regions of bliss for the people, the creatures He created and loved. The people adore you, lord, with their breath of life. Lord of the golden bough in both hands, bless the people with the breath and energy of life existential as well as eternal.

26. (Yajna Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Yajna, you are a symbol of the discipline of fire. You are the golden choice of Prajapati, father of the creatures. Your gifts are begot for the price of the highest wealth. You are pure and immaculate, begot in return for the purest offering of mine. Golden and blissful you are, I offer the richest gold of my life for the celestial bliss. You are the nectar of life. I get you with the offering of the immortal knowledge I have. Your wealth is in the womb of the moving earth and the environment. May that wealth be ours too with yajna. You nourish life in a thousand ways. May I, by the grace of Prajapati, participate in the nourishment.

27. (Vidvan Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Friend of friends, man of knowledge and wisdom, come, be friends with us. Pleasant and aspiring, come along, sit on the right side of Indra, lord of power and wealth and knowledge. Gentle and decent, come to the gentle and the decent. Persuasive teacher, guardian of Soma, brilliant, fearsome to the wicked and the non-serious wasters, smiling, versatile, dominant master, defend and protect those who value the gifts of Soma and knowledge. Let no one bully you.

28. (Agni Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Pari māgne duścaritād bādhasvā mā sucarite bhaja. Udāyuṣā svāyuṣodasthāmamṛtāṁ' anu.

Agni, Lord of light and life, save me all round from evil, drive off from me all that is bad in character and conduct. Establish me firmly in good character and conduct. Help me stay up there for a long age of goodness and high immortal virtue.

29. (Agni Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Agni, lord of light and life, may we all follow the path of goodness, love and non-violence by which the good man keeps off all hate and fear and attains to the safe haven of happiness and freedom.

30. (Varuna Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Varuna, Lord of the universe and power of the sun and wind, you are the protective cover of the earth and the presiding presence of its order. Omnipotent Lord, you keep the heaven and the sky in position and maintain the excellence of life on earth. Glorious ruler of the world, you are the absolute centre and circumference of all the spheres of the universe, and all of them move in observance of the inexorable law of the divine power.

31. (Varuna Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Vaneṣu vyantarikṣaṁ tatāna vājamarvatsu paya' usriyāsu. Hṛtsu kratuṁ varuṇo vikṣvagniṁ divi suryamadadhāt somamadrau.

Varuna, Lord Supreme, put expanse into waves and forests, velocity in the motion (of waves and winds), speed in the horses, milk in the cows, vision and will in the hearts, heat and desire in the living creatures, sun in heaven, nectar of life in the cloud, juice in the soma plant, and the soma plant on the mountain.

Ascend to the eye (light) of the sun, and enter into the pupil of the eye of agni (light of fire) where, self-illuminating with the rays of your light, you would be approached and pursued by the discriminative scholar of science.

33. (Surya & Vidvan Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Usrāvetaṁ dhūrṣāhau yujyethāmanaśrū' avīrahaṇau brahmacodanau. Svasti yajamānasya gṛhān gacchatam.

Scholars dedicated to science and spirit in search of the good life should commit themselves to the study and application of the energy of the sun and vayu (wind and electricity), both treasures of scientific power and means of comfort, to be specifically investigated and used just like two bullocks bearing the burdens for life's comfort to the house of the master without tears or hurt to anybody but supporting the young and the brave. The scholars also, for guidance, should reach the senior man of knowledge who, too, silently bears the burdens of life for the knowledge and comfort of others. Let the joy and comfort of this scientific yajna, in consequence, reach the home of the yajamana.

34. (Yajamana Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Lord of the earth, master of knowledge, you are a blessing for me. With the product of your study and my effort and support, reach any part of all the regions of the world shooting to your destination as an eagle. May no robber, no thief, no wolfish highway man, no man of evil pursuit, meet you on the way. May no one rob or deceive you or steal anything. Let the product of your yajna and mine reach the house of the yajamana fast.

35. (Surya Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Salutations in reverence, recognition and gratitude to the Sun, best friend, highest, all-seeing, great, brilliant, far-seeing light of the world, self-luminant,child of heaven. Sing in praise of him, serve his law of right and truth in life.

36. (Surya Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

Varuṇasyottambhanamasi varuṇasya skambha-sarjanī stho varuṇasya' ṛtasadanyasi varuṇasya' ṛtasadanamasi varuṇasya' ṛtasadanamāsīda.

You are the bond and ultimate pillar of the universe. You are the centre and sustenance of vayu's hold on things and the sun's two-fold power to move the waters in space. You are the mainstay of the world's phenomenal reality of Satyam and the seat and working of Rtam, the universal law of Right and Truth. By your grace only, we realize the meaning of existence and follow the divine law of Dharma.

37. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

या ते धामानि हविषा यजन्ति ता ते विश्वा परिभूरस्तु यज्ञम् । गयस्फानः प्रतरणः सुवीरोऽवीरहा प्रचरा सोम दुर्यान् ॥३७॥

Yā te dhāmāni haviṣā yajanti ta te viśvā paribhūrastu yajñam. Gayasphānaḥ prataraṇaḥ suvīro'vīrahā pracarā soma duryān.

Lord of the universe, whatever places are sanctified by the performance of yajna with oblations in your honour, all such places, O Soma, yajna may grace and sanctify for us too — yajna, promoter of the home, family and wealth, saviour from suffering, maker of the brave, redeemer of the weak, all-round generous and universal, may sanctify us too. Soma, scholar wise and dedicated, go round, speak for, propagate and perform yajna in every home.

CHAPTER–V

1. (Vishnu Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

अग्नेस्तनूरसि विष्णवे त्वा सोमस्य तनूरसि विष्णवे त्वाऽतिथेरातिथ्यमसि विष्णवे त्वा श्येनाय त्वा सोमभृते विष्णवे त्वाऽग्नये त्वा रायस्पोषदे विष्णवे त्वा ॥१॥

Yajna (Yajna materials), you are the body of fire (heat and electricity) dedicated to Vishnu for the completion of the noble act of service. You are the body of Soma (life-juice of the created phenomena) dedicated to Vishnu, for the purification of the air and the environment. You are the hospitality for the chance-visitor, dedicated to Vishnu for the attainment of knowledge. I do the yajna and offer the libations for Vishnu, for the 'eagle', fastest carrier of Soma to the Yajamana, for rapid advancement of the science and power of yajna. I offer the libations to the fire for the development of wealth and energy, for Vishnu, the powerful giver of virtue, for knowledge and the ability for action.

2. (Vishnu, Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

अग्नेर्जनित्रमसि वृषणौ स्थऽउर्वश्यस्यायुरसि पुरूरवाऽअसि। गायत्रेण त्वा छन्दसा मन्थामि त्रैष्टुभेन त्वा छन्दसा मन्थामि जागतेन त्वा छन्दसा मन्थामि ॥२॥

Yajna (yajna materials), you are the birth-place of fire, source power of fire-arms. You are the food of the cosmic agents of rain, air and the sun. You are the producer and provider of various comforts of life. You are the secret of the knowledge of the Shastras through learned gatherings. I refine and kindle the fire with the inspiring chant of the Gayatri verses. I invigorate you and raise the fire with the exhilarating chant of the Trishtubh verses. I boost you and rouse the fire with the ecstatic chant of the jagati verses.

3. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

भवतं नः समनसौ सचेतसावरेपसौ । मा यज्ञꣳहिꣳसिष्टं मा यज्ञपतिं जातवेदसौ शिवौ भवतमद्य नः ॥३॥

Bhavataṁ naḥ samanasau sacetasāvarepasau. Mā yajñaṁ hiṁ siṣṭam mā yajñapatim jātavedasau śivau bhavatamadya naḥ.

May the teacher and the disciple of the science of yajna be of equal mind in teaching and learning, harmonious in knowledge and instructions, gentle and free from coarseness in manners and communication. May these two devotees of the fire of yajna be auspicious harbingers of peace and happiness for us. May they not disturb or ruin the yajna. May they not hurt the yajnapati.

4. (Agni Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Agni (fire) present in agni (electricity) is universally active and operative. Deeply involved in the study of agni, child of the rshis of scholarship, one with his subject, graceful, enlightened, serious and dedicated, the teacher and researcher roams around with his love. May he, for us here, carry on the yajna of his project with the libations of his special materials and create new knowledge and food for further yajna.

5. (Vidyut Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Lord/Energy and Power of the universe, indestructible, dauntless and undaunted, light and lustre of the powers of nature, faultless and protector against misfortune, beyond calumny and condemnation, I accept/take you for all-over protection from all sides, for a blooming body, for the gift of ability, strength and power, prowess and lustre, so that you help to put me in a state of comfort and welfare in a straight and natural way and I celebrate in song the true and eternal cause of the good life.

6. (Agni Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

अग्नै व्रतपास्त्वे व्रतपा या तव तनूरियꣳसा मयि यो मम तनूरेषा सा त्वयि । सह नौ व्रतपते व्रतान्यनु मे दीक्षां दीक्षापतिर्मन्यतामनु तपस्तपस्पतिः ॥६॥

Agni, Lord/Power of light and energy, omnipresent protector and keeper of the vows of discipline, I take the vow of discipline and study and come in to you. This presence of yours is in me, and the same presence in me is in you. You and I are together, the preceptor and the disciple are together. Lord protector of the vows of discipline and pursuit, Lord of commitment and consecration, Lord of fire and relentless exercise of discipline, recognize and permit our vow of discipline and study, approve and consecrate my commitment, accept and bless my dedication and pursuit of the undertaking and programme.

7. (Soma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Soma, Lord and spirit of life, power brilliant, omnipresent in nature, master of unique knowledge and promoter of wealth, nurture the growth bit by bit, wave on wave, for the glory of Indra, the power of nature, and may Indra, the power, grow for you, the spirit. And may the seeker (the master and the disciple) grow for the joy of life. Help us grow, help our friends and comrades grow by virtue of your penetrating intelligence. Let joy and comfort grow. May success greet you! Man of brilliance dedicated to the spirit of life, joining you in your creative efforts for the production of food and energy, and the achievement of honour and prosperity, may we obtain the wanted power and wealth of life. To the speakers (and discoverers) of the Law (of nature), knowledge (of truth and law)! To earth and heaven, salutations (in gratefulness for fire and light and growth)!

Agni, Lord of fire and speech, your presence (in the devotee), silent but potential as in the metals of the earth, generous and deep in the caverns of the mind, defeats the cruellest and most fearsome words of the opponent. Your presence (in the devotee), loud and powerful as in the air and waters of the sky, generous and deep as in the caverns of the clouds, defeats the strongest and most passionate words of the opponent. Your presence (in the devotee), clear and brilliant as in the rays of light, generous and deep as in the implosions of the sun, overwhelms the most brilliant and most formidable speech of the opponent. This is the voice of nature. This is the voice of the Veda. This is the voice of the Divine.

Agni (fire, electricity and light) is the bringer of home for the homeless and wealth for all. It saves from destitution and exploitation, and from fear and deprivation. Know this agni: it is water from the sky, lives in the body parts as vital heat and comes bearing the name of health and longevity. It lives in this earth and that is its yajnic and indestructible form. For that reason, we light it in the vedi, raise it and feed it for the attainment of noble virtues.

Know the agni: it is in the vapours in the sky, the second region of space, in its yajnic and indestructible form. It comes bearing the name of health, longevity and comfort. For that reason, we light it in the vedi of science, raise it and feed it for the attainment of noble virtues.

Know the agni: it is light which illuminates various regions of the universe and lives in the moving sun in heaven, the third region of space, in its yajnic and indestructible form. It comes bearing the name of health, logevity, prosperity, light and life. For that reason, we light it in the vedi of technology, raise it and feed it for the attainment of noble virtues.

10. (Vak Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

सिꣳह्यसि सपत्नसाही देवेभ्यः कल्पस्व सिꣳह्यसि सपत्नसाही देवेभ्यः। शुन्धस्व सिꣳह्यसि सपत्नसाही देवेभ्यः शुम्भस्व ॥१०॥

Siṁhyasi sapatnasāhī devebhyaḥ kalpasva siṁhyasi sapatnasāhī devebhyaḥ. Śundhasva siṁhyasi sapatnasāhī devebhyaḥ śumbhasva.

Speech is powerful, as powerful as a lioness. Develop it for the good people so that they can face a rival and prevail. Purify it so that the noble people can resist an adversary and defeat him. Beautify it so that the holy people can fight out the enemy and win over darkness and evil.

11. (Vak Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

इन्द्रघोषस्त्वा वसुभिः पुरस्तात्पातु प्रचेतास्त्वा रुद्रैः पश्चात्पातु मनोजवास्त्वा पितृभिर्दक्षिणतः पातु विश्वकर्मा त्वादित्यै-रुत्तरतः पात्त्विदमहं तप्तं वार्बंहिर्धा यज्ञान्निःसृजामि ॥११॥

and work of the scholars of 36 years standing may extend it and preserve it from behind. The man of judgement and valuation as fast as the mind (manojawa), with the senior scholars past and present, should maintain the clarity and acceptability of its meaning and refinement on the right side of it. Vishwakarma, scholar of the world of existence and the structure of language, with the work of the scholars of 48 years standing, should maintain the overall beauty and effectiveness of it. (This is the yajna of creative speech.) With the fragrance of this yajna I breathe out the vapours of Vak (universal language) to be crystallized into the objective speech of communication.

12. (Vak Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

सिꣳह्यसि स्वाहा सिꣳह्यस्यादित्यवनिः स्वाहा सिꣳह्यसि ब्रह्मवनिः क्षत्रवनिः स्वाहा सिꣳह्यसि सुप्रजावनी रायस्पोषवनिः स्वाहा सिꣳह्यस्यावह देवान्यजमानाय स्वाहा भूतेभ्यस्त्वा ॥१२॥

Language is sacred and it is power. It is the treasure of science, science of the stars and light especially of the sun in the zodiacs. It is the language of the Veda and eliminates ignorance. It is the language of governance, administration and military science and fights out injustice and crime. It is the language of economics, commerce, finance and management and removes poverty and suffering. It is the language of social science and human welfare and eliminates anti-social forces. For the yajamana it brings spiritual knowledge and noble virtues. I serve and develop this noble language through yajna for the enlightenment and happiness of all the living beings.

13. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

ध्रुवोऽसि पृथिवीं दृꣳह ध्रुवक्षिदस्यन्तरिक्षं दृꣳहाच्युतक्षिदसि दिवं दृꣳहाग्नेः पुरीषमसि ॥१३॥

Dhruvo'si pṛthivīm dṛṁha ḍhruvakṣidasy-antariṣam dṛṁhācyutakṣidasi divam dṛṁhā-agneḥ purīṣamasi.

Yajna is firm and immovable, the centre of movement. It develops the earth and enriches its wealth. Develop yajna. It is the treasure-home of knowledge and prosperity. It expands the sky and increases its wealth and waters. Develop yajna. It is the seat of indestructible wealth. It expands radiation of light and energy from the regions of the sun and brings the light of knowledge. It supplements and sharpens the powers of nature. Develop yajna. Expand. Accelerate. Intensify. It is the completion, the finale.

14. (Savita Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

युञ्जते मनऽउत युञ्जते धियो विप्रा विप्रस्य बृहतो विपश्चितः । वि होत्रा दधे वयुनाविदेकऽइन्महो देवस्य सवितुः परिष्टुतिः स्वाहा ॥१४॥

Yuñjate mana' uta yuñjate ḍhiyo viprā viprasya bṛhato vipaścitaḥ. Vi hotrā dadhe vayunāvideka' inmahī devasya savituḥ pariṣṭutiḥ svāhā.

Great are the songs of celebration in praise of Savita, the Creator, Omnipresent Lord Supreme of infinite knowledge and Karma. Wise and dedicated men of multiple orders of yajna concentrate their mind and intelligence on that One Universal Presence. Knowing that language of celebration and Karma I meditate on the presence of the Lord all alone by myself.

15. (Vishnu Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

इदं विष्णुर्विचक्रमे त्रेधा निदधे पदम् ।
समूढमस्य पाꣳसुरे स्वाहा ॥१५॥

Idam viṣṇurvicakrame treḍhā nidadhe padam.
Samūḍhamasya pāṁsure svāhā.

Vishnu, Lord omnipresent sustainer of this dynamic world, visible and invisible, created it in three fold order — earth (prithivi), skies (antariksha) and heaven (dyu), or sattva (mind), rajas (motion) and matter (tamas) — and, alongwith the mystery that it is, set it in space. This is the divine voice.

16. (Vishnu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

इरावती धेनुमती हि भूतꣳसूयवसिनी मनवे दशस्या ।

Irāvatī dhenumatī hi bhūtaṁ sūyavasinī manave daśasyā. Vyaskabhnā rodasī viṣṇavete dādharttha pṛthivīmabhito mayūkhaiḥ svāhā.

The earth full of grain, rich in cows, covered with grass and greenery so pleasing to man, this earth with all her creatures held fast all round in orbit by the waves of gravitation, and the heaven above well-sustained in position, Vishnu, Lord immanent of the world, you maintain both of these and, of course, the divine word of the Veda.

17. (Vishnu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

देवश्रुतौ देवेष्वाघोषतं प्राची प्रेतमध्वरं कल्पयन्तीऽऊर्ध्वं यज्ञं नयतं मा जिह्वरतम् । स्वं गोष्ठमावदतं देवी दुर्येऽआयुर्मा निर्वादिष्टं प्रजां मा निर्वादिष्टमत्र रमेथां वर्ष्मन् पृथिव्याः॥१७॥

Devaśrutau deveṣvāghoṣataṁ prācī pretam-aḍhvaraṁ kalpayantī'ūrdhvaṁ yajñaṁ nayataṁ mā jihvaratam. Svam goṣṭhamāvadatam devī durye' āyurmā nirvādiṣṭaṁ prajām mā nirvādiṣṭamatra ramethāṁ varṣman pṛthivyāḥ.

Scholars well-versed in the science of yajna go forward to the noble people and proclaim that they strengthen and extend the yajna over the earth and to the sky so that they receive, like the two fold movements of prana and apana, the fragrance of the yajna of love and non-violence and send it onward to the heavens. Take the yajna high, never take it down. Pious men of virtue stay in their home and look after the cows fully well. Abuse not life. Revile not the people. Enjoy life on the earth under the showers of peace and joy.

18. (Vishnu Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

विष्णोर्नु कं वीर्याणि प्रवोचं यः पार्थिवानि विममे रजाꣳसि। योऽअस्कभायदुत्तरꣳसधस्थं विचक्रमाणस्त्रेधोरुगायो विष्णवे त्वा ॥१८॥

Viṣṇornukaṁ vīryāṇi pravocaṁ yaḥ pārthivāni vimame rajāᳬsi. Yo' askabhāyaduttaraṁ sadhastha̍m vicakramāṇastredhorugāyo viṣṇave tvā.

Let us celebrate the wonderful exploits of Vishnu who makes the threefold order of the heaven, the earth and the sky with the original materials of nature. Immanent with the later forms of the dynamic universe which He made and makes, He sustains the world. Celebrated in the hymns of the Veda, Lord, we worship you for the sake of the universal yajna of creation and pray for inspiration to perform yajna in our life.

18. (Vishnu Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

दि॒वो वा॑ विष्णऽउ॒त वा॑ पृथि॒व्या म॒हो वा॑ विष्णऽ-उ॒रोर॒न्तरि॑क्षात्। उ॒भा हि हस्ता॒ वसु॑ना पृ॒णस्वा प्रय॑च्छ॒ दक्षि॑णा॒दोत स॒व्याद्विष्ण॑वे त्वा ॥१९॥

Divo vā viṣṇa' uta vā pṛthivyā maho vā viṣṇa' urorantarikṣāt. Ubhā hi hastā vasunā pṛṇasvā prayaccha dakṣiṇādota savyād viṣṇave tvā.

Vishnu, Lord omnipresent of the universe, we worship you with yajna for the gifts of yajna. We pray: from the regions of heaven bless us with energy and light. From the vast sky and from the earth, and from the great womb of nature — the 'mahat' form of the creative mode — bless us and fill our life to the full with materials of joy and peace with both hands, from both sides, right and left.

20. (Vishnu Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

प्र तद्विष्णु॑ स्तवते वी॒र्येण मृ॒गो न भी॒मः कु॑च॒रो गि॑रि॒ष्ठाः। यस्योरुषु॒ त्रिषु॒ वि॒क्रम॑णेष्वधिक्षि॒यन्ति॒ भुव॑नानि॒ विश्वा॑॥२०॥

Pra tadviṣṇu statvate vīryeṇa mṛgo na bhīmaḥ kucaro giriṣṭhāḥ. Yasyoruṣu triṣu vikramaṇeṣvadhikṣiyanti bhuvanāni viśvā.

Like an awful mountain lion that roams around in his sole majesty, Vishnu, the omnipresent Lord of tremendous power and glory rules the world and commands the homage of His creatures. All the regions of the world rest in the vast spaces of the three orders of His wonderful creation — the earth, the sky and the heavens.

21. (Vishnu Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

विष्णो रराटमसि विष्णोः श्नप्त्रे स्थो विष्णोः स्यूरसि विष्णोर्ध्रुवोऽसि । वैष्णवमसि विष्णवे त्वा ॥२१॥

Viṣṇo rarāṭamasi viṣṇoḥ śnaptre stho viṣṇoḥ syūrasi viṣṇordhruvo'si. Vaiṣṇavamasi viṣṇave tvā.

The world is a manifestation of Vishnu's glory at two levels of existence, the animate and the inanimate. The elements of existence have been integrated into form by the presence of Vishnu. The form is one, firm, inviolable and organismic. The world is divine, it belongs to Vishnu. It is yajna. It is for yajna in celebration of the maker.

22. (Vishnu Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। आददे नार्यसीदमहꣳरक्षसां ग्रीवाऽअपि कृन्तामि । बृहन्नसि बृहद्रवा बृहतीमिन्द्राय वाचं वद ॥२२॥

In this world of Lord Savita's creation and blessedness, with the double strength of Ashwini's arms

(nature's powers of health, prana and apana) and the double gifts of nourishment from Pusha (earth's powers of gravitation and stability), I accept and undertake to do yajna. Yajna is a noble work for humanity. With this, we can drive away the forces of evil even by the neck. It is great and growing. It is the voice of divinity loud and clear. Proclaim this great voice of truth for the glory of Indra, ruler of the earth.

23. (Yajna Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

रक्षोहणं बलगहनं वैष्णवीमिदमहं तं बलगमुत्किरामि यं मे निष्ट्यो यममात्यो निचखानेदमहं तं बलगमुत्किरामि यं मे समानो यमसमानो निचखानेदमहं तं बलगमुत्किरामि यं मे सबन्धुर्यमसबन्धुर्निचखानेदमहं तं बलगमुत्किरामि यं मे सजातो यमसजातो निचखानोत्कृत्याङ्किरामि ॥२३॥

Just as I perform, refine and expand this yajna — an act that gathers strength, bestows strength of power, prosperity and happiness, and destroys negativity and evil, an act performed with the voice of the divine (Veda) for the divine — just as I do the yajna, you too do the same for advancement.

What my dedicated friend or my chief assistant has done to dig up the vedi for knowledge of the earth, and as he has performed the yajna of research, so I do the act for enlightenment and you too do the same for progress.

What my equal or my unequal has done and does in the field of education, the same I do for development and you too do the same for refinement.

What the equal of my brother or the unequal of my brother has done and does for the advancement of the science of yajna, I do the same developmental act, and you too do the same — for expansion.

What my brother, colleague or another higher or lower has done and does regularly for heightening the possibilities of yajna for the advancement of knowledge, prosperity and happiness, I do the same inspiring act and you too do the same for the higher life.

24. (Surya & Vidvan Devate, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

You are self-disciplined, self-luminous, free, able to defeat the rivals. You are ruled by the sessions of the community-yajna; you shine in the community sessions and you suppress the proud. You are ruled by the people, you shine among the people, and you eliminate the wicked. You are ruled by all, you shine among all and you win over those who are not your friends.

You are the individual, self-disciplined, self-enlightened, free, able to defeat the rivals. You are the community, autonomous, enlightened, able to keep down the insidious. You are the nation, governed by the people, nationally enlightened, free, able to suppress the wicked. You are the united nations of the world, governed by the united people, humanly enlightened, sovereign, able to win over the opposition and non-friends.

25. (Yajna Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

You are fighters against suffering and destroyers of evil while I rout the force of the enemy. You are devotees of Vishnu, Lord of the universe, and dedicated to yajna, a life of positive creative and constructive action. I bless and sanctify you. You are the destroyers of the wicked. I gauge the strength of the enemy and drive them away from you, friends of yajna. You are fighters against human poverty and misfortune. I know the powers of the exploiters. I shower success and prosperity on you, friends of social and economic well-being through yajna. President of the council and master of yajna, you are crusaders against ignorance and injustice and you face the power of the adversaries. By virtue of your dedication to Vishnu and to yajna, I take you close to me for success. Eliminators of sin and pollution, you break down their power in the service of society. I know your faith and I strengthen your faith and resolve. Yajna is holy, it is a Godly mission. Stay firm in your dedication to yajna, to God, to nature and to society.

26. (Yajna Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। आददे नार्यसीदमहꣳरक्षसां ग्रीवाऽअपिकृन्तामि । यवोऽसि यवयास्मद् द्वेषो यवयारातीर्दिवे त्वाऽन्तरिक्षाय त्वा पृथिव्यै त्वा शुन्धन्ताँल्लोकाः पितृषदनाः पितृषदनमसि ॥२६॥

In this world of Savita's creation, with the strength and vigour of prana and apana, and with the power and prowess of the bold and the brave I do homage to the man of learning and dedication and accept yajna as a mission so that I may catch the wicked and the evil by the neck and eliminate them head and foot from life and society. You are young and fast, speed itself. Drive away hate and fear from us. Eliminate poverty, adversity and failure. May all the people cooperate and join in the yajna in the search for the light of truth and universal Dharma, for exploration of the sky and space and for enrichment of the earth and the environment. This is the assembly of the wise and the learned people. May all the people join these men of knowledge and be enlightened. O woman, you are strong and bold. You too join in this venture.

27. (Yajna Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

Yajna, man of knowledge, president of the assembly, reach the regions of light and reveal the secrets of knowledge. Rise to the skies and fill the space there for knowledge. Reach into the earth and strengthen it. May the wind join you and help with the light of energy. May the two-fold movements of wind-energy, prana and apana, help you with their firm and unfailing power. I know and appreciate your dedication to knowledge and education, to governance and organization, to the economic system and wish you well. Promote knowledge, strengthen the social system, enrich the economic system. Promote life and health. Promote the welfare of the people.

28. (Yajna Devata, Autathya Dirghatama Ṛshi)

Lady of the house, hostess of yajna, you are firm and strong. May the yajamana, your husband, also be firm in this yajna, in this home, in this world, with his family, his people and his wealth. May both of you fill the earth and the sky with the fragrance of ghee and fertility. You are the protective shade of Indra, lord of power and prosperity. You too be the protective cover for all the people of the world.

Lord President, adorable in songs of praise, may these chants of celebration reach you whole and from all sides, and may these praises, ever loved, increase and grow in their truth and value alongwith the lord, first in time and oldest in wisdom.

Vibhūrasi pravāhaṇo vahnirasi havyavāhanaḥ.
Śvātro'si pracetāstutho'si viśvavedāḥ.

Agni, you are vast as space, flowing as a river and rolling as the sea, the fire that carries the fragrance of yajna across the world. You are the lord giver of knowledge and awareness and promoter of wisdom, and you are the vision of the world.

32. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Agni, you are the lord of light, eternal poet of vision and creation, enemy of sin and evil, deliverer from bondage, protector from suffering, adorable, edifying purifier and sanctifier. Self-refulgent, you burn away the dirt, wash away and dry up pollution; centre-presence of the assembly, you emanate joy; light of the sky, you refine the yajna and carry it in space. Light of heaven and abode of the eternal law of Dharma, you are the spirit of patience and the power of endurance.

33. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Agni, vast and deep as the ocean, unfathomable as space, immanent and omnipresent, you are the original power and motion of existence. Unborn and eternal, spirit of all knowledge, the world is but one vibration of this eternal consciousness, and the Veda is just one Word of its articulation.

Man of wisdom and learning, path-maker and guardian of advancement in knowledge, Dharma and science, Agni, Lord of Life, is the lord of knowledge and power. He opens the doors of internal and external knowledge. You too keep the doors open, extend the paths, do not cause any suffering, help us cross the hurdles and lead us on in this noble pilgrimage of divine life on earth. Lord of life, knowledge and action, bless us that we may succeed.

34. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Men of knowledge, worthy of praise, broadminded as the sky, voracious as fire for knowledge and passionate for work, look at me favourably with the eye of friends. Remain broad-minded and liberal. Liberal and gracious as you are, protect me with the fiery passion for knowledge and power in growth and development. May the men of the fire of yajna and science fill and full me with plenty and let me grow in safety and peace. Salutations to you! Pray hurt me not, destroy me not.

35. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Agni, you are the light of universal knowledge, a flame of fire for the scholars of the world to light up and reveal the form and structure of the world. Soma you are the vast power of order and control over the envious, the self-expansive servers of the flesh, the negative and uncreative people. May the lover of tecknowledge, fast and anxious, choose to dedicate himself to the great and valuable secrets and powers of agni, and know and confirm the divine voice of the Veda.

36. (Agni Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

Agne naya supathā rāye' asmānviśvāni deva vayunāni vidvān. Yuyodhyasmajjuhurāṇameno bhūyiṣṭhāṁ te nama'uktim vidhema.

Agni, light of the world and treasure-home of all the power and wealth, lord of all the knowledge, karma and paths of life, lead us on by the right path, simple and straight, to the highest goal of life, Moksha, through right knowledge, right action and right wealth. Fight out and ward off from us all that is evil and leads to suffering — crookedness, deviousness, intrigue and deceit. We bow in thanks and surrender to you and sing the sweetest songs in praise of you.

37. (Agni Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

Ayam no' agnirvarivaskṛṇotvayaṁ mṛdhaḥ pura' etu prabhindan. Ayaṁ vājāñjayatu vājasātāvayaṁ śatrūñjayatu jarhṛṣāṇaḥ svāhā.

May this Agni, this fiery man of courage and prowess, make the way to safety, security, wealth and bliss. May he, breaking through the lines of the envious, go forward. May he defeat the enemy in battles and win the victories. May he, in joyous song, celebrate the victory for Agni.

38. (Vishnu Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

उ॒रु विष्णो॒ विक्र॑मस्वो॒रु क्षया॑य नस्कृधि ।

Uru viṣṇo vikramasvoru kṣayāya naskṛdhi.
Ghṛtaṁ ghṛtayone piba prapra yajñapatiṁ tira svāhā.

Vishnu, lord of life and sustenance/Man of knowledge, power and wealth, go far and forward in your exploits and enable us to expand with our homes, wealth, knowledge and happiness. Born of ghee and rising with ghee the fire devours its food and blazes. You too light the fire with knowledge and action and grow continuously in knowledge, action, wealth and happiness. Take the master of yajna across the fields of life, chanting the hymns of yajna, to a safe haven of joy.

39. (Soma & Savita Devate, Agastya Ṛshi)

Deva savitareṣa te somastaṁ rakṣasva mā tvā dabhan. Etattvam deva soma devo devāṁ upāgā' idamahaṁ manuṣyāntsaha rāyaspoṣeṇa svāhā nirvaruṇasya pāśān muchye.

Savita, lord of life and growth, Head of the people, this is your Soma, honour, strength and power. Protect it. Don't be cowed down. Let none injure, deceive or destroy you. Soma, man of energy and inspiration, shining with strength and intelligence, bright as you are, go to the men of virtue and wisdom. I too approach them to be with them. Thus with the wise and the virtuous people, with friends and comrades, with wealth and growth, I get free of the chains of Varuna, the powers of worldly bondage.

40. (Agni Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

अग्नै व्रतपास्ते व्रतपा या तव तनूर्मय्यभूदेषा सा त्वयि यो मम तनूस्त्वय्यभूदियꣳसा मयि । यथायथं नौ व्रतपते व्रतान्यनु मे दीक्षां दीक्षापतिरमꣳस्तानु तपस्तपस्पतिः ॥४०॥

Agni, man of light and brilliance, man of truth, man of knowledge, teacher, man of discipline on oath as you are, so may I be as your disciple. Your body of knowledge, truth and faith may be in me too. And my body of growing knowledge may be in you. Man of discipline and commitment, you and I both shall observe common vows corresponding to each other. May my initiation and dedication on oath be accepted and approved by my master of initiation. May my discipline and austerity be in accord with the discipline and austerity of the master of tapas, austere discipline.

41. (Vishnu Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

Uru viṣṇo vikramasvoru kṣayāya naskṛdhi. Ghṛtaṁ ghṛtayone piba prapra yajñapatim tira svāhā.

Vishnu, man of courage and knowledge wide expansive as the wind, equip yourself with the knowledge of science and technology and expand our comfort and happiness. Man sipping holy water just as fire consumes ghee and electricity in the sky consumes water in the clouds, drink deep at the fount of knowledge. Help the master of yajna to overcome the hurdles and swim across the seas with the chant of the Veda.

42. (Agni Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

Agni/Master of knowledge, I won't go to the fools. I would go to the others, to the wise, yes, to the wise only. You are higher than the highest (in knowledge), and closer than the closest (in love). I would be with you, know you, attain to you.

Lord/Master of herbs, brilliant and generous, we love you and adore you for the sake of gifts of knowledge and life's inspiration. May all the devas, noble ones, love you and adore you for the same gifts of knowledge and blessings for the sake of Vishnu, lord of yajna.

Life-giving herbs, power of the lord, save this man, save this yajna, hurt not, kill not.

43. (Yajna Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

Don't breach the regions of light, let the heavens be. Hurt not the skies, pollute them not. Be with the earth and the environment. This yajna is a great power, a weapon sharp and tempered, come to you for a great good fortune. Lord of herbs/Greenery of the earth, generous power of the Divine, grow from a hundred roots, spread and rise. We too may, by the grace of the Lord of yajna, grow and rise from a thousand roots, from a thousand shoots, through a hundred years, through a thousand years.

इति पञ्चमोऽध्यायः ॥

CHAPTER–VI

1. (Savita Devata, Agastya Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। आददे नार्यसीदमहꣳ रक्षसां ग्रीवाऽअपिकृन्तामि । यवोऽसि यवयास्मद् द्वेषो यवयारातीर् दिवे त्वाऽन्तरिक्षाय त्वा पृथिव्यै त्वा शुन्धन्ताँल्लोकाः पितृषदनाः पितृषदनमसि॥१॥

Devasya tvā savituḥ prasave' śvinorbāhubhyāṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyām. Ā dade nāryasīdamahaṁ rakṣasāṁ grīvā' api kṛntāmi. Yavo'si yavayāsmad dveṣo yavayārātīr-dive tvā' ntarikṣāya tvā pṛthivyai tvā śundhantāṁllokāḥ pitṛṣadanāḥ pitṛṣadanamasi.

In this world of lord Savita's creation, with both the arms of Ashwinis (the wind's energy of prana and udana) and both the hands of Pusha (the earth's gift of strength and prowess), I accept you and consecrate you, Head of the people and President of the assembly and your life-partner, in this social yajna. With this acceptance and investiture, I catch the evil and the wicked by the neck and destroy them. You are the power to join and disjoin. Remove the envious from us. Drive out all poverty and suffering from here. This is the august assembly of the noble people. May the noble people sitting in this assembly accept and consecrate you for the heavens (the light of knowledge), for the skies (internal purity of conduct), and for the earth (earthly prosperity and well-being). You are the centre-seat of the great and the noble ones.

2. (Savita Devata, Shakalya Ṛshi)

अग्रेणीरसि स्वावेशऽउन्नेतॄणामेतस्य वित्तादधि त्वा स्थास्यति देवस्त्वा सविता मध्वानक्तु सुपिप्पलाभ्यस्त्वौषधीभ्यः । द्यामग्रेणास्पृक्षऽआन्तरिक्षं मध्येनाप्राः पृथिवीमुपरेणा-दृꣳहीः ॥२॥

Agreṇīrasi svāveśa' unnetṝṇāmetasya vittādadhi tvā sthāsyati devastvā savitā madhvānaktu supippalābhyastvauṣadhībhyaḥ. Dyām-agreṇāspṛkṣa' āntarikṣaṁ madhyenāprāḥ pṛthivīmupareṇādṛṁhīḥ.

You are the leader on top of all those taking this polity high. Settled with confidence in your Dharma, know well this polity, this economy, and the people. Savita, blazing lord of power, light and generosity, would shower His blessings and protection from above. May the Lord anoint you with honey and bless you with nectarious herbs. With top initiative, touch the heaven (in matters of justice and enlightenment). At the middle level, fill the sky with peace, security and Dharmic conduct. At the ground level, strengthen the earth (with food, planning and employment).

3. (Vishnu Devata, Dirghatama Ṛshi)

या ते धामान्युश्मसि गमध्यै यत्र गावो भूरिशृङ्गाऽअयासः। अत्राह तदुरुगायस्य विष्णोः परमं पदमवभारि भूरि । ब्रह्मवनिं त्वा क्षत्रवनिं रायस्पोषवनिं पर्यूहामि । ब्रह्म दृꣳह क्षत्रं दृꣳहायुर्दृꣳह प्रजां दृꣳह ॥३॥

Yā te dhāmānyuśmasi gamadhyai yatra gāvo bhūriśṛngā' ayāsaḥ. Atrāha tadurugāyasya viṣṇoḥ paramaṁ padamava bhāri bhūri. Brahmavani tvā kṣatravani rāyaspoṣavani paryūhāmi. Brahma dṛṁha kṣatraṁ dṛṁhāyurdṛṁha prajāṁ dṛṁha.

The houses of the government we would wish to visit are those which are bright with the light of Lord Vishnu's glory of human art and awareness so that we exclaim spontaneously: "Ah! here is the place where the highest offices in Vishnu's dispensation are wholly and exclusively held by learned and meritorious people". I know your Brahma system of education and research, your Kshatra system of defence, justice and peace, your economic system of production and distribution. Strengthen and extend education and enlightenment, consolidate and advance governance and administration, improve and promote health and age, strengthen and expand the welfare of the people.

4. (Vishnu Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

विष्णोः कर्माणि पश्यत यतो व्रतानि पस्पशे ।
इन्द्रस्य युज्यः सखा ॥४॥

Viṣṇoḥ karmāṇi paśyata yato vratāni paspaśe indrasya yujyaḥ sakhā.

Watch the divine acts of Vishnu, omnipresent lord of the universe, acts of creation, sustenance and annihilation of the world, wherein are manifested the inviolable laws of His dominion operative in nature. Therein I see the sacred rules of conduct and administration of my dominion too and I bind myself irrevocably as a friend of the lord of universal power and as an instrument of His will. Watch, meditate, learn and bind yourselves too to the rules of this dominion and His.

5. (Vishnu Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

तद्विष्णोः परमं पदꣳसदा पश्यन्ति सूरयः।
दिवीव चक्षुराततम् ॥५॥

Tadviṣṇoḥ paramam padaṁ sadā paśyanti sūrayaḥ. Divīva cakṣurātatam.

Men of courage and divine knowledge, the Veda, always have a vision of that highest glory of Vishnu manifested everywhere and blazing like the light of the sun in heaven, which you too should see.

6. (Vidvans Devata, Dirghatama Ṛshi)

परिवीरसि परि त्वा दैवीर्विशो व्ययन्तां परीमं यजमानꣳरायो मनुष्याणाम् । दिवः सूनुरस्येष ते पृथिव्याँल्लोकऽआरण्यस्ते पशुः ॥६॥

Parivīrasi pari tvā daivīrviśo vyayantāṁ parīmaṁ yajamānaṁ rāyo manuṣyāṇām. Divaḥ sūnurasyeṣa te pṛthivyāṁlloka' āraṇyaste paśuḥ.

You are the centre of attraction, reverence and homage. You are the child of heaven like the sun. May the brilliant in knowledge and merit come to you in reverence. Yajamana as you are of the social yajna of this dominion, may the people of wealth all round be at your command in homage. The people of this land and the foresters are yours, so is the animal wealth of the land.

7. (Twashta Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

उपावीरस्युप देवान्दैवीर्विशः प्रागुरुशिजो वह्नितमान् । देव त्वष्टर्वसु रम हव्या ते स्वदन्ताम् ॥७॥

Upāvīrasyupa devān daivīrviśaḥ prāguruśijo vahnitamān. Deva tvaṣṭarvasu rama havyā te svadantām.

Close to the people, you are their protector. Brilliant in power and virtue, you are the destroyer of suffering. Just as meritorious people of quality and character approach the most lovable benefactors, so may they come to you. Abide in delight by your dominion and may the people enjoy what they offer for the social yajna and what they receive from it.

8. (Brihaspati Devata, Dirghatama Ṛshi)

रेवतीꣳ रमध्वꣳ बृहस्पते धारया वसूनि ।
ऋतस्य त्वा देवहविः पाशेन प्रतिमुञ्चामि धर्षा मानुषः॥८॥

Revatīṁ ramadhvaṁ bṛhaspate dhārayā vasūni. Ṛtasya tvā devahaviḥ pāśena prati muñcāmi dharṣā mānuṣaḥ.

(People of the land), happy and prosperous, abide (by the law) and enjoy the good life. Brihaspati, master of knowledge and wisdom, teacher, accept the gifts offered by us. Take the brahmacharis.

You are an oblation for the Divine and the laws of universal truth in the yajna of education. I invest you with the bond of truth and the law of Dharma. Be a full man and be strong.

9. (Savita, Aswinau, Pushacha Devata, Dirghatama Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्।
अग्नीषोमाभ्यां जुष्टं नियुनज्मि । अद्भ्यस्त्वौषधीभ्योऽनु त्वा माता मन्यतामनु पितानु भ्राता सगर्भ्योऽनु सखा सयूथ्यः।
अग्नीषोमाभ्यां त्वा जुष्टं प्रोक्षामि ॥९॥

Devasya tvā savituḥ prasave'śvinorbāhubhyāṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyām. Agnīṣomābhyāṁ juṣṭam niyunajmi. Adbhyastvauṣadhībhyo'nu tvā mātā manyatāmanu pitānu bhrātā sagarbhyo'nu sakhā sayūthyaḥ. Agnīṣomābhyāṁ tvā juṣṭaṁ prokṣāmi.

In this yajna of the creation of the refulgent and generous Lord Savita, with the arms of Ashvinis (powers and virtues of the sun and moon), and with the generous hands of Pusha (the fertility and sustenance of the earth's gravitation and stability), I accept you, favoured as you are as a child by Agni, lord of light and heat, and Soma, lord of life and peace. I enjoin you to the discipline of brahmacharya with waters and herbs to enjoy and consecrate you, loved as you are by Agni and Soma. May your mother agree, your father approve, your brother support and your friends of the group cooperate.

10. (Apah Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

अपां पेरुरस्यापो देवीः स्वदन्तु स्वात्तं चित्सद्देवहविः । सं ते प्राणो वातेन गच्छताथꣳ समङ्गानि यजत्रैः सं यज्ञपति-राशिषा ॥१०॥

Apām perurasyāpo devīḥ svadantu svāttam citsaddevahaviḥ. Saṁ te prāṇo vātena gacchatāṁ samaṅgāni yajatraiḥ saṁ yajñapatirāśiṣā.

You are a protector of the waters (through yajna). May all the living beings taste and enjoy the sweet and celestial waters and other things of their own like the blessed gifts from yajna. May you, with all your body and will, and by my blessings (i.e., the teacher's blessings) help and cooperate with those who are dedicated to yajna. May your very breath rise with the wind carrying the fragrance. Be a master of yajna.

11. (Vatah Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

घृतेनाक्तौ पशूँस्त्रायेथाꣳ रेवति यजमाने प्रियं धाऽआविश। उरोरन्तरिक्षात्सजूर्देवेन वातेनास्य हविष्तस्मनाा यज समस्य तन्वा भव । वर्षो वर्षीयसी यज्ञे यज्ञपतिं धाः स्वाहाा देवेभ्यो देवेभ्यः स्वाहाा ॥११॥

Anointed with ghee, both of you, the priest and the yajaka, protect and promote the animals. Betake yourself to the prosperous yajamana, perform yajna with oblations of rich materials and, joining the celestial wind like a friend, bring from the vast skies all that is loved and wanted by the yajamana. With your very heart and soul, be one with the body of yajna. You are the shower of joy through yajna, establish the yajamana in yajna, a very shower and treasure-house of joy. This is the divine voice. Chant the divine voice with the generous and the wise for the attainment of divine virtues.

12. (Vidvans Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

माहिर्भूर्मा पृदाकुर्नमस्तऽआतानानर्वा प्रेहि। घृतस्य कुल्याऽउप ऽऋतस्य पथ्याऽअनु ॥१२॥

Māhirbhūrmā pṛdākur namasta' ātānānarvā prehi. Ghṛtasya kulyā' upa' ṛtasya pathyā' anu.

Man of knowledge, promoter of joy, never be like a snake or violent as a hunter or tiger. Come irresistibly like a stream of ghee close by the path of truth and the law of Dharma. Salutations to you. Gifts of food and hospitality for you in plenty.

13. (Apah Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

देवीरापः शुद्धा वोड्ढ्वꣳ सुपरिविष्टा देवेषु

Women, pure and cool as celestial waters, marry by choice and settle with noble men in security and protection all round. So should we, men, settled and secure with the women, be their guardians and all-round protectors, in love and duty.

14. (Vidvans Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

(Through education, study and practice) may your mind grow full and strong. May your speech be pure and perfect. May your breath be full and strong May your eye be clear and perfect. May your ear be strong and sensitive. Whatever be wrong and hurtful, that be cast out. Whatever be decided for sure that be accomplished. May everything be pure and strong and ever grow stronger. May all be peace and blessed day by day. Man of knowledge and science, save and strengthen this disciple. Spirit of knowledge, power and nourishment, save the inmate of the school, hurt not her/him. Save, strengthen, perfect.

Young man of education, the evil and the wicked, want, poverty, injustice and ignorance fall to your lot of responsibility. Say this and do this: "You are of the party of the devil. Off you go." Be determined: Here I confront the anti-social devils. I neutralize them, drive them off and eliminate them. I send them to the lowest dungeons of the dark.

Seeker of discriminative knowledge, know the properties and behaviour of the finest materials and, with refined and rarefied vapours of ghee, fill the earth and the sky with waters. Let the scholars of science know the processes and results of your oblations in the yajna. Let the earth and the sky, replete with the vapours of ghee and waters sent up with the chant of vedic verses, send them onward to the winds (for the completion of yajna).

Whatever is despicable (in me), whatever is dirty (such as ignorance and illusion), whatever is wrong, false or anti-social, whatever execrable (I have uttered) toward the innocent, these waters may wash off that sin from me, the purifying wind may dry that off from me, the holy men of wisdom may absolve me of that and release me from self-bondage.

May the fire season and temper you, may the waters inspire you to the speed of the winds and the velocity of the sun-rays. Full of ardour and passion, send the enemy-army of crores into disarray.

Protectors and lovers of waters, protect and drink of the nectar of the waters. Protectors of homes and policy, protect the homes, and protect and benefit from the policy. Commander of the forces, you are the oblation of the defence-yajna rising to the sky for every warrior. Command the forces in the language of power for the defence of all the directions, interdirections, directions in front and back, and the directions of the target. Command others too so that they may also plan and conduct the defence with similar language and action.

Twashta, router of the enemy, brilliant and powerful, may your army of various form and formation march on as one body with one mark and one target. And while you march on your noble mission of defence, may your mother, father and other seniors, and your friends exhort you on your way and wish you all success.

Man of knowledge, in service of the government, with the knowledge of navigation and ship-building, go to explore the seas. With the knowledge of aviation, fly to the skies. With the knowledge of space and space dynamics, go to the brilliant regions of light. With the knowledge of yoga, explore the secret of the pranic energy of breath and vitality of the inner spirit. With the knowledge of astronomy, know the motions of the sun and planets and the formation of day and night. With the knowledge of grammar and versification, study, interpret and apply in practice the four Vedas. With the knowledge of geology and astrophysics, go deep into earth and space. With the science of yajna, know and practice the yajna of science and technology in the socio-practical economic and spiritual fields. With the knowledge of herbs, pursue the science of health and life. With the knowledge of water and gases, explore their celestial presence and formation of water and rain. With the science of energy, study heat, light, electricity and all-pervasive agni (fire), and harness it for use in life. Know all this, do all this, follow up all this and justify all that I have taught, to my heart-felt joy and satisfaction. Let the fumes and vapours of your yajna rise to the sky. Let the light of it reach the sun. Fill and cover the earth with the essence and alchemy of your yajna for valuable products. This is the divine voice.

Head of the republic, pollute not the waters, destroy not herbs and trees: From this, from any other place, leave us not out, except no one from this. Let things like water and refreshment be available anywhere, everywhere.

Lord of justice, water, herbs and trees, cows are sacred, they are not to be destroyed: This you vouchsafe, we too take the oath. Back not out. We too will not back out. Under your governance, may waters and herbs be like friends to us. And they would be unfriendly to those elements which injure us and our sanctity, and to those ailments which we oppose, they would be enemies.

Brahmacharini/s, unmarried graduands, I settle you in the home/s (refined and cultured with education and learning) of the unmarried graduate/s bright as Agni in marriage according to your own choice. You know the virtues and advantages of sun and fire. You know the properties of prana and udana (forms of pranic energy). You know the nature and learning of the scholars and you know the properties of the powers of nature such as earth and others. Be partners in their blessings in your life. And those who imbibe the virtues of the sun and whom the light and life of the sun has already blessed, we invite to grace this marital yajna of ours.

Brahmacharini, just as we perform the yajna in the company of our noble and learned men, so you too perform yajna with your man after marriage. We have taught you and we teach you for joy of the heart, for clarity of the mind, for the value of happiness and peace, and for the life and light from the sun, so you too, in the company of your man, send up your invocations and oblations of this auspicious yajna, so peaceful and lovely, for the sake of joy and enlightenment.

Soma (ruler of the republic), lord of majesty, stay close to the entire people and rule like a father. So should the entire people be close to you and grow like children of the father. Like the fire of yajna grown by samidha fuel, listen to my prayer, listen to the people. So may intelligent, educated and cool-minded women listen, like mothers, to the prayers of women. Man of reverence and wisdom, listen to our prayers like the yajnic chants of learned and faithful devotees. May Savita, lord of power and light, listen to my prayers and words of praise.

You too are a part of the noble ones. Accept him in good grace with words of love and reverence — the one of you and for all of you.

In this world of Lord Savita's creation, with both the arms of Ashvinis (power and vitality of sun and moon) and with both the hands of Pusha (the nourishing virtues of mother earth's herbs), I accept you. You are the giver. In the service of Indra, lord and ruler of this land, with the best and most graceful words of piety, enrich and expand this non-violent social yajna of love and good fellowship, so deep and full with blessings, so generous with milk and honey, health and energy and the joy of life. You have heard the words of the wise. Worthy you are of acceptance and welcome. Come and give me the pleasure of fulfilment.

2. (Soma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

I come up to you for the sumptuous food of yoga with insatiable appetite — for the gift of that power and vision of the spirit which our forefathers attained and which you have attained and preserved.

8. (Indra-Vayu Devate, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Cleansed of ignorance and suffering, peaceful at heart, you explore, follow and advance in that state of yoga which, like that of the ancient Rshis and yogis old and new, is supreme, powerful, instant and victorious, remover of negativities, shaker of sin and giver of strength, and which is the light residing in the deepest cave of the heart. Man of love and peace, protect this state of strength and purity invincible for yourself. And may the powers of the divine, saviours and protectors of life and energy, be with you and lead you on.

For him and in his honour, speak the most sacred words and offer him the sweetest distilled soma. Go to him as you approach agni, the sacred fire, and in the spirit of yajna treat him with the most wanted, most loved, most cherished offering with the utmost courtesy and respect in words of the highest reverence.

Eleven vital powers are there above, existing by their own virtue (prana, apana, vyana, udana and samana, naga, kurma, krikala, devadatta and dhananjaya: these are the vital pranic energies, and the eleventh is the soul). There are eleven on the earth existing by their own virtue (earth, water, fire, air and space: these are the elements; sun, moon, nakshatra ahankara, mahat and prakriti: these are objects and modes of nature). There are eleven in the vital energy (prana), existing by their own virtue (ear, skin, eye, tongue, nose, speech, hands, legs, two organs of excretion, and mind: these are organs of perception and volition). May all these powers of life and nature join and contribute to this common yajna of the ruler and the people.

Soma flows. Soma flows and is purified. Soma is purified and is offered for sacrifice. So does the ruler flow, issues in action, and, through action, is purified, sanctified, self-sacrificed.

The ruler is sanctified and dedicated to the Brahamana sub-system (learning, education and research), to the Kshatra sub-system (defence and governance), to the devoted yajamana, participant in the creative activities of the system, for food and energy, for waters, herbs and vegetation, for earth and heaven, for good life and conduct, for all the noble people of the land.

Ruler of the nation, this life, this land, this socio-political system is your haven and your justification. You are accepted, sanctified and honoured for all the noble people.

You are firm, inviolable base of the stability of the stars and planets, firmest of the firm, most imperishable of the imperishables (i.e., above the original prakrti and the souls). This universe and the laws of existence are pervaded by you — they are like your universal home. Life and light of the world, Lord of peace and joy, firm and eternal, to you, with a mind of inviolable faith, in words of sincerity, we surrender in obedience and homage. You, the ruler and the councillors, are dedicated to Indra and Agni, Lord of Power and knowledge, and Lord of the people and the land. This constitution and this land is your mainstay, the meaning and justification of your being and position.

32. (Vishvedeva Devata, Trishoka Ṛshi)

The scholar councillors light the fire of scientific yajna and, working in proper form, cover the sky with fragrance (machines and missiles). Youthful and friendly is their ruler who is accepted and honoured in the land for his qualities of Dharma, knowledge and man-management. President and ruler, this land and its governance is your mainstay and you are here for the service of Indra and Agni, power and enlightenment of the people.

33. (Vishvedeva Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

Glorious ruler of this noble and powerful people, support, protect and advance this yajna of education in this world as you have already tasted the sweets of your efforts in this field. Hero of the land, dedicated people of vision, poets and scholars of yajna, follow your policies and enjoy your protection under your benevolent rule. Accepted and consecrated you are in the laws of this land for the glory of the nation and the welfare of the people. We dedicate you to the glory of the nation and welfare of the people.

36. (Prajapati Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

Marutvantaṁ vṛṣabhaṁ vāvṛdhānamakavāriṁ divyaṁ śāsamindram. Viśvāsāhamavase nūtanāyograṁ sahodāmiha taṁ huvema. Upayāmagṛhīto' sīndrāya tvā marutvata'eṣa te yonirindrāya tvā marutvate. Upayāmagṛhīto' si marutām tvaujase.

We, men of vision, poets and scholars, call upon and praise you for new modes of defence and protection, Indra, glorious ruler of the land, leader of a great people, first and best of all, dynamic and progressive saviour against suffering and evil, celestially virtuous, able administrator, formidably patient, nobly passionate, inspiringly courageous.

Ruler, you are accepted and consecrated in the rules and structure of the state for the glory of Indra and Maruts, glory of the land and welfare of the people.

This land and its protection, now, is your home and justification. We dedicate you to the glory of the land and the welfare of its people. We accept and honour you, a man of law, discipline and commitment as you are, for the strength and glory of the people.

37. (Prajapati Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

Sajoṣā' indra sagaṇo marudbhiḥ somaṁ piba vṛtrahā śūra vidvān. Jahi śatrūṅ' rapa mṛdho nudasvāthābhayam kṛṇuhi viśvato naḥ. Upayāmagṛhīto' sīndrāya tvā marutvata' eṣa te yonirindrāya tvā marutvate.

Man of love for all, joy and power, Indra, commander of the army, attended with forces swift as the wind, scholarly, fearless and brave, destroyer of the enemy, wipe out the enemy host, eliminate those who destroy happiness and cause suffering to mankind, and make us free and fearless from all sides. And, just as the sun pours out the waters when it breaks the cloud Vritra with the winds and drinks to the health of the earth and her people, so do you drink with your friends and allies to the joy of Soma and success.

Accepted and consecrated you are in the rules of the army and the laws of the land. I appoint you in the service of the lord of the land and head of her people. Now the rules, the law, the army, defence of the land and freedom of the people: this is your home and haven, the very meaning and purpose of your life. You are consecrated and dedicated to the people and the lord of the land.

38. (Prajapati Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

मरुत्वाँ२॥ऽइन्द्र वृषभो रणाय पिबा सोममनुष्वधं मदाय । आसिञ्चस्व जठरे मध्वऽऊर्मिं त्वꣳराजासि प्रतिपत्सुतानाम्। उपयामगृहीतोऽसीन्द्राय त्वा मरुत्वतऽएष ते योनिरिन्द्राय त्वा मरुत्वते ॥३८॥

Indra, head of the council/commander of the army, leader of the people/army, first and best among all, you are a man of honour and power. For joy and for the battles, drink soma according to your taste and capacity with every meal. Stimulate your appetite with draughts of the best and the choicest sweets of juices. You are intelligent and brilliant for every occasion of importance.

Accepted and consecrated you are in the laws of the land and rules of the council/army. We honour and celebrate you in the service of the lord of the land and head of the people. You are dedicated and committed to the honour of the land and the welfare of the people for the development of airy weapons and missiles (marut-weapons). This commitment, this dedication, now is your haven, the very meaning and purpose of your existence.

39. (Prajapati Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

Mahāň' indro nṛvadā carṣaṇiprā' uta dvibarhā' aminaḥ sahobhiḥ. Asmadryagvāvṛdhe vīryāyoruḥ pṛthuḥ sukṛtaḥ kartṛbhirbhūt. Upayāmagṛhīto'si mahendrāya tvaiṣa te yonirmahendrāya tvā.

Lord of the universe, you are great and adorable, compassionate and so close to humans, giver of bliss to the people, lord of knowledge secular and sacred, of unique power, infinite, more expansive than space, omniscient knower of us all, just and kind with those who do good. We grow and rise in strength, power and prowess and honour only with His grace.

Lord of light, you can be realised only through the rules of yama and niyama and the discipline of yoga. He resides in the light of the heart. For the realisation of the glory of that light we worship Him. For His Greatness we worship Him.

40. (Prajapati Devata, Vatsa Ṛshi)

म॒हाँ२॥ऽइन्द्रो॒ यऽओज॑सा प॒र्जन्यो॑ वृ॒ष्टिमाँ२॥ऽइ॑व । स्तोमै॑र्व॒त्सस्य॑ वावृधे । उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽसि महे॒न्द्राय॑ त्वै॒ष ते॒ योनि॑र्महे॒न्द्राय॑ त्वा ॥४०॥

Mahān' indro ya'ojasā parjanyo vṛṣṭimāň'iva. Stomairvatsasya vāvṛdhe. Upayāmagṛhīto'si mahendrāya tvaiṣa te yonirmahendrāya tvā.

The Lord is great, Lord of power and glory who, like the cloud laden with rain, showers the worshipper—who sends up his songs of praise natural as a child's—with light and lustre. In the light of that glory, we grow in body, mind and soul.

Lord of us all, you can be reached only through the discipline of yoga. You reside in the light of your glory revealed in the heart. We worship you for the realization of that glory, for the attainment of that infinite love and compassion.

41. (Surya Devata, Praskanva Ṛshi)

उदु त्यं जातवेदसं देवं वहन्ति केतवः ।
दृशे विश्वाय सूर्यꣳस्वाहा ॥४१॥

Udu tyaṁ jātavedasaṁ devaṁ vahanti ketavaḥ.
Dṛśe viśvāya sūryaṁ svāhā.

Just as the rays of the sun carry the light of the sun to the world to reveal the glory of the sun for all to see and realise, so do the manifestation of the Supreme Light and Spirit reveal the glory of the Lord for all to see and realise the presence of the power and the spirit.

So also do the words of the Rishi reveal the truth of existence and the glory of the creator to help us realise the presence of the Lord of Creation.

42. (Surya Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

चित्रं देवानामुदगादनीकं चक्षुर्मित्रस्य वरुणस्याग्नेः । आ प्रा द्यावापृथिवीऽअन्तरिक्षꣳसूर्यऽआत्मा जगतस्तस्थुषश्च स्वाहा ॥४२॥

Citraṁ devānāmudagādanīkaṁ cakṣurmitrasya varuṇasyāgneḥ. Ā prā dyāvāpṛthivī' antarikṣaṁ sūrya' ātmā jagatasthuṣaśca svāhā.

There arises the sun, wonderful splendour of the gods, the light and eye of Mitra, Varuna and Agni, filling the earth, the sky and the heaven with its glory, and soul of the world moving and unmoving. This is the divine voice. This is the oblation for him.

So is the Lord Creator and Supreme Spirit of the universe, the light of lights, life of life and the real power of the gods. That alone is the object of worship.

43. (Antaryami jagadeeshwara Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

अग्ने॒ नय॑ सु॒पथा॑ रा॒येऽअ॒स्मान्विश्वा॑नि देव व॒युना॑नि वि॒द्वान्। यु॒यो॒ध्य॒स्मज्जु॑हुरा॒णमे॑नो॒ भूयि॑ष्ठां ते॒ नम॑ऽउक्तिं विधेम॒ स्वाहा॑॥४३॥

Agne naya supathā rāye' asmān viśvāni deva vayunāni vidvān. Yuyodhyasmajjuhurāṇameno bhūyiṣṭhāṁ te nama uktim vidhema svāhā.

Agni, Lord of light and knowledge, you know all the paths of the world into the treasures of wealth, (the science of yoga also). Take us, lead us on by the right path to the wealth of life, and remove from our heart all the sin and evil. We sing in praise of divine glory in all humility from the core of our heart. Bless us with success in Dharma, artha, kama and moksha through yoga and the divine voice, the Veda.

44. (Prajapati Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

अ॒यं नोऽअ॒ग्निर्वरि॑वस्कृणोत्व॒यं मृधः॑ पु॒रऽए॑तु प्रभि॒न्दन्। अ॒यं वाजा॑ञ्जयतु॒ वाज॑साताव॒यꣳश॒त्रूञ्ज॑यतु॒ जर्ह॑षाण॒ः स्वाहा॑॥४४॥

Ayaṁ no'agnirvarivaskṛṇotvayaṁ mṛdhaḥ pura' etu prabhindan. Ayaṁ vājāñjayatu vājasātāvayaṁ śatrūñjayatu jarhṛṣāṇaḥ svāhā.

May this warrior, agni, clear the path for us. May this warrior, breaking through the enemy lines in front, advance on and on. May this one, fighting in the thick of battle, win the battles one after another. And may this one win the victory over the enemies and rejoice. (May one look after the wounded and treat them with medicine.)

45. (Prajapati Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

रूपेण वो रूपमभ्यागां तुथो वो विश्ववेदा विभजतु । ऋतस्य पथा प्रेत चन्द्रदक्षिणा वि स्वः पश्य व्यन्तरिक्षं यतस्व सदस्यैः ॥४५॥

Rupeṇa vo rūpamabhyāgāṁ tutho vo viśvavedā vibhajatu. Ṛtasya pathā preta candradakṣiṇā vi svaḥ paśya vyantarikṣaṁ yatasva sadasyaiḥ.

With a descerning eye, I see the various grades of ability among you. The one who knows you all and knows the world may form you into different classes and councils for appropriate jobs. The highest in intelligence may touch the skies — realise the divine presence and the eternal values of life and action. Ruler of the people, with the members of the council, by the path of truth, act and move on. Men of golden generosity, go ahead on the path of Dharma with charity. (The ruler should constitute three councils: The Council of Education, Vidyarya Sabha, The Council of Governance, Rajarya Sabha, and the Council of Dharma, Dharmarya Sabha, to assist and advise him in the governance and administration of the country.)

46. (Vidvans Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

ब्राह्मणमद्य विदेयं पितृमन्तं पैतृमत्यमृषिमार्षेयꣳसुधातु-दक्षिणम् । अस्मद्राता देवत्रा गच्छत प्रदातारमाविशत॥४६॥

Brāhmaṇamadya videyaṁ pitṛmantaṁ paitṛmatyamṛsimārṣeyaṁ sudhātudakṣiṇam. Asmadrātā devatrā gacchata pradātārm-āviśata.

I go and meet a Brahmana, a virtuous man of divinity and divine knowledge, of illustrious parentage with a heart of parental love, venerable man of vision and discrimination who has realized the soul of the Veda-mantras, a man of real gifts of gold — generous, obliging, giving, redeeming all those who reach him.

Go to the generous man of knowledge, wisdom and virtue, give freely, and the gifts will turn to blessings and come back to you to enrich your soul.

47. (Varuna Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

अग्नयै त्वा मह्यं वरुणो ददातु सोऽमृतत्वमशीयायुर्दात्रऽएधि मयो मह्यं प्रतिग्रहीत्रे रुद्राय त्वा मह्यं वरुणो ददातु सोऽमृतत्वमशीय प्राणो दात्रऽएधि वयो मह्यं प्रतिग्रहीत्रे बृहस्पतये त्वा मह्यं वरुणो ददातु सोऽमृतत्वमशीय त्वग्दात्रऽएधि मयो मह्यं प्रतिग्रहीत्रे यमाय त्वा मह्यं वरुणो ददातु सोऽमृतत्वमशीय हयौ दात्रऽएधि वयो मह्यं प्रति-ग्रहीत्रे ॥४७॥

May Varuna, man of knowledge and discrimination, assign me to a teacher of Vasu's standing of 24 years so that I become a Vasu brahmachari (graduate) of agni's brilliance and have the joy of scientific truth and reality. May health and longevity come to the giver, the teacher. May comfort and prosperity come to the receiver, the disciple.

May Varuna, man of knowledge and discrimination, assign me to a teacher of Rudra's standing of 44 years so that I become a Rudra brahmachari (graduate) of Rudra's justice and power and have the joy of eternal knowledge of the world and heaven. May the strength of pranic vitality come to the giver, the teacher, and a life-time of health and prosperity to the receiver, the disciple.

May Varuna assign me to a teacher of the Aditya order of 48 years standing so that I become an Aditya graduate of Brihaspati's knowledge of the Vedas and have the bliss of eternal vision of life. May the sensitivity of tactual and all other senses come to the giver, and the eternal joy of life and vision come to the receiver, to me.

May Varuna assign me to a preceptor who has, through yoga practice, transcended the ups and downs of worldly existence so that I realise in practice the pleasures of home-life and their value against a comprehensive picture of life and death and attain, through living, the eternal ananda of Moksha. May divine realisation come to the giver, the preceptor, and the joy of life and ultimate bliss of eternity come to the receiver, to me.

48. (Atma Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

कोऽदा॒त्कस्मा॑ऽअदा॒त्कामो॑ऽदा॒त्कामा॑याऽदात् ।
कामो॑ दा॒ता काम॑ः प्रतिग्रही॒ता काम॒ैतत्ते॑ ॥४८॥

Ko'dātkasmā'adātkāmo'dātkāmāyādāt. Kāmo dātā kāmaḥ pratigrahītā kāmaitatte.

Who gives? For whom ....? Desire gives. Gives for desire. Desire is the giver. Desire is the receiver. It is all desire. Love for you! For fulfilment.

Who gives the fruit of karma? To whom does the giver give the fruit of karma? Ishwara, Divine love and desire, gives the fruit of karma. He gives the fruit of karma to the jiva, the soul, who desires and acts the karma. Ishwara is the object of love and desire for the yogis. He is the giver. The jiva desires and acts out of desire. He is the receiver of the fruit. It is all desire. This is for you — the knowledge. It is for you to know. (You cannot live without desire, and you cannot survive only with desire. Integrate desire (kama) with Dharma and Artha, and you'll have both life and freedom (moksha).

CHAPTER–VIII

1. (Brihaspati-Soma Devate, Angirasa Ṛshi)

उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽस्यादि॒त्येभ्य॑स्त्वा ।
विष्ण॑ऽउरुगा॒यै॒ष ते॒ सोम॒स्तꣳर॑क्षस्व॒ मा त्वा॑ दभन् ॥१॥

Upayāmagṛhīto'syādityebhyastvā. Viṣṇa' urgāyaiṣa te somastaṁ rakṣasva mā tvā dabhan.

Young man, Brahmachari of the Aditya order, selected and accepted by me for marriage, you are now bonded and consecrated in the sacred code of marriage for a life-time. Observe the rules and discipline of wedlock according to the Dharma-shastras meticulously like the sun through the zodiacs in the year. Noble in nature, culture, habit and conduct, this home, the life of grihastha, is your paradise to live in and grow. Preserve it, protect it, and let nothing violate or destroy this sweet life and home.

2. (Grihapati Maghava Devate, Angirasa Ṛshi)

क॒दा च॒न स्त॒रीर॑सि॒ नेन्द्र॑ सश्चसि दा॒शुषे॑ । उपो॒पेन्नु म॑घव॒न्भूय॒ऽइन्नु ते॒ दानं॑ दे॒वस्य॑ पृच्यतऽआदि॒त्येभ्यस्त्वा ॥२॥

Kadā cana starīrasi nendra saścasi dāśuṣe. Upopennu maghavan bhūya' innu te dānam devasya pṛcyata' ādityebhyastvā.

Dear husband, man of excellence and power, wealth and generosity, you are never dry or stingy or non-obliging. You are always and readily with the generous Giver. Your gifts in cash and kind, instruction or advice, multiply and mature in no time and may they come to me too! I dedicate myself to you for a life-time year after year.

3. (Aditya Grihapati Devate, Angirasa Ṛshi)

कदा चन प्रयुच्छस्युभे निपासि जन्मनी । तुरीयादित्य सवनं तऽइन्द्रियमातस्थावमृतं दिव्यादित्येभ्यस्त्वा ॥३॥

Kadā cana prayucchasyubhe nipāsi janmanī. Turīyāditya savanaṁ ta' indriyamātasthāva-mṛtaṁ divyādityebhyastvā.

Aditya, man of brilliance and discipline, you are never funny or neglectful. Bright, generous and holy, superior in wisdom and character, you are doing full and fair justice to your life both present and future, just as you would do to the transcendent state of your mind and consciousness. If your sex-life and your mind and senses are stable under control, free from indulgence, you will enjoy the supreme bliss of happiness in a state of enlightenment. Man of light and virtue, I accept you and dedicate myself to you for a lifetime.

4. (Aditya Grihapati Devate, Kutsa Ṛshi)

यज्ञो देवानां प्रत्येति सुम्नमादित्यासो भवता मृडयन्तः । आ वोऽर्वाचीं सुमतिर्ववृत्यादꣳहोश्चिद्या वरिवोवित्तरा-सदादित्येभ्यस्त्वा ॥४॥

Yajño devānāṁ pratyeti sumnamādityāso bhavatā mṛḍayantaḥ. Ā vo'rvācī sumatirvavṛtyā-daṁhościdyā varivovittarāsadā-dityebhyastvā.

The home-yajna of a noble husband and noble wife brings joy and grace of the gods to the family. Noble and brilliant people of wisdom and virtue, be kind and and bless the home with peace and happiness. May your wisdom, auspicious and blissful, which gives the knowledge of right conduct and behaviour, come hither and always abide with us to guide us and protect us from sin and evil. I accept you for dedication to the noble and the brilliant people for a life-time.

5. (Grihapatis Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

विवस्वन्नादित्यैष ते सोमपीथस्तस्मिन् मत्स्व । श्रदस्मै नरो वचसे दधातन यदाशीर्दा दम्पती वाममश्नुतः । पुमान् पुत्रो जायते विन्दते वस्वधा विश्वाहारपऽएधते गृहे ॥५॥

Brilliant young man, settled in this new home with your wife, after leaving the 'gurukul', the school-home, this family home is the yajna-vedi of your grihastha where you will drink the 'soma' of joy for a long long time. Man in this home life should observe truth of word and conduct to make the married life happy and successful. The home in which the husband and wife observe the ethics and discipline (Dharma) of marriage is blessed with wealth, growing prosperity and the birth of a noble and virtuous son who helps and protects his parents and fulfills their wishes.

6. (Grihapatis Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

Vāmamadya savitarvāmamu śvo dive-dive vāmamasmabhyaṁ sāvīḥ. Vāmasya hi kṣayasya deva bhūrerayā dhiyā vāmabhājaḥ syāma.

Lord Savita, creator of this wonderful world of joy and beauty, create for us a life of joy, joy today, joy to morrow, and joy from day to day so that, doing good actions, with our intelligence we may enjoy a happy and prosperous family life in this home.

7. (Savita Grihapati Devate, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽसि सावि॒त्रोऽसि चनो॒धाश्चनो॒धाऽअ॑सि॒ चनो॒ मयि॑ धेहि । जिन्व॑ य॒ज्ञं जिन्व॑ य॒ज्ञप॑ति॒ं भगा॑य दे॒वाय॑ त्वा सवि॒त्रे ॥७॥

Upayāmagṛhīto'si sāvitro'si canodhāścanodhā' asi cano mayi dhehi jinva yajñaṁ jinva yajñapatiṁ bhagāya devāya tvā savitre.

Accepted you are (as me) and consecrated in the ethics and discipline of matrimony (grihastha dharma). A devotee you are of Savita, creator of the universe, and so gracious a giver of food and the wealth of life. Give me the food for life and joy. Promote yajna, promote the master devotee of yajna, for wealth, for honour and generosity, for the grace of Savita, lord of generation — for health, wealth and procreation — for you and me.

8. (Vishwedeva Grihapatis Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽसि सु॒शर्मा॑सि सुप्रतिष्ठा॒नो बृ॒हदु॑क्षाय॒ नमः॑। विश्वे॑भ्यस्त्वा दे॒वेभ्य॑ऽए॒ष ते॒ यो॒नि॒र्विश्वे॑भ्यस्त्वा दे॒वेभ्यः॑ ॥८॥

Upayāmagṛhīto'si suśarmā'si supratiṣṭhāno bṛhadukṣāya namaḥ. Viśvebhyastvā devebhya' eṣa te yonirviśvebhyastvā devebhyaḥ.

Dear husband, accepted you are (by me) and consecrated in the sacramental law and discipline of marriage and firmly settled in a beautiful home. Healthy, virile and handsome, salutations to you and good food and drink. This home, this family, is now your haven for life, the meaning and purpose of grihastha. I dedicate you to all the noble people of the world and to all the godly powers of nature, yes to all the great and noble people.

9. (Grihapatis Vishvedevas Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

Accepted and consecrated you are (along with me) in the matrimonial Dharma. Noble man of peace and brilliance, happy at heart, blest with wealth of men and material, son of a mighty vaidic scholar, and blest with a noble wife, I pray I (we) abide by the vows and promises of wedlock and grow stronger and more and more dedicated. Just as the bright rays of light (fire, sun, and electricity) shine on things to show them to the world, similarly, I pray, I may see the people and other things in the divine light of the Lord.

Accepted and sanctified you are in the rules and laws of the land to shine in the business of the nation like the sun. This is now your haven and home. You are dedicated to the Sun, Lord Supreme of the universe, to shine in life.

Just as the rays of the sun carry the light of the sun for the world to see the sun, surely so the lights of creation and the eyes of the seers reveal the light of the Lord Creator, refulgent and omniscient of all that is born, for the world to see.

Lord of the universe, you are acceptable, and perceiveable through the discipline of yama and niyama and the inner eye, for the realisation of your glory and universal presence. This universe is your home of presence and we dedicate ourselves to you for the attainment of your glory and the Light of Life.

investment of mind, energy and money — (powers for power, and soul for value).

anyone who explores and analyses these is blest with the secrets of life's existence and nourishment.

Learned, wise and generous people of the world, those who raised the libations in the ladles for the fire and sent up the fragrance to the clouds, who dedicated and raised their mind's energy for sacrifice and service, who respected and served life as sacred, who spoke in praise of the divine omnipresence of the all-seeing eye of the Lord of existence, who enjoyed the soothing touch of the air around and received the food sanctified by yajna, they are the noble and brilliant 'devas', learned and parental seniors, and reverential friends of humanity.

Yajna rises to the heights of heaven and reaches the 'devas', the powers of light, and may I, from there, receive the light and wealth of knowledge.

Yajna rises to middle regions of the clouds and reaches humanity, and may I, from there, receive the gifts of material wealth.

Yajna goes over across the earth and the seasons of nature through the year and reaches the senior and fatherly people, and may I, from there, receive the comforts of the seasons and the blessings of the seniors.

Whichever region yajna reaches, from there, I pray, I may receive the gifts of the true, the good and the beautiful.

Thirty four fibres (eight Vasus, eleven Rudras, twelve Adityas, Indra, Prajapati and Nature) join, weave and extend this yajnic web of creation, and feed it with materials. And where nature leaves off, there, surely, I take it on with the truth of word and action. And, I pray, this yajna reach the devas, the learned and the wise.

That same yajna may bless my people with great wealth and nourishments. And may I, with sacred speech and good acts of Dharma, enjoy the blessing of a full and happy life.

Ruler of the nation, you are the strength and shield of the people, first cover of the republic, creator of its honour and dignity, and centre-pin of its governance. You are like the thunderbolt of lightning for the clouds of the enemy. You are friends with the friends and best with the good. By you and with you the nation would eliminate the simulators, the evaders and the hypocrites. You are a destroyer of the forts of evil and a plague upon the enemy.

Defend him in all directions, from all directions, front, back and cross-wise.

All ye mortals, men and women, if the fire, sustainer of the home, or the man of knowledge and wisdom brilliant as agni (light) is well-known, and beneficent to you, if the man who has heard and attained the knowledge of all the Shastras is well-known and beneficent, if Indra, the man of power commanding the forces is well-known and committed to you, if friends and noble people dedicated to vows of goodness and virtue are close to you and kind, if Pusha, versatile man of medicine, giver of health and longevity is well-known and kind, if the heavens and electric energy and the earth are well-known and generous, if the mother and mother nature, generous givers of abundant love and joy, are well known, loved with reverence, and generous to you — if you know, love and respect all these and they are kind and generous to you, then happiness is assured for you.

Cross the hurdles on the way, eliminate the deadly biters, go forward (east) and rise to the heights. And while you drive on the chariot of life, may the light of Gayatri lead you on; the music of the Samans inspire you ; the triple strength of body, mind and speech empower you; the three fold voice of the Veda (knowledge, action and prayer) exhort you; and may the beauty of the spring season, the vision of the universe and the wealth of existence bless you on the way.

Go forward north and rise high, and the art of communication of knowledge contained in Anushtup verses would reveal to you; the twenty-one-fold various brilliance of the Samans (sixteen potentials, faculties of the soul, four-fold effort for fulfilment in life and the freedom of action) would enlighten you; and the length of winter years and wealth of the fruits of service would bless you.

14. (Yajamana Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

(8 Vasus, 11 Rudras, 12 Adityas, Indra, i.e., electric energy, and yajna, i.e., cosmic chemistry) would reveal to you; the lustre of knowledge and discipline and the wealth of life would bless you. The heads of the sinner, the thief and the preventer would be down.

Hiraṇyarūpā' uṣaso viroka' ubhāvindrā' udithaḥ suryaśca. Ārohataṁ varuṇa mitra gartam tatścakṣāthāmaditiṁ ditiṁ ca mitro'si varuṇo'si.

You are Mitra, friend of all. You are Varuna, the best of all and subduer of the enemies. Both of you are bright and powerful like gold, like the sun, like Indra. And just as the sun and the moon with their light light up the night and the dawn, so you too, with your illuminating actions, rise and enlighten the world around you. Ascend your chariot of knowledge, watch the world of permanence and impermanence, and spread the light.

17. (Kshatrapati Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

I anoint and consecrate you as the ruler with the light and grace of the moon, the brilliance of fire, the glory of the sun, and the swiftness of sense and mind like the velocity of electricity. Ascend the throne of the republic to do more than justice to the seat of governance. Develop the missiles of defence and protect and promote knowledge, Dharma and prosperity of the nation.

Noble and educated men of the land and senior members of the army, all support him for the establishment of a grand world order of governance, for a great enlightened and meritorious community, for a great democracy of the people and for the dignity and honour of a mighty state. Let us render him universally acceptable so that he has to face no rival, no adversary, no enemy.

19. (Yajamana Devata, Devavata Ṛshi)

From the top of the cloud, over the top of clouds, flying boats, fuelled and driven, roam around in the sky like boats on the sea. Piloted from down below on earth, soaring up like clouds into the sky, they pursue the clouds as Indra pursued Vritra. Master-maker of the nation, in the wide spaces of Lord Vishnu, you are capable of creating various kinds of motion. You are capable of creating special and definite steers of motion as the wind's. You are the cause and source of motion and speed by the power of energy.

Prajapati, Lord Supreme, father and protector of created beings, there is none other than you over, above and beyond, to be, to know, and to reveal all the forms of existence in the world.

Whatever the aim, object or desire for which we worship you, may that be fulfilled for us.

Father and guardian as you are of the seen and the unseen world, so may we be masters and guardians of the riches of life in truth of word and action.

Rudra, Lord of justice and punishment, destroyer as you are of evil, that is the supreme name by which we worship you and celebrate you in the home in truth of word with honest action.

Ruler of the land, you are like the thunderbolt of Indra (lightning) in power, inviolable, clean and spotless. I appoint you by the advice of the Governor of the council and the commander of the army for the exercise of your official powers freely and constructively without pain or fear or tyranny. Act with the inspiration, advice and support of the positive yajnic people of dynamic spirit and win your victories/goals. We are with you with all our will and power.

Indra, Ruler of the land, hero of the thunderbolt in hand, swift as you are in action and victory over the enemy, may we, your officers and people, never, disaffected, fall off from you. May you too never suffer disaffection from Ishwara and never fall off from your faith.

Hero of the people, thunderbolt in hand, ascend and ride the chariot, take the reins in hand by which you drive the steeds and, swift in action, achieve your goals.

Ruler and chiefs of the nation, provide and promote for agni, the enlightened householder, a true policy of value and virtue; for soma, herbs and trees, forestry and knowledge of Botany; for the strength, energy and lustre of the most dynamic people (maruts), yoga and peace-giving words; for the honour of Indra, ruler, right conduct and good reading; for the working efficiency of the soul (Indra), good instruction and practice. Mother earth, hurt me not. Nor shall I hurt you. Mother mine, ruin me not with wrong instruction. Nor must I hurt you (with ingratitude).

24. (Surya Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Ishvara, the Supreme Soul of the Universe, is the maker of forms from elements, present in all forms of purity, universal abode of all, present in the sky, creator of the universal yajna, present in and on the earth, holy as a sacred visitor, present in the homes, humans, the best of things, eternal nature and its law, and in all space, creator of the waters, stars and planets, giver of the light of eternal knowledge of the Veda, creator of the clouds, mountains and forests, the very Truth and Law Itself, and the greatest and highest of existence.

You are so vast, so far, so great, wherever my eye goes. You are life Itself. Give me life and longevity. You join me with you in samadhi. You are the light and lustre of existence. Give me that lustre. You are Energy Itself. Give me energy.

Ruler and people of the land, you are the arms of the Lord of Power, creator of virility. I take you both close to Him.

Woman of power: You are the beauty and grace of life, giver of peace and joy, and mother-maker of the nation. Come, take up your office of dignity to create joy and comfort for the people around and do justice to the judgement seat of the nation.

27. (Varuna Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

Niṣasāda dhṛtavrato varuṇaḥ pastyāsvā. Sāmrājyāya sukratuḥ.

The man committed to national vows of Dharma, dedicated to noble actions, first and best of choice for justice, should occupy the offices of power and administration for the governance of the republic.

28. (Yajamana Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

अभिभूरस्येतास्ते पञ्च दिशः कल्पन्तां ब्रह्मँस्त्वं ब्रह्मासि सवितासि सत्यप्रसवो वरुणोऽसि सत्यौजाऽइन्द्रोऽसि विशौजा रुद्रोऽसि सुशेवः । बहुकार श्रेयस्कर भूयस्करेन्द्रस्य वज्रोऽसि तेन मे रध्य ॥२८॥

Man of first and best choice, possessed of excellence, truth is your real power and lustre. Man of dignity and majesty, your greatness lies in the strength and support of the people. Man of justice, destroyer of sin and crime, harbinger of various kinds of happiness, doer of good over and over again, you are the thunderbolt of lightning action. With that instant power, protect me, save me, perfect me.

Just as agni (fire), great and expansive, observer of Dharma, served in yajna, receives the libations and, sitting in the midst of its associate created materials and living beings, atomizes the materials and, with the rays of the sun radiates them into space, so should the ruler, brilliant, great and expansive like fire, observe his/her Raj Dharma, and in truth with justice, serve the nation. So should also the noble and honest members of the Council, in truth of word and action, observe their Dharma and try to serve the nation.

omniscience, projecting various forms of development by the grace of Twashta, the Lord's power of art, breathing the generosity of the earth (Pusha) to nourish the animals and other living creatures, realizing the possibilities of growth through electric energy by the grace of Indra, the Lord's power and force of nature, with the magnanimity of Brihaspati, the Lord's immanence in the universe and His eternal wisdom revealed in the Veda, with a sense of honour and obligation by the grace of Varuna, the Lord's majesty and glory, with the heat of fire by the grace of Agni, the Lord's light and refulgence, with the soothing vitality and beneficence of mind like the vitality of Soma and beauty of the moon, and with broadness of mind inspired by the Lords omnipresence in the universe, the tenth attribute of the Lord as Vishnu, and finally, supported by the will and words of our people — inspired, shaped and committed thus I (the ruler) move on in the business of governance.

Rise in knowledge, dignity and grace, be lovable as soma and the moon, and you would be a chosen companion of Indra, the ruler, and the Supreme Lord of life.

Ruler/Man of knowledge and honour, seasoned and sanctified you are in the discipline of education by teachers and preceptors. We accept you for the sake of knowledge and effective speech, in the service of the republic, for the honour and defence of the nation.

Senior men of knowledge sitting around the fire on seats of grass chant words of homage in praise of the divine. Treat them to food and liberal hospitality with reverence.

The farmers harvest barley in a certain order, sift the grain from the chaff and keep it safe. Protect the farmers, and, like them, sift the grain of truth from the chaff of untruth and protect the truth.

युवꣳसुरामंमश्विना नमुचावासुरे सचा ।
विपिपाना शुभस्पतीऽइन्द्रं कर्मस्वावतम् ॥३३॥

Yuvaṁ surāmamaśvinā namucāvāsure sacā.
Vipipānā śubhaspatī' indraṁ karmasvāvatam.

President of the council and commander of the forces, bright and beneficent as the sun and the moon, dedicated to truth, protectors of the republic, and promoters of good social developments, both of you safeguard and advance the man of power and prosperity (such as the producer or the ruler or the administrator) who is whole heartedly and unfailingly dedicated to generous acts of public good (like the cloud showering rain for humanity).

34. (Ashwinau Devate, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

पुत्रमिव पितरावश्विनोभेन्द्रावथुः काव्यैर्दꣳसनाभिः । यत्सुरामं व्यपिबः शचीभिः सरस्वती त्वा मघवन्नभिष्णाक् ॥३४॥

Putramiva pitarāvaśvinobhendrāvathuḥ kāvyairdaṁsanābhiḥ. Yatsurāmaṁ vyapibaḥ śacībhiḥ sarasvatī tvā maghavannabhiṣṇak.

Ruler of the land/President of the council, you have enjoyed the delightful exhilaration of life by virtue of noble intelligence and wonderful exploits worthy of celebration in song. May your wife, with the vision and wisdom of Saraswati, spirit of poetry, serve and celebrate you in the home.

President of the council, and Commander of the forces, both of you, with the order and approval of the ruler, and with actions worthy of song in poetry, defend the nation and the land as parents guard and promote their children.

CHAPTER–XI

1. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युञ्जानः प्रथमं मनस्तत्त्वाय सविता धियः।
अग्नेर्ज्योतिर्निचाय्य पृथिव्याऽअध्याभरत् ॥१॥

Yuñjānaḥ prathamaṁ manastattvāya savitā dhiyaḥ. Agnerjyotirnicāyya prithivyā'adhyā-bharat.

The man desirous of spiritual vision and earthly brilliance in search of the essence of spirit and matter, should concentrate his senses, mind and memory, direct it all on the universal energy immanent in nature, collect the light of Agni, Supreme Spirit and universal power, and bring that knowledge of experience down to the earth.

2. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युक्तेन मनसा वयं देवस्य सवितुः सवे ।
स्वर्ग्याय शक्त्या ॥२॥

Yuktena manasā vayaṁ devasya savituḥ save. Svargyāya śaktyā.

We men of yoga, in this world of Lord Savita's creation, with all our mind and energy collected, concentrated and directed on the Spirit/on the object of our search, bring the light of heaven to the earth to turn it into a very paradise.

3. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युक्त्वाय सविता देवान्त्स्वर्यतो धिया दिवम् ।
बृहज्ज्योतिः करिष्यतः सविता प्रसुवाति तान् ॥३॥

Yuktvāya savitā devāntsvaryato dhiyā divam.
Bṛhajjyotiḥ kariṣyataḥ savitā prasuvāti tān.

The yogis, noble people, trying to reach the regions of light and heavenly bliss with their mind and sense, refine their faculties as instruments of divination into the light and mystery of infinity. Savita, Lord of light and generator of life, inspires their mind and soul and helps them to join with the object of their love and ambition.

4. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युञ्जते मन॑ऽउत यु॑ञ्जते धियो॒ विप्रा॒ विप्र॑स्य बृह॒तो वि॑प॒श्चित॑: । वि होत्रा॑ दधे वयुना॒विदेक॒ऽइन्म॒ही दे॒वस्य॑ स॒वि॒तुः परि॑ष्टुतिः ॥४॥

Yuñjate mana'uta yuñjate dhiyo viprā viprasya bṛhato vipaścitaḥ. Vi hotrā dadhe vayunāvideka' inmahī devasya savituḥ pariṣṭutiḥ.

Great is the glory and high the praise of Savita, generous creator of light and life, the one mighty, infinite, all seeing, all-knowing lord of the universe. He alone receives all our prayers and sacrifices. Thereon do yogis, men of wisdom and vision, concentrate their mind and intelligence — only there and nowhere else.

5. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युजे वां॑ ब्रह्म॑ पू॒र्व्यं नमो॑भि॒र्वि श्लोक॑ऽएतु प॒थ्ये॒व सू॒रेः । शृ॒ण्वन्तु॒ विश्वे॑ऽअ॒मृत॑स्य पु॒त्राऽआ ये धामा॑नि दि॒व्यानि॑ त॒स्थुः॥५॥

Yuje vāṁ brahma pūrvyaṁ namobhir viśloka'etu pathyeva sūreḥ. Śṛṇvantu viśve'amṛtasya putrā' ā ye dhāmāni divyāni tasthuḥ.

I join, and join you both, with the eternal lord of the universe with hymns of praise and prayer as did the yogis of old. May our song of prayer reach its divine destination by the sure path of the great and the wise seers. Listen all ye children of Immortality who inhabit the holy worlds of the Lord's creation and join to reach the goal.

6. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यस्य प्रयाणमन्वन्यऽइद्ययुर्देवा देवस्य महिमानमोजसा । यः पार्थिवानि विममे सऽएतशो रजाꣳसि देवः सविता महित्वना ॥६॥

Yasya prayāṇamanvanya'idyayurdevā devasya mahimānamojasā. Yaḥ pārthivāni vimame sa' etaśo rajāṁsi devaḥ savitā mahitvanā.

The great Lord Savita with His own power and majesty has created all the regions of the earth and heaven. He is the lord of light omnipresent in this world whose great path of Dharma and yoga all the noble people and others have followed with all their power and potential.

7. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

देव सवितः प्रसुव यज्ञं प्रसुव यज्ञपतिं भगाय । दिव्यो गन्धर्वः केतपूः केतन्नः पुनातु वाचस्पतिर्वाचं नः स्वदतु ॥७॥

Deva savitaḥ prasuva yajñaṁ prasuva yajñapatiṃ bhagāya. Divyo gandharvaḥ ketapūḥ ketaṁ naḥ punātu vācaspatirvācaṁ naḥ svadatu.

Savita, lord of light and glory, light our yajna and promote our action for the attainment of happiness and prosperity. Bless and promote the yajnapati to achieve honour and wealth. Lord sustainer of the earth, brilliant and holy, giver and purifier of life and knowledge, purify our science and consecrate our pursuit. Lord giver and purifier of speech, purify and elevate our speech with sweetness and grace.

8. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

इमं नो देव सवितर्यज्ञं प्रणय देवाव्यꣳसखिविदꣳसत्राजितं धनजितꣳस्वर्जितम् । ऋचा स्तोमꣳसमर्धय गायत्रेण रथन्तरं बृहद् गायत्रवर्त्तनि स्वाहा ॥८॥

Imaṁ no deva savitar yajñaṁ praṇaya devāvyaṁ sakhividaṁ satrājitaṁ dhanajitaṁ svarjitam. Ṛcā stomaṁ samardhaya gāyatreṇa rathantaraṁ bṛhad gāyatravarttani svāhā.

Savita, lord of life and inspiration, light, promote and expand this yajna of ours which protects our noble people and the virtues of our character, favours our friends, wins our yajnic sessions of truth and gives us wealth and happiness. Let it prosper with the chants of Rgvedic hymns and advance into the wealth of Dharma and knowledge with the truth of word and honesty of action. Let it rise with the gayatri verses revealing the paths of progress and prosperity to be covered and won through the scientific gifts of rathantara, modes of speed and progress.

9. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। आददे गायत्रेण छन्दसाङ्गिरस्वत्पृथिव्याः सधस्थादग्निं पुरीष्यमङ्गिरस्वदाभर त्रैष्टुभेन छन्दसाङ्गिरस्वत् ॥९॥

Devasya tvā savituḥ prasave' śvinorbāhubhyaṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyām. Ādade gāyatreṇa chandasāṅgirasvatpṛthivyāḥ sadhasthādagniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvadābhara traiṣṭubhena chandasāṅgirasvat.

Man of knowledge and vision, I accept and welcome you as a man initiated by fire in this world of Savita's creation alongwith the force and attraction of the energy of prana and the attraction and retention of the life-giving air.

Take up the study of agni (heat and electricity) immanent in the earth and revealed in the gayatri verses, and discover and develop for us its energy value like that of prana, the breath of life. Discover the energy-potential of the waters revealed in the trishtubh verses, and develop it like the blazing ambers of fire.

10. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अभ्रिरसि नार्यसि त्वया वयमग्निꣳशकेम खनितुꣳसधस्थ आ । जागतेन छन्दसाङ्गिरस्वत् ॥१०॥

Abhrirasi nāryasi tvayā vayamagniṁ śakema khanituṁ sadhastha ā. Jāgatena chandasāṅgirasvat.

Man of scholarship and imagination, you are a tool of discovery and development of yajnic value for humanity. Living together with you, let us be able to discover the secrets and then develop the power of agni (fire and electricity) with the help of the jagati verses of the Veda — agni which is like the very breath of life.

11. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

हस्तंऽआधाय सविता बिभ्रदभ्रिꣳहिरण्ययीम् । अग्नेर्ज्योतिर्निचाय्य पृथिव्याऽअध्याभरदानुष्टुभेन छन्दसाङ्गिरस्वत् ॥११॥

Hasta ādhāya savitā bibhradabhriṁ hiraṇyayīm. Agnerjyotirnicāyayya pṛthivyā'adhyābharadānuṣṭubhena chandasāṅgirasvat.

Savita, the creative man of science, having taken up and holding a golden spade, should dig out and collect the light and power of agni (electricity) with the help of the anushtubh verses of the Veda and bear it on the earth like the life-breath of humanity.

12. (Vaji Devata, Nabhanedishta Ṛshi)

प्रतूर्तं वाजिन्नाद्रव वरिष्ठामनु संवर्तम् । दिवि ते जन्म परममन्तरिक्षे तव नाभिः पृथिव्यामधि योनिरित् ॥१२॥

Pratūrtaṁ vājinnādrava variṣṭhāmanu saṁvatam. Divi te janma paramamantarikṣe tava nābhiḥ pṛthivyāmadhi yonirit.

Warlike man of heroic knowledge, come flying on the wings at top speed, best and well-controlled. You are a child of the region of the sun, your navel, centre hold, is in the middle regions of the sky, and your home and values are on the ground.

13. (Vaji Devata, Kushri Ṛshi)

युञ्जाथाꣳरासभं युवमस्मिन् यामे वृषण्वसू ।
अग्निं भरन्तमस्मयुम् ॥१३॥

Yuñjāthāṁ rāsabhaṁ yuvam asmin yāme vṛṣaṇvasū. Agniṁ bharantamasmayum.

Man of science and man of technology, both of you creators of a shower of wealth, yoke this horse-power of fire/electricity to this carriage bearing and taking us to our destination.

14. (Kshatrapati Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

योगे॑ योगे त॒वस्त॑रं॒ वाजे॑ वाजे हवामहे ।
सखा॑य॒ऽइन्द्र॑मू॒तये ॥१४॥

Yoge yoge tavastaraṁ vāje vāje havāmahe.
Sakhāya'indramūtaye.

Friends, in project on project, and battle after battle, we call upon Indra, our powerful ruler, to protect us and defend the country.

15. Ganapati Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

प्र॒तूर्व॒न्नेह्यव॒क्राम॒न्नशं॑स्ती रु॒द्रस्य॒ गाण॑पत्यं मयो॒भूरेहि॑ ।
उ॒र्व॒न्तरि॑क्षं॒ वी॒हि स्व॒स्तिग॑व्यू॒तिर॑भ॒यानि॑ कृ॒ण्वन् पू॒ष्णा स॒युजा॑ स॒ह ॥१५॥

Pratūrvannehyavakrāmannaśastī rudrasya gāṇapatyaṁ mayobhūrehi. Urvantarikṣaṁ vīhi svasti gavyūtirabhayāni kṛṇvan pūṣṇa sayujā saha.

Overpowering the enemies, crushing the oppositions, go forward and, creating peace and well-being, come on top of the forces of the lord of justice (Rudra).

Creating fearlessness all round, moving on the paths of peace and welfare, with strengthening and supporting comrades, rise to the vast skies.

16. (Agni Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

पृथिव्याः सधस्थादग्निं पुरीष्यमङ्गिरस्वदाभरागग्निं पुरीष्यमङ्गिरस्वदच्छेमोऽग्निं पुरीष्यमङ्गिरस्वद्भरिष्यामः ॥१६॥

Pṛthivyāḥ sadhasthādagniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvadābharāgniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvadacchemo'gniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvad bhariṣyāmaḥ.

Man of knowledge and vision, from the surface of the earth/from the midst of the sky, isolate and collect heat/magnetic/electric energy, a source of comfort like the light of the sun. From the surface of the earth/from admidst the sky, we collect in abundance heat/electric/magnetic energy, a source of comfort like the breath of air. From the depths of the earth/heights of the sky, we shall collect heat/magnetic/electric energy in abundance, a source of comfort and prosperity like the breath of life.

17. (Agni Devata, Purodha Ṛshi)

अन्वग्निरुषसामग्रमख्यदन्वहानि प्रथमो जातवेदाः । अनु सूर्यस्य पुरुत्रा च रश्मीननु द्यावापृथिवीऽआततन्थ ॥१७॥

Anvagniruṣasāmagramakhyadanvahāni prathamo jātavedāḥ. Anu sūryasya purutrā ca raśmīnanu dyāvāpṛthivī'ātatantha.

The original agni (fire) is present in every thing that is born in the universe. It is there before the dawn, and with the dawn it proclaims the day. It is there before the sun, and with the sun it pervades the rays of light across the earth, the skies and the heavens.

(As the original fire pervades the heat and light of existence, so should the learned man spread the light of knowledge everywhere).

18. (Agni Devata, Mayobhu Ṛshi)

आ॒गत्य॑ वा॒ज्यध्वा॑न॒ꣳसर्वा॒ मृधो॒ विधू॑नुते ।
अ॒ग्निꣳस॒धस्थे॑ महति॒ चक्षु॑षा॒ निचि॑किषते ॥१८॥

Āgatya vājyadhvānaṁ sarvā mṛdho vidhūnute.
Agniṁ sadhasthe mahati cakṣuṣā nicikīṣate.

The war-horse, having come on the course, shakes the enemy in battle. The house-holder, in his extensive home, loves to collect, light and watch the fire.

(So should the ruler of the land shake the enemies, light the fire of yajna and enlighten the people with education).

19. (Agni Devata, Mayobhu Rishi)

आ॒क्रम्य॑ वाजिन् पृथि॒वीम॒ग्निमि॑च्छ रु॒चा त्वम् ।
भूम्या॑ वृ॒त्वाय॑ नो ब्रूहि॒ यत॒ः खने॑म॒ तं व॒यम् ॥१९॥

Ākramya vājin pṛthivīmagnimiccha rucā tvam.
Bhūmyā vṛtvāya no brūhi yataḥ khanema taṁ vayam.

Hero of light, speed and power, having shaken the enemies and having settled the earth in peace, you take up agni (power and gold) with interest and excitement, and ask us to go over the land so that we may dig out and develop the same.

20. (Kshatrapati Devata, Mayobhu Ṛshi)

द्यौस्ते॑ पृ॒ष्ठं पृ॑थि॒वी स॒धस्थ॑मा॒त्मान्त॑रिक्षꣳसमु॒द्रो योनि॑ः ।
वि॒ख्याय॒ चक्षु॑षा॒ त्वम॒भि ति॑ष्ठ पृतन्य॒तः ॥२०॥

Dyauste pṛṣṭham pṛthivī sadhasthamātmāntarikṣaṁ samudro yoniḥ. Vikhyāya cakṣuṣā tvamabhi tiṣṭha pṛtanyataḥ.

Enlightened ruler of the land, your past is as bright as the sun, your present seat is firm as the earth, your soul is magnanimous as the vast sky, your origin is as deep as the ocean. Look round with your eye and be firm and strong to face the challenges.

21. (Dravinoda Devata, Mayobhu Ṛshi)

उत्क्रम महते सौभगायास्मादास्थानाद् द्रविणोदा वाजिन्। वयꣳस्याम सुमतौ पृथिव्याऽअग्निं खनन्तऽउपस्थेऽअस्याः ॥२१॥

Utkrāma mahate saubhagāyāsmādāsthānād draviṇodā vājin. Vayaṁ syāma sumatau pṛthivyā' agniṁ khananta' upasthe' asyāḥ.

Man of power and action, giver of wealth, rise up from this place of ours for the sake of great good fortune so that, digging out the wealth of the earth hidden in her womb (that is agni, gold and energy), we may be prosperous and feel secure in our proper mind.

22. (Dravinoda Devata, Mayobhu Ṛshi)

उदक्रमीद् द्रविणोदा वाज्यर्वाकः सुलोकꣳसुकृतं पृथिव्याम् । ततः खनेम सुप्रतीकमग्निꣳस्वो रुहाणाऽअधि नाकमुत्तमम् ॥२२॥

Udakramīd draviṇodā vājyarvākaḥ sulokaṁ sukṛtaṁ pṛthivyām. Tataḥ khanema supratīkamagniṁ svo ruhāṇā' adhi nākamuttamam.

Man of science and technology, producer of wealth, just as a powerful impetuous steed gallops fast and high on its course, so you rise and advance to win a beautiful, well-deserved state of joy, the best, a very paradise on earth. And then we too, desiring and working for a life of joy, shall dig out and collect from earth and air a wonderful golden wealth of energy and create a very heaven for all.

23. (Prajapati Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

आ त्वा जिघर्मि मनसा घृतेन प्रतिक्षियन्तं भुवनानि विश्वा । पृथुं तिरश्चा वयसा बृहन्तं व्यचिष्ठमन्नै रभसं दृशानम् ॥२३॥

Ā tvā jigharmi manasā ghṛtena pratikṣiyantaṁ bhuvanāni viśvā. Pṛthuṁ tiraścā vayasā bṛhantaṁ vyaciṣṭhamannai rabhasaṁ dṛśānam.

I take you up, O fire/wind, to study and celebrate with all my mind, besprinkled with the fragrance of ghee, co-existent with all things and all regions of the world, extensive, moving in all directions in waves, grown powerful with food, and so beautiful to perceive.

24. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

आ विश्वतः प्रत्यञ्चं जिघर्म्यरक्षसा मनसा तज्जुषेत । मर्य्यश्री स्पृहयद्वर्णोऽअग्निर्नाभिमृशे तन्वा जर्भुराणः॥२४॥

Ā viśvataḥ pratyañcaṁ jigharmyarakṣasā manasā tajjuṣeta. Maryaśrī spṛhayadvarṇo' agnirnābhimṛśe tanvā jarbhurāṇaḥ.

I perceive agni (fire and vital air) directly in and from all directions. It is the beauty and wealth of humanity, lovely in form and colour, and, vibrating by and through the body, it is soothing and auspicious to feel and endure. Just as I take it up for study and celebration with an honest mind full of love and reverence, so you too all take it up and enjoy.

25. (Agni Devata, Somaka Ṛshi)

परि॒ वाज॑पतिः क॒विर॒ग्निर्ह॒व्यान्य॑क्रमीत् ।
दध॒द्रत्ना॑नि दा॒शुषे॑ ॥२५॥

Pari vājapatiḥ kaviragnirhavyānyakramīt. Dadhadratnāni dāśuṣe.

Agni, creator, producer, preserver and giver of food and energy, omniscient eye of the universe, holds and wields the wealth of the world for the generous and the deserving people. Through the fire, He receives and universally disperses the materials offered in yajna by the house-holders.

26. (Agni Devata, Payu Ṛshi)

परि॑ त्वाग्ने॒ पुरं॑ व॒यं विप्रं॑ सहस्य धीमहि ।
धृ॒षद्व॑र्णं दि॒वे दि॑वे ह॒न्तार॑ं भङ्गु॒रावता॑म् ॥२६॥

Pari tvāgne puraṁ vayaṁ vipraṁ sahasya dhīmahi. Dhṛṣadvarṇaṁ dive dive hantāraṁ bhaṅgurāvatām.

Agni/Commander of the forces, brilliant, courageous, enduring, awesome, pious and knowledgeable, defender of the weak and destroyer of the wicked, day in and day out we honour you, praise you, thank you in gratitude.

27. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

त्वम॑ग्ने द्यु॒भिस्त्वमा॑शुशु॒क्षणि॒स्त्वम॑द्भ्यस्त्वमश्म॑न॒स्परि॑ । त्वं वने॑भ्य॒स्त्वमोष॑धीभ्य॒स्त्वं नृ॒णां नृ॑पते जायसे॒ शुचिः॑ ॥२७॥

Tvamagne dyubhistvamāśuśukṣaṇistva-madbhyastvamaśmanaspari. Tvaṁ vanebhya-stvamoṣadhībhyastvaṁ nṛṇāṁ nṛpate jāyase śuchiḥ.

Agni/Ruler/Yajamana, guardian and protector of the people, brilliant as daylight, instant in action against evil and darkness, from the waters and air, herbs, forests and sunbeams, thunder, cloud and granite, you take the best and rise pure and purer, strong and stronger among the people every day every way.

28. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

देवस्य त्वा सवितुः प्रसवेऽश्विनोर्बाहुभ्यां पूष्णो हस्ताभ्याम्। पृथिव्याः सधस्थादग्निं पुरीष्यमङ्गिरस्वत् खनामि । ज्योतिष्मन्तं त्वाग्ने सुप्रतीकमजस्रेण भानुना दीद्यतम् । शिवं प्रजाभ्योऽहिꣳसन्तं पृथिव्याः सधस्थादग्निं पुरीष्यम-ङ्गिरस्वत् खनामः ॥२८॥

Devasya tvā savituḥ prasave'śvinorbāhubhyāṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyām. Pṛthivyāḥ sadhasthādagniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvat khanāmi. Jyotiṣmantaṁ tvāgne supratīkamajasreṇa bhānunā dīdyatam. Śivaṁ prajābhyo'hiṁsantaṁ pṛthivyāḥ sadhasthādagniṁ purīṣyamaṅgirasvat khanāmaḥ.

In this yajnic world of Lord Savita's creation, (in the field of science and technology), with the attraction-sustenance power of the earth and the sun, and the positive-negative circuit of universal energy, from the womb of the earth and the sky, I discover and develop the heat and light of agni, immanent and beneficent power of nature present like air everywhere.

Agni, lord of light, by your grace we discover and develop the power of agni, electricity from the midst of the sky, since it is present universally like the breath of air — agni which is a source of light, bright and beautiful, blazing by the splendour of the eternal sun, injuring none, and a means of comfort and happiness for all the people.

29. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

अपां पृष्ठमसि योनिरग्नेः समुद्रमभितः पिन्वमानम् । वर्धमानो महाँ२॥ऽआ च पुष्करे दिवो मात्रया वरिम्णा प्रथस्व ॥२९॥

Apaṁ pṛṣṭhamasi yoniragneḥ samudramabhitaḥ pinvamānam. Vardhamāno mahāṅ'ā ca puṣkare divo mātrayā varimṇā prathasva.

Agni, universal electric energy, you are the carrier of the waters and the mother of fire. Expanding the oceans (on earth and in the sky), yourself expanding on all sides, go on expanding with the expansive space of the heavens in the great womb of eternity.

30. (Dampati Devate, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

शर्म च स्थो वर्म च स्थोऽच्छिद्रे बहुलेऽउभे । व्यचस्वती संवसाथां भृतमग्निं पुरीष्यम् ॥३०॥

Śarma ca stho varma ca stho'chidre bahule' ubhe. Vyacasvatī saṁvasāthāṁ bhṛtamagniṁ purīṣyam.

Man and wife, both of you live together in a comfortable home of peace and plenty, safety and security, in a state of abundance and uninterrupted happiness. Live together a long age with yajna which, well-maintained, is the best guardian-source of conjugal bliss.

31. (Jayapati Devate, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

संवसाथाꣳस्वर्विदा समीचीऽउरसा त्मना ।
अग्निमन्तर्भरिष्यन्ती ज्योतिष्मन्तमजस्त्रमित् ॥३१॥

Saṁvasāthāṁ svarvidā samīcī'urasā tmanā.
Agnimantarbhariṣyantī jyotiṣmantamajasramit.

Man and wife, come together with heart and soul in unison, fully caring for each other and all, attaining a state of conjugal bliss, and live in peace and joy a long age with yajna fire, eternal light immanent in all, giving life and energy to all — and extended through the yajna of technology to be a source of new power and comfort.

32. (Agni Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

पुरीष्योऽसि विश्वभरा'ऽअथर्वा त्वा प्रथमो निरमन्थदग्ने ।
त्वामग्ने पुष्करादध्यथर्वा निरमन्थत । मूर्ध्नो विश्वस्य वाघतः ॥३२॥

Purīṣyo'si viśvabharā'atharvā tvā prathamo niramanthadagne. Tvāmagne puṣkarādadhy-atharvā niramanthata. Mūrdhno viśvasya vāghataḥ.

Agni, fire/electric energy, present in everything, you are the sustainer of the world. The first man of highest knowledge of reality, 'Atharva', explores you on top of the world, collects you and brings you down from the sky.

33. (Agni Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

तमु त्वा दध्यङ्ङृषिः पुत्रऽईधेऽअथर्वणः ।
वृत्रहणं पुरन्दरम् ॥३३॥

Tamu tvā dadhyaṅṅṛṣiḥ putra' īdhe'atharvaṇaḥ.
Vṛtrahaṇaṁ purandaram.

Then 'Dadhyang', man of science and technology, and son-like disciple of the man of vision and science, 'Atharva', further lights and develops you, 'Indra', i.e., electric energy, breaker of the clouds and shatterer of the hidden sources.

34. (Agni Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

तमु त्वा पाथ्यो वृषा समीधे दस्युहन्तमम् ।
धनञ्जयꣳ रणे रणे ॥३४॥

Tamu tvā pāthyo vṛṣā samīdhe dasyuhantamam.
Dhanañjayaṁ raṇe raṇe.

Agni, energy existing in water and air, shower-like source of power, winner of wealth in project after project, destroyer of evil and wickedness, I develop you in a positive and constructive manner.

35. (Hota Devata, Devashrava & Devavata Ṛshis)

सीद होतः स्वऽउ लोके चिकित्वान्त्सादया यज्ञꣳसुकृतस्य योनौ । देवावीर्देवान् हविषा यजास्यग्ने बृहद्यजमाने वयो धाः ॥३५॥

Sīda hotaḥ sva'u loke cikitvāntsādayā yajñaṁ sukṛtasya yonau. Devāvīrdevān haviṣā yajāsyagne bṛhadyajamāne vayo dhāḥ.

Hota, expert of the science of yajna, take your seat of bliss on the vedi, light and complete the yajna in the home of the noble yajamana. Agni, presiding power of yajna, developed and protected by the noble sages, feed the devas, powers of nature, with yajna materials and bless the yajamana with the great gift of health and longevity.

36. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

नि होता होतृषदने विदानस्त्वेषो दीदिवाँ२॥ऽअसदत्सुदक्षः।
अदब्धव्रतप्रमतिर्वसिष्ठः सहस्त्रम्भरः शुचिर्जिह्वोऽ-

Ni hotā hotṛṣadane vidānastveṣo dīdivāṅ' asadat sudakṣaḥ. Adabdhavratapramatir vasiṣṭhaḥ sahasrambharaḥ śucijihvo' agniḥ.

The young disciple, participant in the yajna of education, sits close to his teacher in the house of learning. Eager to learn and shine brilliant in virtue and Dharma, smart and strong in performance, he is dedicated fearlessly to the vows and values of his own conscious choice. Blest is he with a thousand virtues of generosity, with a tongue of purity like fire itself.

37. (Agni Devata, Praskanva Ṛshi)

सꣳसीदस्व महाँ२॥ऽअसि शोचस्व देववीतमः ।
वि धूममग्नेऽअरुषं मियेध्य सृज प्रशस्त दर्शतम् ॥३७॥

Saṁ sīdasva mahāṅ' asi śocasva devavītamaḥ. Vi dhūmamagne'aruṣaṁ miyedhya sṛja praśasta darśatam.

Agni, venerable teacher, participating in the yajna of education, great indeed you are and most eminent of noble scholars. Shine and burn with the light of knowledge and purity. Take your preceptorial seat, remove the dark and create a full human being, handsome and brilliant as the day.

Eminent scholar of science and technology as you are, you procure for us means of power and defence. We call upon you and honour you with the scholars of distinction and penetrative vision sharp as the beams of sunlight.

Learned teacher, man of knowledge, just as the morning sun, rising between the heaven and earth, beautiful, of various wonders, as its warmth is absorbed in the herbs, dispels the shades of darkness from the heaven and earth and moves on rising in its glory, so should the child grow up gaining the light of knowledge to shine in the life of its parents in the home.

44. (Agni Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

Child, keen for knowledge, be firm in the matter of education. Strong of body, sharp and smart in action, fast in learning and doing, gain practical knowledge of life's affairs. Bright as fire and light, create a place of dignity for yourself. Enjoy great prosperity and support the people around.

Sonny, dear as my breath of life, be good to the people, to all human creations. Damage not the earth and the environment, pollute not the sky, do not desecrate the heavens. Do not destroy the trees and the forests.

Dear son, educated and enlightened, vibrating, fast and fiery with electric energy, rushing, roaring, giving, shooting to the goal, fall not before the full years of your life are attained.

Potent, creative, procreative, bearing and using the versatile energy of electricity, bring the showers of rain, child of the sea, sky and solar power, down to earth for the good of all.

Children of the nation, we know the Divine Law, simple, straight, constant and eternal. We observe it in life and conduct. We know the truth of existence, real and dynamic. We follow it in thought, word and deed. We bear and use 'agni', the energy of nature, life's mode of preservation and promotion, and scientific means of protection and prosperity. It blesses herbs, trees and other vegetation, and these give us health and energy.

Listen you all, this agni is come, so good and blissful. Welcome it in response and rejoice.

Be seated, man of science and medicine. Drive off all that is enervating and infectious. Throw off all that is stupid and ill-disposed.

Come would be mothers (in response to the generosity of nature), take the soothing beauty of the herbal flowers and the nectar-sweets of fruit so that the timely arrival of the coming guest to the maternal womb may be auspicious.

Dear husband, blest with various strength and power, bright and pure as agni (light), great, prosperous and generous, dedicated to yajna and social life, stop and remove the jealous, hostile and wicked enemies of our married life, and I would live happy in your beautiful home of love and peace, observing your noble values of life.

Women, pure, cool and generous like holy waters, creators of domestic peace and conjugal joy, stay firm and constant and hold on with strength and energy to face the great and memorable battles of life with us.

51. (Apah Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

Women, the most blissful pleasure and happiness of life that is yours and ours, create and share the same here in the home with us with the love and passion for motherhood.

52. (Apah Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

Women, cool, pure and generous like holy waters, be active and happy and create conjugal peace and joy for a happy home for us and yourselves. And we too shall be wholly and exclusively with you with all our heart and soul.

53. (Mitra Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

मित्रः सꣳसृज्य पृथिवीं भूमिं च ज्योतिषा सह ।

Mitraḥ saṁsṛjya pṛthivīṁ bhūmiṁ ca jyotiṣā saha. Sujātaṁ jātavedasamayakṣmāya tvā saṁ sṛjāmi prajābhyaḥ.

Just as Mitra, the sun, joining the earth and the sky, illumines the two with its light, similarly I join you, Agni (yajna fire), brilliant and beautiful, and light you for the health and well-being of the people.

Just as you, husband and dear friend, having joined the earth and home with the light of your knowledge and sense of justice, give me love and joy for the health and happiness of the family and the people, so do I join and help you, man of noble birth and education, in the life of the home and the people.

54. (Rudra Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

Rudrāḥ saṁsṛjya pṛthivīṁ bṛhajjyotiḥ samīdhire. Teṣām bhānurajasra' icchukro deveṣu rocate.

Rudras (creative energies of the universe) create the earth and light it with the sun. The sun is the concentration of their energy and shines among the luminous objects continuously.

Similarly, men and women of knowledge and justice create the light and joy of life among the people and shine like the sun.

55. (Sineewalee Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

Saṁsṛṣṭāṁ vasubhī rudrairdhīraiḥ karmaṇyāṁ mṛdam. Hastābhyāṁ mṛdvīṁ kṛtvā sinīvalī kṛṇotu tām.

Young man, just as an artist refines and softens his plastic material with his hands and creates a beautiful form, so a girl, soft and gentle, dexterous of hand and efficient in yajna ritual, shaped and refined by serious teachers of Vasu and Rudra (of twenty-four and thirty-six years) standing is worthy of your love. Win her love and take her to wife.

Aditi, infinite creative power, mother of the universe, the young woman inspired with love, of beautiful hair, handsome of body, wearing beautiful ornaments, virtuous in action and expert in food preparation carries in her hands a tray of delicious foods and waits on you.

57. (Aditi Devata, Sindhudveepa Ṛshi)

Ukhāṁ kṛṇotu śaktyā bāhubhyāmaditirdhiyā. Mātā putraṁ yathopasthe sāgniṁ bibharttu garbha' ā. Makhasya śiro'si.

Young householder, you are the head of yajna. With her power, skill and intelligence, and, with her own hands, may Aditimake a tray of yajna materials for you.

Just as a mother holds her baby in her lap, so may your wife hold agni, a bright and vibrating foetus, in her womb in grihastha yajna.

May the scholars of the highest order of Adityas, like the sun, brighten you up with the jagati verses of world vision. May all the noble saints and sages of the world, with the elevating anushtup verses, enliven and sanctify you like the distilled essences of nature's powers.

66. (Agni & others Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

With truth of word and action, light the fire which inspires to courageous thinking and collective decision.

With truth and honesty of social behaviour, light up the inner vitality which inspires the mind to will and the intellect to analyse and understand the problems of life.

With honest social action, promote the agni, social will, which inspires chitta, instrument of knowledge, to think and preserve the knowledge already gained.

With truth of word and honesty of commitment, maintain the fire which inspires you to proclaim the truth in speech and to safeguard it in memory and tradition.

Keep up the fire of inspiration, action and enthusiasm for the preservation and promotion of agni (fire and energy, both physical and mental), lighted, used and applied in personal yoga and collective action in the service of Prajapati, lord of the created world, Manu, men of thought, research and meditation, Agni, the enlightened leaders of the world, and Vaishwanara, the omnipresent Life of existence — the Supreme.

(Keep up the fire, for the fire, in the service of Fire, Agni).

Viśvo devasya neturmarto vurīta sakhyam. Viśvo rāya'iṣudhyati dyumnaṁ vṛṇīta puṣyase svāhā.

Let the people of the world opt for the love and friendship of the leading Light of the world. Let them all gird up their loins, take up arms for the wealth of the world and win the prize of honour and prosperity with truth of word and deed. This is how you flourish.

Mā su bhitthā mā su riṣo'mba dhṛṣṇu vīrayasva su. Agniścedaṁ kariṣyathaḥ.

Mother, alienate us not from learning. Hurt us not to ruin. Proud and bold, be valiant and take us to the end of the job with success. Mother and father/ Mother and child, doing thus bold and fine together like Agni, fire and the sun, you will accomplish the task on hand.

69. (Amba Devata, Atreya Ṛshi)

दृꣳह॑स्व देवि पृथिवि स्व॒स्तयेऽआसु॒री मा॒या स्व॒धया॑ कृ॒तासि॑ । जुष्टं॑ दे॒वेभ्यऽइ॒दम॑स्तु ह॒व्यमरि॑ष्टा॒ त्वमुदि॑हि य॒ज्ञेऽअ॒स्मिन् ॥६९॥

Noble woman of knowledge and brilliance, generous as mother earth, be strong and firm for the sake of peace and joy. By your own virtue, with food and water, you have realized the power vibrant in pranic energy. Pure and unsullied, rise in this home yajna and help us grow. The food you have prepared for the yajna and the knowledge you have gathered,may it be a gift for all the people.

70. (Agni Devata, Somahuti Ṛshi)

Drvannaḥ sarpirāsutiḥ pratno hotā vareṇyaḥ. Sahasasputro' adbhutaḥ.

Noble young man, living on herbs and fruits for food, and the fragrance of distilled ghee from yajna for 'drink' (breathing), a yajnic of long standing, choice of the good, son of a bold and courageous man, wonderful of nature, character and performance, rise in this home yajna of the family for growth in peace and joy.

71. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

परस्याऽअधि संवतोऽवराँ२॥ऽअभ्यातर ।
यत्राहमस्मि ताँ२॥ऽअव ॥७१॥

Parasyā'adhi saṁvato'varāṅ' abhyātara.
Yatrāhamasmi tāṅ' ava.

Virgin girl of excellence, on marriage, leave those you have departed from, and come, join those who are here on this side. Support and defend those wherever I am. If there was anything low or mean earlier, give up that, and adopt and uphold the values of our family.

72. (Agni Devata, Varuni Ṛshi)

परमस्याः परावतो रोहिदश्वऽइहागहि ।
पुरीष्यः पुरुप्रियोऽग्ने त्वं तरा मृधः ॥७२॥

Paramasyāḥ parāvato rohidaśva'ihāgahi.
Purīṣyaḥ purupriyo'gne tvaṁ tarā mṛdhaḥ.

Agni, young man of excellence, best of social supporters, most loved of the people, come here from afar on a chariot of fire for this excellent girl, join her, and with her overcome the hurdles of your life.

73. (Agni Devata, Jamadagni Ṛshi)

यदग्ने कानि कानि चिदा ते दारुणि दध्मसि ।
सर्वं तदस्तु ते घृतं तज्जुषस्व यविष्ठ्य ॥७३॥

Yadagne kāni kāni cid ā te dāruṇi dadhmasi.
Sarvaṁ tadastu te ghṛtaṁ tajjuṣasva yaviṣṭhya.

Young man/woman, brilliant like fire, whatever things are for you, all those we place on the shelf. Accept and take all that as fire accepts the oblations of ghee. All that is ours is yours. All that is yours is ours too.

74. (Agni Devata, Jamadagni Ṛshi)

यदत्त्युपजिह्विका यद् वम्रोऽअतिसर्पति ।
सर्वं तदस्तु ते घृतं तज्जुषस्व यविष्ठ्य ॥७४॥

Yadattyupajihvikā yad vamro atisarpati. Sarvaṁ tadastu te ghṛtaṁ tajjuṣasva yaviṣṭhya.

Young man/woman of excellence, brilliant as fire, whatever the woman/man of controlled taste and tongue eats, and howsoever her/his breath flows in and out, all that is yours, for you. That is for your love and joy. Take all that as fire consumes the oblations.

75. (Agni Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

अहरहरप्रयावं भरन्तोऽश्वायेव तिष्ठते घासमस्मै ।
रायस्पोषेण समिषा मदन्तोऽग्ने मा ते प्रतिवेशा रिषाम॥७५॥

Aharaharaprayāvaṁ bharanto' śvāyeva tiṣṭhate ghāsamasmai. Rāyaspoṣeṇa samiṣā madanto'-gne mā te prativeśā riṣāma.

Agni, learned man of justice and brilliance, just as we bear lovely green grass for a horse in the stables every day, so we bear good and wholesome food and other things to this fair and just house-holder as his partners in good deeds of Dharma. May we, enjoying ourselves with plenty of food and energy, health and wealth with him, never injure the honour and reputation of this noble man out of jealousy.

76. (Agni Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

Nābhā pṛthivyāḥ samidhāne'agnau rāyaspoṣāya bṛhate havāmahe. Irammadaṁ bṛhadukthaṁ yajatraṁ jetāramagniṁ pṛtanāsu sāsahim.

When the fire is lit in the vedi in the heart of the land and the battle is raging for abundance and prosperity and for high national honour, we call upon agni, a fiery leader with electric action, victorious in battle and of tremendous endurance, himself a man of plenty and prosperity, admirable of character and adorable in performance. (We call upon such a man to lead the nation.)

77. (Agni Devata, Nabahanedishtha Ṛshi)

Yāḥ senā' abhītvarīrāvyādhinīruganāḥ'uta. Ye stenā ye ca taskarāstāṅste'agne'pi dadhāmyāsye.

There are the forces up against in arms, large, swift and ready to strike. There are the thieves and the smugglers. All these that are there, I throw into the flames of fire. President of the Council, commander of the army, you do the same.

78. (Agni Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

दꣳष्ट्रा॑भ्यां म॒लिम्लू॒ञ्जम्भ्यै॒स्तस्क॑राँ२॥ऽउ॒त ।

Daṁṣṭrābhyāṁ malimlūñjambhyaistaskaraṅ' uta. Hanubhyāṁ stenān bhagavastāṅstvaṁ khāda sukhāditān.

Ruler of the land, Chief of law and order, tear the night-walkers and highway men with the fangs of punishment, crush the robbers and smugglers with the jaws of justice. Seize and hold the thieves and grabbers of others' rights and property with the chains of law. You eliminate them all.

79. (Senapati Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

ये जनेषु मलिम्लव स्तेनासस्तस्करा वने ।

Ye janeṣu malimlava stenāsastaskarā vane. Ye kakṣeṣvaghāyavastāṅste dadhāmi jambhayoḥ.

Chief of law and order, those who commit despicable acts in the public, rob and smuggle in the forests, and commit crimes in high and hiding places and live a life of sin and crime, all these I put into the court of your justice.

80. (Adhyapaka-Upadeshika Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

योऽअस्मभ्यमरातीयाद्यश्च नो द्वेषते जनः ।
निन्दाद्योऽअस्मान् धिप्साच्च सर्वं तं भस्मसा कुरु ॥८०॥

Yo'asmabhyamarātīyādyaśca no dveṣate janaḥ. Nindādyo' asmān dhipsācca sarvaṁ taṁ bhasmasā kuru.

Ruler of the land, if a person maligns us out of hostility, or hates us out of jealousy, or speaks ill of us out of contempt, or deceives us to injure and destroy us, reduce all that hate, anger and negativity to ashes.

81. (Purohita & Yajamana Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

सꣳशितं मे ब्रह्म सꣳशितं वीर्यं बलम् ।
सꣳशितं क्षत्रं जिष्णु यस्याहमस्मि पुरोहितः॥८१॥

Saṁśitaṁ me brahma saṁśitaṁ vīryaṁ balam.
Saṁśitaṁ kṣatraṁ jiṣṇu yasyāhamasmi purohitaḥ.

I am the high-priest of the yajamana, foremost in his creative and constructive projects. May the yajamana's knowledge of the Veda and mine be commendable. May his strength and prowess and mine be admirable. May his power and dominion and mine be great and praise-worthy.

82. (Sabhapati & Yajamana Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

उदेषां बाहूऽअतिरमुद्वर्चोऽअथो बलम् ।

Udeṣāṁ bāhū' atiramudvarco' atho balam.
Kṣiṇomi brahmaṇā'mitrānunnayāmi svāṅ' aham.

I am the high-priest of the yajamana. With my knowledge and science of the Veda, I overcome the strength of arms, power and valour, honour and lustre of the others, i.e., thieves, robbers and cut-throats, etc., reduce their strength to nullity, and raise our honour and lustre high.

83. (Yajamana & Purohita Devata, Nabhanedishtha Ṛshi)

अन्नपतेऽन्नस्य नो देह्यनमीवस्य शुष्मिणः ।
प्रप्र दातारं तारिषऽऊर्जं नो धेहि द्विपदे चतुष्पदे ॥८३॥

Annapate'nnasya no dehyanamīvasya śuṣmiṇaḥ.
Pra pra dātāraṁ tāriṣa' ūrjaṁ no dhehi dvipade catuṣpade.

Lord of food and energy, bless us with food, nourishing, invigorating, free from pollution and pleasing to taste. Bless the giver, the yajamana, to advance and attain fulfilment and prosperity. Give us energy both for humans and the animals.

CHAPTER–XII

1. (Agni Devata, Vatsapri Ṛshi)

दृ॒शा॒नो रु॒क्मऽउ॒र्व्या व्य॑द्यौद् दु॒र्मर्ष॒मायुः॒ श्रि॒ये रु॑चा॒नः।
अ॒ग्निर॒मृतो॑ऽअभव॒द्वयो॑भि॒र्यदे॑नं॒ द्यौर॑जन॒यत्सु॒रेताः॑ ॥१॥

Dṛśāno rukma'urvyā vyadyaud durmarṣamāyuḥ śriye rucānaḥ. Agniramṛto'abhavadvayobhiryadenaṁ dyaurajanayatsuretāḥ.

Agni, Lord of Light, Light Itself, the Sun, explodes into light and illuminates the earth and reveals all the objects on the earth. The self-luminous lord, Himself the immortal seed of life, for His own glory and joy of the creatures, creates forms of indestructible life with foods as means and support of life. And He it is who creates the man of knowledge and vision (to show the divine path of life to others).

2. (Agni Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

नक्तो॒षासा॒ सम॑नसा॒ विरू॑पे धा॒पये॑ते॒ शिशु॒मेक॑ꣳ समी॒ची ।
द्यावा॒क्षामा॑ रु॒क्मोऽअ॒न्तर्वि भा॑ति दे॒वाऽअ॒ग्निं धार॑यन् द्रविणो॒दाः ॥२॥

Natkoṣāsā samanasā virūpe dhāpayete śiśumekaṁ samīcī. Dyāvākṣāmā rukmo' antarvibhāti devā 'agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodāḥ.

The night and the dawn, one dark, the other luminous, both different in form but of equal mind, together nurse one child, the sun, like two mothers. The self-luminous agni, light and life of the universe — of which the sun is a child — pervades both the earth and the heavens. All the powers of nature which sustain and invigorate life hold on to agni, the central life and spirit.

3. (Savita Devata, Shyavashva Ṛshi)

विश्वा रूपाणि प्रतिमुञ्चते कविः प्रासावीद् भद्रं द्विपदे चतुष्पदे। वि नाकमख्यत्सविता वरेण्योऽनु प्रयाणमुषसो विराजति ॥३॥

Viśvā rūpāṇi pratimuñcate kaviḥ prāsāvīd bhadraṁ dvipade catuṣpade. Vi nākamakhyat savitā vareṇyo'nu prayāṇamuṣaso virājati.

Savita, lord of light and life, the sun, choice of all, watches all and inspires all. It lights up the dawn and illuminates and reveals all the forms of existence. It creates the means of life and support for the humans and the animals, and lights up the heavens above.

4. (Garutman Devata, Shyavashva Ṛshi)

सुपर्णोऽसि गरुत्माँस्त्रिवृत्ते शिरो गायत्रं चक्षुर्बृहद्रथन्तरे पक्षौ । स्तोमऽआत्मा छन्दाꣳस्यङ्गानि यजूꣳषि नाम । साम ते तनूर्वामदेव्यं यज्ञायज्ञियं पुच्छं धिष्ण्याः शफाः । सुपर्णोऽसि गरुत्मान्दिवं गच्छ स्वः पत ॥४॥

Suparṇo'si garutmāṅstrivṛtte śiro gāyatraṁ cakṣurbṛhadrathantare pakṣau. Stoma' ātma chandāṁsyaṅgāni yajūṁṣi nāma. Sāma te tanūrvāmadevyaṁ yajñāyajñiyaṁ pucchaṁ dhiṣṇyāḥ śaphāḥ. Suparṇo'si garutmān divaṁ gaccha svaḥ pata.

Man of knowledge and of the power of knowledge, you are like a celestial bird with beautiful wings and a high-flying soul: threefold virtue of knowledge, action and divine worship is your head and brain by which you ward off the miseries of others. The knowledge of gayatri verses is your eye and vision. Brihad-rathantara sama verses are like your wings, something like a chariot by which you can cross the rivers of misery. Rigveda is your soul. The chhanda verses of the Veda are like the limbs of your body. The verses of Yajurveda are like your name and identity. Samaveda is like your body. The do's and dont's of the Vamadevya Samans are like your back bone. The roll of your voice is like your claws. You are like the divine eagle, Garuda, majestic and magnanimous. You are the sun, master of grandeur. Rise to the heavens. Find the bliss of heaven.

5. (Vishnu Devata, Shyavashva Ṛshi)

विष्णोः क्रमोऽसि सपत्नहा गायत्रं छन्दऽआरोह पृथिवीमनु विक्रमस्व विष्णोः क्रमोऽस्यभिमातिहा त्रैष्टुभं छन्दऽआरोहान्तरिक्षमनु विक्रमस्व विष्णोः क्रमोऽस्यरातीयतो हन्ता जागतं छन्दऽआरोह दिवमनु विक्रमस्व विष्णोः क्रमोऽसि शत्रूयतो हन्तानुष्टुभं छन्दऽआरोह दिशोऽनु विक्रमस्व ॥५॥

Viṣṇoḥ kramo'si sapatnahā gāyatraṁ chanda'ā roha pṛthivīmanu vikramasva viṣṇoḥ kramo' syabhimātihā traiṣṭubhaṁ chanda 'ārohāntarikṣamanu vikramasva viṣṇoḥ kramo'syarātīyato hantā jāgataṁ chanda 'āroha divamanu vikramasva viṣṇoḥ kramo'si śatrūyato hantānuṣṭubhaṁ chanda'āroha diśo'nu vikramasva.

Brilliant man of expansive knowledge, you are an instrument of Vishnu, omnipresent lord of the world, born to eliminate the jealous rivals. Study the gayatri verses, use the power revealed in there, go and expand over the earth, cooperate with the earth, work on its resources, and develop the wealth and prosperity of the land.

Noble scientist, you are a co-worker with omnipresent nature, born to defeat the proud and jealous forces inimical to growth. Study the trishtubh verses for knowledge and power for threefold comfort of body, mind and soul and, flying on the wings of that knowledge, cover the skies to explore and exploit the resources of the sky.

Tempestuous scientist and astronaut, you are a friend of agni, universal electric energy, born to eliminate the failures and adversities of the internal and external life. Study the jagati verses for the knowledge of light and space and, on the wings of that knowledge, reach the heavens. Cooperate with space and light energy, cooperate with universal energy and conquer the inner darkness with the light, and external failures with knowledge.

Steady man of technology, you are an instrument of eternal energy meant to serve as well as exploit the natural resources of the environment and eliminate the enemies who stem your growth. Go forward in and over all the directions on the earth and around on the wings of anushtubh verses, work with and on the currents of wind and energy and dominate over the directions to create one world on the earth in a healthy environment.

6. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

अक्रन्ददग्नि स्तनयन्निव द्यौः क्षामा रेरिहद् वीरुधः समञ्जन्। सद्यो जज्ञानो वि हीमिद्धोऽअख्यदा रोदसी भानुना भात्यन्तः ॥६॥

Akrandadagni stanayanniva dyauḥ kṣāmā rerihad vīrudhaḥ samañjan. Sadyo jajñāno vi hīmiddho' akhyadā rodasī bhānunā bhātyantaḥ.

Agni roars like thunder in the sky and proclaims itself. Colourfully vitalizing the trees it caresses and blesses the earth with beauty and fruit. Properly lighted, it shines bright and immediately makes itself known. Between the earth and the heavens it blazes with its own splendour like the sun.

(Just as agni is radiant and benevolent with its own majesty, so should the ruler/President of the republic be brilliant with his own qualities of nature, character and actions and bless the people with his grace and benevolence. Only a person of benevolence and brilliance deserves to be the ruler.)

7. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

अग्नेऽभ्यावर्त्तिन्नभि मा निवर्त्तस्वायुषा वर्चसा प्रजया धनेन । सन्या मेधया रय्या पोषेण ॥७॥

Agne'bhyāvarttinnabhi mā nivarttasvāyuṣā varcasā prajayā dhanena. Sanyā medhayā rayyā poṣeṇa.

Agni, brilliant and blazing presence abiding before us, generous man of knowledge, come blessing us with health and longevity, lustre of life, children and family, wealth and prosperity, acquisition and fulfilment, discriminative intelligence, beauty and dignity of life, and all-round growth and progress.

8. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

अग्नेऽअङ्गिरः शतं ते सन्त्वावृतः सहस्रं तऽउपावृतः। अधा पोषस्य पोषेण पुनर्नो नष्टमाकृधि पुनर्नो रयिमाकृधि ॥८॥

Agne'aṅgiraḥ śataṁ te santvāvṛtaḥ sahasraṁ ta' upāvṛtaḥ. Adhā poṣasya poṣeṇa punarno naṣṭamākṛdhi punarno rayimā kṛdhi.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power/Man of natural and material science, come and visit us a hundred times with your acts and gifts. And may the blessings of your visits and gifts be a thousandfold for us. With the strength and support of your promoters, recreate and supplement for us whatever we might have lost in knowledge or natural and material wealth. Rebuild and regain for us whatever honour and prestige we might have lost or compromised.

9. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

पुनरूर्जा निवर्त्तस्व पुनरग्नऽइषायुषा ।
पुनर्नः पाह्यꣳहसः ॥९॥

Punarūrjā nivarttasva punaragna' iṣāyuṣā. Punarnaḥ pāhyaṁhasaḥ.

Agni, brilliant power of light and knowledge/Man of knowledge and science, come, return your visits with the gifts of food and energy, health and age. Save us from sin and evil deeds again and again, and inspire us to do great things.

10. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

सह रय्या निवर्त्तस्वाग्ने पिन्वस्व धारया ।
विश्वप्स्न्या विश्वतस्परि ॥१०॥

Saha rayyā nivarttasvāgne pinvasva dhāryā. Viśvapsnyā viśvataspari.

Agni, brilliant power/Enlightened sages, come with all the wealth, come with gifts of that language and that intelligence which holds for us all the means and materials of comfort and prosperity. Come, and help us grow in all directions of life.

11. (Agni Devata, Dhruva Ṛshi)

आ त्वाहार्षमन्तरभूर्ध्रुवस्तिष्ठाविचाचलिः ।
विशस्त्वा सर्वा वाञ्छन्तु मा त्वद्राष्ट्रमधिभ्रशत् ॥११॥

Ā tvāhārṣamantarabhūrdhruvastiṣṭhāvicācaliḥ. Viśastvā sarvā vāñchantu mā tvadrāṣṭram-adhibhraśat.

Agni/Ruler of the land, we accept you and conduct you to the council as the ruler. Grace the seat of your office, be firm and stay inviolable. All the people accept and honour you. Let the land and the nation, under your control, never fail and fall to ruin.

12. (Varuna Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

उदुत्तमं वरुण पाशमस्मदवाधमं वि मध्यमश्रं श्रथाय।
अथा वयमादित्य व्रते तवानागसोऽअदितये स्याम ॥१२॥

Uduttamaṁ varuṇa pāśamasmadavādhamaṁ vi madhyamaṁ śrathāya. Athā vayamāditya vrate tavānāgaso aditaye syāma.

Varuna, lord of freedom and bondage, Ruler of the land, power of law and liberty, loosen and untie our chains of bondage of the highest, medium and the lowest order and let them drop from us. And then O Sun, lord of majesty, we shall be free from evil, crime and sin and, dedicated to the vows of your discipline and law, we shall serve our land of inviolable freedom and integrity.

13. (Agni Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

अग्रे॑ बृ॒हन्नु॒षसा॑मू॒र्ध्वोऽअ॑स्था॒न्निर्ज॑गन्वान् तम॑सो॒ ज्योति॒षागा॑त्।

Agre bṛhannuṣasāmūrdhvo' asthānnirjaganvān tamaso jyotiṣāgāt. Agnirbhānunā ruśatā svaṅga' ā jāto viśvā sadmānyaprāḥ.

Agni, the sun, great, first and foremost, positioned over and above the dawn, comes forth from the dark and rises with all its glory. Resplendent with its wonderful beams which adorn it like brilliant limbs of its personality, it expands over the regions of the world, dispels the darkness and illuminates them all over with its light. (So should the ruler, first and great among the brilliant people of the land, come forth with the greatness of his personality, illuminate the land and glorify all the people.)

14. (Jiva & Ishwara Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

हꣳसः शु॒चि॒षद्वसु॑रन्तरिक्ष॒सद्धोता॑ वेदि॒षदति॑थिर्दुरोण॒सत्।

Haṁsaḥ śuciṣad vasurantarikṣasaddhotā vediṣadatithirduroṇasat. Nṛṣad varasad ṛtasad vyomasadabjā gojā' ṛtajā' adrijā' ṛtaṁ bṛhat.

Hansa is the great soul that destroys evil. It exists in purity. It lives in all and all live in it. It fills the skies and expresses in holy work. It is the giver and receiver of oblations in yajna. It sits in the vedi and in the earth. It is rambling around as a venerable visitor. It stays in the home and in the sky and all through the seasons. It rules over people and commands the commanders. It is with and above the best of people. It lives in truth and in virtuous conduct. It is in space and in the heart. It is in the waters and in the vitality of prana, and it creates the waters and the vitality. It activates the senses, moves the animals and magnetizes the earth. It creates the universal law and abides in it. It forms the mountains and the clouds and it showers with the rain. It is the truth and dynamic reality of existence, and it is great over all.

(It is the man of such an individual soul, inspired by the attributes of the great supreme soul, who deserves to be the ruler.)

15. (Agni Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

सीद॒ त्वं मा॒तुर॒स्याऽउ॒पस्थे॒ विश्वा॑न्यग्ने व॒युना॑नि॒ वि॒द्वान् ।

Sīda tvaṁ māturasyā'upasthe viśvānyagne vayunāni vidvān. Maināṃ tapasā mā'rciṣā'bhiśocīrantarasyāṁ śukrajyotirvibhāhi.

Agni/Ruler/individual soul, you know all the ways of the world. Sit in the lap of this mother earth/ mother-land/mother. Don't hurt her with the heat of your power and passion. Don't dazzle her with the beams of your knowledge. Light of knowledge and power of vitality, be in the heart of the mother and shine there with the light of life.

16. (Agni Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

Antaragne rucā tvamukhāyāḥ sadane sve.
Tasyāstvaṁ harasā tapañjātavedaḥ śivo bhava.

Omniscient Agni/All knowing wide-awake ruler of the land, brilliant with your own light in your place in the world/dominion, blazing with your power and glory, be good and kind to the people.

17. (Agni Devata, Trita Ṛshi)

शिवो भूत्वा मह्यमग्नेऽअथो सीद शिवस्त्वम् ।

Śivo bhūtva mahyamagne atho sīda śivastvam.
Śivaḥ kṛtvā diśaḥ sarvāḥ svaṁ yonimihāsadaḥ.

Agni, ruler of the land, having been good and kind to us, the people, sit at peace undisturbed. And then, having rendered all the regions of the land in all directions safe and secure in the good life, be comfortable with satisfaction in your own office of justice and governance.

18. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

दिवस्परि प्रथमं जज्ञेऽअग्निरस्मद् द्वितीयं परि जातवेदाः।
तृतीयमप्सु नृमणाऽअजस्त्रमिन्धानऽएनं जरते स्वाधीः ॥१८॥

Divaspari prathamaṁ jajñe' agnirasmad dvitīyaṁ pari jātavedāḥ. Tṛtīyamapsu nṛmaṇā' ajasramindhāna enaṁ jarate svādhīḥ.

Agni, the sun, first rises over the heavens. Then it rises over us all illuminating our world. Third, it emerges in the pranic energies of nature, in the waters and in the mind of humanity — thus illuminating and activating everything and every mind from within. The pious and the devout people invoke, light and worship Agni, perpetual power, spirit and light of the world.

(Just as Agni is the power, spirit and light of the world, so should the ruler be. And so should he/she vitalize and illuminate the people, and so should the people adore him/her.)

19. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

विद्मा तेऽअग्ने त्रेधा त्रयाणि विद्मा ते धाम विभृता पुरुत्रा । विद्मा ते नाम परमं गुहा यद्विद्मा तमुत्सं यतऽआजगन्थ ॥१९॥

Vidmā te'agne tredhā trayāṇi vidmā te dhāma vibhṛtā purutrā. Vidmā te nāma paramaṁ guhā yad vidmā tamutsaṁ yata' ājagantha.

Agni, light, energy and power of the world, let us know the three orders of the three powers of yours (heat, light and electricity). Lord of majesty, love and favourite of all, let us explore and know the various forms and places where you exist, which you support and which support you. Let us know that supreme name and the thing you are in the essence which is hidden in a mysterious cave. Let us discover the spring, the water and the cloud from where you issue forth in formal existence (so that we may be blest with the power and prosperity which follows the discovery and the applications).

20. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

समुद्रे त्वा नृमणाऽअप्स्वन्तर्नृचक्षाऽईधे दिवो अग्नऽ-ऊधन् । तृतीयै त्वा रजसि तस्थिवाꣳसमपामुपस्थे महिषाऽअवर्धन् ॥२०॥

Agni, light and life of the world, a leader of thought among men, as I am, I discover and light you in the oceans. A visionary of humanity, I discover you in the foods, in the vapours and in the clouds. In the third region of the heavens of light, abiding in the solar sphere, in the dawn and in the heart of steam and flowing waters, great men discover, light and develop you.

21. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

Akrandadagni stanayanniva dyauḥ kṣāmā rerihad vīrudhaḥ samañjan. Sadyo jajñāno vi hīmiddho' akhyadā rodasī bhānunā bhātyantaḥ.

Agni, light and energy of life, roaring as lightning, reverberates in the skies with an explosion. Lighted well all-round and immediately blazing, it shines and illuminates everything. Between the heaven and the earth it shines with the beams of its own brilliance. The light reaches the earth, energizes the soil and emerges in the beauty of vegetation.

22. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

Śrīṇāmudāro dharuṇo rayīṇāṁ manīṣāṇāṁ prārpaṇaḥ somagopaḥ. Vasuḥ sūnuḥ sahaso' apsu rājā vibhātyagra uṣasāmidhānaḥ.

Generous lord of the light and glory of life, spirit of the graces of nature, sustainer of wealth and beauty, source of desire and fulfilment, guardian of the sweetness, joy and greenery of the earth, haven and mainstay of the world, child of the very force and victory of life, brilliant in the dynamics of existence, He blazes in splendour before the dawns. Light of the world, going everywhere, seed of life, rising as the sun, illuminating the earth and heaven, breaker of the darkest cloud, hallowed and consecrated by the people and the energies of nature, such is Agni. (Such should be the ruler in his domain.)

24. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

उशिक् पावको अरतिः सुमेधा मर्त्येष्वग्निरमृतो नि धायि। इयर्त्ति धूममरुषं भरिभ्रदुच्छुक्रेण शोचिषा द्यामिनक्षन् ॥२४॥

Uśik pāvako aratiḥ sumedha martyeṣvagniramṛto ni dhāyi. Iyartti dhūmamaruṣaṁ bharibhraducchukreṇa śociṣā dyāminakṣan.

Immortal agni, lovely and lovable, pure and purifier, intelligent and self-conscious, a holy presence, is existent in men and women. The same throws up the fiery smoke upward and with instantaneous light illuminates the sun and heaven.

25. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

Dṛśāno rukma'urvyā vyadyauddurmarṣamāyuḥ śriye rucānaḥ. Agniramṛto' abhavadvayobhiryadenaṁ dyaurajanayatsuretāḥ.

Agni, immortal light and vitality of existence, brilliant, golden glorious, explodes in heaven and illuminates everything with the earth. In love, as if, with the beauty of the world, it assumes various forms of self-assertive and inviolable life. And yet that Heavenly Power which creates this agni and brings it into existence is another, the Eternal Life of life and Light of light.

26. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

यस्तेऽअद्य कृणवद्भद्रशोचेऽपूपं देव घृतवन्तमग्ने ।

Men of knowledge, wisdom and expertise, celebrate agni and promote it among the famous and the prosperous. Sing of it in verses of praise on the auspicious and admirable occasions of yajna. It is dear to the men of heat and light and the sun. Promote it with the hopes and actions of your children. Promote it with the hopes and aspirations of those who are yet to be born.

28. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

Agni, lord of fire and science, the experts of yajna dedicated to you, with the use of fire and your blessings, daily pursue and achieve all the desired objects of the world. Men of reason, intelligence and will, desirous of wealth, choose for research and work on the cowshed and the cloud with the rays of the sun for the realisation of progress and prosperity.

29. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

Astāvyagnirnarāṁ suśevo vaiśvānarā'ṛṣibhiḥ somagopāḥ. Adveṣe dyāvāpṛthivī huvema devā dhatta rayimasme suvīram.

Agni, worshipped by seers and sages, is the darling of humanity, auspicious and adorable. Omnipresent, universal and all-commanding, it is the guardian and promoter of the means of life, peace and joy. We invoke the powers of earth and heaven — powers free of hate and jealousy and sources of bliss. Great men of the world, brilliant and generous, guardians of the peace and prosperity of life, generate and hold for us the wealth and power of life and polity which creates a great nation and fearless humanity.

30. (Agni Devata, Virupaksha Ṛshi)

आस्मिन् हव्या जुहोतन॥३०॥

Samidhā'gniṁ duvasyata ghṛtairbodhayatātithim. Āsmin havyā juhotana.

(Agni is an 'atithi', a chance guest, which comes at its own will whenever it comes. Serve it with the best of offerings you have.)

Light and serve agni (fire) with fuel and fragrant materials. Wake it up, raise it with ghee and other sumptuous offerings as you would feed a venerable chance visitor. Offer the best of yajna into the fire.

(Like the fire of yajna, serve the man of light and knowledge with the best you can offer for food and gifts whenever such a venerable person happens to visit you.)

31. (Agni Devata, Tapasa Ṛshi)

उदु॑ त्वा॒ विश्वे॑ दे॒वाऽअग्ने॒ भर॑न्तु चित्ति॑भिः।

Udu tvā viśve devā'agne bharantu cittibhiḥ. Sa no bhava śivastvaṁ supratīko vibhāvasuḥ.

Agni, of lovely forms of manifestation and lord of infinite light and wisdom, may all the noble and generous people of the world serve and celebrate you with the best of intention, devotion and acts of worship. May Agni, light of the universe, be good and kind to us all. (May the man of knowledge and wisdom be good and kind to us all as such persons are agni in human form.)

32. (Agni Devata, Tapasa Ṛshi)

प्रेद॑ग्ने॒ ज्योति॑ष्मान् याहि शि॒वेभि॑र॒र्चिभि॒ष्ट्वम् ।

Predagne jyotiṣmān yāhi śivebhirarcibhiṣṭvam. Bṛhadbhirbhānubhirbhāsan mā hiṁsīstanvā prajāḥ.

Agni, lord of light and life, come forth to bless us with the gracious beams of light and warmth of life. Burning and blazing with the mighty flames of fire, hurt not our people and our children.

(As Agni, so should the ruler and the commander of the army be mighty and blazing with splendour, always protective but never unjust and hurtful.)

33. (Agni Devata, Vatsapree Ṛshi)

अक्रन्दद॒ग्नि स्त॒नय॑न्निव॒ द्यौः क्षामा॒ रेरि॑हद् वी॒रुधः॑ सम॒ञ्जन्। स॒द्यो ज॑ज्ञा॒नो वि हीमि॒द्धोऽअख्य॒दा रोद॑सी भा॒नुना॑ भात्य॒न्तः ॥३३॥

Akrandadagni stanayanniva dyauḥ kṣāmā rerihadvīrudhaḥ samañjan. Sadyo jajñāno vi hīmiddho akhyadā rodasī bhānunā bhātyanṭḥ.

Agni roars and thunders like lightning in the sky as it proclaims its presence on the earth. Joining every bit of life and vegetation, it inspires all forms of existence with passion and vitality and thus manifests itself, protecting and promoting life. And it goes on blazing with its mighty splendour from the earth below to the highest heaven.

(So does the scholar with his knowledge, the ruler with his power, and the commander with his force, shine and blaze all round, protecting, promoting and inspiring the nation and the environment with freedom, passion and enthusiasm).

34. (Agni Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

This agni, ruler/commander of the forces, attends to the affairs of the state, and, distinguished with great knowledge and brilliance of character, shines forth like the sun. He stands firm every way by the state and the nation in the battles of life and defence. Dear and favourite of the good, intelligent and generous people, moving around among the people like a visitor, may he be good, kind and beneficent to us and shine.

35. (Apah Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

Celestial waters, receive this light of agni, this ray of light, this seed of life. Keep it and nourish it in some soft, fragrant and beautiful region of freedom. Wives of the most virtuous order of character, honour and bow to it to receive it. Bear it in the vapours of space as a mother bears a child in the womb.

36. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Agni, seed of life, the soul with the subtle and the causal body, your home is in the celestial waters of space. You love to grow in existence with the herbs, and thence, placed in the mother's womb, are born again.

Agni, light of life, seed with the subtle and the causal body, you are a child of the herbs. You are a child of the plants and trees. You are a child of the entire forms of life in existence. You are a child of the waters of earth and heaven.

38. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Prasadya bhasmanā yonimapaśca pṛthivīmagne. Saṁsṛjya matṛbhiṣṭvaṁ jyotiṣmān punarā"sadaḥ.

Soul, light of consciousness and seed of life, through the ashes of the funeral pyre you rise to a new home in the celestial waters of space. Then you come down to the earth to be with the forms of herbs. And then you come in to the mother's womb and are born again in a new body.

39. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Punarāsadya sadanamapaśca pṛthivīmagne.
Śeṣe māturyathopasthe'ntarasyāṁ śivatamaḥ.

Agni, soul with the desire and will to live in the forms of existence, again and again you come to find a place in the celestial waters of space. Again and again you descend to the earth to attain herbal forms of life. Then again you enter the mother's womb and rest there to grow as a part of her life within. When you are born, you sleep in her lap in peace and joy. Noble soul, be good to the mother, be the darling of her love, joy and fulfilment.

Agni, intent listener, most youthful man/woman of independent and comfortable means, understand the sense and meaning of this great word of mine, important, worthy of attention and expressive of deep meaning with further implications. Let anyone denigrate you, let someone praise you, I am your admirer, and I appreciate and value your health of body and intelligence of mind.

43. (Agni Devata, Somahuti Ṛshi)

44. (Agni Devata, Somahuti Ṛshi)

पुनस्त्वाऽऽदित्या रुद्रा वसवः समिन्धतां पुनर्ब्रह्माणो वसुनीथ यज्ञैः । घृतेन त्वं तन्वं वर्धयस्व सत्याः सन्तु यजमानस्य कामाः॥४४॥

The teachers who are old and those who are new and the parents and other seniors who are here on the earth, all should realise and actualise for young aspirants the knowledge of this world. The judge of the aspirants' performance may grant them the certificate of completion and graduation in achievement. Hence keep away from Adharma (injustice and untruth), go on firmly with Dharma (truth and justice), and realise it without delay here and now.

46. (Agni Devata, Somahuti Ṛshi)

Agni, man of knowledge, having passed through the crucibles of fire like ash, you are knowledge itself, full and complete like the orb of the sun and powerful like the force of electricity. May your plans, intentions and aspirations pass on to me as mine.

Be wide-awake, collect knowledge from all round, go forward and take it to the heights. Be cooperative, mutually dependent, collectively self-dependent. Take to knowledge and to the teachers.

47. (Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

Ayaṁ so'agniryasmintsomamindraḥ sutaṁ dadhe jaṭhare vāvaśānaḥ. Sahasriyaṁ vājamatyaṁ na saptiṁ sasavāntsantstūyase jātavedaḥ.

This is that agni, vital heat of life, in which Indra, the sun, as if in love with life, places the nectar of life, Soma, like the distilled and delicious food for a thousand people. Life of life, Jataveda, generous giver as you are, you are worshipped by the devotees in your own right.

It is for the love of life that I absorb the same nectar of life into my body system. It is for the same love of life that I hold on to my darling wife and I enjoy my food and drink.

48. (Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

It is the same by which the skies are pervaded and expanded. It blazes as the sun, it rolls as the oceans of space, and it watches our human performance as the universal eye.

(Let the scholar and the teacher attain the knowledge of the universal spirit, nature and life in existence and, like agni among human beings, impart the same to his/her disciples.)

49. (Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

Agni, man of knowledge and light of the world, your knowledge reaches unto the waters of heaven and you proclaim that knowledge to the bold and the best among intelligent people who impart it to their disciples. It covers the waters which float in the luminous sphere of the sun and studies the vapours and energy vibrant on this side of the sun and beyond.

Agni, light of life/brilliant man of knowledge, may your light, knowledge and intelligence be for our share. Create for us and help us create wealth of cows, plenty of milk, food and energy, divine speech, vision and wisdom for all time for the sake of yajna and the yajniks. May we beget children capable of mighty deeds and achievements. And may the brilliant teacher bless our children with universal wealth of existence and the vision of divinity.

Indrāgnī tvā bṛhaspatirasmin yonāvasīṣadan.

Fill up, serve and complete this life. If there is any loophole, plug it. If there is any short-coming, overcome it, advance and excel. In this field of knowledge and action, may Indra and Agni, father and mother, nurture you with instruction and advice. May Brihaspati, the teacher, guardian of divine knowledge and good conduct, guide and confirm you in virtue. Be strong and stay firm in your place.

55. (Apah Devata, Priyamedha Ṛshi)

ताऽअस्य सूदंदोहसः सोमꣳश्रीणन्ति पृश्नयः।
जन्मन्देवानां विशस्त्रिष्वा रोचने दिवः॥५५॥

Tā'asya sūdadohasaḥ somaṁ śrīṇanti pṛśnayaḥ.
Janmandevānāṁ viśastriṣvā rocane divaḥ.

Blooming women of beauty and grace, wives of noble people, in this wonderful paradisal phase of their cultured home life, milk the dappled cows and prepare and season delicious foods with the dressing of soma. They create sweetness and joy in all the three phases of time, past, present and future, and are blest with noble and promising children.

56. (Indra Devata, Sutajetra Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

इन्द्रं विश्वाऽअवीवृधन्त्समुद्रव्यचसं गिरः ।
रथीतमꣳरथीनां वाजानाꣳ सत्पतिं पतिम् ॥५६॥

Indraṁ viśvā' avīvṛdhantsamudravyacasaṁ giraḥ. Rathītamaṁ rathīnāṁ vājānāṁ satpatiṁ patim.

All the sacred voices of truth inspire and exalt Indra, man of power and glory, wide and rolling as the sea, supreme hero of the chariots and battles of life, protector of truth and Dharma, and promoter of life and its prosperity.

(The brahmacharis and brahmacharinis, who complete their education with the sacred voice of the Veda and the words of truth written and spoken by the Rishis, rise in life, and when they marry in the vaidic way, they raise families which grow in happiness and prosperity.)

57. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

समितꣳसं कल्पेथाꣳसंप्रियौ रोचिष्णू सुमनस्यमानौ ।
इषमूर्जमभि संवसानौ ॥५७॥

Samitaṁ saṁ kalpethāṁ saṁpriyau rociṣṇū sumanasyamānau. Iṣamūrjamabhi saṁvasānau.

Wedded couple, two-in-one joined in love, brilliant in health and lustre, of equal and enlightened mind, decent and graceful in clothes and ornaments, both of you together plan, act and realise your goal in food, energy, prosperity, honour and glory.

58. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

सं वां मनाꣳसि सं व्रता समु चित्तान्याकरम् ।
अग्ने पुरीष्याधिपा भव त्वं नऽइषमूर्जं यजमानाय धेहि ॥५८॥

Saṁ vāṁ manāṁsi saṁ vratā samu cittānyākaram. Agne purīṣyādhīpā bhava tvaṁ na iṣamūrjaṁ yajamānāya dhehi.

Wedded couple, I join you as two-in-one in life and sanctify you with identical thoughts, intentions and operations, identical vows of plans, actions and achievements, and identical memories, values and aspirations.

Agni, noble teacher, high-priest of yajna, be our super-guide and guardian. Create, hold and sustain for the yajamana couple nourishment, energy, honour and prosperity.

59. (Agni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

अग्ने त्वं पुरीष्यो रयिमान् पुष्टिमाँ२॥ऽअसि ।
शिवाः कृत्वा दिशः सर्वाः स्वं योनिमिहासदः॥५९॥

Agne tvaṁ purīṣyo rayimān puṣṭimāṅ asi. Śivāḥ kṛtvā diśaḥ sarvāḥ svaṁ yonimihāsadaḥ.

Agni, Lord of knowledge, light and power of yajna, rich in spirit, science and materials, and presiding priest of all round growth, you are dedicated to the earth and the laws of life. Rise, move abroad and, having created peace and prosperity in all directions, come and grace your super-seat of guidance.

60. (Dampati Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

भवतं नः समनसौ सचेतसावरेपसौ । मा यज्ञꣳहिꣳसिष्टं
मा यज्ञपतिं जातवेदसौ शिवौ भवतमद्य नः ॥६०॥

Bhavataṁ naḥ samanasau sacetasāvarepasau. Mā yajñaṁ hiṁsiṣṭaṁ mā yajñapatiṁ jātavedasau śivau bhavatamadya naḥ.

Wedded couple, both of you be of good mind and thought toward us. Be of noble equanimity and blissful intention for us. Be free of pride, arrogance and negativity. Violate not yajna, nor Dharma, nor the yajnapati. Reborn as master and mistress of the knowledge of creation (as children of Agni), be good and kind to us right now.

61. (Patni Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

मातेव पुत्रं पृथिवी पुरीष्यमग्निꣳस्वे योनावभारुखा । तां विश्वैर्देवैर्ऋतुभिः संविदानः प्रजापतिर्विश्वकर्मा वि मुञ्चतु ॥६१॥

Māteva putraṁ pṛthivī purīṣyamagniṁ'sve yonāvabhārukhā. Tāṁ viśvairdevairṛtubhiḥ saṁvidānaḥ prajāpatirviśvakarmā vi muñcatu.

Just as the earth like a mother holds the vital heat for the nourishment of life in her womb, so does a woman worthy of love and recognition hold a brilliant soul in her womb till maturity. May Lord Vishwakarma (maker of the world), father and guardian of His children (Prajapati), with gifts and nourishment from all the seasons and powers of nature, deliver her of a noble offspring.

62. (Nirriti Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

असुन्वन्तमयजमानमिच्छ स्तेनस्येत्यामन्विहि तस्करस्य । अन्यमस्मदिच्छ सा तऽइत्या नमो देवि निर्ऋते तुभ्यमस्तु ॥६२॥

Asunvantamayajamānamiccha stenasyetyāmanvihi taskarasya. Anyamasmadiccha sā ta' ityā namo devi nirṛte tubhyamastu.

Nir-riti, spirit of adversity, desire to catch the stingy and the miserly who does not perform the yajna and does not extract the soma for libations. Pursue the thief and the smuggler and catch him on the way. Go to someone other than me. That is your desired object and action. Salutations to you, power of justice.

63. (Nirriti Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

नमः सु ते निर्ऋते तिग्मतेजोऽयस्मयं विचृता बन्धमेतम् । यमेन त्वं यम्या संविदानोत्तमे नाकेऽअधिरोहयैनम् ॥६३॥

Namaḥ su te nirṛte tigmatejo'yasmayaṁ vicṛtā bandhametam. Yamena tvaṁ yamyā saṁvidān-ottame nāke'adhi rohayainam.

Power of eternal law, eternal felicity and adversity, your splendour is awful. You go with the law and are one with the law. Salutations to you. Undo the iron-chains of slavery and take this yajamana to the heights of heavenly bliss.

64. (Nirriti Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

यस्यास्ते घोरऽआसञ्जुहोम्येषां बन्धानामवसर्जनाय । यां त्वा जनो भूमिरिति प्रमन्दते निर्ऋतिं त्वाहं परिवेद विश्वतः ॥६४॥

Yasyāste ghora'āsañjuhomyeṣāṁ bandhānā-mavasarjanāya. Yām tvā jano bhūmiriti pramandate nirṛtiṁ tvā'haṁ pariveda viśvataḥ.

Awful spirit of adversity, eternal felicity, ever-abiding with the law, I offer the oblations into your mouth/ in the yajna vedi for the breaking of the chains of existence. Ordinary folks play with you in a state of wanton negligence, feeling that you are the all forbearing earth. But I know you well for what you are, spirit of justice, as the mother of felicity as well as the power of retribution.

65. (Yajamana Devata, Madhuchhanda Ṛshi)

यं तै देवी निर्ऋतिराबबन्ध पाशं ग्रीवास्वविचृत्यम् । तं ते विष्याम्यायुषो न मध्यादथैतं पितुमद्धि प्रसूतः । नमो भूत्यै येदं चकार ॥६५॥

Yaṁ te devī nirṛtirābabandha pāśaṁ grīvāsvavicṛtyam. Taṁ te vi ṣyāmyāyuṣo na madhyādathaitaṁ pitumaddhi prasūtaḥ. Namo bhūtyai yedaṁ cakāra.

Yajamana, the inexorable chain which the spirit of adversity, in full justice, had tied round your throat for want of yajna, I undo from the centre of your life right away. Regenerated through yajna, eat of this holy food. The spirit of generosity has done this miracle. Salutations to the spirit of generosity.

66. (Agni Devata, Vishvavasu Ṛshi)

निवेशनः सङ्गमनो वसूनां विश्वा रूपाऽभिचष्टे शचीभिः। देवऽईव सविता सत्यधर्मेन्द्रो न तस्थौ समरे पथीनाम्॥६६॥

Niveśanaḥ saṅgamano vasūnāṁ viśvā rūpā'bhicaṣṭe śacībhiḥ. Deva'iva savitā satyadharmendro na tasthau samare pathīnām.

Who is a noble yajamana? A successful house-holder (grihasthi)? The man of vitality who takes a wife, makes a home, creates wealth and contributes to life like Savita, the creator; who watches and illuminates all forms of life on earth with his eyes like the sun, and manages various developments with his acts like Indra, the leader; who is firm in true Dharma and stands inviolable in the battles of the pathmakers of the world — such a man is the right yajamana and a noble house-holder.

67. (Krishivala Kavayah Devata, Vishvavasu Ṛshi)

सीरा॑ युञ्जन्ति क॒वयो॑ यु॒गा वि त॑न्वते॒ पृथ॑क् ।
धीरा॑ दे॒वेषु॑ सुम्न॒या ॥६७॥

Sīrā yuñjanti kavayo yugā vi tanvate pṛthak.
Dhīrā deveṣu sumnayā.

Men of vision and intelligence use the plough and the yoke. The men of constancy among the brilliant and the generous separately as well as together devoutly in peace expand the beauty and graces of life and knowledge.

68. (Krishivala Kavaya Devata, Vishvavasu Ṛshi)

यु॒नक्त॒ सीरा॒ वि यु॒गा त॑नुध्वं कृ॒ते योनौ॑ वपते॒ह बीज॑म् ।
गि॒रा च॑ श्रु॒ष्टिः सभ॑रा॒ असन्नो॒ नेदी॑य॒ऽइत्सृ॒ण्यः॑ प॒क्वमेया॑त्॥६८

Yunakta sīra vi yugā tanudhvaṁ kṛte yonau vapateha bījam. Girā ca śruṣṭiḥ sabharā asanno neḍīya' it sṛṇyaḥ pakvameyāt.

Work with the plough and yoke the horses/ bullocks. Expand the agriculture and its methods, tools and knowledge. Prepare the soil and sow the seed. In accordance with the knowledge of agriculture develop many kinds of produce of the richest order. And when the grains are ripe for harvesting, reap and bring the harvest home for all of us.

69. (Krishivala Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

शु॒नꣳसु फला॒ वि कृ॑षन्तु भूमिꣳशु॒नं की॒नाशा॑ऽअ॒भि य॑न्तु वा॒हैः। शु॒ना॑सीरा ह॒विषा॒ तोश॑माना सुपिप्प॒लाऽओष॑धीः कर्त्तना॒स्मे ॥६९॥

Śunaꣳsu phalā vi kṛṣantu bhūmiꣳśunaṁ kīnāśā'abhi yantu vāhaiḥ. Śunāsīrā haviṣā tośamānā supippalāoṣadhīḥ kartanāsme.

Śunaṁ su phālā vi kṛṣantu bhūmiṁ śunaṁ kīnāśā'abhi yantu vāhaiḥ. Śunāsīrā havīṣā tośamānā supippalā oṣadhīḥ kartanāsmai.

Let the plough-shares turn the soil well. Let the farmers merrily follow the bullocks while they till the land and sow the seeds. May the sun and the air supplemented by the oblations of rich materials bless the herbs and plants with delicious fruit and nourishing grain.

70. (Krishivala Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

घृतेन॒ सीता॒ मधु॑ना॒ समज्यता॑ं॒ विश्वैर्दे॒वैरनु॑मता म॒रुद्भिः॑ । ऊर्ज॑स्वती॒ पय॑सा॒ पिन्व॑माना॒स्मान्त्सीते॒ पय॑सा॒भ्याव॑वृत्स्व ॥७०॥

Ghṛtena sītā madhunā samajyatāṁ viśvairdevairanumatā Marudbhiḥ. Ūrjasvatī payasā pinvamānāsmāntsīte payasā'bhyā vavṛtsva.

Let the furrow in the field, made by the plough-share and levelled and refined by the leveller, accepted and approved by all the noble and generous people and vitalized by winds and rain, be enriched with water, ghee, sugar and honey. Energized and enriched thus with food, the field may yield for us a wealth of delicious nourishment.

71. (Krishivala Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

लाङ्ग॑लं पवी॑रवत्सु॒शेव॑ꣳसोम॒पित्स॑रु । तदु॒द्वप॑ति॒ गाम॑विं॑ प्रफ॒र्व्यं॑ च॒ पीव॑रीं॑ प्र॒स्थाव॑द्रथ॒वाह॑नम् ॥७१॥

Lāṅgalaṁ pavīravat suśevaṁ somapitsaru. Tadudvapati gāmaviṁ prapharvyaṁ ca pīvarīṁ prasthāvadrathavāhanam.

The plough, fitted with the share, symbol of peace and joy, a tool of soma—plenty, prosperity and happiness — drawn by horses or bullocks and held firmly by the hilt, turns up the crust of the kind and generous earth to make it ready for sowing.

72. (Mitra & others Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

कामं कामदुघे धुक्ष्व मित्राय वरुणाय च ।
इन्द्रायाश्विभ्यां पूष्णे प्रजाभ्यऽओषधीभ्यः ॥७२॥

Kāmaṁ kāmadughe dhukṣva mitrāya varuṇāya ca. Indrāyāśvibhyāṁ pūṣṇe prajābhya' oṣadhībhyaḥ.

Mother of fulfilment and source of satisfaction, generous earth/furrow of the field/holy cow, let the desires be fulfilled for friends, noble scholars and guests, persons of power and glory, the people, powers of health and pranic energies, and for the growth of herbs and trees.

73. (Aghnya Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

विमुच्यध्वमघ्न्या देवयानाऽअगन्म तमसस्पारमस्य ।
ज्योतिरापाम ॥७३॥

Vimucyadhvamaghnyā devayānā'aganma tamasaspāramasya. Jyotirāpāma.

Be free from poverty, ill-health and ignorance. Let us be rich with the holy inviolable cows for nourishment and prosperity. May we cross this darkness and attain to the light of the sun and the glory of life.

74. (Ashvins Devata, Kumaraharita Ṛshi)

स॒जूर॑ब्दो॒ऽअय॑वोभिः स॒जूरु॒षाऽअरु॑णीभिः । स॒जोष॑सावि॒श्विना॒ दꣳसो॑भिः स॒जूः सूर॒ऽएत॑शेन स॒जूर्वै॑श्वान॒रऽइड॑या घृ॒तेन॒ स्वाहा॑ ॥७४॥

Sajūrabdo'ayavobhiḥ sajūruṣā' aruṇībhiḥ. Sajoṣasāvaśvinā daṁsobhiḥ śajūḥ sūra' etaśena sajūrvaiśvānara' iḍayā ghṛtena svāhā.

The year goes with the divisions of time, the dawn is one with the ruddy morning, the pranic energies express themselves in the actions of nature and of living beings, the sun shines and radiates light with its rays, the vital heat loves the earth, the libations of yajna and the voice of the Veda.

(So should the people live together with one another. So should the husband and wife live a common shared life, complementing and supplementing each other in an integrated life.)

75. (Vaidya Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

या ओष॑धीः पू॒र्वा जा॒ता दे॒वेभ्य॑स्त्रि॒युगं पु॒रा ।
मनै॒ नु ब॒भ्रूणा॑म॒हꣳश॒तं धामा॑नि स॒प्त च॑ ॥७५॥

Yā oṣadhīḥ pūrvā jātā devebhyastriyugaṁ purā. Manai nu babhrūṇāmahaṁ śataṁ dhāmāni sapta ca.

Earlier, three years before in the three seasons, whatever herbs such as soma etc. grew out of the earth with other natural powers such as water, air and sunlight, I should know: the hundred and seven varieties of these brown ones for the treatment of hundred and seven ailments which affect hundred and seven vital spots in the body.

76. (Vaidya Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

शतं वोऽअम्ब धामानि सहस्रमुत वो रुहः ।
अधा शतक्रत्वो यूयमिमं मेऽअगदं कृत ॥७६॥

Śataṁ vo'amba dhāmāni sahasramuta vo ruhaḥ.
Adhā śatakratvo yūyamimaṁ me'agadaṁ kṛta.

Mother earth, mother of herbs, hundreds are the places where the herbs grow, and thousands are the roots by which they grow into innumerable varieties. Then, O physicians of a hundred specialities of ailments and scholars of a hundred varieties of herbs, come you all and render this body and community of mine free from all disease.

77. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

ओषधीः प्रतिमोदध्वं पुष्पवतीः प्रसूवरीः ।
अश्वाऽइव सजित्वरीर्वीरुधः पारयिष्णवः ॥७७॥

Oṣadhīḥ pratimodadhvaṁ puṣpavatīḥ prasūvarīḥ. Aśvā'iva sajitvarīrvīrudhaḥ pārayiṣṇvaḥ.

All of you men and women, herbs, creepers and plants such as soma, in full bloom, rich in fruit and medicine, fast and victorious over disease take you across all ailments and sorrow. Use them, be healthy and strong and, like the victorious men of horse, rejoice and be grateful to them.

78. (Chikitsu Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

ओषधीरिति मातरस्तद्वो देवीरुप ब्रुवे ।
सनेयमश्वं गां वासऽआत्मानं तव पूरुष ॥७८॥

Oṣadhīriti mātarastadvo devīrupa bruve.
Saneyamaśvaṁ gāṁ vāsa'ātmānaṁ tava pūruṣa.

Herbs and medicinal plants, as mothers, are of divine efficacy. They nourish and save like mothers. Hence I pray for you all: Lord of Life, Supreme Soul, may I by divine grace have the gift of horses, cows, clothes and home, and a healthy body.

79. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

अ॒श्व॒त्थे वो॑ नि॒षद॑नं प॒र्णे वो॑ वस॒तिष्कृ॒ता ।
गो॒भाज॒ऽइत् किला॑सथ॒ यत् स॒नव॑थ॒ पूरु॑षम् ॥७९॥

Aśvatthe vo niṣadanaṁ parṇe vo vasatiṣkṛtā.
Gobhāja' itkilāsatha yat sanavatha pūruṣam.

Men and women of the earth, you reside in a body which may or may not last till to morrow. Your life rests like a drop of dew on the leaf. Take the gifts of the earth and look after the soul in the body with herbs and medicines to live a full life.

80. (Oshadhaya Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

यत्रौ॑ष॒धीः स॒मग्म॑त॒ राजा॑न॒ः समि॑ताविव ।
विप्र॒ः सऽउ॑च्यते भि॒षग्र॑क्षो॒हामी॑व॒चात॑नः ॥८०॥

Yatrauṣadhīḥ samagmata rājānaḥ samitāviva.
Vipraḥ sa'ucyate bhiṣag rakṣohāmīvacātanaḥ.

Wherever medicinal herbs such as soma grow, there go as brave warriors go to the battlefield against the enemy. That person of intelligence and expertise who fights disease and destroys the anti-life forces is called the physician, the person who cures.

81. (Vaidya Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

अ॒श्वा॒व॒तीꣳसो॑मावतीमू॒र्जय॑न्ती॒मुदो॑जसम् ।
आवि॑त्सि॒ सर्वा॑ऽओष॒धीर॒स्माऽअ॑रि॒ष्टता॑तये ॥८१॥

Aśvāvatīm̐ somāvatīmūrjayantīmudojasam. Ā vitsi sarvā' oṣadhīrasmā'ariṣṭatātaye.

Medicinal herb is that which is powerfully efficacious, nourishing and rejuvenating, strengthening and lustrously invigorating. Physician, know and find all such herbs for the health and immunity of the sick and the needy.

82. (Oshadhaya Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

उच्छुष्मा॒ऽओष॑धीनां॒ गावो॑ गो॒ष्ठादि॑वेरते ।
धन॑ꣳ सनि॒ष्यन्ती॑नामा॒त्मान॒ं तव॑ पूरुष ॥८२॥

Ucchuṣmā'oṣadhīnāṁ gāvo goṣṭhādiverate. Dhanaṁ saniṣyantīnāmātmānaṁ tava pūruṣa.

O man, the invigorating power and fragrance of vitality of the herbs which are ever keen to give health and lustre to your body and soul issues forth from them just as cows issue forth from the cow-shed (anxious to feed their calves).

83. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

इष्कृ॒ति॒र्नाम॑ वो मा॒ताथो॑ यू॒यꣳस्थ॒ निष्कृ॑तीः।
सी॒राः प॑त॒त्रिणी॑ स्थन॒ यदा॒मय॑ति॒ निष्कृ॑थ ॥८३॥

Iṣkṛtirnāma vo mātā'tho yuyaṁ stha niṣkṛtīḥ. Sīrāḥ patatriṇī sthana yadāmayati niṣkṛtha.

Know the medicine which, as mother, serves your life with healing and, like the flowing streams, repay the debt by completing the development of the science of healing by herbs. Whatever causes disease and loss of health, remove from the paths of life.

84. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

अति॒ विश्वाः॑ परि॒ष्ठा स्ते॒नऽई॑व व्र॒जमक्र॑मुः।
ओष॑धीः॒ प्राचु॑च्यवु॒र्यत्किं च॑ त॒न्वो॒ रपः॑॥८४॥

Ati viśvāḥ pariṣṭhā stena'iva vrajamakramuḥ.
Oṣadhīḥ prācucyavuryatkiṁ ca tanvo rapaḥ.

When a thief attacks a cowpen, he is challenged and warded off by the master. So do medicinal herbs, universal in their growth and presence, challenge whatever ailment attacks the body like sin and destroy the ailments.

85. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

यदि॒मा वा॒जय॑न्न॒हमोष॑धीर्ह॒स्तऽआद॒धे ।
आ॒त्मा यक्ष्म॑स्य नश्यति पु॒रा जी॑व॒गृभो॑ यथा ॥८५॥

Yadimā vājayannahamoṣadhīrhasta'ādadhe.
Ātmā yakṣmasya naśyati purā jīvagṛbho yathā.

When I refine and strengthen these medicines and hold them in my hand, the very root of the consumptive ailment grabbing the vitality of the sick person is destroyed.

86. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

यस्यौष॑धीः प्र॒सर्प॒थाङ्ग॑मङ्गं॒ पर्रुष्परुः ।
तत॒ो यक्ष्म॒ं वि बा॑धध्वऽउ॒ग्रो म॑ध्यम॒शीरि॑व ॥८६॥

Yasyauṣadhīḥ prasarpathāṅgamaṅgaṁ paruṣ-paruḥ. Tato yakṣmaṁ vi bādhadhva'ugro madhyamaśīriva.

When the medicines spread over every part and every joint of the sick person, then, mighty and powerful, present in every cell of the body, they drive away the consumptive forces of disease, eliminating, as if, the enemy intruders of the body.

87. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

सा॒कं य॑क्ष्म॒ प्र प॑त॒ चाषे॑ण किकिदी॒विना॑ ।
सा॒कं वात॑स्य॒ ध्राज्या॑ सा॒कं न॑श्य नि॒हाक॑या ॥८७॥

Sākaṁ yakṣma pra pata cāṣeṇa kikidīvinā.
Sākaṁ vātasya dhrājyā sākaṁ naśya nihākayā.

Physician, let the consumptive disease go off with every dose of medicine, with every new prescription, with every motion of the breath, and let it be eliminated along with the last trace of pain.

88. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

अ॒न्या वो॑ऽअ॒न्यामव॑त्वन्या॒न्यस्या॒ऽउपा॑वत ।
ताः सर्वीः॑ संविदा॒नाऽइ॒दं मे॒ प्राव॑ता॒ वचः॑ ॥८८॥

Anyā vo anyāmavatvanyānyasyā'upāvata. Tāḥ sarvāḥ saṁvidānā idaṁ me prāvatā vachaḥ.

Physicians, of your medicines, let one supplement and protect the other and let the other in turn support and protect the former. Let all of them be thus mutually agreeable in proper proportion. Keep this word of mine as true and hold on to it.

89. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

याः फ॒लिनी॒र्याऽअ॑फ॒लाऽअ॑पु॒ष्पा याश्च॑ पु॒ष्पिणी॑ः ।
बृह॒स्पति॑प्रसूता॒स्ता नो॑ मुञ्च॒न्त्वꣳह॑सः ॥८९॥

Yāḥ phalinīryā' aphalā'apuṣpā yāśca puṣpiṇīḥ.
Bṛhaspatiprasūtāstā no muñcantvaṁhasaḥ.

All the medicinal herbs which are rich in fruit and those which are without fruit, those which are rich in flowers and those which are without flowers, all of them are created by the Lord Creator. Let all of them, with proper treatment and preparation by the physician, protect us and free us from disease and pain.

90. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

मुञ्चन्तु मा शप॒थ्या॒दथो॑ वरु॒ण्या॒दु॒त ।
अथो॑ य॒मस्य॒ पड्वी॑शा॒त्सर्व॑स्माद् देवकिल्वि॒षात् ॥९०॥

Muñcantu mā śapathyādatho varuṇyāduta. Atho yamasya paḍvīśāt sarvasmād devakilviṣāt.

May the physicians and the medicines protect us against ill-will, anathema and self-guilt. May they free us from water-borne diseases and those which are peculiar to the prosperous and the distinguished persons. May they release us from ailments caused by acts of indiscipline and breach of the rules of health and the good life. May they save us from all diseases caused by neglect or indulgence of the senses and the mind and those caused by frustration of the intellectuals.

91. (Vaidyas Devata, Bhishak Ṛshi)

अ॒व॒पत॑न्तीरवद॒न्दि॒वऽओष॑धय॒स्परि॑ ।
यं जी॒वम॒श्नवा॑महै॒ न स रि॑ष्या॒ति॒ पूरु॑षः ॥९१॥

Avapatantīravadan diva' oṣadhayaspari. Yaṁ jīvamaśnavāmahai na sa riṣyāti pūruṣaḥ.

The medicinal herbs come from heaven, the region of light and life. So say the wise. The person who feeds upon them never comes to any suffering.

92. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

याऽओषधीः सोमराज्ञीर्बह्वीः शतविचक्षणाः।
तासामसि त्वमुत्तमारं कामाय शꣳहृदे ॥९२॥

Yā'oṣadhīḥ somarājñīrbahvīḥ śatavicakṣaṇāḥ.
Tāsāmasi tvamuttamāraṁ kāmāya śaṁ hṛde.

Physician, of the many herbal medicines which are efficacious with a hundred properties and of which soma is the chief on top, you are the best judge for the peace of mind and achievement of the desired result.

93. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

याऽओषधीः सोमराज्ञीर्विष्ठिताः पृथिवीमनु ।
बृहस्पतिप्रसूताऽअस्यै सं दत्त वीर्यम् ॥९३॥

Yā'oṣadhīḥ somarājñīrvīṣṭhitāḥ pṛthivīmanu.
Bṛhaspatiprasūtā'asyai saṁdatta vīryam.

The many herbal medicines with life-giving properties like soma, specially grown on the earth, are the blessed gifts of the Lord-giver of life, Brihaspati. Refined and vitalized by the physician, they may, we wish and pray, give health and vigour to this woman/man.

94. (Bhishaja Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

याश्चेदमुपशृण्वन्ति याश्च दूरं परागताः।
सर्वाः सङ्गत्य वीरुधोऽस्यै सं दत्त वीर्यम् ॥९४॥

Yāścedamupaśṛṇvanti yāśca dūraṁ parāgatāḥ.
Sarvāḥ saṁgatya vīrudho'syai saṁdatta vīryam.

Men and women of medicine, these herbs of which you and others hear around us, or which are close by, or those which come from afar, all these herbs, plants, creepers and trees together, we wish and pray, may give her/him the gift of health and vitality.

95. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

मा वो रिषत् खनिता यस्मै चाहं खनामि वः।

Mā vo riṣat khanitā yasmai cāhaṁ khanāmi vaḥ.
Dvipāccatuṣpādasmākaṁ sarvamastvanāturam.

Whoever digs you (roots/minerals) out, may he/she never injure/destroy you, nor should he/she come to any harm. Nor should the person for whom I (the physician) dig you out come to any harm. May all the bi-peds (humans) and all the quadrupeds (animals) of ours be free from suffering and disease.

96. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

ओषधयः समवदन्त सोमेन सह राज्ञा ।

Herbs and medicines alongwith their chief, soma, power of vitality, say: O Soma, king of herbs, whoever the patient for whom the learned physician has prepared the cure, let us take the person across the pain of suffering.

97. (Bhishagvara Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

नाशयित्री बलासस्यार्शंसऽउपचितामसि ।

Herbal medicine is a destroyer, sure cure, of phlegmatic consumption, piles, hemorrhoids, swellings, chronic sores and numerous types of pulmonary disease.

98. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

Tvāṁ gandharvā' akhanaṅstvāmindrastvāṁ bṛhaspatiḥ. Tvāmoṣadhe somo rājā vidvān yakṣmādamucyata.

O Gandharva, herbal medicine, the singer and artist searches for and discovers you. So does Indra, man of power and virility, Brihaspati, man of universal Vaidic lore, Soma, man of peace and blessed virtue, the ruler and the scholar. They all search for, discover, use and benefit from herbal medicines and free themselves from consumptive ailments.

99. (Oshadhi Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

सहस्व मेऽअरातीः सहस्व पृतनायतः ।
सहस्व सर्वं पाप्मानꣳसहमानास्योषधे ॥९९॥

Sahasva me'arātīḥ sahasva pṛtanāyataḥ. Sahasva sarvaṁ pāpmānaṁ sahamānāsyoṣadhe.

Herbal medicine challenges disease. It resists the anti-life forces and overthrows the enemies of good health : Let the medicine resist all that causes sin and disease. It resists, fights out, defeats and eliminates the negativities and builds up the vitality and invincibility of the system for longevity.

100. (Vaidyas Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

दी॒र्घायु॑स्तऽओषधे ख॒नि॒ता यस्मै॑ च त्वा॒ ख॒नाम्य॒हम् ।

Medicinal herb, may the person who searches, discovers, digs out and prepares the medicine be of long life. May the patient for whom I, the physician, prescribe, prepare and administer the medicine be of long life. May you (the herb) too be of long life and grow to rise into a hundred roots, shoots and branches.

101. (Bhishaja Devata, Varuna Ṛshi)

त्वमु॑त्त॒मास्यौ॑षधे॒ तव॑ वृ॒क्षाऽउ॑प॒स्तयः ।

Tvamuttamāsyoṣadhe tava vṛkṣā'upastayaḥ. Upastirastu so'smākaṁ yo' asmāṅ' abhidāsati.

Herbal medicine/Physician, you are supreme. All the trees (such as peepal and banyan) are subordinate to you as sources of medicine. Anyone who tries to suppress us, any disease that might weaken us, let that be under our control. (Strengthen us with health, vitality and courage of spirit.)

102. (Kah Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

मा मा॑ हिꣳसीज्जनि॒ता यः पृ॑थि॒व्या यो वा॒ दिव॑ꣳस॒त्यध॑र्मा॒ व्यान॑ट् । यश्चा॒पश्च॒न्द्राः प्र॑थ॒मो ज॒जान॒ कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥१०२॥

Mā mā hiṁsijjanitā yaḥ pṛthivyā yo vā divaṁ satyadharmā vyānaṭ. Yaścāpaścandrāḥ prathamo jajāna kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The Lord who is the creator of the earth, who is the lord of the universal law of truth, who is the first of all and creator of the air, waters and the moons, and who pervades the heavens, whom we worship with the best homage of fragrant oblations, that lord of life may never hurt us with disease and ill-health.

103. (Agni Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

अभ्यावर्त्तस्व पृथिवि यज्ञेन पयसा सह ।

Abhyāvartasva pṛthivi yajñena payasā saha. Vapām te'agniriṣito'arohat.

Come earth, revolving with yajna and water, milk and food, again and again, continuously. And may agni, vital life-generating heat of nature, activated by the Lord creator of life, bless your fertility and increase your power of production.

104. (Agni Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

105. (Vidvan Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

इष॒मूर्ज॑म॒ह॒मि॒तऽआद॑मृ॒तस्य॒ योनिं॑ मह्यि॒षस्य॒ धारा॑म् ।

Iṣamūrjamahamita' ādamṛtasya yoniṁ mahiṣasya dhārām. Ā mā goṣu viśatvā tanūṣu jahāmi sedimanirāmamīvām.

From Lord Agni and the fire of yajna (spiritual, mental and physical) I receive and imbibe food for life and energy for action. I receive and internalize the fluent voice of the mother of truth and Dharma. May all this food, energy and spirit enter, vitalize and strengthen my body, mind and sense, and may it invigorate my cows with fertility.

With all this food, energy and vitality I'd fight out and eliminate all pain, suffering, disease and debility.

106. (Agni Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

Agni, lord of lustre, light of universal knowledge, man of supernal vision, let the adorable message of yours, youthful brilliance and splendid beams of light shine and radiate across the world. Whosoever celebrates you in yajna, you bless the yajamana giver with holistic nourishments and fullness of energy and vitality with additional food for yajna.

107. (Vidvan Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

Pāvakavarcāḥ śukravarcā'anūnavarcā'udiyarṣi bhānunā. Putro mātarā vicarannupāvasi pṛṇakṣi rodasī'ubhe.

Agni, lord of light and splendour, pure as fire, clear and bright as sunbeams, full and complete, rising to the heights with the sun and pervading the spaces protects the heaven and earth like the son protecting the father and mother.

(Similarly the young brahmachari or brahmacharini, roaming around the sacred premises of his/her institute, grows high in the light and lustre of knowledge, pure as fire, clear as sunbeams, full and complete, and rises high like the sun. He/she protects his/her father and mother as the sun protects the heaven and earth.)

108. (Agni Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

ऊर्जो॑ नपाज्जातवेदः सुश॒स्ति॒भि॒र्मन्द॑स्व धी॒ति॒भि॒र्हि॒तः।

Ūrjo napājjātavedaḥ suśastibhirmandasva dhītibhirhitaḥ. Tve' iṣaḥ sandadhurbhūrivarpasaścitrotayo vāmajātāḥ.

Agni, child and protector of energy, lord of wealth and intelligence, lover and well-wisher of all, invoked, lighted and raised with devotion and hymns of praise, receive the libations, rejoice and grow. People of various hue, wonderfully favoured and secure in life, children of love and beauty, and sweet and dear by nature, offer food to you for growth and development.

(As fire is invoked with love and devotion and fed with libations, so should the child be fed, nourished and helped to grow by parents and teachers with all the love and faith at their command so that the child not only lives and learns but also rejoices while he/she lives and learns.)

109. (Agni Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

इ॒रज्यन्न॑ग्ने प्रथयस्व जन्तु॒भि॑र॒स्मे रायो॑ऽअमर्त्य ।

Irajyannagne prathayasva jantubhirasme rāyo' amartya. Sa darśatasya vapuṣo vi rājasi pṛṇakṣi sānasiṁ kratum.

Immortal Agni/man of action, invoked/inspired and rising in glory, rejoicing with people, create and expand the wealth of life for us all. Shining in the beauty and grace of your form in life, protect, promote and perfect the yajna of life which brings happiness, prosperity and all the blessings of existence.

110. (Vidvan Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

इ॒ष्कृ॒र्त्तार॑मध्व॒रस्य॒ प्रचे॑तसं॒ क्षय॑न्त॒ꣳराध॑सो म॒हः । रा॒तिं वा॒मस्य॑ सु॒भगां॑ म॒हीमिषं॒ दधा॑सि सान॒सिꣳर॒यिम् ॥११०॥

Iṣkartārmadhvarasya pracetasaṁ kṣayantaṁ rādhaso mahaḥ. Rātiṁ vāmasya subhagāṁ mahīmiṣaṁ dadhāsi sānasiṁ rayim.

Agni, lord of power and sustenance, you uphold who performs and promotes the yajnic programmes of creation, construction and development. You sustain the person who is intelligent and wide-awake. You protect the person who is settled in a peaceful home. You maintain the person who gives liberal amounts in charity. You are the preserver of the great and generous earth and its environment. You maintain a steady supply of food and energy. And it is you who protect and promote the ancient and traditional wealth of existence.

111. (Agni Devata, Pavakagni Ṛshi)

ऋ॒तावा॑नं म॒हि॒षं वि॒श्वद॑र्शतम॒ग्निꣳसु॒म्नाय॑ दधिरे पु॒रो जना॑ः।

Ṛtāvānaṁ mahiṣaṁ viśvadarśatam agniṁ sumnāya dadhire puro janāḥ. Śrutkarṇaṁ saprathastamaṁ tvā girā daivyaṁ mānuṣā yugā.

For the sake of peace, prosperity and joy, the people of former times have honoured and followed the human traditions of ages and you, Agni, lord of light and life, man of vision and excellence dedicated to Truth and Dharma, great, possessed of universal knowledge and experience, discreet listener and practical achiever and master of divine qualities of character.

112. (Soma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

आप्या॑यस्व॒ समे॑तु ते वि॒श्वत॑ः सोम॒ वृष्ण्य॑म् ।
भवा॒ वाज॑स्य स॒ङ्गथे ॥११२॥

Ā pyāyasva sametu te viśvataḥ soma Vṛṣṇyam. Bhavā vājasya saṅgathe.

Soma, ruler, man of grace and blessedness, rise and grow to excellence to win the glory of life. May the vitality, virility and grandeur of life come to you from all sides, and, in the battles of life and the nation, be great.

113. (Soma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

सं ते पयाꣳसि समु यन्तु वाजाः सं वृष्ण्यान्यभिमातिषाहः।
आप्यायमानोऽअमृताय सोम दिवि श्रवाꣳस्युत्तमानि धिष्व ॥११३॥

Saṁ te payāṁsi samu yantu vājāḥ saṁ Vṛṣṇyānyabhimātiṣāhaḥ. Āpyāyamāno amṛtāya soma divi śravāṁsyuttamāni dhiṣva.

Soma, man of peace, power and joy, may all delicious waters, milk and juices come to you. May all vigour, virility and vitality come to you. May all food, energy and means of speedy and powerful defence be yours to break down the pride of the enemy forces. Growing mighty and mightier, and rising towards heaven and immortality, hold on to the highest words, thoughts and visions as food for the mind and soul.

114. (Soma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

आप्यायस्व मदिन्तम सोम विश्वेभिर्ꣳशुभिः ।
भवा नः सुप्रथस्तमः सखा वृधे ॥११४॥

Ā pyāyasva madintama soma viśvebhiraṁśubhiḥ. Bhavā naḥ saprathastamaḥ sakhā vṛdhe.

Soma, man of widest fame and highest honour, happiest at heart and creator of joy all round, rise and shine with the beams of your excellence and be friends so that we all together may rise and advance in all directions.

115. (Agni Devata, Vatsara Ṛshi)

आ तें वत्सो मनो यमत्परमाच्चित्सधस्थात् ।
अग्ने त्वां कामया गिरा ॥११५॥

Ā te vatso mano yamat paramāccit sadhasthāt.
Agne tvāṅkāmayā girā.

Agni, lord of life, light and love, the devoted yajamana as a child of yours would divert his mind even from the most exciting places and, with the sweetest words of praise, come to concentrate on you as a calf runs to the mother cow even from the richest pasture.

116. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

तुभ्यं ताऽअङ्गिरस्तम विश्वाः सुक्षितयः पृथक् ।
अग्ने कामाय येमिरे ॥११६॥

Tubhyaṁ tā aṅgirastama viśvāḥ sukṣitayaḥ pṛthak. Agne kāmayā yemire.

Agni, most brilliant power of the universe, the entire humanity, even though they might be very well placed in life, converge on you, each for the fulfilment of his/her own special desire.

(Just as the children of the Lord creator approach Him with prayers for the fulfilment of their desires, so do the people of the land, even though well-placed in life otherwise, approach the ruler for the fulfilment of their requests.)

117. (Agni Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्निः प्रियेषु धामसु कामो भूतस्य भव्यस्य ।
सम्राडेको विराजति ॥११७॥

Agniḥ priyeṣu dhāmasu kāmo bhūtasya bhavyasya. Samrāḍeko vi rājati.

Agni, sole and sovereign lord of the world, loved and worshipped by all that is born and all that is yet to be born, rules and blazes in his glory across the dearest and most beautiful regions of the universe.

(Just as Agni, bright and blazing with His glory, is the lord of the universe, so that person alone is worthy of being the ruler of a country who is brilliant by virtue of his/her mind and character, unique in performance, loved and respected by all and shining across the present and the possible future in all regions of the land.)

इति द्वादशोऽध्यायः ॥

CHAPTER–XIII

1. (Agni Devata, Vatsara Ṛshi)

मयि गृह्णाम्यग्रेऽअग्निꣳरायस्पोषाय सुप्रजास्त्वाय सुवीर्याय। मामु देवताः सचन्ताम् ॥१॥

Mayi gṛhṇāmyagre'agniṁ rāyaspoṣāya suprajā-stvāya suvīryāya. Māmu devatāḥ sacantām.

First of all I dedicate my mind and soul to the Lord Almighty, Agni, lord of light and life, power and prosperity, and I instal the yajna-fire in my home for the gifts of vigour and valour, wealth and prosperity and a noble family. May all the divine powers, for sure, favour and bless me.

(Just as a house-holder or a student is dedicated to Agni, the Lord Almighty, and to agni, the yajna-fire, so too should he/she be dedicated to the agnis among the community, leading men and women of knowledge, wisdom and virtue who have specialised in various fields of knowledge and development.)

2. (Agni Devata, Vatsara Ṛshi)

अपां पृष्ठमसि योनिरग्नेः समुद्रमभितः पिन्वमानम् । वर्धमानो महाँ२॥ऽआ च पुष्करे दिवो मात्रया वरिम्णा प्रथस्व ॥२॥

Apāṁ pṛṣṭhamasi yoniragneḥ samudramabhitaḥ pinvamānam. Vardhamāno mahāṅ' ā ca puṣkare divo mātrayā varimṇā prathasva.

Lord Almighty, infinite spirit and life of the universe, you are the centre-hold of waters and energy.

You are the original cause of heat and light. Surrounding and feeding the expansive oceans on earth and in space from all sides, you are great and ever greater in the intervening spaces between earth and heaven. And you reveal your glory by the measure and immensity of the light of heaven.

3. (Aditya Devata, Vatsara Ṛshi)

ब्रह्म॑ जज्ञा॒नं प्र॑थ॒मं पु॒रस्ता॒द्वि सी॑म॒तः सु॒रुचो॑ वे॒न॒ऽआ॑वः । स बु॒ध्न्या॒ऽउप॒माऽअ॑स्य वि॒ष्ठाः स॒तश्च॒ योनि॒मस॑तश्च॒ विवः॑ ॥३॥

Brahma jajñānaṁ prathamaṁ purastād vi sīmataḥ suruco vena'āvaḥ. Sa budhnyā'upamā' asya viṣṭhāḥ sataśca yonimasataśca vi vaḥ.

Brahma, infinite spirit of the universe, all-creator and omniscient, is the first and greatest reality of existence. Worthy of love and adoration, It is the highest object of desire for the wise. The great and glorious objects (such as the sun, the moon, the earth) which fill the skies in various regions of space are exemplary revelations of Its creative power.

In the beginning of creation, that Brahma, from the potential and law of Its own existence, invokes Prakriti, the original Nature which is the cause of all that is come into existence and also that which is yet to come into existence.

4. (Prajapati Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

हि॒र॒ण्य॒ग॒र्भः सम॑वर्त्त॒ताग्रे॑ भू॒तस्य॑ जा॒तः प॒ति॒रेक॑ऽआसीत् । स दा॑धार पृथि॒वीं द्यामु॒तेमां कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥४॥

Hiraṇyagarbhaḥ samavartatāgre bhūtasya jātaḥ patireka'āsīt. Sa dādhāra pṛthivīṁ dyāmutemāṁ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The One Lord of Light and the sole creator of lights such as the sun existed before creation (as He ever exists). He alone was and is the lord and sustainer of all forms of created being. He holds and sustains the earth and heaven and supports this whole universe. We worship the same one lord and offer Him homage with libations of fragrant materials.

5. (Ishwara Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

द्रप्सश्चस्कन्द पृथिवीमनु द्यामिमं च योनिमनु यश्च पूर्वः।
समानं योनिमनु संचरन्तं द्रप्सं जुहोम्यनु सप्त होत्राः ॥५॥

Drapsaścaskanda pṛthivīmanu dyāmimaṁ ca yonimanu yaśca pūrvaḥ. Samānaṁ yonimanu sañcarantaṁ drapsaṁ juhomyanu sapta hotrāḥ.

That eternal, perfect and primordial joy (Ananda) which blesses and coexists with the earth, the heaven and the original cause of existence, Prakriti, the same joy which universally subsists with its origin, the sole creator, I adore with all my breath of life (five pranas), mind and soul.

6. (Hiranyagarbha Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

नमोऽस्तु सर्पेभ्यो ये के च पृथिवीमनु।
येऽअन्तरिक्षे ये दिवि तेभ्यः सर्पेभ्यो नमः ॥६॥

Namo'stu sarpebhyo ye ke ca pṛthivīmanu. Ye 'antarikṣe ye divi tebhyaḥ sarpebhyo namaḥ.

For all those that move in space, and those which move on the earth, which move in the regions of heaven and those which move about in the sky between earth and heaven, for all these moving forms of existence Nature has provided food, the means of sustenance.

7. (Hiranyagarbha Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

याऽइषवो यातुधानानां ये वा वनस्पतीँ१॥ऽरनु ।
ये वावटेषु शेरते तेभ्यः सर्पेभ्यो नमः ॥७॥

Yā'iṣavo yātudhānānāṁ ye vā vanaspatīṁ' ranu.
Ye vāvaṭeṣu śerate tebhyaḥ sarpebhyo namaḥ.

For all the arrows of the enemies of life, and those who damage the herbs and trees, being poachers and parasites, and those who sleep and wait in the obscure paths for victims, for all these surreptitious forms of moving life, a challenge and a thunderbolt!

8. (Surya Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

ये वामी रोचने दिवो ये वा सूर्यस्य रश्मिषु ।
येषामप्सु सदस्कृतं तेभ्यः सर्पेभ्यो नमः ॥८॥

Ye vāmī rocane divo ye vā sūryasya raśmiṣu.
Yeṣāmapsu sadaskṛtaṁ tebhyaḥ sarpebhyo namaḥ.

Or those negative forces that are in the heat of the solar region, or those in the rays of the sun, or those which have taken abode in the waters, to these moving forms of existence, a challenge to counter, overpower or destroy!

9. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

कृणुष्व पाजः प्रसितिं न पृथ्वीं याहि राजेवामवाँ२॥ऽइभेन।
तृष्वीमनु प्रसितिं द्रूणानोऽस्तासि विध्य रक्षसस्तपिष्ठैः ॥९॥

Kṛṇuṣva pājaḥ prasitiṁ na pṛthvīṁ yāhi rājevāmavāṅ' ibhena. Tṛṣvīmanu prasitiṁ drūṇāno'stā'si vidhya rakṣasastapiṣṭhaiḥ .

Agni, ruler, your influence is fast, far and wide. Increase your strength and power and make it felt. Go like a shot over the earth as a king with his attendant forces. Cast your net of law instantly against the destructive elements and punish them with inescapable consequences.

10. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

तव॑ भ्रमास॑ऽआशु॒या प॑त॒न्त्यनु॑स्पृश धृष॒ता शोशु॑चानः।
तपू॑ꣳष्यग्ने जु॒ह्वा॑ पतङ्गान॑सन्दितो॒ वि सृ॑ज॒ विष्व॑गुल्काः॥१०॥

Tava bhramāsa'āśuyā patantyanuspṛśa dhṛṣatā śośucānaḥ. Tapūṁṣyagne juhvā pataṅgānasandito vi sṛja viṣvagulkāḥ.

Agni (ruler, commander of the forces, lord of justice), the flames of your fire blaze with awe. Pure and purifying with might and daring, fall upon the forces which burn and destroy life and society, and with libations unrestrained, release a rain of lightning terror striking in all directions.

11. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

प्रति॒ स्पशो॒ वि सृ॑ज॒ तूर्णि॑तमो॒ भवा॑ पा॒युर्वि॒शोऽअ॒स्या अ॑दब्धः। यो नो॑ दू॒रेऽअ॒घशꣳ॑सो॒ योऽअन्त्यग्ने॒ माकि॑ष्टे॒ व्यथि॒रादधर्षीत् ॥११॥

Prati spaśo visṛja tūrṇitamo bhavā pāyurviśo' asyā adabdhaḥ. Yo no dūre'aghaśaṁso yo' antyagne mā kiṣṭe vyathirā dadharṣīt.

Agni, instant in action, bold and inviolable, if there is a tormentor or a wicked maligner or a supporter of sin and crime far or near against you or against us, release the forces to seize him and remove the obstacles. Be the protector and guardian of this people/community. Let none bully or terrorize you and us.

12. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

उदग्ने तिष्ठ प्रत्यातनुष्व न्यमित्राँ२॥ऽओषतात्तिग्महेते । यो नोऽअरातिꣳसमिधान चक्रे नीचा तं धक्ष्यतसं न शुष्कम् ॥१२॥

Udagne tiṣṭha pratyā tanuṣva nyamitrāṅ' oṣatāttigmahete. Yo no'arātiṁ samidhāna cakre nīcā taṁ dhākṣyatasaṁ na śuṣkam.

Agni, lord of heat and light, leader of an advancing humanity, rise and grow. Let the light spread around. Wielder of the sharpest weapons and inviolable power, burn the enemies of life and human values. Blazing lord of fire and justice, if someone creates, supports or advances the selfish, ungenerous and ungracious forces, scorch him like a patch of dry shrubs.

13. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

ऊर्ध्वो भव प्रति विध्याध्यस्मदाविष्कृणुष्व दैव्यान्यग्ने । अव स्थिरा तनुहि यातुजूनां जामिमजामिं प्रमृणीहि शत्रून्। अग्नेष्ट्वा तेजसा सादयामि ॥१३॥

Ūrdhvo bhava prati vidhyādhyasmadāviṣkṇuṣva daivyānyagne. Ava sthirā tanuhi yātujūnāṁ jāmimajāmiṁ pra mṛṇīhi śatrūn. Agneṣṭvā tejasā sādayāmi.

Agni, lord of light and power, leader of humanity, rise and stay on top. Counter and ward off the enemies of mankind. Develop the best things which our saints and scholars have discovered and invented. Resist and reduce the strength of the opponents to nil. Eliminate the natural, traditional and customary enemies of society. I instal you in your seat with the baptism of light and fire.

14. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

अग्निर्मूर्द्धा दिवः ककुत्पतिः पृथिव्याऽअयम् । अपाꣳ रेताꣳसि जिन्वति । इन्द्रस्य त्वौजसा सादयामि ॥१४॥

Agnirmūrdhā divaḥ kakutpatiḥ pṛthivyā'ayam. Apāṁ retāṁsi jinvati. Indrasya tvaujasā sādayāmi.

This Agni, the sun, is the chief and summit of heaven. It is the father and sustainer of the earth and its life. It vitalizes and refreshes the waters of life for the earth and her children. So should you be, Ruler of the land. I anoint and consecrate you with the radiant power of Indra, the sun.

15. (Agni Devata, Trishira Ṛshi)

भुवो यज्ञस्य रजसश्च नेता यत्रा नियुद्भिः सचसे शिवाभिः। दिवि मूर्द्धानं दधिषे स्वर्षां जिह्वामग्ने चकृषे हव्यवाहम् ॥१५॥

Bhuvo yajñasya rajasaśca netā yatrā niyudbhiḥ sacase śivābhiḥ. Divi mūrdhānaṁ dadhiṣe svarṣāṁ jihvāmagne cakṛṣe havyavāham.

Agni is the leader and mover of the earth and its life, of the motions of wind and energy in the middle sphere, and of the cosmic yajna of creation. And there everywhere it is one with the blissful dynamics of existence. As it sends up its flames of fire bearing the light and fragrance of yajna, it holds its head high and wields the light of the sun in heaven.

(Similarly, O king, be the leader of the nation's life on earth and the dignity and dynamics of the polity. Be the path-maker of the policies of peace, justice and happiness and hold your head high with words of enlightenment, creativity and joy for the people.)

16. (Agni Devata, Trishira Ṛshi)

ध्रुवासि धरुणास्तृता विश्वकर्मणा । मा त्वा समुद्रऽ-

Dhruvāsi dharuṇāstṛtā viśvakarmaṇā. Mā tvā samudra'udvadhīnmā suparṇo'vyathamānā pṛthivīṁ dṛṁha.

Spirit of the human nation, polity of the world, you are the centre-hold of dharma, enlightenment and peace, created, completed and blest by the Lord-maker of the world, Vishvakarma. Let not the seas hurt you. Let not the sky, sun and moon and the clouds hurt you. Unhurt, free and peaceful, develop, beautify and beatify the earth.

17. (Prajapati Devata, Trishira Ṛshi)

Prajāpatiṣṭvā sādayatvapaṁ pṛṣṭhe samudrasyeman. Vyacasvatīṁ prathasvatīṁ prathasva pṛthivyasi.

Spirit of humanity, mother of the commonwealth, lady of the polity, be open, free and accommodative, be expansive and celebrated. And may the creator of life, father of humanity, Prajapati, establish you with His blessings on the currents of rivers, on the paths of the seas, and over the currents of air in the sky.

18. (Agni Devata, Trishira Ṛshi)

Bhūrasi bhūmirasyāditirasi viśvadhāyā viśvasya bhuvanasya dhartrī. Pṛthivīṁ yaccha pṛthivīṁ dṛṁha pṛthivīṁ mā hiṁsīḥ.

Agni, light of the universe, vitality of nature, you are the being and existence, you are the mother-support, whole, inviolable, all sustaining and all-nourishing, centre-hold and wielder of all the regions of the world. Sustain, guide and raise the world, develop and expand the life on earth. Do not hurt the earth nor violate the life of her children. (As Agni is the life and support of the earth, so is the woman the mother of the home.)

19. (Agni Devata, Trishira Ṛshi)

Lady of the home, may Agni, lord of light and life/your husband, the presiding presence of the home, fully protect and support you in every way for all the energy of life, prevention of suffering, best manners and behaviour, inner strength, dignity and recognition and virtuous conduct. In a state of perfect peace and well-being, with all the joys of life in a good home, stay firm and secure with Agni, the lord of life, and your husband, like Prakriti with Purusha and the light of the dawn with the day.

20. (Patni Devata, Agni Ṛshi)

Kāṇḍāt kāṇḍāt prarohantī paruṣaḥ paruṣaspari.
Evā no dūrve pra tanu sahasreṇa śatena ca.

Lady of the home, delicate and graceful as the durva grass, just as the grass grows from one section of the stalk to another, from one knot of joint to another, so you too, grow in life, and let us grow and help us advance in life a hundred-fold and from thereon a thousand fold.

21. (Patni Devata, Agni Ṛshi)

Yā śatena pratanoṣi sahasreṇa virohasi.
Tasyāste devīṣṭake vidhema haviṣā vayam.

Lady light of the home, root and foundation of the yajna of family life, as you grow a hundred-fold and then you rise a thousand-fold, O noble and generous mother, we offer you love and reverence in homage with the best fragrant offerings.

22. (Agni Devata, Indragani Rshis)

यास्तेऽअग्ने सूर्ये रुचो दिवमातन्वन्ति रश्मिभिः।

Yāste'agne sūrye ruco divamātanvanti raśmibhiḥ. Tābhirno'adya sarvābhī ruce janāya naskṛdhi.

Agni, those lights of yours which, in the solar region, illuminate the heavenly spaces with the sunbeams, with all those lights to-day bless us with enlightenment for the sake of our people.

(As Agni illuminates the heavens with the light of the sun, so should the teachers of men and women enlighten them with the light of their knowledge. What is the secret of Agni turning into light, and into light of the sun?)

23. (Brihaspati Devata, Indragani Rshis)

या वो देवाः सूर्ये रुचो गोष्वश्वेषु या रुचः।

Yā vo devāḥ sūrye ruco goṣvaśveṣu yā rucaḥ. Indrāgnī tābhiḥ sarvābhī rucaṁ no dhatta bṛhaspate.

Divine powers of nature, your energy and vitality illuminates the sun and vitalizes the lives of animals like cows and horses. It also works in the motions of objects and the perceptions of the senses.

O Brihaspati, Lord omniscient of this mighty universe, may the heat and light of natural energy invest our vitality with all that power and energy.

Brihaspati, noble teacher and master of knowledge and education, may our teachers like Indra and Agni in-form and in-vest our deep interest in life and nature with the hidden secrets of light, power and sensation as expressions of one universal natural energy (Prakriti).

24. (Prajapati Devata, Indragani Rshis)

The cosmic forms of the universe bear the light of the Lord. Self-luminant stars such as the sun bear the light as their own.

O lady of light and knowledge, noble teacher and torch-bearer, may the father of created beings, Prajapati, instal you in your seat on the face of the earth. Give full light of knowledge to others for the sake of full energy, safeguard against suffering, and all good qualities of nature, character and action. Agni, lord of light and life, is your master and guardian. Stay firm and secure with that noble and gracious lord as the soul with the body, Prakriti with Purusha and the light of dawn with the day.

Chaitra is a honey-sweet month. Vaishakha is a month of honey-sweets. These are the months of spring. Both these, born of agni, are closely connected to summer. May the earth and heaven be favourable to us for the gift of excellence, may the waters be favourable, may the herbs and trees be favourable, may all the orders of agni (heat and light each), committed to its own law and function, be favourable to us. May all the forms of vital fire in earth and heaven, integrated and mutually harmonious, supporting and energizing the two spring months like all the powers of nature serving and working for the omnipotent lord Indra, bless and vitalize us in all ways.

Just as the earth and heaven abide firm and secure with the Supreme Lord of the universe, just as the spring months abide by the vital fire of earth and heaven, so should we all abide firm and secure by the lord of the universe, nature and spring, as breath abides by life, as Prakriti abides by Purusha, and as part abides by the whole.

26. (Kshatrapati Devata, Savita Ṛshi)

सहस्त्रवीर्यासि सा मां जिन्व ॥२६॥

Aṣāḍhā'si sahamānā sahasvārātīḥ sahasva pṛtanāyataḥ. Sahasravīryā'si sā mā jinva.

Ruling power, Shakti, you are tolerant, challenging and invincible. Challenge the mean, the ungenerous and the destructive forces. Face, fight and defeat those who are bent upon violence. You have the strength and prowess of a thousand powers. Be good to me, be good and gracious to all.

27. (Vishvedeva Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

मधु वाताऽऋतायते मधु क्षरन्ति सिन्धवः ।
माध्वीर्नः सन्त्वोषधीः ॥२७॥

Madhu vātā'ṛtāyate madhu kṣaranti sindhavaḥ. Mādhvīrnaḥ santvoṣadhīḥ.

The winds blow cool and sweet as honey. The streams and ocean-currents flow cool and sweet as honey. May the herbs and trees be as sweet and pleasant as honey. (Let us too be good and sweet in our conduct as the winds, the streams and the herbs and trees, observing the law and ethics of value.)

28. (Vishvedeva Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

मधु नक्तमुतोषसो मधुमत्पार्थिवꣳरजः ।
मधु द्यौरस्तु नः पिता ॥२८॥

Madhu naktamutoṣaso madhumat pārthivaṁ rajaḥ. Madhu dyaurastu naḥ pitā.

May the nights and the dawn be honey-sweet, soothing and inspiring. May the dust of mother-earth be sweet and fragrant. And may the light of the sun be honey-sweet and kind as father for us all. (Let us too follow the honey-sweets of nature in life.)

29. (Vishvedeva Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Madhumānno vanaspatirmadhumāǹ' astu sūryaḥ. Mādhvīrgāvo bhavantu naḥ.

May the herbs with their juices and the trees with their fruit be honey-sweet for us. May the sun be kind, sweet and invigorating. May the cows be sweet and rejuvenating as honey with their milk. May the saints, scholars, seniors and teachers be kind and affectionate as the sun, the mother earth and the mother cow.

30. (Prajapati Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Apāṁ gambhantsīda mā tvā sūryo'bhi tāpsīn mā'gnirvaiśvānaraḥ. Acchinnapatrāḥ prajā' anuvīkṣasvānu tvā divyā vṛṣṭiḥ sacatām.

Be in the centre of the waters deep as in the clouds so that the heat of the sun may not injure you nor the earthly heat, Vaishwanara, hurt you. Look round so that the people, free and fully protected from heat, are favourable to you. May the showers of celestial rain bless you.

31. (Varuna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

त्रीन्त्समुद्रान्त्समसृपत् स्वर्गानपां पतिर्वृषभऽइष्टकानाम् ।

Trīntsamudrāntsamasṛpat svargānapāṁ patir-vṛṣabha' iṣṭakānām. Purīṣaṁ vasānaḥ sukṛtasya loke tatra gaccha yatra pūrve paretāḥ.

The master controller of pranic energies of life, through karma, crosses the three oceans of time and space leading to the paradisal abode of the blessed in the sphere of the sun. Abiding with the Spirit of the universe he/she brightens up the earth and showers it with all the objects of sweetness and desire.

Man/Woman on earth, go thither to the region of the blessed where your noble ancestors have gone. (And that is the spring of the life of supernal joy.)

32. (Dyavaprithivi Devatas, Gotama Ṛshi)

मही द्यौः पृथिवी च नऽइमं यज्ञं मिमिक्षताम् ।
पिपृतां नो भरीमभिः ॥३२॥

Mahī dyauḥ pṛthivī ca na'imaṁ yajñaṁ mimikṣatām. Pipṛtāṁ no bharīmabhiḥ.

May the great earth and high heaven bless and promote this yajna of our life. So may they and our parents join and bless our yajna of the household with their active blessings.

33. (Vishnu Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

विष्णोः कर्माणि पश्यत यतो व्रतानि पस्पशे ।
इन्द्रस्य युज्यः सखा ॥३३॥

Viṣṇoḥ karmāṇi paśyata yato vratāni paspaśe. Indrasya yujyaḥ sakhā.

Behold the great acts of the omnipresent lord of the universe, Vishnu, acts like the creation, sustenance and dissolution of the world. Therein I see the essence, the ultimate blueprint of the discipline and actions for living. He is the great friend and lover of the human soul. He is the giver of bliss.

34. (Jataveda Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

ध्रुवासि धरुणेतो जज्ञे प्रथममेभ्यो योनिभ्योऽअधि जातवेदाः। स गायत्र्या त्रिष्टुभानुष्टुभा च देवेभ्यो हव्यं वहतु प्रजानन् ॥३४॥

Dhruvāsi dharuṇeto jajñe prathamamebhyo yonibhyo' adhi jātavedāḥ. Sa gāyatryā triṣṭubhānuṣṭubhā ca devebhyo havyaṁ vahatu prajānan.

Mother of the universe, Prakriti, firm and inviolable power, bearer of the world's forms in existence as you are, it was through your oceanic womb that Agni, the omniscient creative consciousness first manifested Itself. And He, knowing and manifesting through everything born, moved the materials of the cosmic yajna to the evolutionary powers of nature and communicated the cosmic knowledge through gayatri, trishtup and anushtup verses to the visionary sages.

(In the context of the home, grihastha, the wife is the Prakriti-like centre-hold of the organisation and the mother of the familial creation. The husband is agni, jataveda, father and yajamana of the home-yajna.)

35. (Jataveda Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

इषे राये रमस्व सहसे द्युम्नऽऊर्जेऽअपत्याय ।

Iṣe rāye ramasva sahase dyumna'ūrje'apatyāya. Samrāḍasi svarāḍasi sārasvatau tvotsau prāvatām.

Master/Mistress of the home, you are the ruler, brilliant, self-enlightened and self-disciplined. Be steadfast, live well and abide in the home for the sake of food, energy, courage, wealth, honour and children. May the noble and gracious Brahmanas and the learned and eloquent scholars guide and protect you in your homely world.

36. (Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

अग्नै युक्ष्वा हि ये तवाश्वासो देव साधवः ।
अरं वहन्ति मन्यवे ॥३६॥

Agne yukṣvā hi ye tavāśvāso deva sādhavaḥ. Araṁ vahanti manyave.

Agni, lord of power and science, those horses of yours which are swift and accurate to carry you to the target of your ardour and ambition like an arrow and thunder bolt, are wonderful. Lord of speed, rise and yoke the horses to your chariot.

37. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

युक्ष्वा हि देवहूतमाँ२॥ऽअश्वाँ२॥ऽअग्ने रथीरिव ।

Yukṣvā hi devahūtamāṅ'aśvāṅ'agne rathīriva. Ni hotā pūrvyaḥ sadaḥ.

Agni, lord of light and power, veteran leader and generous man of yajna, rise and yoke to the chariot of your mission the horses/powers trained by the gods and, like a glorious ruler and expert master, take your seat on the chariot.

38. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Samyak sravanti sarito na dhenā' antarhṛdā manasā pūyamānāḥ. Ghṛtasya dhārā' abhi cākaśīmi hiraṇyayo vetaso madhye' agneḥ.

Like streams, soft, sweet and ceaseless glides the flow of words distilled and purified by the heart and mind within. And I, wrapped in gold, in the midst of the light and fire of Agni, turned to a flute of reed, hear the murmur of the showers of benediction.

39. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

ऋचे त्वा रुचे त्वा भासे त्वा ज्योतिषे त्वा । अभूदिदं विश्वस्य भुवनस्य वाजिनमग्नेर्वैश्वानरस्य च ॥३९॥

Ṛce tvā ruce tvā bhāse tvā jyotiṣe tvā. Abhūdidaṁ viśvasya bhuvanasya vājinam agnervaiśvā-narasya ca.

To you Agni, lord of knowledge and speech, thanks and salutations for the knowledge of truth, love and lustre of life, light of science, and brilliance of justice and rectitude! By virtue of you alone, this soul has become aware of the entire world and of the universal presence of agni, the vital energy of life and nature active in the earthly sphere. By virtue of Agni alone this scholar and teacher can propagate this knowledge of reality among the people around.

40. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Agnirjyotiṣā jyotiṣmān rukmo varcasā varcasvān. Sahasradā' asi sahasrāya tvā.

Agni, Lord of light and life, agni, man of science, is brilliant with the light of knowledge, illustrious with the lustre and splendour of power, golden lovable and blissful, and giver of a thousand gifts. We do homage to you for the innumerable gifts of prosperity, comfort and happiness.

41. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Ādityaṁ garbhaṁ payasā samaṅdhi sahasrasya pratimāṁ viśvarūpam. Parivṛṅdhi harasā mā'bhi maṁsthāḥ śatāyuṣaṁ kṛṇuhi cīyamānaḥ.

With oblations of milk, honour the rising sun which holds in its womb and reveals innumerable forms and images of the world. With the heat, light and fragrance of the fire, ward off a host of ailments and grow. Growing in health and knowledge, help people to live a hundred years. Never never be proud.

42. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

वातस्य जूतिं वरुणस्य नाभिमश्वं जज्ञानꣳसरिरस्य मध्यै । शिशुं नदीनाꣳहरिमद्रिबुध्नमग्ने मा हिꣳसीः परमे व्योमन् ॥४२॥

Vātasya jūtiṁ varuṇasya nābhimaśvaṁ jajñānaṁ sarirasya madhye. Śiśuṁ nadīnāṁ harimadribudhnamagṇe mā hiṁsīh parame vyoman.

Agni, universal power, man of knowledge and power, hurt not the velocity of the wind and the centre of the water and vapours. Hurt not anything that is creative and procurative in the midst of the world. Injure not the produce of rivers, the clouds and anything grown on the mountains. Kill not the birds and aquatic creatures. Kill not anything that saves from suffering and evil.

43. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Ajasramindumaruṣaṁ bhuraṇyumagnimīḍe pūrvacittiṁ namobhiḥ. Sa parvabhirṛtuśaḥ kalpamāno gāṁ mā hiṁsīraditiṁ virājam.

I worship Agni, eternal power, bright and fiery, lord of peace and bliss, and giver of health and vigour.

With all means and materials I study and develop the power of fire and electricity collected and developed by the ancients. I proceed season by season, planning and achieving stage by stage.

Agni, man of science and power, do not kill, destroy or injure the productive cow, the creative earth so bright and unviolated, and the restorative environment.

44. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Varūtrīṁ tvaṣṭurvaruṇasya nābhimaviṁ jajñā-nāṁ rajasaḥ parasmāt. Mahīṁ sāhasrīm-asurasya māyāmagne mā hiṁsīḥ parame vyoman.

Agni, man of knowledge and power, do not injure, do not destroy, the protective power of the sun, the binding power of water, the lightning energy of the cloud born of regions beyond the sky, and the great, generous and regenerative earth, giver of a thousand blessings.

45. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Yo agniragneradhyajāyata śokāt pṛthivyā'uta vā divaspari. Yena prajā viśvakarmā jajāna tamagne heḍaḥ pari te vṛṇaktu.

Agni, man of science and power, the vital fire and creative energy that was born of the flames of the cosmic yajna of Agni, Lord of life and light, illuminates the wide world and heaven, and with it Vishwakarma, the Lord Maker of all forms, makes the various forms of life in existence. May your passion for knowledge and power spare that creative energy from hurt and damage.

The Lord Supreme Creator is the wonderful life and splendour of the gods, universal powers of nature. He is the Eye, light and vitality, of the sun, the oceans of waters, and agni, the vital fire. He pervades and fills the heaven, the earth and the middle regions of the universe. He is the sole universal sun, the soul of the moving and the unmoving world and, like the sun, manifests Himself — ever risen, ever rising, never setting.

47. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Agni/Ruler/Noble man or woman, growing and progressing in happiness, watchful with the vision of a thousand eyes, hurt not the humans, kill not the animals. Love and look after the wild as well as the domestic animals, both holy and serviceable. Working and progressing by that animal wealth, feel settled, be at peace with yourself. Let your concern address the wild animals, or let it be directed to those who hurt us.

48. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Do not kill this one-hoofed animal, fastest among the fast, roaring in the battles. I advise you, turn your attention to the white, yellow and brown animals, the wild ones, and growing by this animal wealth, sit at peace with yourself. Let your concern address the wild animals. Let it be directed to those who hurt us.

49. (Agni Devata, Virupa Ṛshi)

Agni, enlightened ruler, in the world even in the best of places, do not kill the cow and the bull, infinitely useful, and spring of a hundred streams and showers of milk and ghee for the people. It is holy and worthy of protection and development. I advise you, turn your attention to the wild cow and the bull and other animals. Growing and developing the economy with animal and forest wealth, feel settled with yourself and your land. Let your attention be directed to the wild cow and the forest wealth. Let your concern take on those who hurt us.

Agni, noble ruler, in the wonderful world of the Supreme Lord, do not hurt, do not kill the sheep and other such animals, one of the first creations of Twashta, the maker of the world, and source of comfort and providers of woollen cover to the human beings and the animals. I point out to the wild camel and other wild animals. Growing and developing the economy with that animal wealth, be at peace with yourself in your land. Let your concern turn to the camel. Let it be directed to those who hurt us.

The unborn individual soul was born in this world from the flame of the Supreme Lord's cosmic yajna of creation. It grew conscious and had a vision of the creator right there. By virtue of the vision and grace of the Lord, the pious souls, purified by the vision, realise the divine powers and rise to the heights of existence. Agni, noble ruler/noble man, I point out to the wild sharabha (fabulous antelope of the snowy forest, mightier than the lion and the elephant). Like that, defend yourself and grow, and growing thereby, be happy and feel satisfied and settled by yourself. Let your concern address the sharabha. Let your concern be directed to those who hurt us.

52. (Agni Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

Young man/woman of superlative energy and character, listen to the voice of Divinity. Protect and promote the people who give with faith and generosity. With your very heart and soul, protect and promote the child — human, animal and all.

This Agni, universal spirit, is the first and foremost in existence, the eastern horizon of the world. Its offspring is prana, vital energy, life-breath of existence. The offspring of prana is spring. The song of spring is gayatri, joy. Joy is the music of spring from gayatri, the gayatra saman, soft, sweet and low. From gayatra, the upanshu, the receiver of soma, ladle for libation. And from the upanshu, creation of trivrit, the person dedicated to trivrit, threefold integrated Dharma of knowledge, action and prayer. From trivrit, the successful man, sociable, visionary and saviour.

Woman of knowledge, virtue and love, blest by Prajapati, lord of creation, alongwith you I receive the vital energy of prana for the sake of children and family.

55. (Prajapati Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

On the right (south) is the spirit and power of the divine, Vishwakarma, like vayu, wind and electric energy, the divine agency by which is accomplished every action and movement of the world. The offspring of Vishwakarma is the mind, desire and action. The offspring of mind is summer. Trishtup meter is the expression of summer. From trishtup is born swara-sama of heat and lustre as the mid-day. From swara comes the antaryama, the silent libation of soma with self-control. From antaryama comes/is born the fifteen-phase stoma (pancha-dasha-stoma), expression of joy and hilarity. From pancha-dasha stoma comes Brihat-saman, the great saman song of jubilation and celebration. The seer expert of Brihat-saman is Bharadwaja, man of full knowledge and prosperity.

Woman of knowledge, virtue and love, blest by Prajapati, alongwith you I receive mana, mind, that is, love and desire for the sake of family and community.

56. (Prajapati Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

In the west (on the back) this sun is the divine power that illuminates and covers the whole world with light. The offspring of the sun is the light and the vision of the eye. The product of light and heat is the rain. The joy of rain is expressed in the jagati verse. In jagati metre are composed the Rik-samans. From the joy of Rik-Samans is born 'shukra', the lustre and vitality of life. From shukra is born the sapta-dasha (seventeen) stoma and the seventeen faculty subtle body. From this seventeen-element living life is born the diversity of living forms, of which the seer and visionary expert is jamadagni, man of light and lustre.

Woman of knowledge, virtue and love blest by Prajapati, along with you I receive light and vision for family and the people.

57. (Prajapati Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

On the north is this spirit of bliss and joy. The instrument of joy is the ear, and sharad, autumn, is the season for ear and music. The metre for sharad is anushtup. In anushtup is composed the aida-saman which is the song of beauty and sweetness. From aida is the 'manthi', churner, who churns out hilarity and virility. From manthis comes the twenty-one part stoma which constitutes an integrated programme of twenty one branches of learning. From twenty one stoma comes vairaja saman, a body of knowledge, of which the seer-master is Vishwamitra, friend of the whole world.

Woman of knowledge, virtue and love, blest by Prajapati, alongwith you I receive the ear and the voice that gives me the songs of joy and virility for the sake of the family and the community.

58. (Prajapati Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

Up above is this intelligence. From intelligence and for it is speech. With speech goes the season of 'hemanta', winter, and pankti is the metre for hemanta. Nidhanavat, the choric finale of a saman about hemanta, winter-song, is composed in pankti metre. From nidhanavat, the finale, is born the agrayana, first soma libation in agnishtoma yajna for the attainment of plenty of wealth and knowledge. From agrayana, there are twelve and thirty three saman hymns of praise. From these twelve and thirty three, we have shakvara and rewata, means to wealth, honour and power. The person who is an expert visionary of these hymns is a master of all arts and actions leading to wealth, power and honour.

Woman of knowledge, virtue and love, blest by Prajapati, alongwith you I receive the gift of speech (knowledge, wisdom and expertise) for the sake of children, family and the community.

Noble woman, like a master controller of his personal powers and expertise and guardian of his people, settle here in this noble family for the great joys and battles of life. As a father protects and promotes his child, so, happy with your self and serving your family, live and advance in your life's mission.

Master controller and promoter of faculties of intelligence, settle here with all your virtues and expertise for the peace and joy of the noble people. Noble woman, come like a father to the child and live in peace and comfort, comely and graceful, happy with yourself and serving the family.

4. (Ashvinis Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

Noble lady of the house, you are the protector of the earth (fulfilment of this earthly home). You are sweet and liquid as the waters of life. May all the noble and enlightened people appraise, approve and honour you whole heartedly. Blest with plenty and prosperity of means and materials, keen lover of ritual hymns and yajna sessions, take your rightful place here. Blest with progeny, wealth and honour, win for us the best of life and joy. May the saints and sages of light and the guides of yajna consecrate you here in this home.

On the floor of this earth (in this home) I seat and consecrate you, lady of the inner world of the heart, firm support of the home-life in all directions, mistress and presiding presence of all the residences. You are the ripples of joy on the streams of life. Indeed you are conceived and created by Vishwakarma, the cosmic artist. May the Ashwinis, torch bearers of life, and the adhvaryus, experts of yajnic life, guide and sanctify you here.

Jyeshtha and Ashadha are the two months of summer. Two-month summer, you are a temporal offspring of the internal (essential) power of agni, universal fire. May all the modes of agni, each with its natural power, be favourable to me toward honour and excellence. May the earth and heaven be favourable and make it (honour and excellence) possible. May the waters be favourable. May the herbs and trees make it possible. May all the forms of agni, heat, light, electricity, etc., working in earth and the heaven toward one end and maturing the summer season, be firm and steady in nature. Just as all the devas, powers of nature, subserve Indra, the essential and central energy of nature and life, so should the two months of summer faithfully and inviolably serve the power of agni as part subserves the whole.

Cloudy Shravana and misty humid Bhadra, two months of the rainy season, you are touched at heart by the passion of Agni. May heaven and earth be favourable to us for the gift of excellence, may the waters be favourable, may the herbs and trees be favourable, may all the orders of agni (heat and light), each committed to its own law and function, be favourable to us. With twenty nine properties of the herbs and trees, worship Him who created the herbs and trees with Soma as their chief and presiding power.

With thirtyone parts and properties of the created world of nature, worship Him who created the elemental and the compound materials of nature and life with these very elements and forms being the presiding presences of existence.

With thirty three properties of the elements of nature, worship Him in whose creation Prajapati, the father of His creatures, is the Supreme Lord, and into whom all the forms and elements of existence recede in peace and silence for the night of annihilation.

Yonder front in the east rises the sun like a king investing everything with green by its rays. Like the king's commander of his forces and the chief of his city, are the two months of spring, Chaitra and Baisakha, months of enlightened joy and joyful glory. The rays of the sun collectively for all and separately for specific ritual are currents of energy for life on the earth.

The mordacious creatures and animals are weapons of wild nature against which human weapons of defence ought to be made and used.

May the rays of the sun in spring and the powers of defence save us. May they be good and efficacious to us. Thanks and salutations to them. All those cruel forces which violate our life and all such forces which we oppose, all these we deliver unto the judgement of the powers and the spirit of nature.

On the right from the south rides in his chariot this Summer Wind, Vishwakarma, versatile power for all activities. Like the king's commander of the forces and the chief of his city, with the roar of the chariot wheels and the variegated colour of his banner, are the summer months of Jyeshtha and Ashadha. The special guests of the wind and the general currents of it are double waves of energy for life on the earth.

Mordacious forces are the danger to life. Watchful defence is the counteraction. Thanks and salutations to the powers of defence. May they be kind and efficacious to us. All those that violate our life and all those we oppose, we deliver unto the judgement of the powers of defence and the Spirit of nature.

At the back in the West is this rain power of Agni, universal electric energy. Like a king's commander of the forces and the chief of his city, are the two months of rain, Shravana and Bhadrapada, with the charming beauty of the clouds and the awful majesty of lightning. The power to nourish the vegetation and the ripening touch to the crops are the two currents of its energy.

Mordacious animals such as the tiger are dangerous. Creatures such as the snake are still more dangerous. Against them the thunderbolt for defence and man-made plans.

May the powers of safety and defence save us. May they be good and kind to us. All those that violate our life and all those we oppose, we deliver unto the judgement of the powers of defence and the spirit of nature.

On the North side is this season of autumn, generous associate of yajna. Like a king's commander of his forces and the chief of his city, are the months of Ashwin and Kartik, one the sharpest stimulant of intelligence, the other an antidote to pain and disease. The peace that pervades everywhere in nature and the power that blesses all with cool and soothing waters, milk and butter are two modes of its power.

Waters are the boon. Breezes are the greater boon. Thanks and salutations to the powers. May they save us. May they be kind and blissful to us.

All those that violate our life and all those that we oppose, we deliver unto the judgement of the powers of defence and the spirit of nature.

This on top, after rains and autumn, is the winter season, treasure-giver of wealth. Like a king's commander of the forces and the chief of his city, are the two months of Marga-Shirsha and Pausha, one like a lord of the hosts, the other victorious. The spirit of great love and freedom and the spirit of winsome beauty of the heart are two powers of the season. The roar of thunder is the weapon and lightning is another and greater one.

Salutations to the winter months and their gifts and powers. May they save us. May they be good and auspicious. Whoever violates our life and whoever we oppose in defence, we deliver unto the judgement of the powers of defence and the spirit of nature.

20. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्निर्मूर्द्धा दिवः ककुत्पतिः पृथिव्याऽअयम् ।
अपाꣳरेताꣳसि जिन्वति ॥२०॥

Agnirmūrdhā divaḥ kakut patiḥ pṛthivyā' ayam.
Apāṁ retāṁsi jinvati.

In winter, this Agni, shining supreme as the lord of space between the earth and heaven like the sun, rules and illuminates the directions and inspires the vitalities of life with new energy.

21. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अ॒यम॒ग्निः स॑हस्रि॒णो॒ वाज॑स्य श॒ति॒न॒स्पति॑ः ।
मू॒र्धा क॒वी र॑यी॒णाम् ॥२१॥

Ayamagniḥ sahasriṇo vājasya śatinaspatiḥ.
Mūrdhā kavī rayiṇām.

This Agni, Lord of eternal vision, rules the world on top of everything. Possessed of infinite virtues, giver of countless joys, He is the lord of food, energy and the wealth of the world.

22. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

त्वाम॑ग्ने॒ पुष्क॑रा॒दध्यथ॑र्वा॒ निर॑मन्थत ।
मू॒र्ध्नो विश्व॑स्य वा॒घत॑ः ॥२२॥

Tvāmagne puṣkarādadhyatharvā niramanthata.
Murdhno viśvasya vāghataḥ.

Agni (heat and electricity), Atharva, scholar high-priest of scientific yajna of energy, churns you out of the sky on top of the world to bring down the energy to the earth.

23. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

भुवो॑ य॒ज्ञस्य॒ रज॑सश्च ने॒ता यत्रा॑ नि॒युद्भि॑ः सच॑से शि॒वाभि॑ः।
दि॒वि मू॒र्धान॑ं दधिषे स्व॒र्षां जि॒ह्वाम॑ग्ने चकृषे हव्य॒-

Bhuvo yajñasya rajasaśca netā yatrā niyudbhiḥ sacase śivābhih. Divi mūrdhānaṁ dadhiṣe svarṣāṁ jihvāmagne cakṛṣe havyavāham.

Agni, leading power of yajna, the earth and the sky, you raise your tongue of flames bearing the fragrance of yajna libations over there and, one with the blissful catalytic process of consumption and creation, you hold in heaven the top light of the world, the sun, which rains the showers of joy on the earth.

24. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अबोध्यग्निः समिधा जनानां प्रति धेनुमिवायतीमुषासम् । यह्वाऽ इव प्र वयामुज्जिहानाः प्र भानवः सिस्रते नाकमच्छ ॥२४॥

Abodhyagniḥ samidhā janānāṁ prati dhenumivāyatīmuṣāsam. Yahvā'iva pra vayāmujjihānāḥ pra bhānavaḥ sisrate nākamaccha.

The fire wakes up and rises by the samits (fuel) offered by the devotees, and, just as a restless calf runs to the mother cow coming in the twilight of the dawn (or evening), so do the flames eagerly rise to the heaven (emanating peace, prosperity and happiness).

25. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अवोचाम कवये मेध्यायं वचो वन्दारु वृषभाय वृष्णे । गविष्ठिरो नमसा स्तोममग्नौ दिवीव रुक्ममुरुव्यञ्चमश्रेत् ॥२५॥

Avocāma kavaye medhyāya vaco vandāru vṛṣabhāya vṛṣṇe. Gaviṣṭhiro namasā stomamagnau divīva rukmamuruvyañcamaśret.

Just as the man established in the Word offers hymns of praise with libations to the holyfire, just as the light in the sun-rays does homage to the splendour of the all-illuminant sun in heaven, so do we offer words of praise in celebration to Agni, lord of light and vision, worthy of reverence and worship, lord of strength and power, who showers rains of bliss over the earth and her children.

26. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अयमिह प्रथमो धायि धातृभिर्होता यजिष्ठोऽअध्वरेष्वीड्यः। यमप्नवानो भृगवो विरुरुचुर्वनेषु चित्रं विभ्वं विशे-विशे ॥२६॥

Ayamiha prathamo dhāyi dhātṛbhirhotā yajiṣṭho' adhvareṣvīḍyaḥ. Yamapnavāno bhṛgavo virurucurvaneṣu citraṁ vibhvaṁ viśe viśe.

This agni here, first and foremost power of nature, lighted and established in the vedi by dedicated saints and sages, is worthiest of reverence and esteem. It is most valuable for development through creative and constructive acts of yajna. Present as it is, wonderful and universal, in the rays of the sun and currents of energy, the most intelligent and versatile men of genius develop it for the general good of the people.

27. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

जनस्य गोपाऽअजनिष्ट जागृविरग्निः सुदक्षः सुविताय नव्यसे। घृतप्रतीको बृहता दिविस्पृशा द्युमद्विभाति भरतेभ्यः शुचिः ॥२७॥

Janasya gopā'ajaniṣṭa jāgṛviragniḥ sudakṣaḥ suvitāya navyase. Ghṛtapratīko bṛhatā divispṛśā dyumad vibhāti bharatebhyaḥ śuciḥ.

Agni (fire and electricity), pure and sacred, protector of the people, ever wakeful, versatile and generous, source and symbol of plenty and prosperity, came into existence for new and newer good and excellence of the people, and shines brilliant with heaven-touching grandeur.

28. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

त्वामग्नेऽअङ्गिरसो गुहा हितमन्ववविन्दञ्छिश्रियाणं वने-वने। स जायसे मथ्यमानः सहो महत् त्वामाहुः सहसस्पुत्र-मङ्गिरः ॥२८॥

Tvāmagne'aṅgiraso guhā hitamanvavindañchi-śriyāṇaṁ vane vane. Sa jāyase mathyamānaḥ saho mahat tvāmāhuḥ sahasas-putramaṅgiraḥ.

Agni, fire, universal light of life, saints and scholars search for you and discover your presence hidden in the heart, abiding in every current of energy. Such as you are, churned out of nature you rise, and they find you mighty, great and awful child of the Wind, dear as the very breath of life.

29. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

सखायः सं वः सम्यञ्चमिषꣳस्तोमं चाग्नये ।
वर्षिष्ठाय क्षितीनामूर्जो नप्त्रे सहस्वते ॥२९॥

Sakhāyaḥ saṁ vaḥ samyañcamiṣaṁ stomaṁ cāgnaye. Varṣiṣṭhāya kṣitīnamūrjo naptre sahasvate.

Friends, offer properly and accurately the exact homage and libations to the darling of your people and settlements, Agni, generous giver, powerful protector and the dearest child of omnipotence.

30. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

सꣳसमिद्युवसे वृषन्नग्ने विश्वान्यर्यऽआ ।
इडस्पदे समिध्यसे स नो वसून्याभर ॥३०॥

Saṁ samidyuvase vṛṣanngne viśvānyarya ā. Iḍaspade samidhyase sa no vasūnyā bhara.

Agni, powerful lord of light and wealth, you join with all in love wholly and completely. You rise and shine in your rightful holy place on the earth. Generous lord, shower on us the wealth of the world from all sides.

31. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

त्वां चित्रश्रवस्तम॒ हव॑न्ते वि॒क्षु ज॒न्तवः॑ ।
शो॒चिष्के॑शं पुरुप्रि॒याग्ने॑ ह॒व्याय॒ वोढ॑वे ॥३१॥

Tvāṁ citraśravastama havante vikṣu jantavaḥ.
Śociṣkeśaṁ purupriyāgne havyāya voḍhave.

Agni, most wondrous lord of food and energy, dearest to all, blazing with light like the sun, people in all nations from all walks of life invoke you and offer libations for the attainment of food, energy and comfort in life.

32. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

ए॒ना वो॑ऽअ॒ग्निं नम॑सो॒र्जो नपा॑त॒माहु॑वे ।
प्रि॒यं चेति॑ष्ठमर॒तिꣳस्व॑ध्व॒रं विश्व॑स्य दू॒तम॒मृत॑म् ॥३२॥

Enā vo'agniṁ namasorjo napātamāhuve.
Priyaṁ cetiṣṭhamaratiṁ svadhvaraṁ viśvasya dūtamamṛtam.

For your sake, I invoke, explore and worship (develop) with the offering of this holy food (investment) Agni, creative and illuminative power of the world, universal energy, inviolable, dear and generous, most perceptively responsive, relentlessly active, guardian power of non-violent constructive acts of love, and immortal lord of the dynamics of existence.

33. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

विश्वस्य दूतममृतं विश्वस्य दूतममृतम् ।
स योजतेऽअरुषा विश्वभोजसा स दुद्रवत् स्वाहुतः ॥३३॥

Viśvasya dūtamamṛtaṁ viśvasya dūtamamṛtaṁ.
Sa yojate'aruṣā viśvabhojasā sa dudravat svāhutaḥ.

I invoke the immortal Agni, universal power of light (in the form of the sun); I invoke the immortal Agni, universal power of fire (in the form of vitality); it joins with universal creative generosity for total nourishment, it unites with love overcoming all hate and anger, and, piously called upon, it responds and hastens to help and bless us.

34. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

स दुद्रवत् स्वाहुतः स दुद्रवत् स्वाहुतः ।
सुब्रह्मा यज्ञः सुशमी वसूनां देवꣳराधो जनानाम् ॥३४॥

Sa dudravat svāhutaḥ sa dudravat svāhutaḥ.
Subrahmā yajñaḥ suśamī vasūnāṁ devaṁ rādho janānām.

That Agni, faithfully invoked in yajna, immediately stirs and rises. That same Agni, called up with love and sacrifice, responds spontaneously, it comes and blesses through the yajna.

Attended by noble devotees, yajna is a great karmic act which is a divine embodiment of the wealth of humanity and the mother earth.

35. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्ने वाजस्य गोमतऽईशानः सहसो यहो ।
अस्मे धेहि जातवेदो महि श्रवः ॥३५॥

Agne vājasya gomata'īśānaḥ sahaso yaho. Asme dhehi jātavedo mahi śravaḥ.

Agni, light of omniscience, child of omnipotence, witness of all that is born, lord of food and energy, controller of the masters of cows, earth and all that moves, bless us with all that is great and glorious.

36. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

सऽइ॑धा॒नो वसु॑ष्क॒विर॒ग्निरी॒ड्यो॑ गि॒रा ।
रे॒वद॒स्मभ्यं॑ पुर्वणीक दीदिहि ॥३६॥

Sa'idhāno vasuṣkaviragnirīḍenyo girā. Revadasmabhyaṁ purvaṇīka dīdihi.

That same Agni, bright and blazing, home of existence, visionary of the universe, celebrated with the divine Word, manifesting in infinite forms, shines and reveals the light for us as the wealth of the world.

37. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

क्षप॑ो रा॒जन्नु॒त त्मनाग्ने॒ वस्तो॑रु॒तोष॑सः।
स ति॑ग्मजम्भ र॒क्षसो॑ दह॒ प्रति॑ ॥३७॥

Kṣapo rājannuta tmanā'gne vastorutoṣasaḥ. Sa tigmajambha rakṣaso daha prati.

That same Agni, bright and blazing, thunderous force of relentless justice, power operative with your essential light and spirit in the day, in the night and at the dawn, burn with the same fiery essence the evil, the night walkers, daylight robbers and the darkness at dawn.

38. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

भ॒द्रो नो॑ऽअ॒ग्निराहु॑तो भ॒द्रा रा॒तिः सु॑भग भ॒द्रोऽअ॑ध्व॒रः।
भ॒द्राऽउ॒त प्रश॑स्तयः ॥३८॥

Bhadro no'agnirāhuto bhadrā rātiḥ subhaga bhadro' adhvaraḥ. Bhadrā' uta praśastayaḥ.

Man of grace and yajna, may the Agni, invoked and raised, be gracious. May the oblations, charities and investments be positive and productive. May our yajna and creative ventures be constructive and fruitful. May our appreciations and appraisals be valuable and enlightening.

39. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

भद्राऽउत प्रशस्तयो भद्रं मनः कृणुष्व वृत्रतूर्ये । येना समत्सु सासहः ॥३९॥

Bhadrā'uta praśastayo bhadraṁ manaḥ kṛṇuṣva vṛtratūrye. Yenā samatsu sāsahaḥ.

Man of knowledge, expertise and grace, may all our projects and appraisals be favourable. Do your best so that in our battles against covers of darkness and evil our mind be firm and undisturbed, and then in our battles of life we may endure and be victorious at the end.

40. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

येना समत्सु सासहोऽव स्थिरा तनुहि भूरि शर्धताम् । वनेमा तेऽअभिष्टिभिः ॥४०॥

Yenā samatsu sāsaho' va sthirā tanuhi bhūri śardhatām. Vanemā te' abhiṣṭibhiḥ.

The spirit by which the forces endure in battles and win, with that spirit strengthen and expand to the full our forces and powers so that we grow firm and inviolable. May we benefit from your gracious gifts, win our battles and enjoy in life.

41. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अ॒ग्निं तं म॑न्ये॒ यो वसु॒रस्तं॒ यं यन्ति॑ धे॒नवः॑ । अस्त॒मर्वं॑न्तऽआ॒शवोऽस्तं॒ नित्या॑सो वा॒जिन॒ऽइष॑ꣳस्तो॒तृभ्य॒ऽआ भ॑र ॥४१॥

Agniṁ taṁ manye yo vasurastaṁ yaṁ yanti dhenavaḥ. Astamarvanta'āśavo' staṁ nityāso vājina' iṣaṁ stotṛbhya' ā bhara.

I know the Agni that is the hearth and home of existence. Homeward go the cows. The fastest coursers betake to home. The hero, the chariot, the feathered eagle, the stallion, all go home to rest without fail, all by nature. That is the home for me.

That same Agni, mother of the home for all, is the ultimate haven. Mother mine, keep for the yajnic children food for life, energy for action, and light for the life divine.

42. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

सोऽअ॒ग्निर्यो वसु॑र्गृ॒णे सं यमा॒यन्ति॑ धे॒नवः॑ । समर्वं॑न्तो रघु॒द्रुव॒ः सꣳसु॑जा॒तासः॑ सू॒रय॒ऽइष॑ꣳस्तो॒तृभ्य॒ऽआ भ॑र ॥४२॥

So'agniryo vasurgṛṇe saṁ yamāyanti dhenavaḥ. Samarvanto raghudruvaḥ saṁ sujātāsaḥ sūraya 'iṣaṁ stotṛbhya 'ā bhara.

Agni is that who is the treasure, home and haven for all in existence. Him I celebrate in song. In Him the words of song find their meaning. Saints of wisdom, geniuses of science most responsive, men of vision most fortunately born, all have their recourse there. Lord of light and life, bear and bring the food, release the energy, and reveal the light of divinity for the celebrants.

43. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

उ॒भे सु॑श्चन्द्र स॒र्पिषो॒ दर्वी॑ श्रीणीषऽआ॒सनि॑ । उ॒तो न॒ऽउत्पु॑पूर्याऽउ॒क्थेषु॑ शवसस्पत॒ऽइषꣳ॑ स्तो॒तृभ्य॒ऽआ भर॑ ॥४३॥

Ubhe suścandra sarpiṣo darvī śrīṇīṣa'āsani. Uto na' utpupūryā'uktheṣu śavasaspata'iṣaṁ stotṛbhya'ā bhara.

Graceful power of heat, light and knowledge, you burn two ladles of ghee in the mouth (vedi of yajna) and diffuse the light and fragrance in the air through the cross currents of the wind. Lord of strength and power of creation, fill the stores of food with grain for us and the minds with knowledge for those who offer oblations and chant the hymns of praise in yajna.

Brilliant holy Sire of knowledge and power, just as the holy fire burns two ladlefuls of ghee in the vedi to diffuse the light and fragrance in the air, similarly you hold for us the two-fold knowledge of nature and spirit to disseminate it among the disciples who come to the school of yajna for education and sing the songs of the Vedas in praise of Agni, omniscient Lord of light and knowledge. Fill our minds with knowledge and the power of knowledge.

44. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्ने॒ तम॒द्याश्वं॒ न स्तोमै॒ः क्रतुं॒ न भ॒द्रꣳ हृ॑दि॒स्पृश॑म् । ऋ॒ध्यामा॑ त॒ऽओहै॑ः ॥४४॥

Agne tamadyāśvaṁ na stomaiḥ kratuṁ na bhadraṁ hṛdispṛśam. Ṛdhyāmā ta' ohaiḥ.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, like the horse broke in to perfection by training, like the holy yajna completed and perfected with the hymns of divine worship, may we now receive that knowledge and virtue which touches the heart and, with you close by us and revelations of that sacred knowledge, come to prosperity and perfection.

45. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अधा ह्यग्ने क्रतोर्भद्रस्य दक्षस्य साधोः ।
रथीर्ऋतस्य बृहतो बभूथ ॥४५॥

Adhā hyagne kratorbhadrasya dakṣasya sādhoḥ.
Rathīrṛtasya bṛhato babhūtha.

Agni, lord of light and knowledge, be the sure and unfailing pioneer of noble and creative yajnic work. Be the guide, guardian, defender and leader of the good, efficient and pious people, and prophet of the great truth and universal law of existence.

46. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

एभिर्नोऽअर्कैर्भवा नो अर्वाङ् स्वर्ण ज्योतिः ।
अग्ने विश्वेभिः सुमनाऽअनीकैः ॥४६॥

Ebhirno' arkairbhavā no arvāṅ svarṇa jyotiḥ.
Agne viśvebhiḥ sumanā anīkaiḥ.

Agni, lord of the golden light of omniscience, in response to these songs of ours in praise of divinity, be pleased at heart and, with all your glory and majesty, come and reveal yourself before us.

47. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्निꣳहोतारं मन्ये दास्वन्तं वसुꣳसूनुꣳसहसो जातवेदसं

Agniṁ hotāraṁ manye dāsvantaṁ vasuṁ sūnuṁ sahaso jātavedasaṁ vipraṁ na jātavedasam. Ya' ūrdhvayā svadhvaro devo devācyā kṛpā. Ghṛtasya vibhrāṣṭimanu vaṣṭi śociṣā "juhvā-nasya sarpiṣaḥ.

I know Agni, lord of yajna, receiver and dispenser of libations, generous, treasure home of wealth and the world, child of omnipotence, existent with all that is. I know It as intimately as I know an inspired sage of all knowledge standing face to face.

I know the kind and brilliant lord of love and yajna who, with high blazing activity worthy of celebration in divine speech, illuminates and disseminates the splendour of ghrta and the fragrance of vapours through the flames arising from oblations into the fire.

48. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्ने त्वं नोऽन्तमऽउत त्राता शिवो भवा वरूथ्यः । वसुरग्निर्वसुश्रवाऽअच्छा नक्षि द्युमत्तमꣳरयिन्दाः । तं त्वा शोचिष्ठ दीदिवः सुम्नाय नूनमीमहे सखिभ्यः ॥४८॥

Agne tvaṁ no' antama' uta trātā śivo bhavā varūthyaḥ. Vasuragnirvasuśravā' acchā nakṣi dyumattamaṁ rayiṁ dāḥ. Taṁ tvā śociṣṭha dīdivaḥ sumnāya nūnamīmahe sakhibhyaḥ.

Agni, closest you are at hand, most intimate. Be good and kind, redeemer and protector, a very home of supersecurity for all of us.

Agni is the omnipresent home of all, treasure of peace and wealth, brilliant leader and pioneer, most refulgent of all, generous giver of prosperity. Here I attain to the lord.

Lord most blazing, power of splendour and majesty as you are, we pray to you, in faith, for peace and prosperity for ourselves and all our friends.

49. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

येन॒ऽऋष॑य॒स्तप॑सा स॒त्रमा॑य॒न्निन्धा॑नाऽअ॒ग्निꣳस्व॑रा॒भर॑न्तः । तस्मि॑न्न॒हं निद॑धे॒ नाके॑ऽअ॒ग्निं यमा॒हुर्मन॑व स्ती॒र्ण-बर्हि॑षम् ॥४९॥

Yena' ṛṣayastapasā satramāyannindhānā' agniṁ svarābharantaḥ. Tasminnahaṁ ni dadhe nāke 'agniṁ yamāhurmanava stīrṇabarhiṣam.

By the austerity of discipline and action the seers come to the sessions of yajna and, lighting and exploring the agni, attain to ages of joy and happiness. By the same discipline, in similar session, at the same level of blissful existence, I commit myself to the pursuit of the same agni which people say pervades the skies.

50. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

तं पत्नी॑भि॒रनु॑गच्छेम देवाः पु॒त्रैर्भ्रातृ॑भिरु॒त वा॒ हिर॑ण्यैः । नाकं॑ गृभ्णा॒नाः सु॑कृ॒तस्य॑ लो॒के तृ॒तीये॑ पृ॒ष्ठेऽअधि॑ रोच॒ने दि॒वः ॥५०॥

Taṁ patnībhiranu gacchema devāḥ putrairbhrātṛbhiruta vā hiraṇyaiḥ. Nākaṁ gṛbhṇāṇāḥ sukṛtasya loke tṛtīye pṛṣṭhe'adhi rocane divaḥ.

Powers of light and joy, dedicating ourselves in prayer and action to the same Agni, may we attain to the highest and most beloved region of the beautiful world of bliss and noble pursuits with our wives, children, brothers and all our wealth and prosperity.

51. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

आ वाचो मध्यमरुहद् भुरण्युरयमग्निः सत्पतिश्चेकितानः। पृष्ठे पृथिव्या निहितो दविद्युतदधस्पदं कृणुतां ये पृतन्यवः ॥५१॥

Ā vāco madhyamaruhad bhuraṇyurayamagniḥ satpatiścekitānaḥ. Pṛṣṭhe pṛthivyā nihito davidyutadadhaspadaṁ kṛṇutāṁ ye pṛtanyavaḥ.

This Agni, power of knowledge, active and wide-awake, supporter and protector of the true and the good life, well-established on the face of the earth, lighted and raised, blazes and, in the middle of the chant, ascends to the heights of the skies.

If there be any forces that wish to fight the true and the good in life, may the same Agni keep them down and out.

52. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अयमग्निर्वीरतमो वयोधाः सहस्रियो द्योततामप्रयुच्छन् । विभ्राजमानः सरिरस्य मध्यऽउप प्र याहि दिव्यानि धाम ॥५२॥

Ayamagnirvīratamo vayodhāḥ sahasriyo dyotatāmaprayucchan. Vibhrājamānaḥ sarirasya madhya' upa pra yāhi divyāni dhāma.

This Agni, power of fire and manliness, bravest of all, young and fresh lord of health and age, mighty a thousand fold, shines relentlessly without let up. Glorious on the earth and in the midst of the sky, he inspires and graces wonderful places and positions.

53. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

सम्प्रच्यवध्वमुप सम्प्रयातागने पथो देवयानान् कृणुध्वम् । पुनः कृण्वाना पितरा युवानान्वाताꣳसीत् त्वयि तन्तुमेतम् ॥५३॥

Sampracyavadhvamupa samprayātāgne patho devayānān kṛṇudhvam. Punaḥ kṛṇvānā pitarā yuvānānvātāṁsīt tvayi tantumetam.

Ye men and women all, move together, go close to Agni by the paths of divinity for light and knowledge. Create new paths for the future.

Agni, light the paths for humanity. Only in your presence under your guidance can young people as parents follow Dharma under the discipline of piety and continue the yajna and the life-line.

54. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

उद्बुध्यस्वाग्ने प्रति जागृहि त्वमिष्टापूर्त्ते सꣳसृजेथामयं च। अस्मिन्त्सधस्थेऽअध्युत्तरस्मिन् विश्वे देवा यजमानश्च सीदत ॥५४॥

Udbudhyasvāgne prati jagṛhi tvamiṣṭāpūrte saṁ sṛjethāmayaṁ ca. Asmintsadhasthe'adhyuttarasmin viśve devā yajamānaśca sīdata.

Agni, lord of light and yajna, wake up and arise in response to the invocation and, in return, awaken and guard the yajamana. Create, together, the desire and will to do the acts necessary as duty and the acts desirable by choice for the sake of complete self-fulfilment. May all the powers of divinity, all the noble people and the yajamana dwell in this auspicious house in this life and after, ever rising higher and higher.

55. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

येन॒ वह॑सि स॒हस्रं॒ येना॑ग्ने सर्ववेद॒सम् ।
तेने॒मं य॒ज्ञं नो॑ नय॒ स्व॒र्देवे॑षु॒ गन्त॑वे ॥५५॥

Yena vahasi sahasraṁ yenāgne sarvavedasam.
Tenemaṁ yajñaṁ no naya svardeveṣu gantave.

Agni, leading power of light and action, by knowledge and karma you bear a hundred burdens of the business of existence through the whole range of duties set out in the Vedas. Carry us too in this yajna of life and lead us into the state of bliss among the noblest souls of the world.

56. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अ॒यं ते॒ योनि॑र्ऋ॒त्वियो॒ यतो॑ जा॒तोऽअरो॑चथाः।
तं जा॒नन्न॑ग्न॒ऽआ रो॒हाथा॑ नो॒ वर्धया॑ र॒यिम् ॥५६॥

Ayaṁ te yonirṛtviyo yato jāto'arocathāḥ. Taṁ jānannagna'ā rohāthā no vardhayā rayim.

Agni, fire and power of life, this home of yajna is your seat of action in accordance with the time and season. From here emerging, you shine and illuminate the world around. Knowing this, proceed and rise, and develop the wealth of life for us.

57. (Shishirartu Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

Ya'etāvantaśca bhūyāṁsaśca diśo rudrā vitasthire. Teṣāṁ sahasrayojane'va dhanvāni tanmasi.

And Rudra powers (of beneficence, affliction and retribution in nature) conceived and realized so far and even more exist variously in all the directions (on the earth, in the sky and in heaven). We deal with their arms and armaments appropriately with all our might and mind in faith (worshipping, extending, negating or fighting and eliminating) in a thousand ways over vast areas of time and space.

64. (Rudras Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Va Deva Ṛshi)

नमोऽस्तु रुद्रेभ्यो ये दिवि येषां वर्षमिषवः ।
तेभ्यो दश प्राचीर्दश दक्षिणा दश प्रतीचीर्दशोदीचीर्दशोर्ध्वाः।

Namo'stu rudrebhyo ye divi yeṣāṁ varṣamiṣavaḥ. Tebhyo daśa prācīrdaśa dakṣiṇā daśa pratīcīrdaśodīcīrdaśordhvāḥ. Tebhyo namo'astu te no' vantu te no mṛḍayantu te yaṁ dviṣmo Yaśca no dveṣṭi tameṣāṁ jambhe dadhmaḥ.

Homage to the Rudras that abide in heaven. Rain is their power and gift to life. To them our salutations with folded hands with ten fingers joined, with ten senses and ten pranas. For them the ten directions east, ten directions south, ten directions west, ten directions north, and ten directions above; all these for them to pervade and operate. Salutations to them! May they protect us! May they bless us! Whosoever we hate, whosoever hate us, him we deliver unto their power for judgement and redress.

65. (Rudras Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Va Deva Ṛshi)

नमोऽस्तु रुद्रेभ्यो येऽन्तरिक्षे येषां वातऽइषवः । तेभ्यो दश प्राचीर्दश दक्षिणा दश प्रतीचीर्दशोदीचीर्दशोर्ध्वाः। तेभ्यो नमोऽअस्तु ते नोऽवन्तु ते नो मृडयन्तु ते यं द्विष्मो यश्च नो द्वेष्टि तमेषां जम्भे दध्मः ॥६५॥

Homage to the Rudras that abide in the skies. Wind and air is their power and gift to life. To them our salutations with folded hands with the fingers joined, with ten senses and the pranas. For them the ten directions east, ten directions south, ten directions west, ten directions north, and ten directions above; all these for them to pervade and operate. Salutations to them! May they protect us! May they bless us! Whosoever we hate, whosoever hate us, him we deliver unto their power for judgement and redress.

66. (Rudras Devata, Parameshthi Prajapati Va Deva Ṛshi)

Homage to the Rudras that abide on the earth. Food and energy is their power and gift to life. To them our salutations with folded hands with ten fingers joined, with ten senses and ten pranas. For them the ten directions east, ten directions south, ten directions west, ten directions north, and ten directions above; all these for them to pervade and operate. Salutations to them! May they protect us! May they bless us! Whosoever we hate, whosoever hate us, him we deliver unto their power for judgement and redress.

CHAPTER–XVII

1. (Maruts Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

अश्मन्नूर्जं पर्वते शिश्रियाणामद्भ्यऽओषधीभ्यो वनस्पतिभ्योऽअधि सम्भृतं पयः । तां नऽइषमूर्जं धत्त मरुतः सꣳरराणाऽअश्मँस्ते क्षुन् मयि तऽऊर्ग् यं द्विष्मस्तं ते शुगृच्छतु॥१॥

Aśmannūrjaṁ parvate śiśriyāṇāmadbhya' oṣadhībhyo vanaspatibhyo'adhi sambhṛtaṁ payaḥ. Tāṁ na'iṣamūrjaṁ dhatta marutaḥ saṁrarāṇā'aśmaňste kṣūn-mayi ta'ūrgyaṁ dviṣmastaṁ te śugṛcchatu.

O Maruts (men and women), kind and generous powers, hold for us the energy and power contained in the mountain ranges of the clouds and the sky, and hold for us that energy and juices distilled from waters, herbs and trees, and bless us with that food and energy. Voracious eater, fire of yajna, may your hunger and energy be in me too, and may your displeasure reach someone we hate (i.e., none).

2. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

इमा मेऽअग्नऽइष्टका धेनवः सन्त्वेका च दश च दश च शतं च शतं च सहस्रं च सहस्रं चायुतं चायुतं च नियुतं च नियुतं च प्रयुतं चार्बुदं च न्यर्बुदं च समुद्रश्च मध्यं चान्तश्च परार्द्धश्चैता मेऽअग्नऽइष्टका धेनवः सन्त्वमुत्रामुष्मिँल्लोके ॥२॥

Imā me'agna'iṣṭakā dhenavaḥ santvekā ca daśa ca daśa ca śataṁ ca śataṁ ca sahasraṁ ca sahasraṁ cāyutaṁ cāyutaṁ ca niyutaṁ ca niyutaṁ ca prayutaṁ cārbudaṁ ca nyarbudaṁ ca samudraśca madhyaṁ cāntaśca parārdhaścaitā me'agna iṣṭakā dhenavaḥ santvamutrāmuṣmiṅlloke.

Agni, fire-lord of yajna, may these bricks of my altar (vedi), wanted values of life, one and all, be generous and productive and grow ten times in geometrical progression : May one grow to ten, and ten to one hundred (shatam), and one hundred to one thousand (sahasram), and one thousand to ten thousand (ayutam), and ten thousand to hundred thousand (one lac, niyutam), and hundred thousand to a million (prayutam), and one million to hundred million (arbudam), and hundred million to a billion (arba, nyarbudam), and one billion to ten billion (one kharba), and ten billion to a hundred billion (one nikharba), and hundred billion to a trillion (mahapadma), and one trillion to ten trillion (one shanku), and ten trillion to hundred trillion (one samudra), and hundred trillion to quadrillion (one madhyam), and one madhyam to ten madhyam (anta, ten quadrillion), and one anta to ten anta (hundred quadrillion), parardha. And these bricks, wanted values, be, like cows, the givers of fulfilment to me in this life and beyond, in this world and beyond.

3. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

ऋ॒तव॑ स्थऽऋ॒ता॒वृधऽऋ॒तु॒ष्ठा स्थऽऋ॒ता॒वृधः । घृ॒तश्च्युतौ॑ मधु॒श्च्युतौ॑ वि॒राजो॒ नाम॑ काम॒दुघा॒ऽअक्षी॑यमाणाः ॥३॥

Ṛtava stha'ṛtāvṛdha'ṛtuṣṭhā stha'ṛtāvṛdhaḥ. Ghṛtaścyuto madhuścyuto virājo nāma kāmadughā'akṣīyamāṇāḥ.

Ladies of the home brilliant as yajna fire, holy as truth and universal law, reflecting the plenty and purity of distilled ghee and overflowing with the sweetness of honey, you are surely treasures of fulfilment beyond decay. Be vibrant as spring, stay inviolable as the cycle of the seasons and add to the sanctity of the laws of life.

4. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

समुद्रस्य त्वावकयाग्ने परिव्ययामसि ।
पावकोऽअस्मभ्यꣳशिवो भव ॥४॥

Samudrasya tvā'vakayāgne pari vyayāmasi.
Pāvako' asmabhyaṁ śivo bhava.

Agni, brilliant power, we stand round and cover you as the shaivala grass of the sea. Cleanser and purifier of life, be good and gracious to us.

5. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

हिमस्य त्वा जरायुणाग्ने परि व्ययामसि ।
पावकोऽअस्मभ्यꣳशिवो भव ॥५॥

Himasya tvā jarāyuṇā'gne pari vyayāmasi.
Pāvako'asmabhyaṁ śivo bhava.

Agni, brilliant power, we cover you round as fire and clothing round the frosty cold of the season. Come, cleanser and purifier of life, and be kind and gracious to us.

6. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

उप ज्मन्नुप वेतसेऽवतर नदीष्वा । अग्ने पित्तमपामसि मण्डूकि ताभिरागहि सेमं नो यज्ञं पावकवर्णꣳशिवं कृधि ॥६॥

Upa jmannupa vetase' va tara nadīṣvā. Agne pittamapāmasi maṇḍūki tābhirā gahi semaṁ no yajñaṁ pāvakavarṇaṁ śivaṁ kṛdhi.

Agni, clad in the brilliant flames of light, come upon the earth, descend in the midst of the earth's abundance. Descend into the streams of life. Since you are the life and lustre of the waters, come with that life and lustre. Come and bless this yajna of our home with peace and prosperity.

7. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

अपामिदं न्ययनꣳसमुद्रस्य निवेशनम् । अन्याँस्तेऽअस्मत्तपन्तु हेतयः पावकोऽअस्मभ्यꣳशिवो भव ॥७॥

Apāmidaṁ nyayanaṁ samudrasya niveśanam. Anyāṅste'asmattapantu hetayaḥ pāvako' asmabhyaṁ śivo bhava.

This home is the abode of peace as the sky is the abode of waters. It is an abode of the depth of life as the deep ocean is. May Agni, lord of yajna and life and lustre of the waters be kind and gracious to us in this home of yajna, and may the heat of his passion and displeasure be directed elsewhere away from us.

8. (Agni Devata, Vasuyu Ṛshi)

अग्ने पावक रोचिषा मन्द्रया देव जिह्वया ।
आ देवान्वक्षि यक्षि च ॥८॥

Agne pāvaka rociṣā mandrayā deva jihvayā. Ā devān vakṣi yakṣi ca.

Agni, generous lord of light, purifier and sanctifier of life, with your brilliant and exhilarating tongue of flames you call the noble yajnic devotees together and proclaim to them the truths of eternity.

9. (Agni Devata, Medhatithi Ṛshi)

स नः॑ पावक दीदि॒वोऽग्ने॑ दे॒वाँ२॑।ऽइ॒हाव॑ह ।
उप॑ य॒ज्ञꣳह॒विश्च॑ नः ॥९॥

Sa nāḥ pāvaka dīdivo'gne devāň' ihāvaha. Upa yajñaṁ haviśca naḥ.

Agni, power of light and lustre, purifier and sanctifier of life, you graciously call the noble powers of nature and humanity together here close to our yajna and let us all share the gifts of the fragrance of libations.

10. (Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

पा॒व॒कया॒ यश्चि॒तय॑न्त्या कृ॒पा क्षामन् रुरु॒चऽउ॒षसो॒ न भा॒नुना॑ । तूर्व॒न्न या॒म॒न्नेत॑शस्य॒ नु रण॒ऽआ यो घृ॒णे न त॑तृषा॒णोऽअ॒जरः॑ ॥१०॥

Pāvakayā yaścitayantyā kṛpā kṣāman ruruca' uṣaso na bhānunā. Tūrvan na yāmannetaśasya nū raṇa' ā yo ghṛṇe na tatṛṣāṇo' ajaraḥ.

Agni, lord of light and power, commander of the army, with his cleansing, enlightening and splendid force, shines on the earth like the dawn blazing with the light of the sun. And young, unaging, unexhausted, hastening apace on the course of his chariot, thirsting for victory in the heat of the battle, blazes with his own glory.

11. (Agni Devata, Lopamudra Ṛshi)

नम॑स्ते॒ हर॑से शो॒चिषे॒ नम॑स्तेऽअस्त्व॒र्चिषे॑ । अ॒न्याँस्ते॑ अ॒स्मत्त॑पन्तु हे॒तयः॑ पाव॒कोऽअ॒स्मभ्य॑ꣳशि॒वो भ॑व ॥११॥

Namaste harase śociṣe namaste'astvarciṣe. Anyāňste asmattapantu hetayaḥ pāvako' asmabhyaṁ śivo bhava.

Salutations to Agni, lord of light and justice, radiant and pure, divine and adorable, and saviour from pain and suffering. Lord sanctifier of life and nature, be good and gracious to us. And may the heat of your passion and punishment for sin and injustice fall upon others far from us, i.e. different from real human nature and character.

12. (Agni Devata, Lopamudra Ṛshi)

नृ॒षदे॒ वेड॑प्सु॒षदे॒ वेड् ब॑र्हि॒षदे॒ वेड् व॑न॒सदे॒ वेट् स्व॒र्विदे॒ वेट् ॥१२॥

Nṛṣade veḍ apsuṣade veḍ barhiṣade veḍ vanasade veṭ svarvide veṭ.

Homage to Agni, lord present in and presiding over humanity. Homage to the lord present in and ruling over the waters. Homage to the lord governing within and over the business of society. Homage to the lord present in and ruling over the forests. Homage to the lord creator and giver of the joy of life.

13. (Prana Devata, Lopamudra Ṛshi)

ये दे॒वा दे॒वानां॑ य॒ज्ञिया॑ य॒ज्ञिया॑नाꣳसंवत्स॒रीण॒मुप॑ भा॒गमा॑सते । अ॒हु॒तादो॑ ह॒विषो॑ य॒ज्ञेऽअ॒स्मिन्त्स्व॒यं पि॑बन्तु॒ मधु॑नो घृ॒तस्य॑ ॥१३॥

Ye devā devānāṁ yajñiyā yajñiyānāṁ saṁvatsarīṇamupa bhāgamāsate. Ahutādo haviṣo yajñe 'asmintsvayaṁ pibantu madhuno ghṛtasya.

Pranas (Sanyasis, those who are the life-breath of the spirit of society), those who are noblest among the nobles, adorable among those who adore Agni in yajna, serve and receive their part of the annual sessions of yajna, and, free from the performance of yajna before meals, themselves receive and enjoy the honey-sweets and drinks of the libations in this yajna.

14. (Prana Devata, Lopamudra Ṛshi)

ये दे॒वा दे॒वेष्वधि॑ देव॒त्वमाय॒न्ये ब्रह्म॑णः पु॒रऽए॒तारो॑ऽअ॒स्य। येभ्यो॒ नऽऋ॒ते पव॑ते॒ धाम॒ किञ्च॒न न ते॒ दि॒वो न पृ॑थि॒व्याऽअधि॒ स्नुषु॑ ॥१४॥

Ye devā deveṣvadhi devatvamāyan ye brahmaṇaḥ pura'etāro' asya. Yebhyo na'ṛte pavate dhāma kiñcana na te divo na pṛthivyā 'adhi snuṣu.

Pranas, life-breath of the spirit of humanity, souls who have attained the state of divine grace among the nobles, who walk in the very presence of this Lord of the universe, without whom nowhere in the world anything moves nor is anything sanctified, they are not confined to any particular region of heaven, nor to any particular region of the earth, they are universal, everywhere.

15. (Agni Devata, Lopamudra Ṛshi)

प्रा॒ण॒दाऽअ॑पान॒दा व्या॑न॒दा व॑र्चो॒दा व॑रिवो॒दाः । अ॒न्याँस्तेऽ-अ॒स्मत्त॑पन्तु हे॒तयः॑ पाव॒कोऽअ॒स्मभ्य॑ꣳशि॒वो भ॑व ॥१५॥

Prāṇadā'apānadā vyānadā varcodā varivodāḥ. Anyāँste'asmattapantu hetayaḥ pāvako' asmabhyaṁ śivo bhava.

Agni, Lord of light and power, you are the giver of vital energy, means of the removal of impurity and waste, universal knowledge, lustre of life and the light of truth and Dharma. Be good and gracious to us, lord purifier and sanctifier of life and soul, and let your displeasure and punishment befall somewhere else far away from us.

16. (Agni Devata, Bharadwaja Ṛshi)

अग्निस्तिग्मेन शोचिषा यासद्विश्वं न्यत्रिणम् ।
अग्निर्नो वनते रयिम् ॥१६॥

Agnistigmena śociṣā yāsadviśvaṁ nyatriṇam.
Agnirno vanate rayim.

Agni, lord giver of light, knowledge and power, with its incessant waves of light and warmth ripens and begets all good nourishing foods for us. The same agni with the power of electric energy begets all the wealth for us. (So may the man of knowledge and scientific power produce food and wealth for humanity.)

17. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

यऽइमा विश्वा भुवनानि जुह्वदृषिर्होता न्यसीदत्पिता नः ।
सऽआशिषा द्रविणमिच्छमानः प्रथमच्छदवराँ२॥ऽ-
आविवेश ॥१७॥

Ya'imā viśvā bhuvanāni juhvadṛṣirhotā nyasīdat pitā naḥ. Sa'āśiṣā draviṇamicchamānaḥ prathamacchadavarāṅ āviveśa.

Our father, Vishvakarma, omniscient lord and cosmic sacrificer (yajamana), consumes all these worlds into His own fire of cosmic yajna and remains. And then He, self-moved by His own will to create the profuse variety of existence, projects and pervades the first evolutes and later continues the expansion and self pervasion on and on.

18. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

किꣳस्विदासीदधिष्ठानमारम्भणं कतमत् स्वित्कथा-
सीत् । यतो भूमिं जनयन्विश्वकर्मा वि द्यामौर्णोन्महिना
विश्वचक्षाः ॥१८॥

Kiṁ svid āsīdadhiṣṭhānamārambhaṇaṁ katamat svit kathā sīt. Yato bhūmiṁ janayan viśvakarmā vi dyāmaurṇonmahinā viśvacakṣāḥ.

What is the ultimate stay of the universe? What is the original cause of the creation? What sort? From which Vishvakarma, omnipresent seer who pervades the universe, created the earth and then heaven with His mighty potential?

19. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

विश्वतश्चक्षुरुत विश्वतोमुखो विश्वतोबाहुरुत विश्वतस्पात् । सं बाहुभ्यां धमति सं पतत्रैर्द्यावाभूमी जनयन् देवऽएकः॥१९॥

Viśvataścakṣurta viśvatomukho viśvatobāhuruta viśvataspāt. Saṁ bāhubhyāṁ dhamati saṁ patatrairdyāvābhūmī janayan deva'ekaḥ.

Vishvakarma, the one absolute self-effulgent lord of the universe, with universal eye to watch, and universal mouth to reveal the Word, and universal arms for action, and universal feet for omnipresence, having created the heaven and earth from dynamic particles of Prakriti, keeps the universe in constant motion with his mighty arms of omnipotence.

20. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

किꣳस्विद्वनं कऽउ स वृक्षऽआस यतो द्यावापृथिवी निष्टतक्षुः। मनीषिणो मनसा पृच्छतेदु तद्यदध्यतिष्ठद्भुवनानि धारयन् ॥२०॥

Kiṁsvidvanaṁ ka'u sa vṛkṣa'āsa yato dyāvāpṛthivīniṣṭatakṣuḥ. Manīṣiṇo manasā pṛcchatedu tadyad adhyatiṣṭhad bhuvanāni dhārayan.

What is that original cause, that lovely tree, from which the lord maker shaped the heaven and earth and the whole dynamic world? Men of intelligence and conscientious mind ask the men of wisdom and vision: Who is that lord who holds and sustains the regions of the world and presides over all these and yet remains the sole lord above the universe?

21. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

या ते धामानि परमाणि याऽवमा या मध्यमा विश्वकर्मन्नुतेमा। शिक्षा सखिभ्यो हविषि स्वधावः स्वयं यजस्व तन्वं वृधानः ॥२१॥

Yā te dhāmāni paramāṇi yā'vamā yā madhyamā viśvakarmannutemā. Śikṣā sakhibhyo haviṣi svadhāvaḥ svayaṁ yajasva tanvaṁ vṛdhānaḥ.

Vishvakarma, lord of your own omnipotence, lord of nature, heaven and earth, maker of the universe, enlighten us, your friends and devotees, about the worlds of your own creation, the highest, the lowest and youngest, and the middle ones. Lord of food and energy, expanding the material world of existence, you yourself provide for sustenance with constant inputs into the systemic growth of the universe.

22. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

विश्वकर्मन् हविषा वावृधानः स्वयं यजस्व पृथिवीमुत द्याम् । मुह्यन्त्वन्येऽअभितः सपत्नाऽइहास्माकं मघवा सूरिरस्तु ॥२२॥

Viśvakarman haviṣā vāvṛdhānaḥ svayaṁ yajasva pṛthivīmuta dyām. Muhyantvanye' abhitaḥ sapatnā'ihāsmākaṁ maghavā sūrirastu.

Vishvakarma, lord maker of the universe, exalted by the celebration and offerings of yajna, bless the earth and heaven with your presence. May the others, enemies of life and progress all round, fail. And may Indra, lord of power and glory, of wealth and learning, be the harbinger of knowledge and wisdom.

23. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

वा॒चस्पतिं॑ वि॒श्वक॑र्माणमू॒तये॑ मनो॒जुवं॑ वाजे॑ऽअ॒द्या हु॑वेम। स नो॒ विश्वा॑नि॒ हव॑नानि जोषद्वि॒श्वशं॑भूरव॑से सा॒धु-क॑र्मा ॥२३॥

Vācaspatiṁ viśvakarmāṇamūtaye manojuvaṁ vāje'adyā huvema. Sa no viśvāni havanāni jāṣad viśvaśambhūravase sādhukarmā.

For our protection and progress in the battle of life to day we invoke Vishvakarma, lord of knowledge and speech, universal master of all karma working at speed faster than that of mind. May he, beneficent lord of unfailing action, kind and generous to all, be pleased to listen to our invocation and grant our prayers for protection and progress.

24. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

विश्वकर्मन् ह॒विषा॒ वर्द्ध॑नेन त्रा॒तार॒मिन्द्र॑मकृणोरव॒ध्यम् । तस्मै॒ विश॒ः सम॑नमन्त पू॒र्वीर॒यमु॒ग्रो वि॒हव्यो॒ यथास॑त् ॥२४॥

Viśvakarman haviṣā vardhanena trātāra-mindramakṛṇoravadhyam. Tasmai viśaḥ samanamanta pūrvīrayamugro vihavyo yathā' sat.

Vishvakarma, lord President of the total activity of humanity/the nation, with the growth and advancement arising from the developmental activities of the people working with yajnic dedication in unison, we pray, appoint Indra, a man of power and glory as minister for defence who should be an inviolable defender of the world/the land, so that all the people bow to him in acceptance and reverence and (with that universal support) he becomes mighty and formidable in action.

25. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

चक्षुषः पिता मनसा हि धीरो घृतमेनेऽअजनन्नम्नमाने । यदेदन्ताऽअददृहन्त पूर्वऽआदिद् द्यावापृथिवीऽअप्रथेताम् ॥२५॥

Cakṣuṣaḥ pitā manasā hi dhīro ghṛtamene' ajanannamnamāne. Yadedantā adadṛhanta pūrva'ādid dyāvāpṛthivī aprathetām.

When the ruler, Vishvakarma, is of calm and resolute mind, loves and protects men of vision and justice, and promotes the creation of food and wealth, and when the people bow to him in obedience and act in unison like parts of one organism, then only the people and the government strengthen each other and grow like the earth and heaven of yore together.

26. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

विश्वकर्म्मा विमनाऽआद्विहाया धाता विधाता परमोत सन्दृक् । तेषामिष्टानि समिषा मदन्ति यत्रा सप्तऽऋषीन् परऽएकमाहुः ॥२६॥

Viśvakarmā vimanā'ādvihāyā dhātā vidhātā paramota sandṛk. Teṣāmiṣṭāni samiṣā madanti yatrā sapta' ṛṣīn para' ekamāhuḥ.

Vishvakarma is the one lord maker of the world, sole treasure-home of universal knowledge, present in the universal variety of existence, creator and sustainer of the universe, all-seeing universal presence and supreme reality, whom the wise sages call one and absolute, wherein the humans with their five senses, mind and intelligence rejoice and wherein they realise their supreme ambitions.

27. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

यो नः पिता जनिता यो विधाता धामानि वेद भुवनानि विश्वा । यो देवानां नामधाऽएकऽएव तꣳसम्प्रश्नं भुवना यन्त्यन्या ॥२७॥

Yo naḥ pitā janitā yo vidhātā dhāmāni veda bhuvanāni viśvā. Yo devānāṁ nāmadhā'eka'eva taṁ sampraśnaṁ bhuvanā yantyanyā.

Vishvakarma is the lord who is our father and creator, law-giver and sustainer, who knows all the regions of the universe, who is one and absolute yet holds the names of all the powers of nature and His own potential. In Him enter all the worlds, and He is the eternal question and mystery for all the conscientious souls.

28. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

तऽआयजन्त द्रविणꣳसमस्माऽऋषयः पूर्वे जरितारो न भूना । असूर्ते सूर्ते रजसि निषत्ते ये भूतानि समकृण्वन्निमानि ॥२८॥

Ta'āyajanta dravīṇaṁ samasmā'ṛṣayaḥ pūrve jaritāro na bhūnā. Asūrte sūrte rajasi niṣatte ye bhūtāni samakṛṇvannimāni.

They are the Rishis, visionaries of Divinity, who, like celebrants in worship, have offered songs and libations of rich materials to Lord Vishvakarma and who, residing in known as well as in unknown worlds, have directed and attracted the mind and soul of living beings to the lord.

29. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

परो दिवा परऽएना पृथिव्या परो देवेभिरसुरैर्यदस्ति । कꣳस्विद् गर्भं प्रथमं दध्रऽआपो यत्र देवाः समपश्यन्त पूर्वे ॥२९॥

Paro divā para'enā pṛthivyā paro devebhi-rasurairyadasti. Kaṁsvid garbhaṁ prathamaṁ dadhra'āpo yatra devāḥ samapaśyanta pūrve.

The Lord Supreme, Brahma, is beyond the heavens, beyond this earth, beyond the gods of nature and beyond the evil and the lifeless. He is the One wherein the life-force bears the first grand and mysterious seed of the universe and whom the primordeal visionaries of divinity see directly as if face to face.

30. (Vishvakarma Devata, Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

तमिद् गर्भं प्रथमं दध्रऽआपो यत्र देवाः समगच्छन्त विश्वे। अजस्य नाभावध्येकमर्पितं यस्मिन्विश्वानि भुवनानि तस्थुः ॥३०॥

Tamid garbhaṁ prathamaṁ dadhra'āpo yatra devāḥ samagacchanta viśve. Ajasya nābhā-vadhyekamarpitaṁ yasmin viśvāni bhuvanāni tasthuḥ.

Therein surely the life-force bore that first seed of the universe wherein all the powers of nature and the visionary souls find their repose. He is the one sole lord seated at the centre of the mother force, Prakriti, and he is the lord presiding over existence, wherein reside all the worlds of the universe.

31. (Vishvakarma Devata, Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

न तं विदाथ य ऽइमा जजानान्यद्युष्माकमन्तरं बभूव ।
नीहारेण प्रावृता जल्प्या चासुतृपऽउक्थशासश्चरन्ति ॥३१॥

Na taṁ vidātha ya'imā jajānānyadyuṣmākam-antaraṁ babhūva. Nīhāreṇa prāvṛtā jalpyā cāsutṛpa'ukthaśāsaścaranti.

You don't know Him who has created all these worlds. He is different and distant from you all, and yet within you all. People sunk in darkness roam around quoting scripture but serving their own selfish ends with empty words void of vision.

32. (Vishvakarma Devata, Bhuvanputro Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

विश्वकर्मा ह्यजनिष्ट देवऽआदिद् गन्धर्वोऽअभवद् द्वितीयः।

Viśvakarmā hyajaniṣṭa deva'ādidgandharvo' abhavad dvitīyaḥ. Tṛtīyaḥ pitā janit-auṣadhīnāmapāṁ garbhaṁ vyadadhāt purutrā.

Lord Vishvakarma, creator of the world, self-effulgent lord of light and life, first manifested in existence. Then after that was born the sun which holds the earth. The third was the cloud which, in its womb, holds the waters, offspring of the sky and the winds, vital air, and generates and sustains the herbs and trees in many ways.

33. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

आ॒शुः शिशा॑नो वृष॒भो न भी॒मो घ॑नाघ॒नः क्षोभ॑णश्चर्षणी॒-नाम् । सं॒क्र॒न्द॑नोऽनिमि॒षऽए॑कवी॒रः श॒तꣳसेना॑ऽअजयत्सा॒क-मिन्द्रः॑ ॥३३॥

He alone is Indra, worthy to be commander of the army, who is swift and instant in action and wields blazing deadly weapons in readiness, who roars with strength like a bull and strikes fear, terror and panic in the enemy force, who is constantly watchful and a fearless challenger, who is a matchless hero, rallies the force at the call and with us comes out victorious over a hundred armies of the enemy.

34. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Sa'iṣuhastaiḥ sa niṣaṅgibhirvaśī saṁsraṣṭā sa yudha'indro gaṇena. Saṁsṛṣṭajit somapā bāhuśardhyugradhanvā pratihitābhirastā.

That warrior, router of the enemy, Indra, self-controlled, lover of exhilarating soma and defender of peace, creator and commander of the army, strong of arm, wielder of mighty weapons and awful marksman, supported by his well-selected and well-deployed army highly equipped with arms and armaments, defeats the collective forces of the enemies.

36. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Bṛhaspate pari dīyā rathena rakṣohā 'mitrāṁ' apabādhamānaḥ. Prabhañjantsenāḥ pramṛṇo yudhā jayannasmākamedhyavitā rathānām.

Brihaspati, commander of the mighty army, destroyer of the wicked, repulsing the enemy, routing his force and causing havoc all round by your chariot, you come out victorious over the violent and the evil in the battle. Be the protector and defender of our chariots and the wheels of the nation's economy.

37. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

बलविज्ञायः स्थविरः प्रवीरः सहस्वान् वाजी सहमानऽउग्रः। अभिवीरोऽअभिसत्वा सहोजा जैत्रमिन्द्र रथमातिष्ठ गोवित् ॥३७॥

Balavijñāyaḥ sthaviraḥ pravīraḥ sahasvān vājī sahamana' ugraḥ. Abhivīro'abhisatvā sahojā jaitramindra rathamātiṣṭha govit.

Indra, expert of army management, veteran tactician, admirable soldier, steadfast and resolute fighter, man of patience and endurance, mighty and victorious, fast and terrible, hero of heroes, admiration of the great and intelligent, lustrous and powerful, honoured by the victorious, master of effective communication and reconnaissance of territory, take to your chariot and ride across the earth, over the seas and into the skies.

38. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

गोत्रभिदं गोविदं वज्रबाहुं जयन्तमज्म प्रमृणन्तमोजसा । इमꣳसजाताऽअनु वीरयध्वमिन्द्रꣳसखायोऽअनु सꣳरभध्वम् ॥३८॥

Gotrabhidaṁ govidaṁ vajrabāhuṁ jayantamajma pramṛṇantamojasā. Imaṁ sajātā'anu vīrayadhvamindraṁ sakhāyo'anu saṁ rabhadhvam.

Friends, countrymen, children of mother earth, with all your might and main, follow this Indra, commander of the army, hand in hand. Join him in battle and display your valour and heroism with him who is a master of tactical code of signals and reconnaissance of enemy territory, wields the thunderbolt in hand, breaks through the enemy lines, routs the forces, destroys the enemy and wins the battle.

39. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Abhi gotrāṇi sahasā gāhamāno'dayo vīraḥ śatamanyurindraḥ. Duścyavanaḥ pṛtanāṣāḍ-ayudhyo'smākaṁ senā avatu pra yutsu.

Indra, valiant commander, relentless warrior of a hundred fold righteous ardour, penetrating deep into enemy defences with his strength of armour, irresistible, invincible, victor of enemy forces, may direct and defend our army and lead it to victory.

40. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

इन्द्रोऽआसां नेता बृहस्पतिर्दक्षिणा यज्ञः पुरऽएतु सोमः। देवसेनानामभिभञ्जतीनां जयन्तीनां मरुतो यन्त्वग्रम् ॥४०॥

Indra'āsāṁ netā bṛhaspatirdakṣiṇā yajñaḥ pura' etu somaḥ. Devasenānāmabhibhañjatīnāṁ jayantīnāṁ maruto yantvagram.

The commander of those noble and enlightened armies which break down and conquer the forces of evil in life is Indra, a man of power and grandeur; he is Brihaspati, a man of grandeur, knowledge and magnanimity; he is Soma, the man of magnanimity, peace and joy; he is the candid expert on the right side of the nation; he is the clarion call for unity and progress, and he is the first among all to take the lead in advance in a crisis. At his call the Maruts, commandos of the first order, must storm the citadel of the enemy.

41. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

इन्द्रस्य वृष्णो वरुणस्य राज्ञऽआदित्यानाँ मरुताꣳशर्द्धऽउग्रम् । महामनसां भुवनच्यवानां घोषो देवानां जयतामुदस्थात् ॥४१॥

Indrasya Vṛṣṇo varuṇasya rājña' ādityānāṁ marutāṁ śarddha ugram. Mahāmanasāṁ bhuvanacyavānāṁ ghoṣo devānāṁ jayatāmudasthāt.

The battle cry of the bold and fierce army consisting of brilliant, stormy, magnanimous, noble and victorious soldiers of the powerful, virile and celebrated ruler should rise high to the sky shaking the enemy with fright.

42. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

उद्धर्षय मघवन्नायुधान्युत्सत्वनां मामकानां मनाꣳसि । उद् वृत्रहन्वाजिनां वाजिनान्युद्रथानां जयतां यन्तु घोषाः ॥४२॥

Uddharṣaya maghavannāyudhānyutsatvanāṁ māmakānāṁ manāṁsi. Udvṛtrahan vājināṁ vājinānyudrathānāṁ jayatāṁ yantu ghoṣāḥ.

Lord of power and glory, destroyer of the darkest enemy clouds, refine and sharpen the arms and armaments of our forces, boost the morale of our soldiers, accelerate the speed and raise the fire power of our horses and rockets, and let the roar of our victorious tanks and chariots rise to the skies and rend the clouds.

43. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

अस्माकमिन्द्रः समृतेषु ध्वजेष्वस्माकं याऽइषवस्ता जयन्तु। अस्माकं वीराऽउत्तरे भवन्त्वस्माँ२॥ऽउ देवाऽअवता हवेषु ॥४३॥

Asmākamindraḥ samṛteṣu dhvajeṣvasmākaṁ yā' isavastā jayantu. Asmākaṁ vīrā' uttare' bhavantvasmāň u devā 'avatā haveṣu.

When the flags fly high and the battle rages, may our leader and commander, Indra, and our arms and arrows be victorious. May our valiant warriors win and live happy ever after. May the noble scholars and sages and the warriors and tacticians protect us through the challenges and battles of life and life's values.

44. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Amīṣāṁ cittaṁ pratilobhayantī gṛhāṇāṅgā-nyapve parehi. Abhi prehi nirdaha hṛtsu śokairandhenāmitrāstamasā sacantām.

Valiant women's corps, dazzling and bewildering the mind of those enemies, engage their troops in action and overthrow them far. Advancing deep into their ranks, burn them at heart and afflict them so that they may regret and lie low covered with darkness and sorrow.

45. (Ishu Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

अवसृष्टा परापत शरव्ये ब्रह्मसंशिते ।
गच्छामित्रान् प्रपद्यस्व मामीषां कञ्चनोच्छिषः॥४५॥

Avasṛṣṭā parā pata śaravye brahmasaṁśite. Gacchāmitrān pra padyasva mā'mīṣāṁ kaňcanocciṣaḥ.

Valiant women's corps, trained by the military experts of the Vedas, commanded and exhorted by the leader, shooting like an arrow, go far and fall upon the enemies. Go deep and take them all, do not spare any one of them.

46. (Yoddha Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

प्रेता॒ जय॑ता नर॒ऽइन्द्रो॑ व॒: शर्म॑ यच्छतु ।

Pretā jayatā nara'indro vaḥ śarma yacchatu.
Ugrā vaḥ santu bāhavo' nādhṛṣyā yathā'satha.

Valiant warriors, go, advance and win. May Indra grant you victory and joy. May your arms be strong and bold so that no one may be able to challenge you and you remain free and invincible.

47. (Marutah Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

अ॒सौ या सेना॑ मरुत॒: परे॑षाम॒भ्यै॑ति न॒ऽओज॑सा॒ स्पर्द्ध॑माना।

Asau yā senā marutaḥ pareṣāmabhyaiti na'ojasā spardhamānā. Tāṁ gūhata tamasā'pavratena yathā'mī'anyo'anyanna jānan.

Warriors, intelligent, bold and fierce, yonder is that army of the others, rivals, which marches upon us out of jealousy to surround and overcome us with all their might. Cover that with repellent smoke in utter darkness so that they may fail even to perceive each other.

48. (Indra Brihaspati, etc., Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

यत्र॑ बा॒णाः स॒म्पत॑न्ति कु॒मा॒रा वि॒॑शि॒खाऽइ॑व । तत्र॒ऽइन्द्रो॒ बृह॒स्पति॒रदि॒॑ति॒: शर्म॑ यच्छतु वि॒श्वाहा॒ शर्म॑ यच्छतु ॥४८॥

Yatra bāṇāḥ sampatanti kumārā viśikhā'iva. Tanna'indro bṛhaspatiraditiḥ śarma yacchatu viśvāhā śarma yacchatu.

Where the arrows strike all round and young soldiers fall like children shorn of hair at play, there Indra, lord of power and glory, and Brihaspati, lord of this great world, and the Great Council of Mother Earth itself may grant us peace. May they grant us peace and well-being for all time.

49. (Soma Varuna Devah Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

मर्मा॑णि ते॒ वर्म॑णा छादया॒मि॒ सोम॑स्त्वा॒ राजा॒मृते॒नानु॑-वस्ताम् । उ॒रोर्व॑रीयो॒ वरु॑णस्ते कृणोतु॒ जय॑न्तं॒ त्वानु॑ दे॒वा म॑दन्तु ॥४९॥

Marmāṇi te varmanā chādayāmi somastvā rājā'-mṛtenānuvastām. Urorvarīyo varuṇaste kṛṇotu jayantaṁ tvā'nu devā madantu.

Noble warrior, victorious hero, I cover your vital limbs with a protective armour. May Soma, lord of health and well-being, ruler of all, wrap you round in happiness and immortality. May Varuna, lord supreme, grant you honour greater than greatness itself. May all the noble powers of the earth bless you with joy, victorious one.

50. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

उदे॑नमुत्त॒रां न॒याग्ने॑ घृ॒तेनाहुत ।

Udenamuttarāṁ nayāgne ghṛtenāhuta. Rāya-spoṣeṇa saṁ sṛja prajayā ca bahuṁ kṛdhi.

Agni, lord of life and progress, invoked and worshipped with libations of ghee and fragrant materials, take this yajamana, ruler, victor, to higher and higher states of honour and glory. Bless him with the wealth of life and good health. Let him rise and grow with a good family and noble children.

51. (Indra Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

इन्द्रेमं प्रतरां नय सजातानामसद्वशी ।

Indremaṁ pratarāṁ naya sajātānāmasadvaśī.
Samenaṁ varcasā sṛja devānāṁ bhāgadā'asat.

Indra, lord of power and glory, take this warrior victor to that high state of ethics and policy whereby he may rise to organise, control and rule over his fellow citizens, children of the mother land. Bless him with the light and lustre of life and learning so that he is able to do his duty to the noble people, powers of nature and God.

52. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

यस्य कुर्मो गृहे हविस्तमग्ने वर्द्धया त्वम् ।
तस्मै देवाऽअधि ब्रुवन्नयं च ब्रह्मणस्पतिः॥५२॥

Yasya kurmo gṛhe havistamagne vardhayā tvam.
Tasmai devā'adhi bruvannayaṁ ca brahmaṇaspatiḥ.

Agni, lord of light and learning, lead the man in whose home we perform the yajna to the high road of progress and prosperity. Let the noblest people speak high of him and to him. And so may this scholar of the Vedas speak to him and about him.

53. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

उदु॑ त्वा॒ विश्वे॑ दे॒वाऽअग्ने॒ भर॑न्तु चित्तिभिः।

Udu tvā viśve devā'agne bharantu cittibhiḥ. Sa no bhava śivastvaṁ supratīko vibhāvasuḥ.

Agni, lord of power and glory, may all the noble people of the land with their heart and soul accept, approve, support and raise you to the heights. And you too, so high and noble, a very image of nobility and magnanimity, be good and kind to us.

54. (Disha directions Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

पञ्च॒ दिशो॒ दैवी॑र्य॒ज्ञम॑वन्तु दे॒वीरपा॑मतिं दुर्म॒तिं बा॑धमानाः।

Pañca diśo daivīryajñamavantu devīrapāmatiṁ durmatiṁ bādhamānāḥ. Rayaspoṣe yajñapatimābhajantī rāyaspoṣe'adhi yajño'asthāt.

May all the five directions of space replete with the celestial generosity of nature protect and promote yajna. May the intelligent and pious women, brahmacharinis and wives of saints and scholars, preventing and dispelling ignorance and evil genius, supporting and serving the yajnapati in the growth of health and wealth, protect and promote yajna in the household.

May the yajna and the household be established in good health, wealth and progress in well-being.

55. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

समिद्धेऽअग्नावधि मामहानऽउक्थपत्रऽईड्यो गृभीतः।

Samiddhe'agnāvadhi māmahāna'ukthapatra' īḍyo gṛbhītaḥ. Taptaṁ gharmaṁ parigṛhyāy-ajantorjā yadyajñamayajanta devāḥ.

That yajna, adorable, praiseworthy, flying high on the wings of Vaidic verses, accepted and honoured of yore, which the ancient sages performed with libations of boiled ghee into the flaming fire, that same yajna, noble people, you also accept and perform with the same devotion and enthusiasm.

56. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

दैव्याय धर्त्रे जोष्ट्रे देवश्रीः श्रीमनाः शतपयाः । परिगृह्य देवा यज्ञमायन् देवा देवेभ्योऽअध्वर्यन्तोऽअस्थुः ॥५६॥

Daivyāya dhartre joṣṭre devaśrīḥ śrīmanāḥ śatapayāḥ. Parigṛhya devā yajñamāyan devā devebhyo'adhvaryanto'asthuḥ.

Noble people sit with the noble people round the fire, performing yajna for the noble people in honour of the divine powers.

Let the noble people take to the noble yajamana, a man endowed with wealth of virtue, generosity of heart and plenty of sumptuous food and drink, and let them perform the yajna in honour of the heavenly lord, sustainer of the world and loving father of his children.

57. (Yajna Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Vītaṁ haviḥ śamitaṁ śamitā yajadhyai tūrīyo yajño yatra havyameti. Tato vākā'āśiṣo no juṣantām.

The dynamic and blissful libations of fragrant materials, offered by the peace-loving yajamana into the yajna fire for the highest yajna of the fourth (turiya) order where the libations ultimately reach, from there the Vaidic voices and the blessings of yajna come and reach us.

58. (Agni Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Savita, lord creator, clothed in sun-rays, radiating the golden-green emanations (waves) of light is the light that arose at the dawn of creation. Lord omniscient, protector and sustainer, He goes on and on watching the worlds of existence.

In His creation, the man of science too goes on watching and watching, collecting the endless light of knowledge about the worlds of the universe.

59. (Aditya Devata, Vishvavasu Ṛshi)

Vimāna'eṣa divo madhya'āsta'āpaprivān rodasī' antarikṣam. Sa viśvācīrabhicaṣṭe ghṛtācīrantarā pūrvamaparaṁ ca ketum.

This sun, traversing like a divine car, remains in the midst of the regions of light and illuminates the heaven, the earth and the sky. It is the sustainer of the world, source treasure of waters, and watches and illuminates before, after and in-between (past, present and future).

60. (Aditya Devata, Apratiratha Ṛshi)

Ukṣā samudro'aruṇaḥ suparṇaḥ pūrvasya yoniṁ piturā viveśa. Madhye divo nihitaḥ pṛśniraśmā vi cakrame rajasaspātyantau.

The sun, seminal fertilizer of life, ocean of spatial waters, scarlet red at dawn, lord of manifold splendour, illuminator of the firmament, sustained in the midst of heaven, travels in space sustaining and binding the ends of the spheres and moving towards the womb of its original mother, eternal energy, from whence it came into being.

61. (Indra Devata, Madhuchhanda Sutajeta Ṛshi)

Indraṁ viśvā'avīvṛdhantsamudravyacasaṁ giraḥ. Rathītamaṁ rathīnāṁ vājānāṁ satpatiṁ patim.

Wider than oceans of space, supreme over the commanding and blissful powers of existence, lord sustainer of the universal energies and nourishments, lord ordainer of the truth and reality of the world and Himself the supreme reality, all the voices of nature, humanity and divinity celebrate the only one omnipotent sovereign power, Indra.

62. (Yajna Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Devahūryajña'ā ca vakṣat sumnahūryajña'ā ca vakṣat. Yakṣadagnirdevo devāň'ā ca vakṣat.

Yajna is the divine power which calls forth the noblest powers and people to the congregation. May it raise the voice of truth and give us the divine message and save us from untruth. Yajna stimulates life with pleasure and well-being. May it inspire us with pleasure and well-being. The fire of yajna and the lord of light feeds the powers of nature. May it augment and enrich the treasures of the environment and bless us with the same divine gifts.

63. (Indra Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Vājasya mā prasava'udgrābheṇodagrabhīt. Adhā sapatnānindro me nigrābheṇādharāň' akaḥ.

May Indra, lord creator of nourishment and energy and giver of knowledge, elevate me to the heights of virtue with inspiration and ambition. And may he, for me, devalue the negative forces of jealousy and enmity with depression to the lowest depths towards elimination.

64. (Indragni Devate, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Udgrābhaṁ ca nigrābhaṁ ca brahma devā' avīvṛdhan. Adhā sapatnānindrāgnī me viṣūcīnān vyasyatām.

May the powers of life strengthen and expand our capacity to rise high, and our capability to resist depression toward the fall. And may Indra, divine power, and Agni, divine light, throw out far off our dispersive tendencies and our jealousies and enmities.

65. (Agni Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Kramadhvamagninā nākamukhyaṁ hasteṣu bibhrataḥ. Divaspṛṣṭhaṁ svargatvā miśrā devebhirādhvam.

By virtue of Agni, lord of knowledge, light and energy, act and rise to the heights of joy, holding the gifts of yajna in your hands. In the company of the noblest people, favoured by the generous powers of nature, reach the heavens of bliss and establish yourselves in the regions of light.

66. (Agni Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Prācīmanu pradiśaṁ prehi vidvānagneragne puro' agnirbhaveha. Viśva'āśā dīdyāno vi bhāhyūrjaṁ no dhehi dvipade catuṣpade.

Agni, man of knowledge and power, go ahead and move eastward to the rising sun. In front of Agni, lord of light and power, be agni yourself, a brilliant man of the front rank here and now. Shine, and around yourself illuminate the environment and create food and energy for our fellow humans and our animals.

67. (Agni Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Pṛthivyā'ahamudantarikṣamāruham antarikṣāddivamāruham. Divo nākasya pṛṣṭhāt svarjyotiragāmaham.

(With the knowledge of science and the discipline of yoga) I rise from the earth to the skies. From the skies, I rise to the regions of light, the sun. From the regions of the sun, lord of life and joy, I rise to the heavens, the regions of eternal bliss and light divine.

68. (Agni Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Those virtuous men of knowledge who perform yajna and expand it, yajna which sustains the whole world, they expect nothing of the material world and, through yoga, rise above the earth and heaven and ascend to the regions of bliss and light divine.

69. (Agni Devata, Vidhriti Ṛshi)

Agni, man of knowledge and yajna, you are the first among men on way to godliness. You are the eye for the average humans as you have the vision of the men of divinity.

May the people of faith and love full of devotion dedicated to yajna and performing yajna with men of knowledge and vision of divinity enjoy peace and happiness and ascend to the heaven of bliss and life divine.

Naktoṣāsā samanasā virūpe dhāpayete śiśumekaṁ samīcī. Dyāvākṣāmā rukmo' antarvibhāti devā'agniṁ dhārayan draviṇodāḥ.

Just as the mother and the nurse, different of character and status but of equal mind and common purpose, nurse one baby, so do the night and dawn, different in form as darkness and light but harmonious and equal of purpose, nurse one new born, the sun, Agni. The brilliant sun blazes between the earth and heaven as the source of light and symbol of cosmic yajna. Dedicated people who offer libations of holy materials sustain the yajna fire in honour of cosmic Agni for light and nourishment.

71. (Agni Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

अग्ने सहस्राक्ष शतमूर्द्धञ्छतं ते प्राणाः सहस्रं व्यानाः । त्वꣳसाहस्रस्य रायऽईꣳशिषे तस्मै ते विधेम वाजाय स्वाहा ॥७१॥

Agne sahasrākṣa śatamūrdhañchataṁ te prāṇāḥ sahasraṁ vyānāḥ. Tvaṁ sāhasrasya rāya īśiṣe tasmai te vidhema vājāya svāhā.

Agni, lord of a thousand eyes and hundred heads, hundred fold are your pranic energies of life, thousand-fold are your energies of action and volition in living beings and in nature. Thousand-fold is the wealth of the world you create and govern. To this generous lord of life and energy we offer our homage with libations into the fire with total dedication, without reservation.

72. (Agni Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

सुपर्णोऽसि गरुत्मान् पृष्ठे पृथिव्याः सीद । भासान्तरिक्षमापृण ज्योतिषा दिवमुत्तभान तेजसा दिशऽउद्दृꣳह ॥७२॥

Suparṇo'si garutmān pṛṣṭhe pṛthivyāḥ sīda. Bhāsā'ntarikṣamā pṛṇa jyotiṣā divamuttabhāna tejasā diśa'uddṛṁha.

Agni, lord of light and life, magnanimous of nature, settle on the face of the earth and bless it with life. Fill the sky with light. Illuminate the heaven with light and glory. Enrich the directions of space with life and splendour.

73. (Agni Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

आ॒जुह्वा॑नः सु॒प्रती॑कः पु॒रस्ता॒दग्ने॒ स्वं योनि॒मासीद साधु॒या। अ॒स्मिन्त्स॒धस्थे॒ऽअध्युत्त॑रस्मि॒न् विश्वे॑ देवा॒ यज॑मानश्च सीदत ॥७३॥

Ājuhvānaḥ supratīkaḥ purastādagne svaṁ yonimāsīda sādhuyā. Asmintsadhasthe' adhyuttarasmin viśve devā yajamānaśca sīdata.

Agni, lord of light and life, invoked and invited in yajna, splendid and gracious in form, come and settle in your own seat in front, in the east. The yajamana and all the noble souls may sit and grace this home now as well as later. May Agni shower divine grace upon us, the yajamana, and all the noble souls in this life and hereafter.

74. (Savita Devata, Kanva Ṛshi)

ताꣳस॑वि॒तुर्वरे॑ण्यस्य चि॒त्रामाहं वृ॑णे सु॒म॒तिं वि॒श्वज॑न्याम्। यामस्य॒ कण्वो॒ अदु॑हत्प्रपी॒नाꣳस॒हस्र॑धारां॒ पय॑सा म॒हीं गाम् ॥७४॥

Tāṁ saviturvareṇyasya citrāmā'haṁ vṛṇe sumatiṁ viśvajanyām. Yāmasya kaṇvo aduhat-prapīnāṁ sahasradhārāṁ payasā mahīṁ gām.

I dedicate myself to this chosen Lord Savita's rich, generous and wonderful divine intelligence which gives a thousand showers of universal knowledge and which the man of vision distils from the mother knowledge of the Vedas just like milk from the great mother cow.

75. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

वि॒धेम॑ ते पर॒मे जन्म॑न्नग्ने वि॒धेम॒ स्तोमै॒रव॑रे स॒धस्थे॑ ।
यस्मा॒द्योनेरु॒दारि॑था॒ यजे॒ तं प्र त्वे ह॒वीꣳषि॑ जुहुरे॒ समि॑द्धे ॥७५॥

Vidhema te parame janmannagne vidhema stomairavare sadhasthe. Yasmādyonerudārithā yaje taṁ pra tve havīṅṣi juhure samiddhe.

Agni, supreme of manifestation in the highest region of existence, we honour and worship you. In this world, in this home, this side of that supreme region we celebrate and worship you. The place you emerge from, and the state whence you arise, we sanctify and love to join. And when you are ablaze in flames of glory, we offer fragrant libations in honour and homage to you.

76. (Agni Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

प्रेद्धो॑ऽअग्ने दीदिहि पु॒रो नो॑ऽजस्र॒या सू॒र्म्या॒ यविष्ठ ।
त्वाꣳश॑श्वन्त॒ऽउप॑यन्ति॒ वाजाः॑ ॥७६॥

Preddho agne dīdihi puro no' jasrayā sūrmyā yaviṣṭha. Tvāṁ śaśvanta'upayanti vājāḥ.

Agni, brilliant and most youthful power, arise in flames and blaze with incessant waves of light right in front of us. And may a perpetual line of worshipful devotees and a continuous flow of fragrant food come to you in homage.

77. (Agni Devata, Parameshthi Ṛshi)

अग्ने॒ तम॒द्याश्व॒न्न स्तोमै॒ः क्र॒तु॒न्न भ॒द्रꣳ हृ॑दि॒स्पृश॑म् ।
ऋ॒ध्यामा॑ त॒ऽओहै॒ः ॥७७॥

Agne tamadyāśvanna stomaiḥ kratunna bhadraṁ hṛdispṛśam. Ṛdhyāmā ta'ohaiḥ.

Agni, like a beautiful horse, like a darling ambition nursed in the heart, like a blissful yajna sustained with holy chants, we celebrate you in the fire and perpetuate you with homage, and we pray we too may advance in life and virtue.

78. (Vishvakarma Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

चित्तिं जुहोमि मनसा घृतेन यथा देवाऽइहागमन्वीति-होत्राऽऋतावृधः। पत्ये विश्वस्य भूमनो जुहोमि विश्वकर्मणे विश्वाहादाभ्यꣳहविः ॥७८॥

Cittiṁ juhomi manasā ghṛtena yathā devā' ihāgaman vītihotrā'ṛtāvṛdhaḥ. Patye viśvasya bhūmano juhomi viśvakarmaṇe viśvāhā' dābhyaṁ haviḥ.

With concentrated mind and thought I offer homage to Agni with libations in the fire, so that the noblest people, lovers of yajna and promoters of truth, come here (and join in homage for advancement. And in company) every day I offer sacred and intrepidable libations of havi to Vishvakarma, lord maker and sustainer of the great good universe.

79. (Agni Devata, Saptarshi Rshis)

सप्त तेऽअग्ने समिधः सप्त जिह्वाः सप्तऽऋषयः सप्त धाम प्रियाणि । सप्त होत्राः सप्तधा त्वा यजन्ति सप्त योनीरापृणस्व घृतेन स्वाहा ॥७९॥

Sapta te'agne samidhaḥ sapta jihvāḥ sapta' ṛṣayaḥ sapta dhāma priyāṇi. Sapta hotrāḥ saptadhā tvā yajanti sapta yonīrā pṛṇasva ghṛtena svāhā.

Agni, seven are the samidhas (sticks of sacred fuel) whereby you rise and shine. Seven are your tongues of flame whereby you devour the food. Seven are the Rishis, visionaries of knowledge and piety who invoke you for homage. Seven are your darling places, contexts, wherein you love to shine and play. Seven are the priests who seven-ways do homage and seven-fold extend your blessings. Seven are the places, vedis, where from you manifest and grow. Fill all these places with ghee and your blessings, grow and prosper and let us too grow and prosper. This is the divine voice.

80. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshis Rshis)

शुक्रज्यौतिश्च चित्रज्यौतिश्च सत्यज्यौतिश्च ज्योतिष्माँश्च । शुक्रश्चऽऋतपाश्चात्यꣳहाः ॥८०॥

Śukrajyotiśca citrajyotiśca satyajyotiśca jyotiṣmāṅśca. Śukraśca'ṛtapāścātyaṁhāḥ.

Lord of pure light, and lord of wondrous light, and lord of the light of truth, and lord of light and the lord light itself, lord pure and immaculate, and the lord protector of truth, the Law and the cosmic yajna of existence and the lord sinless of infinite virtue is He.

(May the Maruts, heroes of the speed of lightning, grace our yajna).

81. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshi Rshis)

ईदृङ् चान्यादृङ् च सदृङ् च प्रतिसदृङ् च । मितश्च सम्मितश्च सभराः ॥८१॥

Īdṛṅ cānyādṛṅ ca sadṛṅ ca pratisadṛṅ ca. Mitaśca sammitaśca sabharāḥ.

Men of single vision, men of others' (objective) vision, men of comprehensive vision, men of discreet vision, men of measure, men measured around by all, and men who support and sustain all — they are the men, they are the Maruts who succeed at top speed.

82. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshis Rshis)

ऋ॒तश्च॑ स॒त्यश्च॑ ध्रु॒वश्च॑ ध॒रुण॑श्च ।
ध॒र्त्ता च॑ विध॒र्त्ता च॑ विधार॒यः॥८२॥

Ṛtaśca satyaśca dhruvaśca dharuṇaśca. Dhartā ca vidhartā ca vidhārayaḥ.

The man of the knowledge of truth and law, the man of reality dedicated to truth, the man stable and steadfast, the man support-column of the stable and steadfast, the man who bears and forbears, the man who bears and forbears the variety of reality, and the man of versatility who faces all and bears all in a variety of ways — this man is one of the Maruts who move at top speed.

83. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshi Rshis)

ऋ॒त॒जिच्च॑ सत्य॒जिच्च॑ सेन॒जिच्च॑ सु॒षेण॑श्च ।
अन्ति॑मित्रश्च दू॒रेऽअ॑मित्रश्च ग॒णः॥८३॥

Ṛtajicca satyajicca senajicca suṣeṇaśca. Antimitraśca dūre'amitraśca gaṇaḥ.

The man master of the Law and reality, master of the truth of reality, master of his forces, the man with close friends around and the man whose enemies are few and far — this is the man, one of the Maruts, who wins at top speed, with his comrades.

84. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshis Rshis)

ईदृक्षासऽएतादृक्षासऽऊ षु णः सदृक्षासः प्रतिसदृक्षासऽएतन । मितासश्च सम्मितासो नोऽअद्य सभरसो मरुतो यज्ञेऽअस्मिन् ॥८४॥

Idṛkṣāsa'etādṛkṣāsa'ū ṣu ṇaḥ sadṛkṣāsaḥ pratisadṛkṣāsa'etana. Mitāsaśca sammitāso no'adya sabharaso maruto yajñe'asmin.

Men of this character and vision, men of similar character and vision, men of comprehensive character and vision, men of equal character and vision for everyone, men of balanced mind and men of definiteness and ascertainment in all matters — these are the Maruts among humanity who may, to-day, come and join this yajna of ours.

85. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshi Rshis)

स्वतवाँश्च प्रघासी च सान्तपनश्च गृहमेधी च । क्रीडी च शाकी चौज्जेषी ॥८५॥

Svatavāṅśca praghāsī ca sāntapanaśca gṛhamedhī ca. Krīḍī ca śākī cojjeṣī.

The man inherently valiant and firmly rooted, who maintains good health with nourishments, who endures and gives a hot pursuit to the enemy, who is dedicated to the home, who loves sports, is powerful, and who is ambitious to win, such a man is Marut, a live wire. May the Maruts join our yajna.

86. (Maruts Devata, Saptarshis Rshis)

इन्द्रं दैवीर्विशो मरुतोऽनुवर्त्मानोऽभवन्यथेन्द्रं दैवीर्विशो मरुतोऽनुवर्त्मानोऽभवन् । एवमिमं यजमानं दैवीश्च विशो मानुषीश्चानुवर्त्मानो भवन्तु ॥८६॥

Indraṁ daivīrviśo maruto'nuvartmāno'bhavan yathendraṁ daivīrviśo maruto'nuvartmāno'-bhavan. Evamimaṁ yajamānaṁ daivīśca viśo mānuṣīścānuvartmāno bhavantu.

The noble scholars of virtue and wisdom, the distinguished citizens and the smartest warriors should follow Indra, in the manner in which all noble scholars, noble citizens and smart warriors ought to follow Indra, the ruler of the land.

All the noble scholars, noble citizens and the smartest warriors should follow Indra, the ruler of the universe.

Similarly all the noble scholars, distinguished citizens and the average people should follow this yajamana.

(The ruler too should act and behave in a noble manner so that all the noble scholars, distinguished citizens and the average people follow him spontaneously and faithfully.)

87. (Agni Devata, Saptarshis Rshis)

इमꣳस्तनमूर्जस्वन्तं धयापां प्रपीनमग्ने सरिरस्य मध्ये ।
उत्सं जुषस्व मधुमन्तमर्वन्त्समुद्रियꣳसदनमाविशस्व ॥८७॥

Imaṁ stanamūrjasvantaṁ dhayāpāṁ prapīna-magne sarirasya madhye. Utsaṁ juṣasva madhumantamarvantsamudriyaṁ sadanamā-viśasva.

Agni, lord of light and power, in the midst of this world, drink of this nature's motherly breast of energy replete with the nectar of life. Foremost among the fastest heroes, drink deep at this fountain head of honey-sweets. Enter this oceanic house of yajna, (expand and go round the world).

88. (Agni Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

घृतं मिमिक्षे घृतमस्य योनिर्घृते श्रितो घृतम्वस्य धामं । अनुष्वधमावह मादयस्व स्वाहाकृतं वृषभ वक्षि हव्यम् ॥८८॥

Ghṛtaṁ mimikṣe ghṛtamasya yonirghṛte śrito ghṛtamvasya dhāma. Anuṣvadhamāvaha mādayasva svāhākṛtaṁ vṛṣabha vakṣi havyam.

I wish to mix and go deep into water/ghee for offering it into the fire. Fire arises from water/ghee, which is its birth-place. It is latent in water/ghee. Water/ghee is its place of rest. Prepare the materials for the libation and call up Agni. Generous power of rain shower, prepare the materials for the offering and make us all rejoice. (The indication is to prepare the waters and produce fire/energy from this rich source.)

89. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

समुद्रादूर्मिर्मधुमाँ२ ।ऽ उदारदुपाꣳशुना समममृतत्वमानट्। घृतस्य नाम गुह्यं यदस्ति जिह्वा देवानाममृतस्य नाभिः॥८९

Samudrādūrmirmadhumāň'udāradupāmśunā samamṛtatvamānat. Ghṛtasya nāma guhyaṁ yadasti jihvā devānāmamṛtasya nābhiḥ.

Honey waves of energy arise from the sea/vedi and, mixing with the rays of the sun, ascend to a state of divine vitality. These rising waves are tongues of the gods (divine powers of nature), and the central birth-place of nectar. These are the mystical names of the mysterious but still scientific powers of ghrta/the sea through the process of yajna.

90. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

व॒यं नाम॒ प्र ब्र॑वामा घृ॒तस्या॒स्मिन् य॒ज्ञे धा॑रयामा॒ नमो॑भिः ।
उप॑ ब्र॒ह्मा शृ॑णवच्छ॒स्यमा॑नं॒ चतुः॑शृङ्गोऽवमीद् गौ॒रऽ-
एत॑त् ॥९०॥

Vayaṁ nāma pra bravāmā ghṛtasyāsmin yajñe dhārayāmā namobhiḥ. Upa brahmā śṛṇavacchasyamānaṁ catuḥsṛṅgo'vamīd gaura'etat.

In this yajna we chant and meditate upon the mystical name of 'yajna', of ghee, waters and the spirit of fertility, and with all reverence, salutations, faith and holy offerings, observe, perform and internalize yajna as name and as the creative act that it is. May Brahma, the presiding priest, man of the Vedas and generous teacher, hear the celebrated name and expound its meaning and value to others.

91. (Yajna Purusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

च॒त्वारि॒ शृङ्गा॒ त्रयो॑ऽअस्य॒ पादा॒ द्वे शी॒र्षे स॒प्त हस्ता॑सोऽअस्य।
त्रिधा॑ ब॒द्धो वृ॑ष॒भो रो॑रवीति म॒हो दे॒वो मर्त्याँ॑२॥ऽ आवि॑वेश॥९१॥

Catvāri śṛṅgā trayo'asya pādā dve śirṣe sapta hastāso'asya. Tridhā baddho vṛṣabho roravīti maho devo martyāṅ'ā viveśa.

(i). Yajna is a purusha, a living person, a metaphor. Just as a person is a living human being, and he/she has a name which is identical with the person, so is yajna, a living act and a name, and the name-word is identical with the act. (1) This person, the living act of yajna, has four heads, the four Vedas. It has three legs/sessions: morning, mid-day and evening. It has two heads, the prayaniya ceremony (inauguration), and the udayaniya ceremony (valediction or conclusion). It has seven arms in the form of seven chhandas, gayatri and other metres. It is tied three-ways, structured in three parts: Mantra, the original vedic texts, Brahmana, expositions containing rules and explanations, and kalpa, rules of ritual performance. It is Vrishabha, that which showers joy and prosperity. It roars with the voice of the Vedas. It is great, it is brilliant and divine, and it is seated in the deepest layers of the human mind.

(ii). Now the name 'Yajna', the word in language: It has four heads: Nama, nouns or substantives, Akhyata, the roots and verbs, Upasarga, the affixes, and Nipata, particles, indeclinables and irregulars. It has three legs: past, present and future tenses. It has two heads: the eternal Word and the structured words of language in use, and the word and its meaning (signification). It has seven arms: the seven cases and case endings or case forms. It is tied three ways: in the mind/intellect, in the chest, and in the throat/mouth. It is a Vrishabha, it showers the thoughts and emotions in communication, and it roars through the medium of sound. It is great, it is rich and brilliant and it is seated in the deepest layers of the human mind.

(This mantra gives a comprehensive abstract of the linguistic structure of any language, and on the basis of this abstract a universal grammar of human language, any form of it, can be written.)

92. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

त्रिधा हितं पणिभिर्गुह्यमानं गविं देवासो घृतमन्वविन्दन् । इन्द्रऽएकꣳसूर्य एकञ्जजान वेनादेकꣳस्वधया निष्टतक्षुः॥९२॥

Tridhā hitaṁ paṇibhirguhyamānaṁ gavi devāso ghṛtamanvavindan. Indra' ekaṁ sūrya' ekaṁ jajāna venādekaṁ svadhayā niṣṭatakṣuḥ.

The mystique of yajna/ghee/waters, three-way hidden and three-way studied in quietude by knowledgeable people, the visionaries sought and found it in the cow, the Veda and nature. One was found and revealed by Indra, specialist of electric energy, one by the specialist of solar energy, and one was received from the scholars of the Vedas and enacted with oblations by the devotees of yajna.

93. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

एताऽअर्षन्ति हृद्यात्समुद्राच्छतव्रजा रिपुणा नावचक्षे । घृतस्य धाराऽअभिचाकशीमि हिरण्ययो वेतसो मध्यऽआसाम् ॥९३॥

Etā'arṣanti hṛdyāt samudrācchatavrajā ripuṇā nāvacakṣe. Ghṛtasya dhārā'abhicākaśīmi hiraṇyayo vetaso madhya'āsām.

These waves of cosmic energy, these vibrations of the cosmic boom of the Word, issue from the oceanic depths of the Eternal Mind. In countless streams they flow all round, not even an enemy can deny them. And I, a soul wrapped in golden hue, stand in the midst of these waves like a reed and feel the power and the beatitude blowing through me.

94. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

सम्यक् स्रवन्ति सरितो न धेनाऽअन्तर्हृदा मनसा पूयमानाः। एतेऽअर्षन्त्यूर्मयो घृतस्य मृगाऽईव क्षिपणोरीषमाणाः ॥९४॥

Samyak sravanti sarito na dhenā'antarhṛdā manasā pūyamānāḥ. Ete'arṣantyūrmayo ghṛtasya mṛgā'iva kṣipaṇorīṣamāṇāḥ.

These waves of divine energy, vibrations of the divine voice issue forth from yajna and, purified by the mind in faith, flow serene and quiet like streams through the heart within, away from the fluctuations of the outer world, as deer fly away from the fear of a tiger/hunter.

95. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

सिन्धोरिव प्राध्वने शूघनाशो वातप्रमियः पतयन्ति यह्वाः। घृतस्य धाराऽअरुषो न वाजी काष्ठा भिन्दन्नूर्मिभिः पिन्वमानः॥९५॥

Sindhoriva prādhvane śūghanāśo vātapramiyaḥ patayanti yahvāḥ. Ghṛtasya dhārā'aruṣo na vājī kāṣṭhā bhindannūrmibhiḥ pinvamānaḥ.

The mighty streams of ghrita, waves of cosmic energy and vibrations of yajnic voice, issue forth (from the divine) and flow incessantly (into the universe) as the turbulent streams of a river blown upon by the wind hasten through their course and fall into the sea, or, as a fearless troop of horse breaking through the enemy defences goes forth to victory winning over the field with the speed of its motion in the heat of action.

96. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

अभिप्रवन्त समनेव योषाः कल्याण्यः स्मयमानासोऽ-अग्निम्। घृतस्य धाराः समिधो नसन्त ता जुषाणो हर्यति जातवेदाः॥९६॥

Abhi pravanta samaneva yoṣāḥ kalyāṇyaḥ smayamānāso'agnim. Ghṛtasya dhārāḥ samidho nasanta tā juṣāṇo haryati jātavedāḥ.

Just like young women of equal mind and pleasing, noble and generous, smiling in festive mood, the streams of ghrita (ghee) flow from all round and join Agni to feed the holy fuel. And Agni, pleased with the offering, blazes with heat and light.

So do the waves of energy and the vibrations of the divine voice of yajna meet the dedicated man who happily receives them and shines with the light of knowledge.

97. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

कन्या३ऽइव वहतुमेतवा३उ३ऽअज्ज्यञ्जानाऽअभिचाकशीमि । यत्र सोमः सूयते यत्र यज्ञो घृतस्य धारा३ऽअभि तत्पवन्ते ॥९७॥

Kanyā'iva vahatumetavā'u añjyañjānā'abhi cākaśīmi. Yatra somaḥ sūyate yatra yajño ghṛtasya dhārā'abhi tat pavante.

Just as a lovely maiden dressed in luxurious finery at her wedding goes to meet her groom, so do the streams of ghrita flow from all sides to meet Agni where yajna is performed and soma is generated for the light and energy of life.

I perceive the flow of light and energy and I feel blest.

98. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

अभ्यर्षत सुष्टुतिं गव्यमाजिमस्मासु भद्रा द्रविणानि धत्त । इमं यज्ञं नयत देवता नो घृतस्य धारा मधुमत्पवन्ते ॥९८॥

Abhyarṣata suṣṭutiṁ gavyamājimasmāsu bhadrā draviṇāni dhatta. Imaṁ yajñaṁ nayata devatā no ghṛtasya dhārā madhumat pavante.

Powers of Divinity, bless us with creditable praise, plenty of food and drink and knowledge, and victory in the battles of life. Bless us with auspicious and excellent wealths of the world. Carry this yajna of ours to a noble finale. Let the honey streams of ghrita flow to Agni in our homes.

99. (YajnaPurusha Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

धामंन्ते विश्वं भुवनमधि श्रितमन्तः समुद्रे हृद्यन्तरायुषि ।
अपामनीके समिथे यऽआभृतस्तमश्याम मधुमन्तं तऽ-
ऊर्मिम् ॥९९॥

Dhāmaṁ te viśvaṁ bhuvanamadhi śritamantaḥ samudre hṛdyantarāyuṣi. Apāmanīke samithe ya' ābhṛtastamaśyāma madhumantaṁ ta'ūrmim.

Yajna Purusha, Agni, Lord of the universe, in your domain, under your law and power rests the entire world of existence. In this domain, whatever is contained in the oceans of space, in the splendour of the skies, in the heart, in life, in yajna, to that we may attain. May we have the taste of the honey-sweets of that cosmic yajna, may we have the feel of that universal energy.

इति सप्तदशोऽध्यायः ॥

CHAPTER–XVIII

1. (Agni Devata, Devas Ṛshis)

वाजश्च मे प्रसवश्च मे प्रयतिश्च मे प्रसितिश्च मे धीतिश्च मे क्रतुश्च मे स्वरश्च मे श्लोकश्च मे श्रवश्च मे श्रुतिश्च मे ज्योतिश्च मे स्वश्च मे यज्ञेन कल्पन्ताम् ॥१॥

By yajna, by the Grace of God, by the blessings and goodwill of the community, and by virtue of my own discipline: my life and the breath of life, the outgoing air and systemic cleansing, the joints and suppleness of the body, my will to live and the spirit of joy, my mind and my memory, my resolution and meditation, my speech and listening, my thought and self-image, my eye and love of direct truth, my ear and search for confirmation, my expertise and my smartness, my strength and prowess, all these may grow, be favourable and auspicious for all, by yajna.

My vigour and my power, my victory and my moral courage, my soul and my potential, my body and health, my home and my family, my defence and my weapons, my limbs and their functions, my bones and my blood, my generation and my vitality, the bodies and health of my people, my life and longevity, my old age and self-dependence, all these may grow, be good and auspicious, for me and for all by yajna, observance of Dharma, law and joint and individual discipline.

By yajna, the process of addition and collection, may the numbers increase and be good and auspicious for me and for all: One is mine and unity is mine. (And one and one becomes two, and one plus two becomes three. In this way, in this progression) three is mine, and three is mine, and five is mine, and five is mine, and seven is mine, and seven is mine, and nine is mine, and nine is mine, and eleven is mine, and eleven is mine, and thirteen is mine, and thirteen is mine,‘ and fifteen is mine, and fifteen is mine, and seventeen is mine, and seventeen is mine, and nineteen is mine and nineteen is mine, and twenty one is mine, and twenty one is mine, and twenty three is mine, and twenty three is mine, and twenty five is mine, and twenty five is mine, and twenty seven is mine, and twenty seven is mine, and twenty nine is mine, and twenty nine is mine, and thirty one is mine, and thirty one is mine, and thirty three is mine, and so on the numbers may increase and be good and auspicious for me and for all by the process of yajna in progression till infinity.

Also: By implication, by the same process of yajna which also means 'dana', giving away, we have the progression in the reverse direction by subtraction. The meaning of the mantra then would be:

Thirty-three is mine, give away two and thirty one is mine, thirtyone is mine, minus two, twenty nine is mine and so on.

In the same way, by implication, we can work out the process of multiplication, and division and the process of squaring and cubing and square-root, etc. Further, we can move from arithmetic to algebra and other branches of mathematics.

25. (Samanka-ganitavidyavid atma Devata, Devas Ṛshis)

By yajna, the process of addition and collection, may the numbers increase and be good and auspicious for me and for all:

Four is mine, and four is mine, eight is mine. Eight is mine, and four, twelve is mine. Twelve is mine, plus four, sixteen is mine. Sixteen is mine, add four, and twenty is mine. Twenty is mine, and twenty four is mine. Twenty four is mine, and twenty eight is mine. Twenty eight is mine and thirty two is mine. Thirty two is mine, and thirty six is mine. Thirty six is mine, and forty is mine. Forty is mine, and forty four is mine. Forty four is mine, and forth eight is mine. And so on the numbers may increase till infinity by yajna, for me and for all for the good of life and joy.

Also: By implication, the mantra can be applied to the process of yajna by 'dana', gifting away, subtraction, by four, from forty-eight down to four and so on.

The mantra can also be applied to the process of multiplication. In fact, the mantra itself gives the multiplication table upto twelve times four and so on.

So too the mantra may be interpreted as showing the process of division since it gives a table of the division of forty eight by four upto twelve times.

The same I come to you, Varuna, Lord of our love and choice, universally worshipped and celebrated. Here I am at your door. Kind and favourable lord, know, accept and enlighten us, let not life slip through our fingers into the sands of time.

Warmth is heavenly, soothing, use it well, for yajna. Fire is heavenly, generous, use it well, for yajna. Air is heavenly, energy, use it well, for yajna. Light is heavenly, power, use it well, for yajna. Sun is heavenly, life, miss it not, use it well, for yajna.

Agniṁ yunajmi śavasā ghṛtena dīvyaṁ suparṇaṁ vayasā bṛhantam. Tena vayaṁ gamema bradhnasya viṣṭapaṁ svo ruhāṇā'adhi nākamuttamam.

I feed the fire with powerful oblations of ghee, fire which is divine power and sustainer of life, feeding on food and growing higher, mightier and more and more pervasive. And thereby, desiring and increasing the joys of life, may we rise to the regions of the illustrious lord of light, the sun, and ultimately attain to the highest level of bliss, the freedom and ecstasy of Moksha, beyond all suffering.

52. (Agni Devata, Shunahshepa Ṛshi)

Agni, lord of light and life, cause and effect, consumption of food and creation/production of energy and new forms, these are the two wings, ever young, constant, and never decaying, of your systemic catalysis in the process of evolution and development, by which you negate the forces of counter-evolution and destruction. By virtue of these two, may we rise to the regions of the noble heroes of action to which arose the visionary seers first-born and ancient.

59. (Prajapati Devata, Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

Udbudhyasvāgne prati jāgṛhi tvamiṣṭāpūrte saṁ sṛjethāmayaṁ ca. Asmintsadhasthe'adhyuttarasmin viśve devā yajamānaśca sīdata.

Agni, fire and power of light and life, man of fire and knowledge, awake, arise, and let the yajamana arise and act. And both of you together enact the holy rites and offer the devotions to the Lord. Men and women of divinity and the yajamana, all be seated in this blessed house of yajna on the holy seats around the vedi.

62. (Vishvakarma/Agni Devata, Devashrava, Devavata Rshis)

येन॒ वह॑सि स॒हस्रं॑ येना॑ग्ने सर्ववेद॒सम् ।

Yena vahasi sahasraṁ yenāgne sarvavedasam.
Tenemaṁ yajñaṁ no naya svardeveṣu gantave.

Lord of fire and knowledge, by the power you conduct the yajna of a hundred gifts, and the yajna of total Vedic knowledge, and all the worldly wealth, by the same power lead on this yajna of ours to reach the regions of bliss among the noblest souls of divinity.

63. (Yajna Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

प्र॒स्त॒रेण॑ परि॒धिना॑ स्रु॒चा वेद्या॑ च ब॒र्हिषा॑ ।

Prastareṇa paridhinā srucā vedyā ca barhiṣā.
Ṛcemaṁ yajñaṁ no naya svardeveṣu gantave.

Lord of yajna, by the sacrificial seat (asana), vedi's girdle of fire-sticks, the ladle, the vedi, the kusha grass and the light of fire, and by the chant of Vedic hymns, take our yajna on and forward to lead us to reach the joy of life and the bliss of divinity among the blessed souls.

64. (Yajna Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

यद्दत्तं यत्परादानं यत्पूर्तं याश्च दक्षिणाः।
तदग्निर्वैश्वकर्मणः स्वर्देवेषु नो दधत् ॥६४॥

Yaddattaṁ yatparādānaṁ yatpūrtaṁ yāśca dakṣiṇāḥ. Tadagnirvaiśvakarmaṇaḥ svardeveṣu no dadhat.

Whatever is given, whatever is received from others for others, whatever works are raised for charity, whatever gifts are given to priests, may versatile Agni of universal action carry all that to the heavenly powers in the regions of bliss for our sake.

65. (Yajna Devata, Vishvakarma Ṛshi)

यत्र धाराऽअनपेता मधोर्घृतस्य च याः ।
तदग्निर्वैश्वकर्मणः स्वर्देवेषु नो दधत् ॥६५॥

Yatra dhārā anapetā madhorghṛtasya ca yāḥ. Tadagnirvaiśvakarmaṇaḥ svardeveṣu no dadhat.

Where streams of nectar honey flow uninterrupted and where flow streams of purest milk and ghee, there among the noblest souls, may Agni, lord of universal yajnic action, lead us into the heaven of bliss.

66. (Agni Devata, Devashrava & Devavata Rshis)

अग्निरस्मि जन्मना जातवेदा घृतं मे चक्षुरमृतं मऽ-आसन् । अर्कस्त्रिधातू रजसो विमानोऽजस्रो घर्मो हविर-स्मि नाम ॥६६॥

Agnirasmi janmanā jātavedā ghṛtaṁ me cakṣur-amṛtaṁ ma āsan. Arkastridhātū rajaso vimāno' jasro gharmo havirasmi nāma.

I am fire, so by birth, present in all that is born. Ghee is my light of the eye. Nectar is my mouth. What I consume turns into nectar. Loved and adored with Riks, Yajus and Samans, I am threefold in constitution, my elements being akasha (ether), vayu (wind and energy), and agni, fire that I am. I pervade and cover the sky, I am perpetually active and moving. I am the heat and light of the sun and summer. I am havi, the food of yajna, and I am a name, I have an identity of my own.

67. (Agni Devata, Devashrava & Devavata Rshis)

ऋचो॒ नामा॑स्मि यजू॑ꣳषि॒ नामा॒स्मि॒ सामा॑नि॒ नामा॑स्मि ।

Ye' agnayaḥ pāñcajanyā' asyāṁ pṛthivyāmadhi.
Teṣāmasi tvamuttamaḥ pra no jīvātave suva.

I am Riks by name (Rigveda), I am Yajus, that's my name (Yajurveda), I am Samans, that's my name (Samveda) for sure.

Yajnagni, five are the sacred fires that are on this earth (namely, Anvaharya-pachana or Dakshina, Garhapatya, Ahavaniya, Sabhya, and Avasthya), which are good and auspicious for all the people without discrimination. Of them, you are the supreme. Awake, arise, come and inspire us for a full life on earth, dedicated to yajna.

68. (Agni Devata, Indra Ṛshi)

वार्त्र॑हत्याय॒ शव॑से पृतना॒षाह्या॑य च ।
इन्द्र॒ त्वाव॑र्तयामसि ॥६८॥

Vārtrahatyāya śavase pṛtanāṣāhyāya ca. Indra tvā" vartayāmasi.

Indra, lord of blazing power and prowess, for your power to break down the anti-life clouds of darkness, for the sake of strength and superiority in advancement, and for your potential to rout the forces of the enemies of humanity, we turn to you, abide by you and act under your command.

69. (Indra Devata, Indra & Vishvamitra Ṛshis)

सहदानुम्पुरुहूत क्षियन्तमहस्तमिन्द्र सम्पिणक् कुणारुम् ।
अभि वृत्रं वर्द्धमानं पियारुमपादमिन्द्र तवसा जघन्थ ॥६९॥

Sahadānumpuruhūta kṣiyantamahastamindra sampiṇak kuṇārum. Abhi vṛtraṁ vardhamānaṁ piyārumapādamindra tavasā jaghantha.

Indra, lord of lightning power, disarm, wither and crush the rival negative forces, lurking within, mischievous, growing, vociferous, and like the cloud, withholding the waters of progress. Indra, blazing with the thunderbolt like the sun, break up the cloud and destroy the mischief with your might.

70. (Indra Devata, Shasa Ṛshi)

वि नऽइन्द्र मृधो जहि नीचा यच्छ पृतन्यतः।
योऽअस्माँ२॥ऽअभिदासत्यधरं गमया तमः॥७०॥

Vi na' indra mṛdho jahi nīcā yaccha pṛtanyataḥ. Yo' asmāň abhidāsatyadharaṁ gamayā tamaḥ.

Indra, lord of might in command, eliminate the battles of blood. Take them down to those who rise with violent force and come upon us to fight. Whoever wish to enslave us, take them down to utter darkness of misery.

71. (Indra Devata, Jaya Ṛshi)

मृगो न भीमः कुचरो गिरिष्ठाः परावतऽआजगन्था परस्याः।
सृकꣳसꣳशाय पविमिन्द्र तिग्मं वि शत्रून्ताढि वि मृधो नुदस्व ॥७१॥

Mṛgo na bhīmaḥ kucaro girisṭhāḥ parāvata'ā jaganthā parasyāḥ. Sṛkaṁ saṁśāya pavimindra tigmaṁ vi śatrūn tāḍhi vi mṛdho nudasva.

Like a terrible lion of the mountain forest, roaming around freely, go far and fall upon the hostile forces. Having tempered and sharpened the point of your steel, drive off the enemies and eliminate the battles of blood.

72. (Agni Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

वैश्वानरो नऽ ऊतयऽआ प्रयातु परावतः ।
अग्निर्नः सुष्टुतीरुप ॥७२॥

Vaiśvānaro na'ūtaya'ā pra yātu parāvataḥ. Agnirnaḥ suṣṭutīrupa.

All commanding power, reaching everything and everyone like the light of the sun and the heat of fire, come to us from afar for our protection. Fire of life, listen to our songs of praise and prayer and come.

73. (Agni Devata, Kutsa Ṛshi)

पृष्टो दिवि पृष्टोऽअग्निः पृथिव्यां पृष्टो विश्वाऽ-

Pṛṣṭo divi pṛṣṭo' agniḥ pṛthivyāṁ pṛṣṭo viśvā 'oṣadhīrāviveśa. Vaiśvānaraḥ sahasā pṛṣṭo' agniḥ sa no divā sa riṣaspātu naktam.

Agni, universal fire, Vaishvanara, omnipresent, omnificent vitality, which blazes in heaven as the sun is worth knowing. The fire in the earth is worth knowing. The fire that has entered the entire herbs and trees of the world is worth knowing by research. May this Agni protect and sustain us against violence day and night.

74. (Agni Devata, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

अश्याम॒ तं काम॑मग्ने॒ तवो॒तीऽअ॒श्याम॑ र॒यिꣳर॑यिवः सु॒वीर॑म्।

Aśyāma taṁ kāmamagne tavotī'aśyāma rayiṁ rayivaḥ suvīram. Aśyāma vājamabhi vājayanto'-'śyāma dyumnamajarājaraṁ te.

Agni, lord defender, protector and sustainer, under your umbrella, may we get the benefits we desire. Lord of wealth and plenty, may we get the wealth and the valorous heroes we need. Fighting the battles of life, may we achieve the victories we prize. Lord ever young, unageing, may we also share and achieve your imperishable glory and majesty.

75. (Agni Devata, Utkeela Ṛshi)

व॒यं तेऽअ॒द्य र॑रि॒मा हि काम॑मुत्ता॒नह॑स्ता॒ नम॑सोप॒सद्य ।

Vayaṁ te'adya rarimā hi kāmamuttānahastā namasopasadya. Yajiṣṭhena manasā yakṣi devānasredhatā manmanā vipro' agne.

Agni, lord of light, knowledge and power, with hands raised up in homage, we come to you today with a dedicated, concentrated, thoughtful and faithful mind and make the loved-most offerings. With the same dedicated, concentrated and committed mind,you too do honour to the powers of divinity.

76. (Vishvedevas Devata, Utkeela Ṛshi)

धा॒म॒च्छद॒ग्निरिन्द्रो॑ ब्र॒ह्मा दे॒वो बृह॒स्पति॑: ।

Dhāmacchadagnirindro brahmā devo bṛhaspatiḥ. Sacetaso viśve devā yajñaṁ prāvantu naḥ śubhe.

Agni, lord protector of regions and places, lord of knowledge, Indra, lord of power and honour, Brahma, lord of creative Vedic vision, Deva, lord of generosity and brilliance, Brihaspati, lord of learning and teaching, may all these and other noble powers of the world, enlightened and magnanimous, protect and promote our yajnas of life for the good of all for ever and onward.

77. (Vishvedevas Devata, Ushana Ṛshi)

Tvaṁ yaviṣṭha dāśuṣo nṝँḥ pāhi śṛṇudhī giraḥ. Rakṣā tokamuta tmanā.

Lord of life and humanity, ever young, generous giver, listen to the voice and prayers of the people. Protect and promote humanity, and preserve the race with the breath of life.

CHAPTER–XIX

1. (Soma Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

स्वा॒द्वीं त्वा॑ स्वा॒दुना॑ तीव्रां॑ तीव्रेणा॒मृता॑म॒मृते॑न । मधु॑मतीं॑ मधु॑मता सृ॒जामि॒ सꣳसोमे॑न । सोमो॑ऽस्य॒श्विभ्यां॑ पच्यस्व॒ सर॑स्वत्यै पच्य॒स्वेन्द्रा॑य सु॒त्राम्णे॑ पच्यस्व ॥१॥

Svādvīṁ tvā svādunā tīvrāṁ tīvreṇāmṛtām-amṛtena. Madhumatīṁ madhumatā sṛjāmi saṁ somena. Somo'syaśvibhyāṁ pacyasva sarasvatyai pacyasvendrāya sutrāmṇe pacyasva.

Tonic of life, panacea for health, delicious in taste, sharp in action, honey sweet and healing like nectar, I mix and develop you with soma, delicious sharp, honey sweet and nectar-like in healing. Integrated with soma, you are now soma itself. Mature and ripen for the Ashvins, powers of health and men and women of learning. Ripen and mature for Sarasvati, woman of the divine voice. Mature and ripen for Indra, man of power and honour who protects and promotes humanity against suffering.

2. (Soma Devata, Bharadvaja Ṛshi)

परी॒तो षि॑ञ्चता सु॒तꣳसोमो॒ यऽउ॑त्त॒मꣳह॒विः।
द॒ध॒न्वान् यो नर्यो॑ अ॒प्स्व॑न्तरा सु॒षाव॒ सोम॒मद्रि॑भिः॥२॥

Parīto ṣiñcatā sutaṁ somo ya'uttamaṁ haviḥ. Dadhanvān yo naryo apsvantarā suṣāva somamadribhiḥ.

Soma, extracted, richly reinforced and distilled thus is the best for life and yajna. Let the best person among humans develop and produce it mixed with the waters and matured on the mountains with the clouds.

3. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

वा॒योः पू॒तः प॒वित्रे॑ण प्र॒त्यङ्क्सोमो॒ऽअति॑द्रुतः । इन्द्र॑स्य॒ युज्यः॒ सखा॑ । वा॒योः पू॒तः प॒वित्रे॑ण॒ प्राङ्क्सोमो॒ऽअति॑द्रुतः। इन्द्र॑स्य॒ युज्यः॒ सखा॑ ॥३॥

Vāyoḥ pūtaḥ pavitreṇa pratyaṅk somo' atidrutaḥ. Indrasya yujyaḥ sakhā. Vāyoḥ pūtaḥ pavitreṇa prāṅk somo atidrutaḥ. Indrasya yujyaḥ sakhā.

Soma, freshly extracted, fully filtered, highly refined, and seasoned in westerly wind, instant and usable is a friend of Indra, man of power and honour, for concentration of mind.

Soma, old extracted, fully filtered, highly refined, and seasoned in easterly wind, instant and effective is a friend of Indra, man of power and honour, for concentration of mind.

4. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

पुना॑ति ते परि॒स्रुत॑ꣳसोम॒ꣳसूर्य॑स्य दु॒हि॒ता ।
वार॑ेण॒ शश्व॑ता॒ तना॑ ॥४॥

Punāti te parisrutaṁ somaṁ sūryasya duhitā. Vāreṇa śaśvatā tanā.

Lover and maker of soma, the dawn, daughter of the sun, constantly purifies and vitalizes the streams of your soma with an uninterrupted flow of the currents of its celestial light and eternal energy.

5. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

ब्रह्म क्षत्रं पवते तेजऽइन्द्रियꣳसुरया सोमः सुतऽआसुतो मदाय । शुक्रेण देव देवताः पिपृग्धि रसेनान्नं यजमानाय धेहि ॥५॥

Brahma kṣatraṁ pavate teja'indriyaṁ surayā somaḥ suta'āsuto madāya. Śukreṇa deva devatāḥ pipṛgdhi rasenānnaṁ yajamānāya dhehi.

Soma, extracted and taken, purifies and energizes the Brahmana community of intellectuals, and the Kshatra community of warriors, defenders and administrators, and inspires them with passion and enthusiasm for action and achievement. It sharpens the senses with sensitivity and the mind with brilliance.

Deva, man of science and yajna, with the purity and energy of yajna and soma, please and serve the powers of nature and humanity and enhance the production of food for the yajamana with vital juice treatment.

6. (Indra Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

कुविदङ्ग यवमन्तो यवं चिद्यथा दान्त्यनुपूर्वं वियूय इहेहैषां कृणुहि भोजनानि ये बर्हिषो नमऽउक्तिं यजन्ति । उपयामगृहीतोऽस्यश्विभ्यां त्वा सरस्वत्यै त्वेन्द्राय त्वा सुत्राम्णऽएष ते योनिस्तेजसे त्वा वीर्याय त्वा बलाय त्वा ॥६॥

Kuvidaṅga yavamanto yavaṁ cidyathā dāntya-nupūrvaṁ viyūya. Ihehaiṣāṁ kṛṇuhi bhojanāni ye barhiṣo nama uktiṁ yajanti. Upayāmagṛhīto' syaśvibhyāṁ tvā sarasvatyai tvendrāya tvā sutrāmṇa' eṣa te yonistejase tvā vīryāya tvā balāya tvā.

O friend, ruler and administrator, those farmers who produce grain and harvest the crop for strength and sustenance, and those brilliant ones who, accordingly, study, analyse and pronounce their judgement on food production, for all these provide food and maintenance.

Accepted and sanctified you are for the Ashvins, earth and sunlight (for production), scientific knowledge, strength and power and defence and protection. This is your value and justification for life. I consecrate you for splendour, power and prowess, and solid strength.

7. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

नाना॒ हि वां॑ दे॒वहि॑त॒ꣳसदꣳस्कृ॒तं मा सꣳसृ॑क्षाथां पर॒मे व्यो॑मन्।
सु॒रा॒ त्वमसि॑ शु॒ष्मिणी॒ सोमꣳए॒ष मा मा॑ हिꣳसी॒ः स्वां योनि॑मावि॒शन्ती॑ ॥७॥

Nānā hi vāṁ devahitaṁ sadaskṛtaṁ mā saṁ sṛkṣāthāṁ parame vyoman. Surā tvamasi śuṣmiṇī soma'eṣa mā mā hiṁsīḥ svāṁ yonimāviśantī.

Many are the things for you in this wide world. They are different, each in its own place good for the noble people. Don't confuse one with the other in your own understanding: "You are sura, intoxication. And you are sura, stimulation for life's energy. This is soma, life's energy, passion for action, peace and pleasure for the mind. Coming to your own in your own place, don't violate soma, don't injure me."

8. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽस्याश्वि॒नं तेजः॑ सारस्व॒तं वी॒र्य॑मै॒न्द्रं बल॑म् ।
ए॒ष ते॒ योनि॒र्मोदा॑य त्वान॒न्दाय॑ त्वा॒ मह॑से त्वा ॥८॥

Upayāmagṛhīto'syāśvinaṁ tejāḥ sārasvataṁ vīryamaindraṁ balam. Eṣā te yonirmodāya tvā" nandāya tvā mahase tvā.

Indra, accepted and initiated you are in the laws of life, vested with splendour of the sun and beauty of the moon, power and prowess of the world on the move, and the thunderbolt of lightning. This world is your home and justification for existence for the experience and creation of joy, spiritual bliss, universal honour and glory. I consecrate you in your place and position by virtue of Soma.

9. (Soma Devata, Abhuti Ṛshi)

तेजो॑ऽसि॒ तेजो॒ मयि॑ धेहि वी॒र्य॑मसि वी॒र्यं॑ मयि॑ धेहि॒ बल॑मसि॒ बल॑ं मयि॑ धेह्योजो॒ऽस्योजो॒ मयि॑ धेहि म॒न्युर॑सि म॒न्युं मयि॑ धेहि॒ सहो॑ऽसि॒ सहो॒ मयि॑ धेहि ॥९॥

Tejo'si tejo mayi dhehi vīryamasi vīryaṁ mayi dhehi balamasi balam mayi dhehyojo'syojo mayi dhehi manyurasi manyuṁ mayi dhehi saho'si saho mayi dhehi.

You are the light of life, put light into me. You are the vigour and vitality of life, put vigour and vitality into me. You are the strength and force of life, put strength and force into me. You are the lustre of health and energy of life, bless me with the glow and lustre of health and energy. You are the passion for life, put passion into me. You are the challenge and victory of life, bless me with the spirit of challenge and the ambition for victory.

10. (Soma Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

या व्याघ्रं विषूचिकोभौ वृकं च रक्षति ।
श्येनं पतत्रिणꣳसिꣳहꣳसेमं पात्वꣳहसः ॥१०॥

Yā vyāghraṁ viṣūcikobhau vṛkaṁ ca rakṣati. Śyenaṁ patatriṇaṁ siṁhaṁ semaṁ pātvaṁhasaḥ.

That secret agency which watches and keeps off both the tiger and wolf, the eagle and other birds of prey, and the lion, the same may warn and protect this ruler from sin and wrong-doing.

11. (Agni Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

यदापिपेष मातरं पुत्रः प्रमुदितो धयन् । एतत्तदग्नेऽअनृणो भवाम्यहतौ पितरौ मया । सम्पृच स्थ सं मा भद्रेण पृङ्क विपृच स्थ वि मा पाप्मना पृङ्क ॥११॥

Yadāpipeṣa mātaraṁ putraḥ pramudito dhayan. Etattadagne' anṛṇo bhavāmyahatau pitarau mayā. Sampṛca stha saṁ mā bhadreṇa pṛṅkta vipṛca stha vi mā pāpmanā pṛṅkta.

Agni, lord of light and yajna, when my child sucks its mother with joy and hugs her almost crushing her with love, then I feel free from my filial debt to nature and my parents, since then are my parents saved through me.

Stay one with the parents, with nature and with God. Join me with piety and goodness. Stay away and keep me away from sin and evil.

12. (Vidvan Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

दे॒वा य॒ज्ञम॑तन्वत भेष॒जं भि॒षजा॒श्विना॑ ।
वा॒चा सर॑स्वती भि॒षगिन्द्रा॑येन्द्रि॒याणि॒ दध॑तः ॥१२॥

Devā yajñamatanvata bheṣajaṁ bhiṣajā'śvinā.
Vācā sarasvatī bhiṣagindrāyendriyāṇi dadhataḥ.

The healing powers of nature and the two Ashvins, positive and negative currents of universal energy, enact the medicinal yajna of evolution in the service of Indra, lord of the universe. So do the physicians, men and women both, holding their mind and senses in order, carry on the yajna of health and healing with their knowledge and advice. (So too should we all work for health and healing in the service of God and humanity.)

13. (Yajna Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

दी॒क्षायै॑ रू॒पꣳश॒फ्यां॑णि प्राय॒णीय॑स्य॒ तोक्मा॑नि ।
क्र॒यस्य॑ रू॒पꣳसोम॑स्य ला॒जाः सौमा॒ꣳशवो॒ मधु॑ ॥१३॥

Dīkṣāyai rūpaṁ śaṣpāṇi prāyaṇīyasya tokmāni.
Krayasya rūpaṁ somasya lājāḥ somāṁśavo madhu.

Blades of grass are symbols of initiation. Shoots of barley are symbols of yajnic inauguration. Roasted rice treated with soma is the symbol of exchange. Honey is the essence of soma plant. Develop these for yajna.

14. (Atithya/Hospitality Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

आ॒ति॒थ्य॒रू॒पं मास॑रं महावी॒रस्य॑ न॒ग्नहुः॑ ।
रू॒पमु॑प॒सदा॑मे॒तत्ति॒स्रो रात्री॒ः सुरा॑सु॒ता ॥१४॥

Ātithyarūpaṁ māsaraṁ mahāvīrasya nagnahuḥ.
Rūpamupasadāmetattisro rātrīḥ surā"sutā.

Roasted barley and masara drink is the mark of hospitality. Gift of food, drink and clothes is the mark of heroes. Three nights stay is courtesy to the guests. The secret of soma drink is three nights distillation and maturity. Observe these in the hospitality yajna.

15. (Soma Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

सोमस्य रूपं क्रीतस्य परिस्रुत्परिषिच्यते ।
अश्विभ्यां दुग्धं भेषजमिन्द्रायैन्द्रꣳसरस्वत्या ॥१५॥

Somasya rūpaṁ krītasya parisrut pariṣicyate. Aśvibhyāṁ dugdhaṁ bheṣajamindrāyaindraṁ sarasvatyā.

The juice of soma fully distilled and prepared by the expert physician, mixed with milk and approved and accepted by a learned woman of Vedic knowledge of medicine, matures into a panacea fit to be the favourite tonic for the sophisticated Indra, lord of strength, power and governance.

16. (Yajna Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

आसन्दी रूपꣳराजासन्द्यै वेद्यै कुम्भी सुराधानी ।
अन्तरऽउत्तरवेद्या रूपं कारोतरो भिषक् ॥१६॥

Āsandī rūpaṁ rājāsandyai vedyai kumbhī surādhānī. Antara'uttaravedyā rūpaṁ kārotaro bhiṣak.

The seat of soma is the mark of governance. The flask of soma drink is the mark of an auspicious altar. Invigorating food is the mark of an auspicious northern altar. The filter that separates the essence of soma from waste is the symbol of a good physician.

17. (Yajna Devata, Haimavarchi Ṛshi)

वेद्या॑ वे॒दिः॒ समा॑प्यते ब॒र्हिषा॑ ब॒र्हिरि॑न्द्रि॒यम् ।

Parents, seniors and guardians of humanity in yajnic seats of power, here are these refreshing presentations we have prepared for you which you please accept graciously and enjoy. Come to us and bring us peace and protection. Bless us with comfort and prosperity free from mischief and remove all the sins and evil from our life.

56. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आहं पितॄन्त्सुविदत्राँ२॥ऽअवित्सि नपातं च विक्रमणं च विष्णोः। बर्हिषदो ये स्वधया सुतस्य भजन्त पित्वस्तऽ-इहागमिष्ठाः॥५६॥

Ā'haṁ pitṝntsuvidatrāṁ'avitsi napātaṁ ca vikramaṇaṁ ca viṣṇoḥ. Barhiṣado ye svadhayā sutasya bhajanta pitvasta' ihāgamiṣṭhāḥ.

I know the parents, seniors and guardians of life so kind and generous. I also know the dynamics of Lord Vishnu's immanence in His creation.

May the venerable seniors in yajnic seats of knowledge and vision, who in their own right enjoy the fragrant drinks distilled from the essence of life, come here and bless this place and me.

57. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

उपहूताः पितरः सोम्यासो बर्हिष्येषु निधिषु प्रियेषु ।
तऽआगमन्तु तऽइह श्रुवन्त्वधि ब्रुवन्तु तेऽवन्त्वस्मान् ॥५७॥

Upahūtāḥ pitaraḥ somyāso barhiṣyeṣu nidhiṣu priyeṣu. Ta' āgamantu ta' iha śruvantvadhi bruvantu te'vantvasmān.

Senior guardians of life and the human spirit established in inner peace and spiritual freedom are chosen by Grace to partake of the dearest treasures of universal knowledge and life divine. We call upon them: may they come here, may they listen to us, may they speak to us from the heights of divinity, may they redeem and save us!

58. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आ यन्तु नः पितरः सोम्यासोऽग्निष्वात्ताः पथिभिर्देवयानैः।
अस्मिन् यज्ञे स्वधया मदन्तोऽधि ब्रुवन्तु तेऽवन्त्वस्मान्॥५८॥

Ā yantu naḥ pitaraḥ somyāso'gniṣvāttāḥ pathibhirdevayānaiḥ. Asmin yajñe svadhayā madanto'dhi bruvantu te'vantvasmān.

May our seniors and scholars established in the peace and prosperity of fire knowledge and yajna come to us by the noblest paths of divinity. And may they, in this our yajnic project of science and technology, enjoying themselves in their own right to their own knowledge, speak to us, enlighten us and protect us from ignorance and poverty.

59. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अग्निष्वात्ताः पितरऽएह गच्छत सदःसदः सदत सुप्रणीतयः।
अत्ता हवीꣳषि प्रयतानि बर्हिष्यथा रयिꣳसर्ववीरं दधातन ॥५९॥

Agniṣvāttāḥ pitara' eha gacchata sadaḥ sadaḥ sadata supraṇītayaḥ. Attā havīṅṣi prayatāni barhiṣyathā rayiṁ sarvavīraṁ dadhātana.

Senior scholars and experts of the science of heat and energy, men of justice and positive policy, come here to us, seat yourselves in every home and every hall of assembly, take the food and materials prepared with care and offered with love and hope, and, sitting in your laboratory and workshop, create the knowledge, impart it to people, and produce the wealth which creates versatile heroes for the nation and humanity.

60. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

येऽअग्निष्वात्ता येऽअनग्निष्वात्ता मध्ये दिवः स्वधया मादयन्ते । तेभ्यः स्वराडसुनीतिमेतां यथावशं तन्वं कल्पयाति ॥६०॥

Ye' agniṣvāttā ye'anagniṣvāttā madhye divaḥ svadhayā mādayante. Tebhyaḥ svarāḍasunītimetāṁ yathāvaśaṁ tanvaṁ kalpayāti.

Those seniors who are experts of the science and technology of fire, and those who are not such but who are experts of other fields of knowledge, and all those who rejoice in the midst of the light of their own knowledge itself: for all these, the self-luminous lord of omniscience in-vests this body with health and energy according to their need and desire.

61. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अग्निष्वात्तानृतुमतो हवामहे नाराशꣳसे सोमपीथं यऽआशुः। ते नो विप्रासः सुहवा भवन्तु वयꣳस्याम पतयो रयीणाम् ॥६१॥

Agniṣvāttānṛtumato havāmahe nārāśaṁse somapīthaṁ ya'āśuḥ. Te no viprāsaḥ suhavā bhavantu vayaṁ syāma patayo rayīṇām.

Those experts of the science and technology of fire who work according to the seasons needs and who enjoy a drink of soma, we invite to social receptions and honour of felicitations. May they, noble scholars and creators, be great benefactors of society, and may we all become producers, protectors and masters of wealth and prosperity in the world.

62. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आच्या॒ जानु॑ दक्षिण॒तो नि॒षद्येमं य॒ज्ञम॒भिगृ॑णीत॒ विश्वे॑ । मा हिꣳ॑सिष्ट पितर॒ः केनं॑चिन्नो॒ यद्व॒ऽआग॑ः पुरु॒षता॒ करा॑म ॥६२॥

Ācyā jānu dakṣiṇato niṣadyemaṁ yajñamabhi gṛṇīta viśve. Mā hiṁsiṣṭa pitaraḥ kenacinno yadva' āgaḥ puruṣatā karāma.

Noble seniors of the world, do not, for any reason whatever, destroy or injure our manliness and manpower. Take on this yajna for us, do it well and speak well of it.

We sit kneeling on your right respectfully, and whatever your omission or commission in well-meaning work, we overlook and make up. And then we move on with the work in earnestness.

63. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आसी॑नासोऽअरु॒णीना॑मु॒पस्थे॑ र॒यिं ध॑त्त दा॒शुषे॒ मर्त्या॑य।
पु॒त्रेभ्य॑ः पितर॒स्तस्य॒ वस्व॒ः प्रय॑च्छत॒ तऽइ॒होर्ज॑ं दधात ॥६३॥

Āsīnāso'aruṇīnāmupasthe rayiṁ dhatta dāśuṣe martyāya. Putrebhyaḥ pitarastasya vasvaḥ pra yacchata ta'ihorjaṁ dadhāta.

Parents and seniors of the community, create and hold wealth for the man of charity and for the children sitting in the lap of their noble mothers. Give them ample means of living so that they may have ample energy.

64. (Agni Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

यमग्ने कव्यवाहन त्वं चिन्मन्यसे रयिम् ।
तन्नो गीर्भिः श्रवाय्यं देवत्रा पनया युजम् ॥६४॥

Yamagne kavyavāhana tvaṁ cinmanyase rayim. Tanno gīrbhiḥ śravāyyaṁ devatrā panayā yujam.

Agni, carrier of sumptuous foods and fragrance for the noble people, bless us with that wealth of life which you believe is fit for the use of divinities in nature and humanity, and which is worthy of celebration in the best of words worthy of the best listeners.

65. (Agni Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

योऽअग्निः कव्यवाहनः पितॄन्यक्षदृतावृधः ।
प्रेदु हव्यानि वोचति देवेभ्यश्च पितृभ्यऽआ ॥६५॥

Yo' agniḥ kavyavāhanaḥ pitṝn yakṣadṛtāvṛdhaḥ. Predu havyāni vocati devebhyaśca pitṛbhya'ā.

Surely that person is the leader, torch bearer, path maker, first among all who is brilliant as Agni (fire) and spreads purity and fragrance all round. He/She respects the parents, seniors, ancestors and the promoters of truth and justice. He/She communicates the noblest thoughts and ideas in persuasive and powerful words to the seniors and the brilliant and generous people all round.

66. (Agni Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

त्वमग्नऽईडितः कव्यवाहनावाड्ढव्यानि सुरभीणि कृत्वी। प्रादाः पितृभ्यः स्वधया ते ऽअक्षन्नद्धि त्वं देव प्रयता हवीꣳषि ॥६६॥

Tvamagna' īḍitaḥ kavyavāhanāvāḍḍhavyāni surabhīṇi kṛtvī. Prādāḥ pitṛbhyaḥ svadhayā te' akṣannaddhi tvaṁ deva prayatā havīṁṣi.

Agni, brilliant master of noble thoughts, words and deeds, loved, invoked and adored, receive the gifts of life, convert them to fragrance and acknowledge. Share them with the parents, seniors and respectable people so that they too enjoy them as their own. These gifts are valuable, prepared and collected with effort. Generous as you are, enjoy them well.

67. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

ये चेह पितरो ये च नेह याँश्च विद्म याँ२॥ऽउ च न प्रविद्म । त्वं वेत्थ यति ते जातवेदः स्वधाभिर्यज्ञꣳसुकृतं जुषस्व ॥६७॥

Ye ceha pitaro ye ca neha yāṁśca vidma yāṁ'u ca na pravidma. Tvaṁ vettha yati te jātavedaḥ svadhābhiryajñaṁ sukṛtaṁ juṣasva.

Agni, brilliant and generous power, the seniors who are here, and those who are not here, and those whom we know, and those whom we don't know, you know them all, how many they are and where they are, since you know everything that is anywhere. Let this yajna of service and adoration be done well. Carry it on with grace and with gifts made in faith and love.

68. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

इदं पितृभ्यो नमोऽअस्त्वद्य ये पूर्वासो यऽउपरासऽईयुः।
ये पार्थिवे रजस्या निषत्ता ये वा नूनꣳसुवृजनासु विक्षु॥६८॥

Idaṁ pitṛbhyo namo'astvadya ye pūrvāso ya' uparāsa'īyuḥ. Ye pārthive rajasyā niṣattā ye vā nūnaṁ suvṛjanāsu vikṣu.

Let this food and adoration today be for the parents and seniors, those who came earlier, those who came later, those who are seated in this earthly world and those who are on the move for sure among the moving people.

69. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अधा यथा नः पितरः परासः प्रत्नासोऽअग्नऽऋतमाशुषाणाः।
शुचीदयन्दीधितिमुक्थशासः क्षामा भिन्दन्तोऽअरुणीरप-
व्रन् ॥६९॥

Adhā yathā naḥ pitaraḥ parāsaḥ pratnāso'agna' ṛtamāśuṣāṇāḥ. Śucīdayan dīdhitimukthaśāsaḥ kṣāmā bhindanto' aruṇīrapa vran.

And Agni, brilliant scholar, just as our teachers, saints and sages, eminent and ancient, dedicated to the holy Word and serving the cause of universal truth and justice, realized the purity and blaze of that truth, and, breaking through the dark veil of the night opened the flood-gates of the light of dawn, so do you blaze, burn, purge, purify and enlighten the world.

70. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

उशन्तस्त्वा निधीमह्युशन्तः समिधीमहि ।
उशन्नुशतऽआवह पितॄन् हविषेऽअत्तवे ॥७०॥

Uśantastvā ni dhīmahyuśantaḥ samidhīmahi.
Usannuśata'ā vaha pitṝn haviṣe'attave.

Noble youth, with all the love and care, we accept, maintain and educate you. Out of love and affection with all the care, we develop your personality and potential. You too, loving and caring, bear the responsibility for the food and maintenance of the loving parents and other seniors.

71. (Indra Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अपां फेनेन नमुचेः शिरऽइन्द्रोदवर्तयः ।
विश्वा यदजय्यः स्पृधः ॥७१॥

Apāṁ phenena namuceḥ śira'indrodavartayaḥ.
Viśvā yadajayaḥ spṛdhaḥ.

Indra, ruler, commander, like the foam of the sea, like the vapours of water in the sky, rise and expand and break the head of the powers which hoard the wealth of the land like the cloud hoarding the waters. Conquer the forces which stand in opposition out of sheer jealousy.

72. (Soma Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

सोमो राजामृतꣳसुतऽऋजीषेणाजहान्मृत्युम् । ऋतेन सत्यमिन्द्रियं विपानꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽइन्द्रस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७२॥

Somo rājāmṛtaṁ suta'ṛjīṣeṇājahānmṛtyum.
Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa' indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

Soma, the man cleansed and distilled like soma through discipline, brilliant and inspiring, meditating on God and godly in character, by the simplicity and sincerity of his natural living conquers the pain of death.

By his dedication to Rita, the universal Law of Dharma, he attains truth, spiritual power, soothing drinks, purity and vitality, best foods, honour and prosperity, water and milk, honey and the very nectar of life.

73. (Angirasa Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अद्भ्यः क्षीरं व्यपिबत् क्रुङ्ङाङ्गिरसो धिया । ऋतेन सत्यमिन्द्रियं विपानꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽइन्द्रस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७३॥

Adbhyaḥ kṣīraṁ vyapibat kruṅṅāṅgiraso dhiyā. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa' indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

The man of genius and discrimination trained by a divine sage, like the swan, separates the milk from the water, accepts the milk and rejects the water.

With his dedication to the essential reality of existence through yoga, he attains the eternal verity, divine speech, the vision of word and meaning, purity of the inner light, spiritual food, honour and prosperity of the world, purest drinks, abiding health, and the honey-sweet joys of living.

74. (Soma Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

सोमꣳमद्भ्यो व्यपिबच्छन्दसा हꣳसः शुचिषत् । ऋतेन सत्यमिन्द्रियं विपानꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽइन्द्रस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७४॥

Somamadbhyo vyapibacchandasā haṅsaḥ śuciṣat. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa'indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo' mṛtaṁ madhu.

The man of discrimination, friend of pure visionaries, with the freedom of his vision, distils the essence, soma, from the waters as the swan separates the milk from water. He accepts the essence and rejects the scum.

With his vision of the Vedas, he attains the truth of divinity, the purity and energy of food, direct experience of the divine presence, and the supreme taste of the sweetness and bliss of Immortality and Moksha.

75. (Prajapati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अन्नात्परिस्रुतो रसं ब्रह्मणा व्यपिबत् क्षत्रं पयः सोमं प्रजापतिः। ऋतेन सत्यमिन्द्रियं विपानꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽइन्द्रस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७५॥

Annātparisruto rasaṁ brahmaṇa vyapibat kṣatraṁ payaḥ somaṁ prajāpatiḥ. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa' indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

Prajapati, ruler and protector of the people, President of the council, alongwith the study of the Vedas, receives the juices, essences and inspiring vital sweets extracted from the ripe grains and blessed waters of the land, and wields the onerous responsibility of the state.

With fair and enlightened justice he attains the people's dedication to truth, the divine gift of national glory, comprehensive protection and defence, pure and vital foods, light of justice and knowledge, divine grace, energising drinks, honey, and noble state-order of immortal value.

76. (Indra, Soul, Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

रेतो॒ मूत्रं॒ विज॑हाति॒ योनिं॑ प्र॒विश॑दि॑न्द्रि॒यम् । गर्भो॑ ज॒रायु॑णावृ॒त॒ऽउल्बं॑ जहाति॒ जन्म॑ना । ऋ॒तेन॑ स॒त्यमि॑न्द्रि॒यं वि॒पान॑ꣳशु॒क्रमन्ध॑स॒ऽइन्द्र॑स्येन्द्रि॒यमि॒दं पयो॒ऽमृत॑ं॒ मधु॑ ॥७६॥

Reto mūtraṁ vi jahāti yoniṁ praviśadindriyam. Garbho jarāyuṇā"vṛta' ulbaṁ jahāti janmanā. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukram-andhasa'indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

In the process of growth and regeneration, the male organ of generation discharges the semen. Entering the womb it discharges/releases the seed of life to plant it into the mother's body.

The foetus is covered with the placenta during its growth till maturity. When the seed is born as an independent soul in a new body-system, it abandons the cover in which it had grown and matured. (Thus elimination and regenerative growth through the natural movement of discharge, elimination, union and separation is part of life's evolution under the universal law of nature, which is Rtam, creative dynamics of Lord Prajapati.)

By Rtam, the soul (jiva) gets Satyam, natural existence of the body, Indriyam, organs of perception, drinks and assimilation, purity and vitality for regeneration, foods and growth, potentials for living and continuation, and the immortal honey sweets of the joys of existence for itself (jiva).

77. (Prajapati Devata, Shankha Ṛshi)

दृ॒ष्ट्वा रू॒पे व्याक॑रोत्सत्यानृ॒ते प्र॒जाप॑तिः । अश्र॑द्धामनृ॒तेऽ-द॑धाच्छ्र॒द्धाꣳस॒त्ये प्र॒जाप॑तिः। ऋ॒तेन॑ स॒त्यमि॑न्द्रि॒यं वि॒पान॑ꣳशु॒क्रमन्ध॑स॒ऽइन्द्र॑स्येन्द्रि॒यमि॒दं पयो॒ऽमृत॑ं॒ मधु॑ ॥७७॥

Dṛṣṭvā rūpe vyākarot satyānṛte prajāpatiḥ. Aśraddhāmanṛte' dadhācchraddhāṁ satye prajāpatih. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo' mṛtaṁ madhu.

Having over-seen two aspects of created Existence, Lord Prajapati analyses it into two forms: One, reality, truth, dharma; the other, unreality, illusion, adharma. Then Lord Prajapati places faith and commitment (shraddha) in truth, and no-faith and no-commitment (ashraddha) in untruth.

With truth and faith He joins right mind and intelligence (rtambhara-buddhi) which is the Lord's gift of saving grace, protective, purifying, and enlightening against the darkness of illusion. And this is the soul's real power and faculty which can lead to the honey sweets and milky streams of immortality.

78. (Prajapati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

वेदेंन रूपे व्यपिबत् सुतासुतौ प्रजापतिः । ऋतेंन सत्यमिंन्द्रियं विपानंꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽइन्द्रंस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७८॥

Vedena rūpe vyapibat sutāsutau prajāpatiḥ. Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukram-andhasa'indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

By Veda, Prajapati, the soul, comes to know both forms of existence: Truth which is reality, dharma, Rtam, and untruth which is illusion, adharma, anartam.

By Rtam it can realise the full potential of its faculties and the immortality of its essential nature, while with pure foods and drinks (in the interest of health and meditation) it can experience here and now the honey sweets and milky streams of nectar.

79. (Prajapati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

दृष्ट्वा परिस्रुतो रसꣳशुक्रेण शुक्रं व्यपिबत् पयः सोमं प्रजापतिः। ऋतेन सत्यमिन्द्रियं विपानꣳशुक्रमन्धसऽ-इन्द्रस्येन्द्रियमिदं पयोऽमृतं मधु ॥७९॥

Dṛṣṭva parisruto rasaṁ śukreṇa śukraṁ vyapibat payaḥ somaṁ prajāpatiḥ.Ṛtena satyamindriyaṁ vipānaṁ śukramandhasa'indrasyendriyamidaṁ payo'mṛtaṁ madhu.

Having viewed the essence of knowledge distilled with an objective mind from the panorama of existence, the consecrated Prajapati, guardian of his people, should drink this life-giving nectar of truth (Rtam).

By Rtam, knowledge of reality, he attains the force of truth, joy of governance, purity of intention and action, plenty and prosperity, royal honour and dignity, and the pleasure and sweetness of immortality.

80. (Savita Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

सीसेन तन्त्रं मनसा मनीषिणऽऊर्णासूत्रेण कवयो वयन्ति । अश्विना यज्ञꣳसविता सरस्वतीन्द्रस्य रूपं वरुणो भिषज्यन् ॥८०॥

Sīsena tantraṁ manasā manīṣiṇa'ūrṇāsūtreṇa kavayo vayanti. Aśvinā yajñaṁ savitā sarasvatīndrasya rūpaṁ varuṇo bhiṣajyan.

Just as intelligent weavers weave designed cloth from woollen yarn with leaden loom, and intelligent designers create models of machines with their imagination and expertise, so do the Ashvinis, scholars and researchers of health and nature, Savita, man of inspiration and imagination, Sarasvati, woman of learning and education, Varuna, expert of health and medication, create models of creative and productive yajna and of the form and character of Indra, the ideal individual or ruler, the ideal family and the ideal society.

81. (Varuna Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

तदस्य रूपममृतꣳशचीभिस्तिस्रो दधुर्देवताः सꣳरराणाः । लोमानि शष्पैर्बहुधा न तोक्मभिस्त्वगस्य माꣳसमभवन्न लाजाः ॥८१॥

Tadasya rūpamamṛtaṁ śacībhistisro dadhur-devatāḥ saṁrarāṇāḥ. Lomāni śaṣpairbahudhā na tokmabhistvagasya māṁsamabhavanna lājāḥ.

Three divine powers, loving and generous, variously enact the immortal form and structure of this yajna with their acts and imagination: They structure the body hair, as if, with blades of grass, and the body cover (skin) with shoots and ears of corn; and roasted grains become, as if, the substance (flesh) of the body.

82. (Ashvinau Devate, Shamkha Ṛshi)

तदश्विना भिषजा रुद्रवर्तनी सरस्वती वयति पेशोऽ-अन्तरम् । अस्थि मज्जानं मासरैः कारोतरेण दधतो गवां त्वचि ॥८२॥

Tadaśvinā bhiṣajā rudravartanī sarasvatī vayati peśo'antaram. Asthi majjānaṁ māsaraiḥ kārotareṇa dadhato gavāṁ tvaci.

Sarasvati, the enlightened woman, with dedicated mind and knowledge, weaves its beautiful inside, the bones and marrow created with the holy barley meal and vitalizing juices, while the Ashvinis, powers of health and healing, at the speed of energy, prepare for soma and place the filter and the cask on the floor of the earth.

83. (Sarasvati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

सर॑स्वती॒ मन॑सा पेश॒लं वसु॒ नास॑त्याभ्यां॒ वय॑ति दर्श॒तं व॑पु॒ः। रस॑ं परि॒स्रुता॒ न रोहि॑तं॒ न॒ग्नहु॒र्धीर॒स्तस॑रं॒ न वेम॑ ॥८३॥

Sarasvatī manasā peśalaṁ vasu nāsatyābhyāṁ vayati darśataṁ vapuḥ. Rasaṁ parisrutā na rohitaṁ nagnahurdhīrastasaraṁ na vema.

As a wise and intelligent expert designs and weaves a beautiful cloth on the loom with the shuttle, so does Sarasvati, enlightened woman of wisdom and science, with her mind and knowledge, create the charming, special and excellent form and structure of yajna with the help of friendly Ashvinis, specialists of health and healing: yajna (visible symbol of Indra, lord of honour, power and prosperity) in which the pure and vitalizing essence of soma joy distilled from all elements of nature ripples like the vital spirit (blood) of the body.

84. (Soma Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

पय॑सा शु॒क्रम॒मृतं॑ ज॒नित्र॑ꣳसु॒र॑या॒ मूत्रा॑ज्जनयन्त॒ रेतः॑ । अपा॑मतिं॒ दुर्म॑तिं॒ बाध॑मानाऽऊ॒र्वध्य॑ं॒ वात॑ꣳस॒ब्वं॑ तद॒रात् ॥८४॥

Payasā śukramamṛtaṁ janitraṁ surayā mūtrājjanayanta retaḥ. Apāmatiṁ durmatiṁ bādhamānā'ūvadhyaṁ vātaṁ sabvaṁ tadārāt.

(Three divinities, i.e., Sarasvati and the two Ashvinis) with milk, juices and inspiring drink of soma create the pure, life-giving, generative seed of life discharged from the generative organ (into the womb), and (for the same purpose of purity and vitality, with the same food and drink) ward off intellectual debility and ignorance as well as hyper-activity and arrogance from far and near.

85. (Savita Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

इन्द्रः सुत्रामा हृदयेन सत्यं पुरोडाशेन सविता जजान । यकृत् क्लोमानं वरुणो भिषज्यन् मतस्ने वायव्यैर्न मिनाति पित्तम् ॥८५॥

Indraḥ sutrāmā hṛdayena satyam puroḍāśena savitā jajāna. Yakṛt klomānaṁ varuṇo bhiṣajyan matasne vāyavyairna mināti pittam.

Indra, saviour, protector and preserver, with his heart and love, Savita, inspirer and giver of nourishments, with food and drink, create satyam, the reality of life and yajna, bringing it into formal manifestation. Varuna, with health and healing and with air and pranic energies preserves and maintains the working of the liver, lungs and neck, the chest and the digestive secretions.

86. (Savita Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आन्त्राणि स्थालीर्मधु पिन्वमाना गुदाः पात्राणि सुदुघा न धेनुः । श्येनस्य पत्रं न प्लीहा शचीभिरासन्दी नाभिरुदरं न माता ॥८६॥

Āntrāṇi sthālīrmadhu pinvamānā gudāḥ pātrāṇi sudughā na dhenuḥ. Śyenasya patraṁ na plīhā śacībhirāsandī nābhirudaraṁ na mātā.

The intestines in the human body system (yajna) are like the cooking pans preparing delicious food for the vital fire. The bowels are like milk-pots or the udders of an abundant milch cow. The spleen, pancreas and liver are powerful defensive organs like the wings of an eagle pouncing on disease-attacks. The navel with its energizing actions is like the royal seat of power. And the stomach, to all the body parts, as the mother-host, distributes holy food among all members of the yajnic family.

87. (Pitarah Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

कुम्भो वनिष्ठुर्जनिता शचीभिर्यस्मिन्नग्रे योन्यां गर्भोऽ-अन्तः। प्लाशिर्व्यक्तः शतधारऽउत्सो दुहे न कुम्भी स्वधां पितृभ्यः ॥८७॥

Kumbho vaniṣṭhurjanitā śacībhiryasminnagre yonyāṁ garbho antaḥ. Plāśirvyaktaḥ śatadhāra' utso duhe na kumbhī svadhāṁ pitṛbhyaḥ.

The husband, progenitor, is like a jar overflowing with love and vigour. Healthy and handsome, he is like an exuberant fountain flowing in a hundred streams of action with grace and piety. So is the wife, her womb a recipient jar into which the husband should project the seed, the foetus inside being like an oblation in honour of his parents and ancestors.

88. (Sarasvati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

मुखꣳसदस्य शिरऽइत् सतेन जिह्वा पवित्रमश्विनासन्त्-सरस्वती । चप्यं न पायुर्भिषगस्य वालो वस्तिर्न शेपो हरसा तरस्वी ॥८८॥

Mukhaṁ sadasya śira'it satena jihvā pavitra-maśvināsantsarasvatī. Capyaṁ na pāyur-bhiṣagasya vālo vastirna śepo harasā tarasvī.

Sarasvati and the Ashvinis, enlightened woman and the health and spirits of the man, create a happy home with the head and mouth of both together in truth with a sweet tongue fluent in purity. The purity, comfort and security of the home, the love and desire of the woman's fertility, the passion and power of the man's virility, and the child as bloom of the health and love of the union, all these keep the family together.

89. (Ashvinau Devate, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अ॒श्विभ्या॒ं चक्षु॒रमृत॑ं ग्रहा॑भ्या॒ं छागे॑न॒ तेजो॑ ह॒विषा॑ शृ॒तेन॑ं । पक्ष्मा॑णि गो॒धूमै॒ः कुव॑लैरु॒तानि॒ पेशो॒ न शु॒क्रमसि॑तं॒ वसाते ॥८९॥

Aśvibhyām cakṣuramṛtaṁ grahābhyāṁ chāgena tejo haviṣa śṛtena. Pakṣmāṇi godhūmaiḥ kuvalairutāni peśo na śukramasitaṁ vasāte.

By the Ashvinis, sun and moon, with portions of clear soma distilled, is created the immortal light of the eye. With tonics prepared with goat's milk is created the lustre of health. The lower and upper eyelashes are created with wheat and water lilies, and the beauteous form white as well as dark shines with the same nature's gifts.

90. (Sarasvati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अ॒विर्न मे॒षो न॒सि वी॒र्या॒य प्रा॒णस्य॒ पन्था॑ऽअ॒मृतो॒ ग्रहा॑भ्याम्। सरस्वत्युप॒वाकै॒र्व्या॒नं नस्या॑नि ब॒र्हिर्बद॑रैर्जजान ॥९०॥

Avirna meṣo nasi vīryāya prāṇasya panthā' amṛto grahābhyām. Sarasvatyupavākairvyānaṁ nasyāni barhirbadarairjajāna.

Like the sheep and the ram, the protector and contender, the Ashvinis, with portions of clear soma, create the immortal passage of pranic energy in the nose. Sarasvati, nature's flowing vitality, with animation and energy, creates the systemic vyana air in the body, and with grains and fruits, she creates the hair-filter in the nose.

91. (Indra Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

इन्द्रस्य रूपमृषभो बलाय कर्णाभ्याꣳश्रोत्रममृतं ग्रहाभ्याम्।
यवा न बर्हिर्भ्रुवि केसराणि कर्कन्धु जज्ञे मधु सारघं मुखात् ॥९१॥

Indrasya rūpamṛṣabho balāya karṇābhyāṁ śrotramamṛtaṁ grahābhyām. Yavā na barhirbhruvi kesarāṇi karkandhu jajñe madhu sāraghaṁ mukhāt.

The soul's will to live in body form manifests as the bull for the expression of strength. From portions of nature's auditory element in soma is created the immortal faculty of the ear. Barley, as the grass, manifests in the eyebrows. And the jujuba fruit creates the honey sweets that flow from the mouth.

92. (Atma Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

आत्मन्नुपस्थे न वृकस्य लोम मुखे श्मश्रूणि न व्याघ्रलोम।
केशा न शीर्षन्यशसे श्रियै शिखा सिꣳहस्य लोम त्विषिरिन्द्रियाणि ॥९२॥

Ātmannupasthe na vṛkasya loma mukhe śmaśrūṇi na vyāghraloma. Keśā na śīrṣanyaśase śriyai śikha siṁhasya loma tviṣirindriyāṇi.

In the presence of Divinity, the soul rises in eminence and potential: the lower hair of the body is like the hair of the wolf, the beard and moustache on the face are like the whiskers of the tiger, the hair on the head and the top hair glows with beauty and glory like the lion's mane, and the senses shine as lightening.

93. (Ashvinis Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

अङ्गान्यात्मन् भिषजा तदश्विनात्मानमङ्गैः समधात् सरस्वती।
इन्द्रस्य रूपꣳशतमानमायुश्चन्द्रेण ज्योतिरमृतं दधानाः ॥९३॥

Aṅgānyātman bhiṣajā tadaśvinātmānamaṅgaiḥ samadhāt sarasvatī. Indrasya rūpaṁ śatamāna-māyuścandreṇa jyotiramṛtaṁ dadhānāḥ.

Thus do the Ashvinis, bio-engineers of nature, structure limbs for the soul, and thus does Sarasvati, divine mother, join the soul with the limbs, creating a living Indra of a hundred years of age blest with the immortal light and beauty of the moon.

94. (Sarasvati Devata, Shamkha Ṛshi)

सरस्वती योन्यां गर्भमन्तरश्विभ्यां पत्नी सुकृतं बिभर्ति ।
अपाꣳरसेन वरुणो न साम्नेन्द्रꣳश्रियै जनयन्नप्सु राजा ॥९४॥

Sarasvatī yonyāṁ garbhamantaraśvibhyāṁ patnī sukṛtaṁ bibharti. Apāṁ rasena varuṇo na sāmnendraṁ śriyai janayannapsu rājā.

Sarasvati, the wife, bears inside the womb the foetus so well created by the Ashvinis, nature's powers of creation, Varuna, supreme ruler, immanent in the world, integrating the soul with the vital essences of nature and completing the creation of a living Indra, the human being, for a glorious existence.

95. (Ashvinau Devate, Shamkha Ṛshi)

तेजः पशूनाꣳहविरिन्द्रियावत् परिस्रुता पयसा सारघं मधु । अश्विभ्यां दुग्धं भिषजा सरस्वत्या सुतासुताभ्यामृमृतः सोमऽइन्दुः ॥९५॥

Tejaḥ paśūnāṁ havirindriyāvat parisrutā payasā sāraghaṁ madhu. Aśvibhyāṁ dugdhaṁ bhiṣajā sarasvatyā sutāsutābhyāmamṛtaḥ soma' induḥ.

The healthy glow of living forms, the mighty rich nourishments of life, the delicious honey collected by the bee from juices all round are the nectar, the vital power, the beauty distilled from the original as well as the refined sources of nature by Sarasvati, mother spirit of life and humanity through the Ashvinis, creative and healing powers of nature's cosmic flow.

CHAPTER–XX

1. (Sabhesha President Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

क्षत्रस्य॒ योनि॑रसि क्षत्रस्य॒ नाभि॑रसि ।

Kṣatrasya yonirasi kṣatrasya nābhirasi. Mā tvā hiṁsīnmā mā hiṁsīḥ.

President of the Council, you are the seat of world power. You are the centre-hold of the order of humanity. May no one challenge you! You too do not hurt me, any citizen.

2. (Sabhesha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

निष॑साद धृ॒तव्र॑तो॒ वरु॑णः प॒स्त्या॒ऽऊ॒स्वा ।

Niṣasāda dhṛtavrato varuṇaḥ pastyāsvā. Sāmrājyāya sukratuḥ. Mṛtyoḥ pāhi vidyotpāhi.

President of the Supreme Council, committed to noble resolutions of conscious choice, master of noble thoughts and good actions, best and first choice of humanity, be seated on the seat of governance among the peoples of the world for a sovereign world order. Save us from death and destruction. Save us from lightning and the thunderbolt.

3. (Sabhesha Devata, Ashwinau Ṛshi)

Devasya tvā savituḥ prasave' śvinorbāhubhyāṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyām. Aśvinorbhaiṣajyena tejase brahma-varcasāyābhiṣiñcāmi Saraśvatyai bhaiṣajyena vīryāyānnādyāyābhiṣiñcā-mīndrasyendriyeṇa balāya śriyai yaśase' bhiṣiñcāmi.

In this yajnic world order of Lord Savita's creation, with the arms of Ashvinis, harbingers of light and knowledge, the hands of Pusha, powers of strength and nourishment, and the efficacy of Ashvinis, powers of health and healing, I consecrate you for the sake of world-wide brilliance and universal glory of enlightenment.

I consecrate you for Sarasvati, for the sake of learning and education of the people.

With the powers of health and nutrition, I consecrate you for the sake of food and vigour for all.

With the power and enlightenment of divine Indra, Lord of glory, I consecrate you for the achievement of the moral strength, honour and beauty of the world order.

4. (Sabhapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कोऽसि कत॒मोऽसि॒ कस्मै॑ त्वा॒ काय॑ त्वा ।
सु॒श्लोक॒ सुम॑ङ्गल॒ सत्य॑राजन् ॥४॥

Ko'si katamo'si kasmai tvā kāya tvā. Suśloka sumaṅgala satyarājan.

Man of high reputation and honour, leader of many noble causes, illustrious dispenser of truth and justice, you are a man of peace, giver of peace and prosperity. Therefore I accept and consecrate you in the service of Prajapati, divine lord of peace, and His people, for the achievement of universal peace and prosperity.

5. (Sabhapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

शिरो॑ मे॒ श्रीर्यशो॒ मुख॒ꣳ त्विषि॒: केशा॑श्च॒ श्मश्रू॑णि ।

Śiro me śrīryaśo mukhaṁ tviṣiḥ keśāśca śmaśrūṇi. Rājā me prāṇo'amṛtaṁ samrāṭ cakṣurvirāṭ śrotram.

People of the world: honour of the human nation is my head, nobility of the people is my mouth, light of justice and grandeur of world culture is my hair, moustache and beard, good governance is my life and breath, unity of the order is my vision, and diversity of the constituents is my ear.

6. (Sabhapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

जि॒ह्वा मे॑ भ॒द्रं वाङ् महो॒ मनो॑ म॒न्यु: स्व॒राड् भाम॑:।

Jihvā me bhadraṁ vāṅmaho mano manyuḥ svarāḍ bhāmaḥ. Modāḥ pramodā aṅgulīraṅgāni mitraṁ me sahaḥ.

Members of the world state: My tongue shall speak for the good of all. My speech shall explain great projects. My passion shall target wickedness. My anger shall be for the defence of freedom. My fingers shall point to the paths of joy. My limbs shall dance with the people's festivities. My prowess and challenges shall be for the promotion of love and friendship.

7. (Raja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

बा॒हू मे॒ बल॑मिन्द्रि॒यꣳहस्तौ॒ मे॒ कर्म॑ वी॒र्य॑म् ।
आ॒त्मा क्ष॒त्रमु॒रो॒ मर्म॑ ॥७॥

Bāhū me balamindriyaṁ hastau me karma vīryam. Ātmā kṣatramuro mama.

May my arms, strength and prowess, my hands, actions and heroism, my heart and my very soul be for the supremacy and sovereignty of the world order.

8. (Sabhapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

पृ॒ष्ठीर्मे॑ रा॒ष्ट्रमु॒द॒र॒मꣳसौ ग्री॒वाश्च॒ श्रोणी॑ ।

Pṛṣṭhīrme rāṣṭramudaramaṁsau grīvāśca śroṇī. Ūrū 'aratnī jānunī viśo me' ṅgāni sarvataḥ.

The government order is my back. My belly, shoulders, neck, hips and loins, thighs, elbows, knees, and all my limbs are wholly for the people — my people and my government are me.

9. (Sabhesha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

नाभि॑र्मे॒ चि॒त्तं वि॒ज्ञानं॑ पा॒युर्मेऽप॑चितिर्भ्र॒सत् । आ॒न॒न्द॒-न॒न्दावा॒ण्डौ मे॒ भग॒ः सौभा॑ग्यं॒ पस॑ः । जङ्घा॑भ्यां प॒द्भ्यां धर्मो॑ऽस्मि वि॒शि राजा॒ प्रति॑ष्ठितः ॥९॥

Nābhirme cittaṁ vijñānaṁ pāyurme' pacitirbhasat. Ānandanandāvāṇḍau me bhagaḥ saubhāgyaṁ pasaḥ. Jaṅghābhyāṁ padbhyāṁ dharmo'smi viśi rājā pratiṣṭhitaḥ.

I am the ruler, honoured and consecrated among my people. I am Dharma, the law, committed to bear the burden of the order on my legs and feet.

My navel, mind, knowledge, security, honour and reverence, hips and loins, organs of excretion, generation and pleasure, honour and dignity, and good fortune all is for the order and the people.

10. (Sabhesha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प्रति क्षत्रे प्रतितिष्ठामि राष्ट्रे प्रत्यश्वेषु प्रतितिष्ठामि गोषु। प्रत्यङ्गेषु प्रतितिष्ठाम्यात्मन् प्रति प्राणेषु प्रतितिष्ठामि पुष्टे प्रति द्यावापृथिव्योः प्रतितिष्ठामि यज्ञे ॥१०॥

Prati kṣatre prati tiṣṭhāmi rāṣṭre pratyaśveṣu prati tiṣṭhāmi goṣu. Pratyaṅgeṣu prati tiṣṭhāmy-ātman prati prāṇeṣu prati tiṣṭhāmi puṣṭe prati dyāvāpṛthivyoḥ prati tiṣṭhāmi yajñe.

Accepted, appointed and consecrated in this divinely protected Order of the brilliant State of the World: I dedicate and commit myself to the Order, in the Order, for the Order. I dedicate and commit myself to the State, in the State, for the State, to the people, among the People, for the People. I dedicate myself to the horses and cows. I dedicate myself to all parts of the Order and the State. Firmly established in my mind and soul, with all my soul and pranic energy, I dedicate myself to the living spirit and exuberant dynamics of the human nation. I dedicate myself to the growth and development of the strength and prosperity of the people. In the light of heaven and greenery of the earth and her environment, I dedicate myself to heaven and earth. I dedicate and commit myself to the grand socio-economic yajna of service, governance and brilliance of a generous humanity for total and holistic development.

11. (Devas Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

त्रया दे॒वाऽएका॑दश त्रयस्त्रि॒ꣳशाः सु॒राध॑सः । बृह॒स्पति॒पुरोहिता दे॒वस्य॑ स॒वितुः स॒वे । दे॒वा दे॒वैर॑वन्तु मा ॥११॥

Trayā devā ekādaśa trayastriṁśāḥ surādhasaḥ. Bṛhaspatipurohitā devasya savituḥ save. Devā devairavantu mā.

Three are the orders of divinities, brilliant powers of nature's generosity. Three times eleven are they, thirtythree powers of grandeur and majesty all, Brihaspati, the Sun, great lord of light and knowledge being their chief.

In this great world of Lord Savita's yajnic creation, may the devas, brilliant scholars of knowledge and generosity, with all these divine powers, protect me and promote me for the higher life.

Note: The thirty three devas, according to Swami Ji are:

i. Eight Vasus, abodes and supports of life, are: earth, water, fire, air, space, sun, moon and the stars.

ii. Eleven Rudras, viz., five primary pranic energies (prana, apana, vyana, udana and samana), five secondary pranic energies (naga, kurma, krikala devadatta and dhananjaya), and the soul. They are Rudras because they destroy pain, and when they leave the body they make people cry in sorrow.

iii. Twelve Adityas, viz., twelve months of the year, they being zodiacs of the sun in the year. They are Adityas because they count up the time and exhaust the life of whatever is born. In addition to these (8+11+12), there is Indra, universal electric energy, and Yajna, universal creative power.

12. (Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प्रथमा द्वितीयैर्द्वितीयास्तृतीयैस्तृतीयाः सत्येन सत्यं यज्ञेन यज्ञो यजुर्भिर्यजूꣳषि सामभिः सामान्यृग्भिर्ऋचः पुरोऽनुवाक्याभिः पुरोऽनुवाक्या याज्याभिर्याज्या वषट्कारैर्वषट्काराऽआहुतिभिराहुतयो मे कामान्त्समर्धयन्तु भूः स्वाहा॥१२॥

Prathamā dvitīyairdvitīyastṛtīyaistṛtīyāḥ satyena satyaṁ yajñena yajño yajurbhiryajūṁṣi sāmabhiḥ sāmānyṛgbhirṛcaḥ puro'nuvākyābhiḥ puro'nuvākyā yājyābhiryājyā vaṣaṭkārairvaṣaṭkārā'āhutibhirāhutayo me kāmāntsamardhayantu bhūḥ svāhā.

The first order of divinities (Vasus) with the second order (Rudras), the second with the third (Adityas), the third with Satya (nature), nature with yajna (science and technology), science and technology with Yajurveda hymns (application), application with Samaveda hymns (dedication, devotion and joy), dedication with Rgveda hymns (knowledge and vision), knowledge with Puronuvakas of Atharva (specialization), specialisation with Yajnas (yajnic work), yajnic work with Vashatkaras (noble work), noble work with ahutis (oblations), oblations (inputs) with sincere conduct, and all these (in cycle with the Vasus, Rudras and Adityas and so on) on the earth — may all these grant all my desires and promote me among the people.

13. (Teacher Preacher Devatas, Prajapati Ṛshi)

लोमानि प्रयतिर्मम त्वङ् मऽआनतिरागतिः।
माꣳसं मऽउपनतिर्वस्वस्थि मज्जा मऽआनतिः॥१३॥

Lomāni prayatirmama tvaṅ ma ānatirāgatiḥ.
Māṁsaṁ ma'upanatirvasvasthi majjā ma' ānatiḥ.

The hair on my body, my effort and action, my skin, my humility, my coming and income, my flesh, my courtesy, my wealth, bones, marrow and my humility and reverence be all for the teachers and preceptors.

14. (Agni Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्देवा देवहेडनं देवासश्चकृमा वयम् ।
अग्निर्मा तस्मादेनसो विश्वान्मुञ्चत्वꣳहसः॥१४॥

Yaddevā devaheḍanaṁ devāsaścakṛmā vayam.
Agnirmā tasmādenaso viśvānmuñcatvaṁhasaḥ.

Teachers, preaches, saints and sages, whatever our offence we have done to the devas, noble powers, may Agni, Lord God and the noble saint, forgive, and save us from all that offence, irreverence and sin.

15. (Vayu Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यदि दिवा यदि नक्तमेनाꣳसि चकृमा वयम् ।
वायुर्मा तस्मादेनसो विश्वान्मुञ्चत्वꣳहसः ॥१५॥

Yadi divā yadi naktamenāṁsi cakṛmā vayam.
Vāyurmā tasmādenaso viśvānmuñcatvaṁhasaḥ.

If we commit any sin or offence either in the day or in the night, then may Vayu, lord of dynamic knowledge and imagination, deliver me from all that sin and offence.

16. (Surya Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यदि जाग्रद्यदि स्वप्नऽएनाꣳसि चकृमा वयम् ।
सूर्यो मा तस्मादेनसो विश्वान्मुञ्चत्वꣳहसः॥१६॥

Yadi jāgradyadi svapna'enāṁsi cakṛmā vayam.
Sūryo mā tasmādenaso viśvānmuñcatvaṁhasaḥ.

If we happen to commit any offence or sin either while awake or while asleep, then may Sun, lord of brilliant knowledge and warmth, deliver me from all that offence and sin.

17. (Sages Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद् ग्रामे॒ यदर॑ण्ये॒ यत्स॒भाया॑ं॒ यदि॑न्द्रि॒ये । यच्छू॒द्रे यद॑र्ये॒ यदे॑न॑श्चकृ॒मा व॒यं यदे॑क॒स्याऽधि॒धर्म॑ण्णि॒ तस्या॑व॒यज॑न-मसि ॥१७॥

Yadgrāme yadaraṇye yatsabhāyāṁ yadindriye.
Yacchūdre yadarye yadenaścakṛmā vayaṁ yadekasyādhi dharmaṇi tasyāvayajanamasi.

Saints and sages, whatever offence or sin we happen to commit in the village, or in the forest, or in the assembly, or in the mind, or among the assistants, or among the employers, or against anyone's dharma, conscience or profession, then you alone are the powers to save and deliver us from that.

18. (Varuna Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यदापो॑ऽअ॒घ्न्याऽइ॒ति॒ वरु॒णेति॒ शपा॑महे॒ ततो॑ वरुण नो मुञ्च । अव॑भृथ निचु॒म्पुण निचे॒रुर॑सि निचुम्पु॒णः । अव॑ दे॒वैर्दे॒वकृ॑त॒मेनो॑ऽय॒क्ष्यव॒ मर्त्यै॒र्मर्त्य॑कृतं पुरु॒राव्णो॑ देव रि॒ष-स्पा॑हि ॥१८॥

Yadāpo'aghnyā'iti varuṇeti śapāmahe tato varuṇa no muñca. Avabhṛtha nicumpuṇa niceruasi nicumpuṇaḥ. Ava devairdeva-kṛtameno' yakṣyava martyairmartyakṛtaṁ pururāvṇo deva riṣaspāhi.

Prana, life, is precious and sacred. The cow is precious and sacred, inviolable. Varuna, Lord Supreme, the eminent sage, is great. If ever we injure, violate or revile these, then, O Varuna, O generous sage, deliver us from that sin.

Noble sage of knowledge, you are initiated and consecrated, blessed, calm and generous as a fountain. Ward off the sins committed by the nobles, through/by the nobles. Let the ordinary people fight out and eliminate the crimes committed by the average people. Save us from fear, terror and violence.

19. (Apah Devta, Prajapati Ṛshi)

समुद्रे ते हृदयमप्स्वन्तः सं त्वा विशन्त्वोषधीरुतापः ।
सुमित्रिया नऽआपऽ ओषधयः सन्तु दुर्मित्रियास्तस्मै सन्तु

Soma, disciple, your heart and soul is in sea, in the midst of the energy there and in the depths of celestial waters. May the pranic energies and the vitality of the herbs enter your mind with their secrets. May the herbs and the pranic energies be friendly to us. They will be unfriendly to those negativities which harm us and which we, in consequence, hate and avoid.

20. (Apah Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्रुपदादिव मुमुचानः स्विन्नः स्नातो मलादिव ।
पूतं पवित्रेणेवाज्यमापः शुन्धन्तु मैनसः ॥२०॥

Drupadādiva mumucānaḥ svinnaḥ snāto malādiva. Pūtaṁ pavitreṇevājyamāpaḥ śundhantu mainasaḥ.

Like a prisoner freed from a post of captivity, like a man in sweat cleansed of dirt after bath, like ghee purified of scum through a strainer, may the waters and energies purge me of sin and evil into the purity of freedom.

21. (Surya Devata, Praskanva Ṛshi)

उद्व॒यं तम॑स॒स्परि॒ स्व॒ः पश्य॑न्त॒ऽउत्त॑रम् ।

Udvayaṁ tamasaspari svaḥ paśyanta'uttaram.
Devaṁ devatrā sūryamaganma jyotiruttamam.

Up we move beyond the dark with a vision of the higher regions of bliss, and may we reach the sun, the Lord of Light Supreme, among the lights of the world.

22. (Agni Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अ॒पोऽअ॒द्यान्व॑चारिष॒ꣳरसे॑न॒ सꣳसृ॑क्ष्महि । पय॑स्वानग्न॒ऽआग॑म॒ꣳ तं मा॒ सꣳसृ॑ज॒ वर्च॑सा प्र॒जया॑ च॒ धने॑न च ॥२२॥

Apo'adyānvacāriṣaṁ rasena samasṛkṣmahi.
Payasvānagna'āgamaṁ taṁ mā saṁ sṛja varcasā prajayā ca dhanena ca.

I have tasted the waters of bliss to-day. Let us all create joy and open out to the flood gates of freedom and bliss.

Agni, having drunk of joy and bliss, I have come to you. Lord of light and knowledge, bless me with children, wealth of knowledge and prosperity and the splendour of honour and dignity.

23. (Samid Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

एधोऽस्येधिषीमहि समिदसि तेजोऽसि तेजो मयि धेहि । समावर्वर्ति पृथिवी समुषाः समु सूर्यः। समु विश्वमिदं जगत् । वैश्वानरज्योतिर्भूयासं विभून् कामान् व्यश्नवै भूः स्वाहा ॥२३॥

Edho'syedhiṣīmahi samidasi tejo'si tejo mayi dhehi. Samāvavarti pṛthivī samuṣāḥ samu sūryaḥ. Samu viśvamidaṁ jagat. Vaiśvānarajyotirbhūyāsaṁ vibhūn kāmān vyaśnavai bhūḥ svāhā.

Samit, food of the holy fire, you are the harbinger of prosperity. May we be prosperous. You are the food of the light divine, light itself. Infuse light and lustre into me. May the earth be generous. May the dawns bring us light and peace. May the sun give light and warmth. May this whole world be full of joy. May I shine with the light of the world and be the light itself. May I attain my desire and great ambitions. May I, with truth of word and deed, attain the glory of the world.

24. (Agni Devata, Ashvatarashvi Ṛshi)

अभ्यादधामि समिधमग्नै व्रतपते त्वयि ।
व्रतं च श्रद्धां चोपैमीन्धे त्वा दीक्षितोऽअहम् ॥२४॥

Abhyādadhāmi samidhamagne vratapate tvayi.
Vrataṁ ca śraddhāṁ copaimīndhe tvā dīkṣito' aham.

Agni, lord keeper and sustainer of the vows of speech and karma, initiated and consecrated I place the fuel into the holy fire with concentration and dedication of mind. I light the fire and commit myself to the vows of yajna and faith in the divine order.

25. (Agni Devata, Ashvatarashvi Ṛshi)

यत्र ब्रह्म च क्षत्रं च सम्यञ्चौ चरतः सह ।
तं लोकं पुण्यं प्रज्ञेषं यत्र देवाः सहाग्निना ॥२५॥

Yatra brahma ca kṣatraṁ ca samyañcau caratah saha. Taṁllokaṁ puṇyaṁ prajñeṣaṁ yatra devāḥ sahāgnina.

Where the Brahma order of learning and the Kshatra order of governance coexist and work together in harmony, and where the noble citizens abide by the fire of yajna, that holy land and spirit divine, O Lord, I pray, reveal to me.

26. (Agni Devata, Ashvatarashvi Ṛshi)

यत्रेन्द्रश्च वायुश्च सम्यञ्चौ चरतः सह ।
तं लोकं पुण्यं प्रज्ञेषं यत्र सेदिर्न विद्यते ॥२६॥

Yatrendraśca vāyuśca samyañcau caratah saha. Taṁllokaṁ puṇyaṁ prajñeṣaṁ yatra sedima vidyate.

Where Indra is light and power, and Vayu breath of life, and both in unison work for all, where want is non-existent and weariness no more, that holy land of plenty and sacred joy, O Lord of Light, reveal to me.

27. (Soma Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अꣳशुना ते अꣳशुः पृच्यतां परुषा परुः ।
गन्धस्ते सोममवतु मदाय रसोऽअच्युतः ॥२७॥

Aṁśunā te aṁśuḥ pṛcyatāṁ paruṣā paruḥ. Gandhaste somamavatu madāya raso'acyutaḥ.

Soma is the Spirit of life, fragrance imperishable, inexhaustible, eternal.

Let the filament of the soma plant stay joined to the branch, let the branch with the plant mature and be whole with the plant.

May the knot of the cane grow out of the knot, stay joined to the knot, mature and be one and whole with the tree.

Soma, Spirit of life, may your fragrance and eternal vitality protect the unity and wholeness of life among all its constituent parts.

28. (Indra Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

सिञ्चन्ति परिषिञ्चन्त्युत्सिञ्चन्ति पुनन्ति च ।
सुरायै बभ्रुवै मदे किन्त्वो वदति किन्त्वः ॥२८॥

Siñcanti pari ṣiñcantyutsiñcanti punanti ca.
Surāyai babhrvai made kintvo vadati kintvaḥ.

Those who take the shower of bliss in soma, life divine, merge wholly, purge and raise themselves, and purify their soul with the nectar for the sake of vitality, dignity and ecstasy of living, they are the immortals. 'So what?' says the sceptic and ends up in the doubt.

29. (Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

धानावन्तं करम्भिणमपूपवन्तमुक्थिनम् ।
इन्द्र प्रातर्जुषस्व नः ॥२९॥

Dhānāvantaṁ karambhiṇamapūpavantamukthinam. lndra prātarjuṣasva naḥ.

Indra, master of knowledge and power of speech, in the morning accept and enjoy our food, delicious and rich with nutriments, mixed with curds and honey cakes, excellently prepared with holy recipes and offered with reverence.

30. (Indra Devata, Nrimedha Purushameda Rshis)

Bṛhadindrāya gāyata maruto vṛtrahantamam.
Yena jyotirajanayannṛtāvṛdho devaṁ devāya jāgṛvi.

Heroes of knowledge, ever watchful, promoters of truth and right, sing the great joyous songs of Brihat-Sama in honour of mighty Indra, lord of the universe, by which you would awaken the heavenly light which will break through the clouds of darkness and open the flood-gates of light and prosperity.

Punāhīndrāya pātave.

High-priest of yajna, bring down the soma, waters of life, distilled from the clouds and sanctify them for the drink of Indra and his citizens of the world order.

32. (Paramatma Devata, Kaundinya Ṛshi)

यो भू॒ता॒नामधि॑पति॒र्यस्मि॑ँल्लो॒काऽअधि॑श्रिताः। यऽईशे॑ महतो म॒हाँस्तेन॑ गृह्णामि॒ त्वाम॒हं मयि॑ गृह्णामि॒ त्वाम॒हम् ॥३२॥

Yo bhūtānāmadhipatiryasmiṅllokā'adhi śritāḥ.

The Lord that is the presiding power of all the forms of existence, under whose law the worlds of the universe reside, who is greater than the greatest and reigns supreme over all, to this Lord of existence, for His grace, I bow in faith.

Lord of mine and all, I come, I hold on to you, and I consecrate my heart and soul with your presence.

On invitation, I take the food served here as it has been prepared by experts, supervised by learned women, ordered by Indra, the dignified host, and certified by the chief of security.

36. (Indra Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

समिद्धऽइन्द्रऽउषसामनीके पुरोरुचा पूर्वकृद्वावृधानः।
त्रिभिर्देवैस्त्रिꣳशता वज्रबाहुर्जघानं वृत्रं वि दुरौ ववार ॥३६॥

Samiddha'indra'uṣasāmanīke purorucā pūrvakṛdvāvṛdhānaḥ. Tribhirdevaistriṁśatā vajrabāhurjaghāna vṛtraṁ vi duro vavāra.

Just as Indra, the sun, ancient light of the world, refulgent in the splendour of the dawn, blazing and advancing in the east with thirty three devatas, destroys the clouds of darkness and opens the flood gates of light, so do you, brilliant man of knowledge and modern challenges, advance with all the force of your scholars of the Vasu, Rudra and Aditya order, destroy the darkness of ignorance and open the flood gates of the light of knowledge.

37. (Tanunapat Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

नराशꣳसः प्रति शूरो मिमानस्तनूनपात्प्रति यज्ञस्य धामं ।
गोभिर्वपावान्मधुना समञ्जन्हिरण्यैश्चन्द्री यजति प्रचेताः॥३७

Narāsaṁsaḥ prati śūro mimānastanūnapāt prati yajñasya dhāma. Gobhirvapāvān madhunā samañjan hiraṇyaiścandrī yajati pracetāḥ.

Universally admirable is the man who is brave and totally fearless, maker of many things, self-dependent and self-protective, wholly dedicated to yajna, farming the land with bulls and cows, well-provided with milk, butter and honey, bright with golden wealth, and highly enlightened, and begins his day with yajna.

38. (Indra Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

ईडितो देवैर्हरिवाँ२॥ऽअभिष्टिराजुह्वानो हविषा शर्द्धमानः।

Īḍito devairharivāṅ'abhiṣṭirājuhvāno haviṣā śardhamānaḥ. Purandaro gotrabhidvajra-bāhurāyātu yajñamupa no juṣāṇaḥ.

Indra, the man respected and admired by the godly, brilliant spirit of many yajnas, invited and engaged in discussions with presentations, bold yet patient, breaking the clouds and enemy forts like Indra, lord of the thunderbolt, is invited to our yajna. May he come and grace the yajna with his presence.

39. (Indra Devata. Angirasa Ṛshi)

जुषाणो बर्हिर्हरिवान्नऽइन्द्रः प्राचीनꣳसीदत्प्रदिशा पृथिव्याः।

Juṣāṇo barhirharivān na'indraḥ prācīnaṁ sīdat pradiśā pṛthivyāḥ. Uruprathāḥ prathamānaṁ syonamādityairaktaṁ vasubhiḥ sajoṣāḥ.

Just as Indra, the sun, wielder of the waters and expansive lord of the rays of light, pervading the sky and regions of the universe, united with the Vasus and the Adityas, graces the ancient, vast, beautiful and celebrated floor of the earth, so please you, celebrated man of yajna, grace our home of yajna.

40. (Indra Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

इन्द्रं दुरः कव्यष्यो धावमाना वृषाणं यन्तु जनयः सुपत्नीः।
द्वारो देवीरभितो विश्रयन्ताꣳसुवीरा वीरं प्रथमाना महोभिः ॥४०॥

Indraṁ duraḥ kavaṣyo dhāvamānā vṛṣāṇaṁ yantu janayaḥ supatnīḥ. Dvāro devīrabhito vi śrayantāṁ suvīrā vīraṁ prathamānā mahobhiḥ.

Just as noble women sweet of speech and good wives and mothers to be, eagerly join Indra, virile young men of power and dignity, and find the door to their new home of settlement, so should noble and virile young men, celebrated for their power and dignity, take to good and virtuous women wholly and freely and settle in a happy new home.

41. (Ushasa-nakta Devate, Angirasa Ṛshi)

उषासानक्ता बृहती बृहन्तं पयस्वती सुदुघे शूरमिन्द्रम्।

Uṣāsānaktā bṛhatī bṛhantaṁ payasvatī sudughe śūramindram. Tantuṁ tataṁ peśasā saṁvayantī devānāṁ devaṁ yajataḥ surukme.

Night and dawn, beautiful, great, abundant, generous, wearing the design of the warp and woof of light, already spread out in the east, with form and colour, adorn Indra, the rising sun, light of lights so brave and majestic, with the splendour of the morning.

(Just as night and dawn look forward to the sun, so should the people look forward to and associate with the brilliant and the brave and fearless.)

42. (Daivyadhyapaka-upadeshaka Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

दैव्या मिमाना मनुषः पुरुत्रा होतारा विन्द्रं प्रथमा सुवाचा । मूर्द्धन्यज्ञस्य मधुना दधाना प्राचीनं ज्योतिर्हविषा वृधातः॥४२

Daivyā mimānā manuṣaḥ purutrā hotārā-vindraṁ prathamā suvācā. Mūrdhan yajñasya madhunā dadhānā prācīnaṁ jyotirhavīṣā vṛdhātaḥ.

Teachers and preachers, learned and brilliant makers of yajnic projects, generous in oblations, noble of speech, first and foremost in yajnic organisations, leaders and supporters of people in many ways, with honey and fragrant materials light up, promote and advance the ancient fire of yajna and glorify Indra, the Spirit, power and ecstasy of the holy performance.

43. (Tisro-daivyah, Three goddesses Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

तिस्रो देवीर्हविषा वर्द्धमानाऽइन्द्रं जुषाणा जनयो न पत्नीः। अच्छिन्नं तन्तुं पयसा सरस्वतीडा देवी भारती विश्व-तूर्त्तिः॥४३॥

Tisro devīrhaviṣā vardhamānā'indraṁ juṣāṇā janayo na patnīḥ. Acchinnaṁ tantuṁ payasā saraśvatīḍā devī bhāratī viśvatūrtiḥ.

The trinity of Ida, Sarasvati and Bharati, universally active like nursing mothers, constantly feed, sustain and augment the continuous flow of life-yajna with holy food and drinks, serving thereby and pleasing

Indra, lord of existence. (Ida holds the inexhaustible potential, Sarasvati controls the flow, and Bharati defines the forms in the continuum.)

44. (Tvashta Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

त्वष्टा॒ दध॒च्छुष्म॒मिन्द्रा॑य॒ वृष्णे॑ऽपा॒को॑ऽचि॑ष्टुर्य॒शसे॑ पु॒रूणि॑।

Tvaṣṭā dadhacchuṣmamindrāya vṛṣṇe'pāko'-ciṣṭuryaśase purūṇi. Vṛṣā yajan vṛṣaṇaṁ bhūrireta mūrdhan yajñasya samanaktu devān.

May Tvashta, creator of fine and sophisticated forms, provide the weapons of defence and power for virile Indra, lord defender of life. Let the dynamic man going far and wide collect various and versatile materials for his glory. Let the generous man of tempestuous speed studying the rain and clouds at the head of yajna (of science and technology) bring together the noblest scholars and sages in the service of the generous Indra.

45. (Vanaspati Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

वन॒स्पति॒रव॑सृष्टो॒ न पाशै॒स्त्मन्या॑ सम॒ञ्जञ्छ॑मि॒ता न दे॒वः ।

Vanaspatiravasṛṣṭo na pāśaistmanyā samañjañchamitā na devaḥ. Indrasya havyairjaṭharaṁ pṛṇānaḥ svadāti yajñam madhunā ghṛtena.

The chief of the forests, like an arrow shot from the bow, with all the bonds of dedication of his heart and soul, fills the treasures of Indra with created wealth like the brilliant and blissful yajna of the nation, and himself too enjoys the honey sweet gifts of the yajna.

46. (Svahakritayah Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

स्तोकानामिन्दुं प्रति शूरऽइन्द्रो वृषायमाणो वृषभस्तुराषाट्।

Stokānāminduṁ prati śūra'indro vṛṣāyamāṇo vṛṣabhasturāṣāṭ. Ghṛtapruṣā manasā modamānāḥ svāhā devā'amṛtā mādayantām.

May the brave, generous and exalted hero, Indra, conqueror of the violent, and the brilliant realized souls among humanity, rejoicing at heart by the sacred acts of their holy sacrifice into the fire and gifts of love and kindness, drink of the nectar sweets of soma in yajnic life and live the ecstasy of their immortal being on earth.

47. (Indra Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

आयात्विन्द्रोऽवसऽउप नऽइह स्तुतः सधमादस्तु शूरः।

Ā yātvindro'vasa'upa na'iha stutaḥ sadhamādastu śūraḥ. Vāvṛdhānastaviṣīryasya pūrvīrdyaurna kṣatramabhibhūti puṣyāt.

May Indra, mighty hero, come for our defence and protection here and, sung and celebrated, be with us as a friend and companion, augmenting his forces trained by veterans, which superior power of his forces, able to suppress the enemies, may strengthen and promote our social order like the umbrella of vast heavens.

48. (Indra Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

आ नऽ इन्द्रो दूरादा नऽआसादभिष्टिकृदवसे यासदुग्रः।

Ā na'indro haribhiryātvacchārvācīno' vase rādhase ca. Tiṣṭhāti vajrī maghavā virapśīmaṁ yajñamanu no vājasātau.

May Indra, eminent man of dynamic knowledge and movement, come well with his power of horse for our protection and advancement in prosperity. Wielder of the thunderbolt, lord of power and majesty, mighty strong, may he grace this our yajna with favour. May he stand by us firm and inviolable in the battles of life.

50. (Indra Devata, Garga Ṛshi)

त्रातारमिन्द्रमवितारमिन्द्रꣳहवेहवे सुहवꣳशूरमिन्द्रम् ।

Trātāramindramavitāramindraṁ have have suhavaṁ śuramindram. Hvayāmi śakraṁ puruhūtamindraṁ svasti no maghavā dhātvindraḥ.

I invoke Indra, lord of might and majesty, adorable and universally adored, saviour, protector and promoter of His creation. I invoke Him for protection in every problem of life.

I call upon Indra, royal and brave ruler of the nation, saviour and protector of the people, and destroyer of the nation's enemies. I call upon him for protection and solution of every problem in the life of the nation.

I call upon Indra, commander of the army, defender and protector of the land, instant in action, for defence in every battle of the nation.

May Indra, saviour, protector, defender and promoter of life, destroyer of evil and router of the enemy, lord of power and prosperity, bless us with all that is good and hold it safe for us.

51. (Indra Devata, Garga Ṛshi)

Indraḥ sutrāmā svavāṅ'avobhiḥ sumṛḍīko bhavatu viśvavedāḥ. Bādhatāṁ dveṣo' abhayaṁ kṛṇotu suvīryasya patayaḥ syāma.

May Indra, lord of life and the world, gracious saviour and protector, sole lord of his power and people, master of universal wealth and knowledge, lord of progress and advancement, we pray, be kind and give us all the protection we need.

May the lord keep off all hate and enemies and bless us with freedom from fear. We pray we may be defenders and promoters of manly power and honour.

52. (Indra Devata, Garga Ṛshi)

Tasya'vayaṁ sumatau yajñiyasyāpi bhadre saumanase syāma. Sa sutrāmā svavāṅ'indro' asme'ārāccid dveṣaḥ sanutaryuyotu.

May Indra, lord of life and the world/Ruler of the land, master of his own power and people, saviour and protector, always and everyway keep off from us whatever hate or emity is there far and near.

May we be with him in his yajna of life, in his creative and constructive works, and abide by him enjoying the favour of his love as well as judgement.

53. (Indra Devata, Vishvamitra Ṛshi)

आ म॒न्द्रैरि॑न्द्र हरि॑भिर्या॒हि म॒यूर॑रोमभिः । मा त्वा॒ के चि॒न्नि य॑म॒न् विं न पा॒शिनोऽति॒ धन्वे॑व॒ ताँ२॥ऽई॑हि ॥५३॥

Ā mandrairindra haribhiryāhi mayūraromabhiḥ. Mā tvā ke cinni yaman viṁ na pāśino'ti dhanveva tāṅ'ihi.

Come Indra, lord of might and majesty, by your charming peacock-haired horses. Let none whatsoever hold you back, let no hunter catch you with snares like a bird. March on like an exceptional hero of the bow, advance and take them (the enemies) on.

54. (Indra Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

Evedindraṁ vṛṣaṇāṁ vajrabāhuṁ vasiṣṭhāso abhyarcantyarkaiḥ. Sa na stuto vīravaddhātu gomad yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

The best, richest and most excellent people, well settled in peace and prosperity, honour and worship with prayers and good works Indra, lord of might and majesty, ruler of the land and the world, hero of the arms of steel. Honoured and worshipped thus, may he hold and protect our land and nation blest with heroic warriors and the wealth of cows, fields and pastures.

55. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

समिद्धोऽअग्निर्‌श्विना तप्तो घर्मो विराट् सुतः।

Samiddho' agniraśvinā tapto gharmo virāṭ sutaḥ. Duhe dhenuḥ sarasvatī somaṁ śukramihendriyam.

Agni, lighted, heated, burning and blazing as universal and sovereign light of the world, inspired with vitality, creates food and energy for the Lord's creation.

Sarasvati, voice of universal knowledge, holds the pure nectar of the wealth and grandeur of the spirit of life and, like a cow, yields it for the nourishment and benefit of men and women of the world.

So must I create light and vitality. So should all men and women do like the Ashvinis, powers of health and nourishment.

56. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

तनूपा भिषजा सुतेऽश्विनोभा सर्‌स्वती ।

Tanūpa bhiṣaja sute'śvinobhā sarasvatī. Madhvā rajāṁsīndriyamindrāya pathibhir-vahān.

In this world of beauty created with the sweetness of soma distilled from the spirit of nature, both the Ashvinis, powers of health, the physicians, and Sarasvati, scholar of knowledge and the divine voice, should bear the honour and glory of Indra, lord of the world, and render it back to Indra,the ruler, in faith and gratitude.

57. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

Indrāyenduṁ sarasvatī narāśaṁsena nagnahum. Adhātamaśvinā madhu bheṣajaṁ bhiṣajā sute.

Let Sarasvati, mother scholar of knowledge and the Vedic voice, create the inspiring honour and joy of life by the admirable yajna of the people in honour of Indra, lord of yajna and the world.

Let the Ashvinis, experts of health and medicine, create and bear the sweet medicinal panacea in honour of the Lord.

58. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

आ॒जुह्वा॑ना॒ सर॑स्व॒तीन्द्रा॑येन्द्रि॒याणि॑ वी॒र्य॑म् ।

Ājuhvānā sarasvatīndrāyendriyāṇi vīryam. Iḍābhiraśvināviṣaṁ samūrjaṁ saṁ rayiṁ dadhuḥ.

The wife, woman of knowledge respected and praised all round, should hold in the home the best of health-giving, rejuvenating and powerful foods for her husband's body, mind and senses. The physicians and nutricians should, with their knowledge and researches, create special energising foods, elevating tonics and blissful wealth of health.

59. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

अश्विना नमुचेः सुतꣳ सोमꣳ शुक्रं परिस्रुता ।

Aśvinā namuceḥ sutaṁ somaṁ śukraṁ parisrutā.
Sarasvatī tamābharad bārhiṣendrāya pātave.

The scholars of science and medicine and women of knowledge and motherly love, with all their research and yajnic dedication, should create and bear for Indra pure nectars of vitality distilled from the juices extracted from all herbs for the cure of chronic and deadly diseases.

60. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

कवष्यो न व्यचस्वतीरश्विभ्यां न दुरो दिशः।

Kavaṣyo na vyacasvatīraśvibhyāṁ na duro diśaḥ. Indro na rodasī'ubhe duhe kāmānt-sarasvatī.

As the humming bees go round wide spaces, as wide spaces are lit up by the sun and moon, as Indra, universal energy, invigorates the heaven and earth, so does Sarasvati, mother of vision and knowledge, with the Ashvinis, fiery energy of the sun and soothing beauty of the moon, create all the means of joy and comfort for all.

61. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

Sañjānāne supeśasā samañjāte sarasvatyā.

Day and night from early dawn to evening, Ashvinis, scholars of knowledge and wisdom, with Sarasvati, mother of joy and generosity, in words of sweetness and persuasion, knowing well together life and its values, invest Indra, the human spirit, with a handsome form and noble faculties, powers and prosperity.

62. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

पा॒तं नो॑ऽअश्विना॒ दिवा॑ पा॒हि नक्तं॑ सरस्वति ।

Pātaṁ no’aśvinā divā pāhi naktaṁ sarasvati.
Daivyā hotārā bhiṣajā pātamindraṁ sacā sute.

Men of knowledge and wisdom, teachers and preachers, and mother Sarasvati protect and promote us day and night.

Noble men of yajna and sacrifice, men of health and medicine, working together in the world, save and protect the human spirit, create and protect the spirit of joy.

63. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

ति॒स्रस्त्रे॒धा सर॑स्वत्य॒श्विना॒ भार॒तीडा॑ ।

Tisrastredhā sarasvatyaśvinā bhāratīḍā. Tīvraṁ parisrutā somamindrāya suṣuvurmadam.

Three motherly spirits, Vedic vision, knowledge and wisdom, and the mother-land, and two powers of health and medicine, may distil and create the intense and joyous nectar of soma extracted from all nature for Indra, the human soul, in three ways, that is, for physical, mental and spiritual nourishment.

64. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

अश्विना भेषजं मधु भेषजं नः सरस्वती ।

The soma juice of health having been prepared for us and Indra, the ruling powers, may the Ashvinis, sanative powers of nature and the scholars, Sarasvati, generous motherly women of knowledge, and Tvashta, refiners and creators of beautiful forms bless us with honey-sweets of life, honour, wealth and prosperity and graceful forms of individual and social life appropriate for everyone.

65. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

ऋतुथेन्द्रो वनस्पतिः शशमानः परिस्रुता ।

Ṛtuthendro vanaspatiḥ śaśamānaḥ parisrutā. Kīlālamaśvibhyāṁ madhu duhe dhenuḥ sarasvatī.

Let Indra, the ruling power, the chief of the forests, the great growing trees, the generous cow and the enlightened mother, Sarasvati, with the advice and expertise of the Ashvinis, scholars of health care and medication, create and produce powerful honey-tonics from the flowing and fermenting juices according to the seasons.

66. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

Gobhirna somamaśvinā māsareṇa parisrutā.
Samadhātaṁ sarasvatyā svahendre sutaṁ madhu.

Ashvinis, expert powers of health and nutrition, like milk produced and held by cows, create and hold for the man of power and glory soma, honey-sweet tonics, distilled from widely extracted juices mixed with curds and barley prepared by the generous mother Sarasvati with love and dedication.

67. (Ashvi-Sarasvati-Indra Devata, Vidarbhi Ṛshi)

Let the generous man perform yajna on the earth and light the fire in the vedi with holy fuel in honour of Agni, light of life, Ashvinis, sun and moon, Indra, cosmic power, and Sarasvati, creative intelligence of the universe.

Like the purple fire and grey smoke of the yajna, sweet sanative fragrances would rise with the libations of wheat and berries as shoots of grass. Like the brilliance of fire would follow the lustre of life, wealth and prosperity, milk and delicacies, soma distilled from nature, nectar of waters and honey-sweets of the world.

He would thus be strengthening, refining and promoting food, medicines and life's beauty for the soul with the aid of medicinal plants and cow's milk. And then milk and delicious drinks, soma distilled from herbal juices, ghee and honey would follow.

And then milk and rejuvenating drinks, soma from vital juices, ghee and honey would follow.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna with the best libations of ghrta.

Let him, like Indra, explore earth and heaven both replete with energy like the mother cow. Let Sarasvati, scholar and visionary of the divine word, explore the sun and the moon, distil the panacea and splendour of life as pure and powerful as light itself for Indra, the soul. And then milk and delicious drinks, soma distilled from nature, ghee and honey would follow and flow upon the earth.

Just as the beautiful dawn and twilight decorate the day and night, just as the Ashvinis, sun and moon, with Sarasvati, currents of universal energy, vest and brighten up lustre and vitality in Indra, the powerful soul, so should the man of yajna, like an eagle (scholar), one with the soma of the sky, bring and offer rice and barley pudding in yajna with whole-hearted faith and grace of mind. And then milk and delicious drinks, soma distilled from nature, ghee and honey would follow and flow on the earth.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna with the purest ghee.

Just as the celestial priests and physicians, the Ashvinis, fire and wind, perform the cosmic yajna of evolution in honour of Indra, universal life energy, and just as Sarasvati, divine creativity, or the enlightened physician, active day and night, creates vital energy with sanative waters and lead and distils the glory for Indra, the soul, from nature, so should the man of yajna perform the sacrifice to the lord supreme for the sake of the soul. And then milk and delicious drinks, soma distilled from nature, ghee and honey would follow and flow upon the earth.

Let the man of yajna perform the yajna, invoking three divine powers, Ida, eternal speech and intelligence, Sarasvati, fluent speech, and Bharati, specific intelligence, and let him pray to the Ashvinis, sanative powers of nature, for curative waters of health and longevity (bheshajam). The three as well as the Ashvinis would create threefold balance of health (with sattva, rajas and tamas — intellect, energy and matter — and three humors of vata, pitta, and cough), turn it into a golden form and vest it into Indra, the soul. Thus do the Ashvinis as well as Ida, Sarasvati and Bharati, with speech and energy, create glory and prosperity from nature for the soul.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna with ghee, and then milk and delicious drinks, soma distilled from juices, nectars of water and ghee and honey would follow and flow upon the earth.

Let the man of yajna perform the yajna and invoke the virile, powerful, noble maker and creator Tvashta, destroyer of suffering, Indra, lord of power and majesty, Ashvinis, nature's energy of wind and electricity, Sarasvati, universal intelligence as well as the physician, all creators and harbingers of health and growth. And like an expert of health he would attain brilliance of health as well as the drive and splendour for living, ardour of movement as well as the lightning of the thunderbolt, honour and reputation as tonics, medicaments with curative waters, and holy food with beauty and grace. And further, delicious drinks and milk, soma distilled as the essence of herbal juices, butter and nectars of waters, and honey would follow and flow upon the earth.

Let the man of yajna offer the sacrifice in honour of the lord of sun-rays, Vanaspati, giver of peace, hero of a hundred noble acts of yajna and yet fearsome and passionate, the ruler, majestic as a lion with the thunderbolt. And Ashvinis, nature's currents of energy (and the president of the assembly and the commander of the army) and Sarasvati, noble intelligence and speech as well as the physician would create righteous anger and dignity for Indra, the ruler. And then all round prosperity, milk and drinks, soma, beauty and grace, nectar-like waters and ghee and honey would follow and flow upon the earth.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna with the best of ghee for the ruler.

Let him make the oblations for the chief of forests, vegetation and water, a darling friend and fellow traveller, with love, as for a soothing medicine. And all the powers of divinity, lovers, protectors and promoters of food and nourishments, and Agni, lord of light and energy, would bring around restorative and curative medicaments, milk and delicious drinks, soma, the nectar juice distilled from nature, butter and ghee and honey. These would follow and flow upon the earth.

Let the man of yajna perform the yajna in honour of Ashvinis, prana and apana powers of nature and the physicians with the milk and ghee of the goat. Let the Ashvinis partake of the holy food. Let them eat and raise the pranic vitality from the middle part of the body, for sure, before the anti-system forces of ailments take hold of the body and make their home there. And may the Ashvinis delight in protecting and promoting the subtle vitality of the pranas which are ever active in the digestion of food, first in assimilating the assimilable and eliminating the waste, exhilarating, creating a hundred currents of energy, living heat of the system, and essential strength of the body free from obesity. May the Ashvinis protect and promote the vitality expressive from the sides, the back, hyperactive vital parts, weaker and delicate parts, in short, from every vital part of the body system.

Man of yajna, offer the holy food in the yajna.

Thus do they bless Indra fortunate man of yajna with the wealth and splendour of the world and bring him to perfection in life.

Man of devotion, live on with the spirit of yajna.

Noble and brilliant powers of divinity, priests of the noble and generous people, the Ashvinis, learned scholars, the physicians, and Sarasvati, the voice of divinity, with Vashatkara hymns by the priests of yajna, vest Indra, lustrous man of yajna, with divine light and lightning energy in the heart as well as intelligence in the mind. Thus do they bring wealth of the world and splendour of life to the man of yajna and perfect him in his desire and ambition.

Man of yajna, keep up the sacrifice for perfection in life.

May all the divine powers come and make the energy and wealth of the world flow into the blessed man of yajna.

Blessed man, perform the yajna, never relent.

55. (Ashvinis & Others Devata, Svastyatreya Ṛshi)

The brilliant Indra universally sung and celebrated, residing in the three worlds of heaven, earth and the sky, wondrous warrior of the chariot, is reached through Sarasvati, divine speech and the Ashvinis, circuitous powers of nature. Tvashta, divine maker of forms, creates the vital creative energy as well as the immortal form, senses and the sense organs for Indra and vests these in him. May Tvashta, Sarasvati and the Ashvinis create the wealth of the world for Indra, blessed man of honour and power, and vest the same in him.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna in honour of the divinities.

56. (Ashvinis & Others Devata, Svastyatreya Ṛshi)

The lord of light, guardian of nature, self-refulgent, of golden hue, generous and fruitful, matures the honey sweets of fruits and vegetables for Indra, the soul, with Sarasvati, constant flow of energy, the rays of light, and the Ashvinis, heat and water. And thus, the sun, the tree, and the forest chief create and hold for us lustre of life as well as speed of action, and passion as much as vitality of life. May all the wealth and power of body and mind come to the man who loves them through yajna.

Man of yajna, move on with the creative life of sacrifice.

Indra, noble soul, soft as wool and blessed is your seat in the yajna covered with watery grasses and the light of heaven spread by Sarasvati, spirit divine, and the Ashvinis, currents of energy. May your yajnic seat and home and the lights of heaven create holy and splendid passion of the mind for you for the sake of honour and glory. May all the wealth of the world come to the man of sacred desire and work through yajna.

Man of yajna, carry on the endeavour, neglect not the sacrifice.

For the man of yajnic endeavour in search of honour and success in the world, the Divine Agni, lord of light and life, generous giver of all round success, does universal yajna with the divinities of nature such as the earth in appropriate manner. The Ashvinis, wind and electric energy, both high-priests of nature, act in yajna with Indra, the sun. With the energy of universal sound, they work with Sarasvati, the dynamics of nature. They work on agni, fire, and soma, the moon, both powers of universal success. Indra, lord protector of the world, Savita, the sun, Varuna, universal waters, the physician, the generous and all-loved tree, the dear powers of nature which feed on the food of yajna, and all-loved vital heat—all these work with the universal fire for the creation of wealth and energy.

Thus any versatile performer of yajna (individual, social and natural) has the secret of success and creates honour, glory, energy and fame for the dedicated souls.

May all the powers of yajna create and carry the wealth of the world for the man of yajna.

Man of yajna, carry on with the sacrifice.

59. (Agnyadayo Devata, Svastyatreya Ṛshi)

Let the yajamana to-day, cooking the yajna offerings and preparing the oblations, select Agni as the high-priest and as the deity. The devotees rear and bind the goat for milk and butter for the Ashvinis, prana and apana energy, sheep for Sarasvati, universal intelligence, and the bull for Indra, honour and lustre, and they extract and distil the exhilarating soma drink for the Ashvins, Sarasvati and the protector Indra, the ruler.

Soothing and joyous is the yajna post to day as a mark of valediction. For the Ashvinis, prana and apana energy, milk of the goat! For Sarasvati, speech and intelligence, milk of the sheep! For Indra, honour and grandeur in life, let us rejoice with the strength and vigour of the bull! Let all enjoy the fine foods cooked with cream and butter and let all grow strong on specially seasoned foods and delicacies. May the Ashvinis, teachers, intellectuals and physicians, Sarasvati, enlightened woman, and Indra, protector and ruler and leader, all celebrate with the exciting drink of soma.

Noble sage, give unto us of those gifts which the divinities have granted, pray for us, raise us and keep up the tradition.

Tejo'si śukramamṛtamāyuṣpā'āyurme pāhi. Devasya tvā savituḥ prassave'śvinorbāhubhyāṁ pūṣṇo hastābhyāmādade.

Light of life, you are the power and glory of the world, the passion and purity of life, and the spirit and immortality of existence. Guardian and protector of life, protect and promote the life for me. In the world of Lord Savita's creation, I dedicate myself to you with nature's currents of energy and the solar gifts of health and vitality.

The seers of the earliest time of creation in their communion receive and realise the chain of cause and effect from the first vibration of the original cause (Ritam) to the last and closing silence. And the same, in this world of ours, has become the whispering voice of the whole truth of existence to us (in the Veda).

CHAPTER–XXIII

1. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

हिर॒ण्य॒ग॒र्भः सम॑वर्त्त॒ताग्रे॑ भू॒तस्य॑ जा॒तः प॒ति॒रेक॑ऽआसीत् । स दा॑धार पृथि॒वीं द्यामु॒तेमां कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥१॥

Hiraṇyagarbhaḥ samavartatāgre bhūtasya jātaḥ patireka'āsīt. Sa dādhāra pṛthivīṁ dyāmutemāṁ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The Great Golden Egg, the mighty original womb of the lights of the world such as the sun and moon, exists by Himself before the world comes into existence. He is the sole lord manifest, preserver, creator and guardian of the world of forms. He holds this earth and Heaven, and to that lord of bliss and majesty we offer our homage and worship with the surrender of our mind and soul.

2. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

उ॒प॒या॒मगृ॑हीतोऽसि प्र॒जाप॑तये त्वा॒ जुष्टं॑ गृह्णाम्ये॒ष ते॒ योनि॒: सूर्य॑स्ते महि॒मा । यस्तेऽह॑न्त्संवत्स॒रे म॑हि॒मा स॑म्ब॒भूव॒ यस्ते॑ वा॒याव॒न्तरि॑क्षे महि॒मा स॑म्ब॒भूव॒ यस्ते॒ दि॒वि सूर्ये॑ महि॒मा स॑म्ब॒भूव॒ तस्मै॑ ते महि॒म्ने प्र॒जाप॑तये॒ स्वाहा॑ दे॒वेभ्य॑: ॥२॥

Upayāmagṛhīto'si prajāpataye tvā juṣṭaṁ gṛhṇāmyeṣa te yoniḥ sūryaste mahimā. Yaste' hantsaṁvatsare mahimā sambabhūva yaste vāyāvantarikṣe mahimā sambabhūva yaste divi sūrye mahimā sambabhūva tasmai te mahimne prajāpataye svāhā devebhyaḥ.

Lord of this great universe, through the discipline of yoga you are realized and consecrated in the heart and soul, and loved in faith for the sake of Prajapati, protector and guardian of the people. I accept and surrender to you.

This Prakriti and the world of forms is your seat of immanence. The sun is the manifestation of your grandeur. The glory of yours which manifests in the day and in the year, the glory which manifests in the air and in the sky, the glory which manifests in the sun and in heaven, to that glory and to you we offer our homage and worship for the sake of Prajapati, guardian of the people, and the devas, noble and generous powers of nature and humanity.

3. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Yaḥ prāṇato nimiṣato mahitvaika'idrājā jagato babhūva. Ya īṣe'asya dvipadaścatuṣpadaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The sole one lord who, with His own might, creates and rules over the world of those who breathe and see, the lord who rules over men and animals, to that sovereign lord of bliss and majesty we offer our homage and worship with our heart and soul.

4. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Lord of the universe, seated and consecrated you are in the heart. Loved and worshipped you are in faith. I surrender to you for the sake of Prajapati, protector and guardian of the people.

This world is your space of immanence and omnipotence. The moon is the symbol of your glory. The grandeur of yours which manifests in the night and in the year, the generosity of yours which manifests in the earth and in the universal fire vitality, the glory of yours which manifests in the stars and in the moon, to that glory of yours and to you we offer our homage and worship for the sake of Prajapati and the noble and brilliant powers of nature and humanity.

5. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युञ्ज॑न्ति ब्र॒ध्नम॑रु॒षं च॑र॒न्तं परि॑ त॒स्थुष॑ः ।
रोच॑न्ते रोच॒ना दि॒वि ॥५॥

Yuñjanti bradhnamaruṣaṁ carantaṁ pari tasthuṣaḥ. Rocante rocanā divi.

Those who join their mind and soul to the great and glorious presence of God vibrating like electric energy in the moving and non-moving forms of existence, shine like the sunlight in heaven.

6. (Surya Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

युञ्जन्त्यस्य काम्या हरी विपक्षसा रथे ।
शोणा धृष्णू नृवाहसा ॥६॥

Yuñjantyasya kāmyā harī vipakṣasā rathe. Śoṇā dhṛṣṇū nṛvāhasā.

Just as they yoke to the chariot two strong, handsome, reddish horses worthy of ride by men and loved by all, so do the yogis join their senses, mind and soul to Ishvara, lord and light of the world.

(So do the scientists use the carrier currents of solar and electric energy, i.e., the energy of Surya/sun and Indra/electricity, in the service of humanity for the divine purpose.)

7. (Indra Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्वातोऽअपोऽअगंनीगन् प्रियामिन्द्रस्य तन्वम् ।
एतꣳस्तोतरनेनं पथा पुनरश्वमावर्त्तयासि नः ॥७॥

Yadvāto'apo'aganīgan priyāmindrasya tanvam. Etaṁ stotaranena pathā punaraśvamāvartayāsi naḥ.

O man of the science-mantra, the celestial horse, mighty carrier, flies across the waters of the sky and the wondrous oceans of space on the wings of the winds. The same horse, by the same paths of energy, you bring us back and take us round.

8. (Vayu & Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

वसवस्त्वाञ्जन्तु गायत्रेण छन्दसा रुद्रास्त्वाञ्जन्तु त्रैष्टुभेन छन्दसादित्यास्त्वाञ्जन्तु जागतेन छन्दसा । भूर्भुवः स्वर्लाजी३।ञ्छाची३।न् यव्ये गव्यऽएतदन्नमत्त देवाऽ-एतदन्नमद्धि प्रजापते ॥८॥

Vasavastvāñjantu gāyatreṇa chandasā rudrāstvāñjantu traiṣṭubhena chandasā" dityā stvāñjantu jāgatena chandasā. Bhūrbhuvaḥ sva-rlājīñchācīn yavye gavya' etadannamatta devā' etadannamaddhi prajāpate.

Prajapati, guardian and protector of the people, may the scholars of the Vasu order of twenty-four years celebrate you with the joy of the gayatri verses. May the scholars of the Rudra order of thirty-six years enlighten you with the knowledge of the trishtubh verses. May the scholars of the Aditya order of forty-eight years beatify you with the vision of the jagati verses. Receive the homage and be pleased by this celebration.

Brilliant men of knowledge and vision, take the food from the fields of barley and milk of the cow and reach across the regions of the earth to the sky and the heavens orbiting in their own courses in space.

9. (Jijnasu=researcher Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कः स्विदेकाकी चरति कऽउ स्विज्जायते पुनः।
किꣳस्विद्धिमस्य भेषजं किम्वावपनं महत् ॥९॥

Kaḥ svidekākī carati ka'u svijjāyate punaḥ. Kiṁ sviddhimasya bheṣajaṁ kimvāvapanam mahat.

Who moves alone (by itself, self-lighted)? Who is born again (in another's light)? What is the antidote of cold? What is the great field for the sowing of seeds and the great store for things?

10. (Surya Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

सूर्यऽएकाकी चरति चन्द्रमा जायते पुनः।
अग्निर्हिमस्य भेषजं भूमिरावपनं महत् ॥१०॥

Sūrya'ekākī carati candramā jāyate punaḥ.
Agnirhimasya bheṣajaṁ bhūmiravapanaṁ mahat.

The sun moves alone (self-lighted, on its own axis). The moon is born again (in the light of the sun). Fire is the antidote of cold. The earth is the great field for the sowing of seeds (and the great store-house of things, with its gravity).

11. (Jijnasu=researcher Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

का स्विदासीत्पूर्वचित्तिः किꣳस्विदासीद् बृहद्वयः ।
का स्विदासीत्पिलिप्पिला का स्विदासीत्पिशङ्गिला ॥११॥

Kā svidāsīt pūrvacittiḥ kiṁ svidāsīd bṛhadvayaḥ.
Kā svidāsīt pilippilā kā svidāsīt piśaṅgilā.

What is the first object of perception and thought? What is the great bird of motion? What is soft, smooth and beautiful? What is it that devours light and form?

12. (Vidyut, energy Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्यौरासीत् पूर्वचित्तिरश्वऽआसीद् बृहद्वयः ।
अविरासीत्पिलिप्पिला रात्रिरासीत्पिशङ्गिला ॥१२॥

Dyaurāsīt pūrvacittiraśva'āsīd bṛhadvayaḥ.
Avirāsīt pilippilā rātrirāsīt piśaṅgilā.

Heaven is the first object of perception and thought. Energy, electricity and light, is the greatest bird of motion. Protective mother earth is soft, smooth and beautiful. The night of darkness devours light and forms.

13. (Brahmadaya Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

वा॒युष्ट्वा॑ पच॒तैर॑वत्वसि॑तग्रीव॒श्छागै॑र्न्य॒ग्रोध॑श्चम॒सैः श॑ल्म॒लि-र्वृ॒द्ध्या। ए॒ष स्य रा॒थ्यो वृषा॑ प॒ड्भिश्च॒तुर्भि॒रेद॑गन्ब्र॒ह्मा कृ॑ष्ण॒श्च नोऽवतु नमो॒ऽग्नये ॥१३॥

Seeker of knowledge, may the air protect you with maturation and perfection. May the fire nourish and protect you with the milk of goats. May the banyan tree strengthen and protect you with ladlefuls of juice. May the shalmali plant protect and advance you with growth. May this strong and virile chariot horse on its four legs carry you forward on your journey.

Brahma, brilliant star of knowledge, guide and protect us. All homage, respect and support for Agni, light of knowledge and yajna.

14. (Brahma Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

सꣳशि॑तो र॒श्मिना॒ रथ॒ः सꣳशि॑तो र॒श्मिना॒ हर्यः॑। सꣳशि॑तो अ॒प्स्व॒प्सुजा ब्र॒ह्मा सोम॑पुरोगवः ॥१४॥

Saṁśito raśminā rathaḥ saṁśito raśminā hayaḥ. Saṁśito apsvapsujā brahmā somapurogavaḥ.

The chariot is refined by the light of sunbeams. The horse is refined by sensitive reins of steering. The expert man of knowledge born of the energy of prana, working on energy, is refined by advancement in the knowledge of health, peace and value of honour.

15. (Vidvan Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

स्व॒यं वा॑जिꣳस्त॒न्व॑ं कल्पयस्व स्व॒यं य॑जस्व स्व॒यं जु॑षस्व ।
म॒हि॒मा ते॒ऽन्येन॒ न स॒न्नशे॑ ॥१५॥

Svayaṁ vājiňstanvaṁ kalpayasva svayaṁ yajasva svayaṁ juṣava. Mahimā te'nyena na sannaśe.

Man of knowledge, seeker of advancement, develop your self by yourself. Do the yajna of joint work by your own choice. Serve the scholars and society by yourself. Your eminence and value must not be destroyed by others.

16. (Savita Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

न वाऽउ॑ऽए॒तन्म्रि॑यसे॒ न रि॑ष्यसि दे॒वाँ२॥ऽइदे॑षि प॒थिभिः॑ सु॒गेभिः॑। यत्रास॑ते सु॒कृतो॒ यत्र॒ ते य॒युस्तत्र॑ त्वा दे॒वः स॑वि॒ता द॑धातु ॥१६॥

Na vā'u'etanmriyase na riṣyasi devāň'ideṣi pathibhiḥ sugebhiḥ. Yatrāsate sukṛto yatra te yayustatra tvā devaḥ savitā dadhātu.

Man of knowledge and yajna, you go to meet with the seers and sages by the straight and right paths of truth. Die you shall not, nor your value diminish.

Where dwell the men of right action and where they realize lasting peace and joy, there may Savita, lord of light and life, establish you.

17. (Agni and Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्निः पशुरासीत्तेनायजन्त सऽएतं लोकमजयद्यस्मिन्नग्निः स ते लोको भविष्यति तं जेष्यसि पिबैताऽअपः । वायुः पशुरासीत्तेनायजन्त सऽएतं लोकमजयद्यस्मिन्वायुः स ते लोको भविष्यति तं जेष्यसि पिबैताऽअपः । सूर्यः पशुरासीत्तेनायजन्त सऽएतं लोकमजयद्यस्मिन्त्सूर्यः स ते लोको भविष्यति तं जेष्यसि पिबैताऽअपः ॥१७॥

Agniḥ paśurāsīt tenāyajanta sa'etaṁllokam-ajayad yasminnagniḥ sa te loko bhaviṣyati taṁ jeṣyasi pibaitā'apaḥ. Vāyuḥ paśurāsīt tenāyajanta sa'etaṁllokamajayad yasminvāyuḥ sa te loko bhaviṣyati taṁ jeṣyasi pibaitā'apaḥ. Sūryaḥ paśurāsīt tenāyajanta sa etaṁllokam-ajayad yasmintsūryaḥ sa te loko bhaviṣyati taṁ jeṣyasi pibaitā'apaḥ.

Agni, fire, is the soul of yajna, a direct participant. The divines perform yajna with agni. Who ever does the yajna with agni wins the sphere where agni is supreme. The same will become your sphere too, you would conquer it if you do yajna. Drink deep at the fount of knowledge and joy purified by agni.

Vayu, wind, is the soul of yajna, a seer and participant. The divines perform yajna by vayu. Whoever does the yajna by vayu wins the sphere where vayu is supreme. The same will become your sphere too, you would conquer it if you do yajna. Drink deep at the fount of breath and energy purified by vayu.

Surya, the sun, is the soul of yajna, a seer and participant. The divines perform yajna with the sun. Whoever does the yajna with the sun wins the sphere where the sun is supreme. The same will become your sphere too, you would win it if you do yajna. Drink deep at the fount of light and energy purified by the sun.

18. (Prana etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प्राणाय स्वाहापानाय स्वाहा व्यानाय स्वाहा । अम्बेऽ-अम्बिकेऽम्बालिके न मा नयति कश्चन । ससस्त्यश्वकः सुभद्रिकां काम्पीलवासिनीम् ॥१८॥

Prāṇāya svāhā- 'pānāya svāhā vyānāya svāhā. Ambe ambike' mbālike na mā nayati kaścana. Sasastyaśvakaḥ subhadrikāṁ kāmpīlavāsinīm.

Best of thought, word and action in truth for prana, for apana and for vyana, the energy of breath, the energy for systemic cleansing, and the overall health and vitality of the body system.

Mother, grand-mother, and great-grand-mother, none can retain and sustain me or anyone in the splendid good fortune and peaceful settled seat of the man of prosperity, who, though he might have been as fast and impetuous as a war-horse, goes to sleep in sloth after getting the wealth and comfort.

19. (Ganapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

गणानां त्वा गणपतिꣳहवामहे प्रियाणां त्वा प्रियपतिꣳ हवामहे निधीनां त्वा निधिपतिꣳहवामहे वसो मम । आहमजानि गर्भधमा त्वमजासि गर्भधम् ॥१९॥

Gaṇānāṁ tvā gaṇapatiṁ havāmahe priyāṇāṁ tvā priyapatiṁ havāmahe nidhīnāṁ tvā nidhipatiṁ havāmahe vaso mama. Āhamajāni garbhadhamā tvamajāsi garbhadham.

Lord of the universe, you are the presiding and protective fatherly presence over all the groups, communities and republics of the world. Such as you are, we accept, realise and surrender unto you.

You are the darling life-giver and protector of all things of existence which are so dear to you. We recognise, realise and worship you in love and faith.

You are the giver, protector and promoter of all the wealths of the world. We surrender to you in worship and gratitude and pray to you for all the wealth, prosperity and happiness of life.

Lord omnipresent in every particle of existence, every particle of existence exists in you. You are my haven and home too. You are the father of all forms of existence. I pray that I may know you, the father, that I may know Prakriti, the mother; and that I may know all the forms of existence, as you do.

20. (Raja & Praja Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ताऽउ॒भौ च॒तुरः॑ प॒दः स॒म्प्रसा॑रयाव स्व॒र्गे लो॒के प्रोर्णु॑वाथा॒ वृषा॒ वा॒जी रे॑तो॒धा रेतो॑ दधातु ॥२०॥

Tā'ubhau caturaḥ padaḥ samprasārayāva svarge loke prorṇuvāthāṁ vṛṣā vājī retodhā reto dadhātu.

Let both of them, the ruler and the people, protect and support each other. May both realise and extend the four values of life: Dharma, righteous living, Artha, worldly well-being, kama, self-fulfilment, and Moksha, ultimate freedom. May the ruler, wielder of power, swift in action and advancement, strengthen the people with power, and the people, in return, strengthen the ruler with power.

21. (Raja, judge Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

उत्सक्थ्याऽअव गुदं धेहि समञ्जि चारया वृषन् ।
य स्त्रीणां जीवभोजनः ॥२१॥

Utsakthyā' ava gudaṁ dhehi samañjiṁ cārayā vṛṣan. Ya strīṇāṁ jīvabhojanaḥ.

O Ruler, man of strength and power, if there is anyone evil who plays with the life and honour of women, punish him. Establish peace among the people. Establish the rule of law. Eliminate immorality and wantonness from the state.

22. (Raja Praja Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यकासकौ शकुन्तिकाऽऽहलगिति वञ्चति ।
आहन्ति गभे पसो निगल्गलीति धारका ॥२२॥

Yakāsakau śakuntikā"halagiti vañcati. Āhanti gabhe paso nigalgalīti dhārakā.

Where the ruler strikes at the people, he strikes at the nation and the state because there the people, though otherwise they enjoyed comfort and happiness before, grow weaker and weaker now and fade like a helpless bird. When such a ruler exacts taxes from the farmers, he only cheats the nation.

23. (Raja Praja Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यकोऽसकौ शकुन्तकऽआहलगिति वञ्चति ।
विवक्षतऽइव ते मुखमध्वर्यो मा नस्त्वमभि भाषथाः ॥२३॥

Yako'sakau śakuntaka'āhalagiti vañcati. Vivakṣata'iva te mukhamadhvaryo mā nastvamabhi bhāṣathāḥ.

Ruler, high-priest of the yajna of the state, make no false promises to us. Let your mouth be not like a boaster's. If you tell lies, you will grow weaker and weaker like a helpless bird and end up, cheating yourself.

24. (Bhumi and Surya Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

मा॒ता च॑ ते पि॒ता च॒ तेऽग्रे॑ वृ॒क्षस्य॑ रोहतः ।
प्रति॑लामीति ते पि॒ता ग॒भे मु॒ष्टिम॑तꣳसयत् ॥२४॥

Mātā ca te pitā ca te' gram̐ vṛkṣasya rohataḥ.
Pratilāmīti te pitā gabhe muṣṭimataṁsayat.

Ruler, the earth your mother and the sun your father rise to the top of the world. The sun strikes at the treasure of space-waters with his light and power, the earth receives the showers and shines. Celebrate them with the people in yajna: It is beautiful, it is joyous. I am happy.

25. (Bhumi and Surya Devate, Prajapati Ṛshi)

मा॒ता च॑ ते पि॒ता च॒ तेऽग्रे॑ वृ॒क्षस्य॑ क्रीडतः ।
विव॑क्षतऽइव ते॒ मुख॒ं ब्रह्म॒न्मा त्वं व॑दो ब॒हु ॥२५॥

Mātā ca te pitā ca te'gre vṛkṣasya krīḍataḥ.
Vivakṣata'iva te mukham̐ brahman mā tvam̐ vado bahu.

People of the land, your mother-land like the earth and the ruler, father of the nation, like the sun, both joyous, play on top of the world in the midst of beauty and prosperity. Ruler, Brahma, presiding priest of the national yajna, your mouth seems eager to shout with pride and joy. At that time, speak not much, control yourself.

26. (Shri Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ऊ॒र्ध्वामे॑ना॒मुच्छ्रा॑पय गि॒रौ भा॒रꣳहर॑न्निव ।
अथा॑स्यै॒ मध्य॑मेधताꣳशी॒ते वा॒ते पु॒नन्नि॑व ॥२६॥

Ūrdhvāmenāmucchrāpaya girau bhāraṁ haranniva. Athāsyai madhyamedhatāṁ śīte vāte punanniva.

Ruler of the land, lead this rising nation to the heights of beauty and prosperity like a mountaineer bearing his banner to the top of the mount, and, in the midst of this people, being sanctified as if in the cool mountain breezes, move on higher and ever higher.

27. (Shri Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ऊर्ध्वमेनमुच्छ्रयताद् गिरौ भारꣳहरन्निव ।
अथास्य मध्यमेजतु शीते वाते पुनन्निव ॥२७॥

Ūrdhvamenamucchrayatād girau bharaṁ haranniva. Athāsya madhyamejatu śīte vāte punanniva.

Man of knowledge, enlightened citizen, support this rising ruler to the height of glory and power as a mountaineer carrying his burden to the top of the mount, and, in the midst of this nation, and sifting the truth from falsehood, as if, in the cool breeze, shine on in the beauty and prosperity of the land.

28. (Prajapati Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यदस्याऽअꣳहुभेद्याः कृधु स्थूलमुपातसत् ।
मुष्काविदस्याऽएजतो गोशफे शकुलाविव ॥२८॥

Yadasyā'aṁhubhedyāḥ kṛdhu sthūlamupātasat. Muṣkāvidasyā'ejato gośaphe śakulāviva.

When the small and great acts of the people who clear out sin and crime from the society are appreciated by the ruler and the enlightened officers, they, the ruler and the elite, captivate the heart of the people and they shine in their eyes as shakula fish shine in a little pool of water.

29. (Scholars Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्देवासौ ल॒लाम॑गुं॒ प्र विं॑ष्टी॒मिन॒माविं॑षुः ।
स॒क्थ्ना दे॑दिश्यते॒ नारी॑ स॒त्यस्याक्षि॒भुवो॑ यथा ॥२९॥

Yaddevāso lalāmaguṁ praviṣṭīminamāviṣuḥ.
Sakthnā dediśyate nārī satyasyākṣibhuvo yathā.

Just as noble people approach an eminent and reasonable judge for justice, just as a woman is distinguished by her body, so the men of reason find out the truth by direct observation of evidence.

30. (Raja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्ध॑रि॒णो यव॒मत्ति॒ न पु॒ष्टं प॒शु मन्य॑ते ।
शू॒द्रा यदर्य॑जारा॒ न पोषा॑य धनायति ॥३०॥

Yaddhariṇo yavamatti na puṣṭaṁ paśu manyate.
Śūdrā yadaryajārā na poṣāya dhanāyati.

When the deer eats up the barley it does not care for the field but destroys it. A servant woman who is the mistress of her master loves money but not for the well-being of her master or of her family. So when a ruler exploits his people, he does not care for their well-being, he destroys the nation.

31. (Raja Praja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्ध॑रि॒णो यव॒मत्ति॒ न पु॒ष्टं ब॒हु मन्य॑ते ।
शू॒द्रो यदर्या॑यै जा॒रो न पोष॒मनु॑मन्यते ॥३१॥

Yaddhariṇo yavamatti na puṣṭaṁ bahu manyate.
Śūdro yadaryāyai jāro na poṣamanumanyate.

The deer that eats up the barley cares not for the crop and the field. The servant who is a paramour of his mistress cares not for the well-being of the family. The ruler who exploits the people destroys the nation.

32. (Raja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्॒धि॒क्राव्णो॑ऽअकारिषं जि॒ष्णोरश्व॑स्य वा॒जिनः॑ ।

Dadhikrāvṇo'akāriṣaṁ jiṣṇoraśvasya vājinaḥ.
Surabhi no mukhā karat pra ṇa'āyūṅṣi tāriṣat.

The hero is on guard, holding and protecting the land and people. Like a knight of horse panting for victory, fast advancing in the battle, I place him at the head of the nation. May he do us proud, holding our head high gracefully, and may he carry us across the field of life.

33. (Scholars Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Gāyatrī triṣṭubjagatyanuṣṭuppaṅktyā saha.
Bṛhatyuṣṇihā kakupsūcībhiḥ śamyantu tvā.

May the scholars with research and action perfect and stabilize you in peace and tranquillity with the joyous gayatri, the stable trishtup, the protective anushtup, the comprehensive pankti, the expansive brihati, the lovely ushnih, and the charming kakup verses of the Veda.

(May the scholars perfect the ruler.)

34. (Praja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्विप॑दा॒ याश्चतु॑ष्पदा॒स्त्रिप॑दा॒ याश्च॒ षट्प॑दाः ।

Dvipadā yāścatuṣpadāstripadā yāśca ṣaṭpadāḥ.
Vicchandā yāśca sacchandāḥ sūcībhiḥ śamyantu tvā.

O citizens of the nation, may the learned and the wise, with their knowledge and acts, perfect and stabilise you in peace and tranquillity with two-part, four-part, three-part, or six-part, or various or regular verses of the Veda.

35. (Praja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

महानाम्न्यो रेवत्यो विश्वा आशाः प्रभूवरीः।
मैघीर्विद्युतो वाचः सूचीभिः शम्यन्तु त्वा ॥३५॥

Mahānāmnyo revatyo viśvā āśāḥ prabhūvarīḥ.
Maighīrvidyuto vācaḥ sūcībhiḥ śamyantu tvā.

Seekers of knowledge, citizens of the nation, may the universal words of wisdom, golden rich, great and sublime, ringing in all directions, raining like the clouds, roaring like thunder, and blazing as lightning — may all these great voices perfect you with their integrative and elevating message of peace and stability.

36. (Women Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

नार्यस्ते पत्न्यो लोम विचिन्वन्तु मनीषया ।
देवानां पत्न्यो दिशः सूचीभिः शम्यन्तु त्वा ॥३६॥

Nāryaste patnyo loma vicinvantu manīṣayā.
Devānāṁ patnyo diśaḥ sūcībhiḥ śamyantu tvā.

Ruler, citizens, teachers, may the women, virgins and wives of the noble people, protectors of the nation, listen and gather your words with care and understanding, and may they, like the pure transparent quarters of space, stabilise and perfect you with their integrative words and acts of love and wisdom.

37. (Women Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

रजता हरिणीः सीसा युजो युज्यन्ते कर्मभिः ।
अश्वस्य वाजिनस्त्वचि सिमाः शम्यन्तु शम्यन्तीः॥३७॥

Rajatā hariṇīḥ sīsā yujo yujyante karmabhiḥ. Aśvasya vājinastvaci simāḥ śamyantu śamyantīḥ.

Women in love, lovely, captivating, arresting with love and loyalty, exciting and dedicated, are joined in marriage to the protection and embrace of handsome, virile and generous young men by their own will and action. Bound in the discipline of matrimony, may they be at peace in security, and may they provide for the love, peace and security of the young men of their choice.

38. (Sabhasad Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कुविदङ्ग यवमन्तो यवञ्चिद्यथा दान्त्यनुपूर्वं वियूय । इहेहैषां कृणुहि भोजनानि ये बर्हिषो नमऽउक्तिं यजन्ति ॥३८॥

Kuvidaṅga yavamanto yavañcidyathā dāntyanupūrvaṁ viyūya. Ihehaiṣāṁ kṛṇuhi bhojanāni ye barhiṣo nama' uktiṁ yajanti.

Dear Sabhasad, eminent member of the council, just as farmers blest with rich barley harvest the grain with discrimination, some plants separately and some together, so do the teachers sit on seats of grass, receive food and water, and carry on the yajna of education accomplishing their work with the disciples with judgement. Here in this school, provide for their food and maintenance.

39. (Adhyapaka Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कस्त्वाच्छ्यति कस्त्वा विशास्ति कस्ते गात्राणि शम्यति ।
कऽउ ते शमिता कविः ॥३९॥

Kastvā chyati kastvā viśāsti kaste gātrāṇi śamyati. Ka u te śamitā kaviḥ.

Young learner, who cuts, grinds and shapes you into form? Who teaches, directs and controls you? Who exercises your body-parts to suppleness and equipoise? Who is the sage and seer, high-priest of your education, giving the last oblation of completion?

40. (Praja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ऋतवस्तऽऋतुथा पर्व शमितारो विशासतु ।
संवत्सरस्य तेजसा शमीभिः शम्यन्तु त्वा ॥४०॥

Ṛtavasta'ṛtuthā parva śamitāro vi śāsatu. Saṁvatsarasya tejasā śamībhiḥ śamyantu tvā.

Learner, seeker of knowledge and expertise, may the seasons and the teachers training you in peace and action instruct and temper you according to the needs of the time and the stage of your life, and may they complete and perfect you with the splendour of the sun round the year and peaceable action and refinement.

41. (Praja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अर्द्धमासाः परूꣳषि ते मासाऽआच्छ्यन्तु शम्यन्तः।
अहोरात्राणि मरुतो विलिष्टꣳसूदयन्तु ते ॥४१॥

Ardhamāsāḥ parūṁṣi te māsā'ācchyantu śamyantaḥ. Ahorātrāṇi maruto viliṣṭaṁ sūdayantu te.

Learner, seeker of knowledge, may the days and nights, fortnights and months developing you refine and strengthen your body parts and life's periods, and may the learned soften your roughness and eliminate your hardness.

42. (Adhyapaka Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

दैव्याऽअध्व॒र्यव॒स्त्वाच्छ्यन्तु॒ वि च॑ शासतु ।

Daivyā'adhvaryavastvācchyantu vi ca śāsatu.
Gātrāṇi parvaśaste simāḥ kṛṇvantu śamyantīḥ.

Learner, seeker, ruler, citizen, may the divine high-priests of the yajna and development of the nation instruct and refine you and develop the parts of your body, life and community from every joint and transition onward. May the loving motherly women wholly dedicated soften your heart and refine your mind.

43. (Raja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्यौस्ते॑ पृथि॒व्यु॒न्तरि॑क्षं वा॒यु॒श्छि॒द्रं पृणातु ते ।

Dyauste pṛthivyantarikṣaṁ vāyuśchidraṁ pṛṇātu te. Sūryaste nakṣatraiḥ saha lokaṁ kṛṇotu sādhuyā.

May the heaven (with its light), the earth (with his generosity and stability), the sky (with its expanse), the wind and air (with speed and energy) make up your wants and repair your weaknesses. And may the sun, lord of light and life, with the stars and planets, create for you a straight and simple world of beauty, freedom and progress.

44. (Raja Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

शं ते परेभ्यो गात्रेभ्यः शमस्त्ववरेभ्यः ।
शमस्थभ्यो मज्जभ्यः शम्वस्तु तन्वै तव ।।४४।।

Śaṁ te parebhyo gātrebhyaḥ śamastva-varebhyaḥ. Śamasthabhyo majjabhyaḥ śamvastu tanvai tava.

Peace and health to the higher parts of your personality. Peace and health to the lower parts of your body. Peace and strength to your bones and marrow. Peace and well-being to your body and mind all over.

45. (Jijnasu=Seeker Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कः स्विदेकाकी चरति क उ स्विज्जायते पुनः।
किथ्ँस्विद्धिमस्य भेषजं किम्वावपनं महत् ।।४५।।

Kaḥ svidekākī carati ka u svijjāyate punaḥ. Kiṁ sviddhimasya bheṣajaṁ kimvāvapanaṁ mahat.

Who moves alone? Who is born again and again? What is the antidote of cold? And what is the great field and hold of life, seed and sustenance?

46. (Surya etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

सूर्यँऽएकाकी चरति चन्द्रमा जायते पुनः।
अग्निर्हिमस्य भेषजं भूमिरावपनं महत् ।।४६।।

Sūrya'ekākī carati candramā jāyate punaḥ. Agnirhimasya bheṣajaṁ bhūmirāvapanaṁ mahat.

The sun moves alone. The moon is born again and again. Fire, heat, is the antidote of cold. And earth is the great field and hold of life, seed and sustenance.

47. (Jijnasu Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

किꣳस्वित्सूर्यसमं ज्योतिः किꣳसमुद्रसमꣳसरः ।
किꣳस्वित्पृथिव्यै वर्षीयः कस्य मात्रा न विद्यते ॥४७॥

Kiṁ svit sūryasamaṁ jyotiḥ kiṁ samudrasamaṁ saraḥ. Kiṁ svit pṛthivyai varṣīyaḥ kasya mātrā na vidyate.

What is the other light like the sun? What is the vessel-hold of water like the sea? What is larger than the earth? What is without limits in the world?

48. (Brahma etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ब्रह्म सूर्यसमं ज्योतिर्द्यौः समुद्रसमꣳसरः ।
इन्द्रः पृथिव्यै वर्षीयान् गोस्तु मात्रा न विद्यते ॥४८॥

Brahma sūryasamaṁ jyotirdyauḥ samudrasamaṁ saraḥ. Indraḥ pṛthivyai varṣīyān gostu mātrā na vidyate.

Brahma is the light like the sun. The sky is the great vessel-hold of waters like the sea. The sun is greater than the earth. Word, divine speech, has no limits.

49. (Question-Answer Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

पृच्छामि त्वा चितयै देवसख यदि त्वमत्र मनसा जगन्थ ।
येषु विष्णुस्त्रिषु पदेष्वेष्टस्तेषु विश्वं भुवनमाविवेशा३॥४९॥

Pṛcchāmi tvā citaye devasakha yadi tvamatra manasā jagantha. Yeṣu viṣṇustriṣu padeṣveṣṭasteṣu viśvaṁ bhuvanamāvivesā.

Friend of the divine, I ask you for my understanding, if with your mind you can reach the answer: Does the living world exist in those three regions of the universe — the earth, the sky, and the heavens, wherein Vishnu, universal lord of the world, pervades?

50. (Ishvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अपि॒ तेषु॑ त्रि॒षु प॒देष्वस्मि॒ येषु॒ विश्व॑ं भुव॒नमावि॒वेश॑ । स॒द्यः पर्ये॑मि पृथि॒वीमु॒त द्यामेके॒नाङ्गे॑न दि॒वोऽअ॒स्य पृ॒ष्ठम् ॥५०॥

Api teṣu triṣu padeṣvasmi yeṣu viśvaṁ bhuvanamāviveśa. Sadyaḥ paryemi pṛthivīmuta dyāmekenāṅgena divo'asya pṛṣṭham.

I am there, sure, in those three regions of the universe wherein the whole living world exists. I instantly and universally pervade the earth, the sky and the vault of heaven, each with one existential part of my omnipresence.

51. (Purusheshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

केष्व॒न्तः पुरु॑ष॒ऽआ वि॑वेश॒ कान्य॒न्तः पुरु॑षे॒ऽअर्पि॑तानि । ए॒तद् ब्रह्म॒न्नुप॑वल्हामसि त्वा॒ किꣳस्वि॑न्नः प्रति॑वोचा॒स्यत्र॑ ॥५१॥

Keṣvantaḥ puruṣa'ā viveśa kānyantaḥ puruṣe' arpitāni. Etad brahmannupa valhāmasi tvā kiṁ svinnaḥ prati vocāsyatra.

Who and how many does the Purusha, supreme spirit, pervade? Who and how many reside in the Purusha? This, O man of knowledge, we ask you so that we too may excel. What do you say to us on this question?

52. (Parameshvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प॒ञ्चस्व॒न्तः पुरु॑ष॒ऽआवि॑विवेश॒ तान्य॒न्तः पुरु॑षे॒ऽअर्पि॑तानि । ए॒तत्त्वात्र॑ प्रतिमन्वा॒नोऽअ॑स्मि॒ न मा॒यया॑ भव॒स्युत्त॑रो॒ मत् ॥५२॥

Pañcasvantaḥ puruṣa'ā viveśa tānyantaḥ puruṣe'arpitāni. Etattvātra pratimanvāno'asmi na māyayā bhavasyuttaro mat.

In five (elements of Prakriti) does the Purusha pervade. These five elements reside within the Purusha. This I say on the question believing and asking you to accept and believe. Not by maya, nor by mere science, nor by knowledge alone of existence would you go farther than me (the Purusha).

53. (Prashta=Questioner Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

का स्विदासीत्पूर्वचित्तिः किꣳस्विदासीद् बृहद्वयः ।
का स्विदासीत्पिलिप्पिला का स्विदासीत्पिशङ्गिला ॥५३॥

Kā svidāsīt pūrvacittiḥ kiṁ svidāsīd bṛhadvayaḥ.
Kā svidāsīt pilippilā kā svidāsīt piśaṅgilā.

What is the first original structure in time? What is the great womb of the forms of life? What is the finest pliant material? What is the universal devourer?

54. (Samadhata=Wise Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

द्यौरासीत्पूर्वचित्तिरश्वऽआसीद् बृहद्वयः ।
अविरासीत्पिलिप्पिला रात्रिरासीत्पिशङ्गिला ॥५४॥

Dyaurāsīt purvacittiraśva'āsīd bṛhadvayaḥ.
Avirāsīt pilippilā rātrirāsīt piśaṅgilā.

Heaven, light, i.e., divine vibration of thought energy is the first original step in creation. Mahat, the first mutation of original Prakriti, was the great womb of the forms of creation. Manifested Prakriti is the finest pliant material for creation. Pralaya, the night of annihilation devours the universe.

55. (Prashta Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

काऽईंमरे पिशङ्गिला काऽईं कुरुपिशङ्गिला ।
कऽईंमास्कन्दंमर्षति कऽईं पन्थां विसर्पति ॥५५॥

Kā'īmare piśaṅgilā kā'īṁ kurupiśaṅgilā. Ka' īmāskandamarṣati ka'īm panthāṁ visarpati.

What is the cover of the forms of existence? Who destroys the beauty of the crops? Who moves jumping in leaps? Who creeps on the path?

56. (Samadhata Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अजारें पिशङ्गिला श्वावित्कुरुपिशङ्गिला ।
शशऽआस्कन्दंमर्षत्यहिः पन्थां वि सर्पति ॥५६॥

Ajāre piśaṅgilā śvāvitkurupiśaṅgilā. Śaśa' āskandamarṣatyahiḥ panthāṁ vi sarpati.

Prakriti is the cover of forms. Porcupine is the destroyer of the beauty of crops in the field. Energy moves in currents. And the clouds sail upon their path.

57. (Prashta Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कत्यस्य विष्ठाः कत्यक्षरांणि कति होमांसः कतिधा समिद्धः।
यज्ञस्यं त्वा विदथा पृच्छमत्र कति होतारऽऋतुशो यजन्ति ॥५७॥

Katyasya viṣṭhāḥ katyakṣarāṇi kati homāsaḥ katidhā samiddhaḥ. Yajñasya tvā vidathā pṛcchamatra kati hotāra' ṛtuśo yajanti.

How many permanent materials? How many operations? How many fuels and modes of lighting? I ask you these questions on the subject of yajna for knowledge. How many priests perform it according to the seasons?

58. (Samidha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

ष॑डस्य वि॒ष्ठाः श॒तम॒क्षरा॑ण्यशी॒तिर्होमा॑ः स॒मिधौ॑ ह ति॒स्रः। य॒ज्ञस्य॑ ते वि॒दथा॒ प्र ब्र॑वीमि स॒प्त होता॑रऽऋ॒तु॒शो य॑जन्ति ॥५८॥

Ṣaḍasya viṣṭhāḥ śatamakṣarāṇyaśītirhomāḥ samidho ha tisraḥ. Yajñasya te vidathā pra bravīmi sapta hotāra'ṛtuśo yajanti.

Six seasons are the pillars of yajna. Hundreds are the materials of permanent nature. Eighty are the operations. Three are the fuels. I speak to you of the knowledge of yajna. Seven priests carry on the yajna according to the seasons.

59. (Prashta Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

कोऽअ॒स्य वे॑द॒ भुव॑नस्य॒ नाभि॑ं को द्यावा॑पृथि॒वीऽ-अ॒न्तरि॑क्षम् । कः सूर्य॑स्य वेद बृह॒तो ज॒नित्र॑ं को वे॑द च॒न्द्रम॑सं यतो॒जाः ॥५९॥

Ko'asya veda bhuvanasya nābhiṁ ko dyāvā-pṛthivī'antarikṣam. Kaḥ sūryasya veda bṛhato janitraṁ ko veda candramasaṁ yatojāḥ.

Who knows the centre-hold of this world? Who knows the earth, the sky, and the heaven, region of light? Who knows the great creator of the sun? Who knows the moon and wherefrom it was born?

60. (Samadhata Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

वेदा॒हम॒स्य भुव॑नस्य॒ नाभि॑ं वेद॒ द्यावा॑पृथि॒वीऽ-अ॒न्तरि॑क्षम् । वेद॒ सूर्य॑स्य बृह॒तो ज॒नित्र॒मथौ॑ वेद च॒न्द्रम॑सं यतो॒जाः ॥६०॥

Vedāhamasya bhuvanasya nābhiṁ veda dyāvāpṛthivī'antarikṣam. Veda sūryasya bṛhato janitramatho veda candramasaṁ yatojāḥ.

I know the centre-hold of this world. I know the heaven and earth and the middle regions of the sky. I know the great creator of the sun. I know the moon and wherefrom it was born. (The man of real knowledge is one who knows Brahma, creator and sustainer of the world, and the world itself, who knows the efficient cause, Brahma, and the material cause, Prakriti, and the beneficiary, the jiva. The speaker is such a man of knowledge. Alternatively, the speaker is Brahma Itself.)

61. (Prashta Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

पृच्छामि त्वा परमन्तं पृथिव्याः पृच्छामि यत्र भुवनस्य नाभिः। पृच्छामि त्वा वृष्णोऽअश्वस्य रेतः पृच्छामि वाचः परमं व्योम ॥६१॥

Pṛcchāmi tvā paramantaṁ pṛthivyāḥ pṛcchāmi yatra bhuvanasya nābhiḥ. Pṛcchāmi tvā vṛṣṇo' aśvasya retaḥ pṛcchāmi vācaḥ paramaṁ vyoma.

I ask you: What is the highest end of the earth and where? I ask you: What and where is the centre of the world? I ask you: Where and what is the seed of the virility and fertility of the male? I ask you: What and where is the haven and home and ultimate preserve of the Word, universal speech?

62. (Samadhata Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

इयं वेदिः परोऽअन्तः पृथिव्याऽअयं यज्ञो भुवनस्य नाभिः। अयꣳसोमो वृष्णोऽअश्वस्य रेतो ब्रह्मायं वाचः परमं व्योम ॥६२॥

Iyaṁ vediḥ paro'antaḥ pṛthivyā'ayaṁ yajño bhuvansya nābhiḥ. Ayaṁ somo vṛṣṇo'asvasya reto brahmāyaṁ vācaḥ paramaṁ vyoma.

This yajna-vedi is the supreme and ultimate end of the earth. This yajna is the centre and centre-hold of the world. This soma is the seed and source of the virility and fertility of the male. And Brahma is the haven and home and birth and preserve of the Word, divine speech.

63. (Samadhata Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

सुभूः स्वयम्भूः प्रथमोऽन्तर्महत्यर्णवे ।
दधे ह गर्भमृत्वियं यतो जातः प्रजापतिः॥६३॥

Subhūḥ svayambhūḥ prathamo'ntarmahatyarṇave. Dadhe ha garbhamṛtviyaṁ yato jātaḥ prajāpatiḥ.

Gracious and glorious, self-existent and at the very centre in this grand ocean of the universe is Brahma. He plants the seed of creation into Prakriti according to the season of the creative cycle, and thence is born Prajapati, the sun, lord of life.

64. (Ishvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

होता यक्षत्प्रजापतिꣳसोमस्य महिम्नः।
जुषतां पिबतु सोमꣳ होतर्यज ॥६४॥

Hotā yakṣatprajāpatiṁ somasya mahimnaḥ. Juṣatāṁ pibatu somaṁ hotaryaja.

The man of yajna performs the yajna in honour of Prajapati, father and sustainer of the world of creation by the grace and glory of Soma, lord of life and omnipotence. May he ever dedicate himself to the lord and drink the nectar of life and immortality by divine grace.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, relent not ever.

65. (Ishvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

प्रजा॑पते॒ न त्वदे॒तान्य॒न्यो विश्वा॑ रू॒पाणि॒ परि॒ ता ब॑भूव ।

Prajāpate na tvadetānyanyo viśvā rūpāṇi pari tā babhūva. Yatkāmāste juhumastanno'astu vayaṁ syāma patayo rayīṇām.

Prajapati, lord of creation, no one other than you is supreme over and beyond all these and other forms of existence.

Whatever our ends and aims for which we offer our homage to you, may all that come true for us.

May we, by Grace, be masters, promoters and preservers of the wealths of the world.

By the teeth, test the efficiency of chewing and the texture of food, the strength of the teeth by the roots and gums, the protective enamel by the cavities, biting force by the fangs, the ease and elegance of speech by the fluent sweetness and suppleness of the tongue at the tip, the palate by the roll of the voice, the sweetness and energy by the action of the jaws, the deliciousness of drinks by the mouth, the maturity of manhood by the scrotum, the roll of years of maturity by the beard and moustache, the paths and manners of living by the eyebrows, the sense of heaven and earth by the orbits of movement, the inner light and energy by the pupils of the eyes.

For the perfection of brahmacharya observe sexual and mental discipline. For the completion of the acquisition of knowledge observe the discipline of study.

The actions for going across the river of life are indispensable like the lovely sugar-cane at hand this side of the river. And the actions this side of the river of life too must be like the lovely sugar-cane across the river.

2. (Pranas etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Receive the energy of the winds by the incoming breath of prana and the outgoing breath of apana by the nostrils. With the lower and upper lips observe the self-control of truth and the discipline of yama and niyama. With the light of higher knowledge illumine the inner personality. With cleanliness, purify the outer personality. Take in the light of divinity by the brahmarandhra, top aperture of the head. Hear the voice of thunder (of omnipotence) without interruption. Create the flash of lightning with the brain. Let the light shine by the pupils of the eyes. Develop hearing by the ears and the ears by hearing. Take in the food smoothly by the lower throat. Value the drinks by the parched throat. Develop the mind and memory by reflection and meditation. Realize the boundless in freedom with the imagination. Move on to the existential void with the head and speech unimpaired.

Develop the pranas with invocations to universal energy, facing the storm with shouts of joy.

3. (Indra & Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Ward off mosquitoes and insects with hair. Achieve the power and greatness of Indra with hard work and great action. Reach Brihaspati, great lord of knowledge and wisdom, by the ordeal of fire and patience. Get to the tortoise and the earth with the speed of the eagle. Shoot to the target on the hoofs of a horse and power of arms. Get to the kapinjala birds by stout action and double speed. Get to speed and cover the road with strong legs. Get to the forest with the grape fruit. Get to Agni, fire, by will and desire, to Pusha, good health, by strong arms, to Ashvins, ruler and people, by strong shoulders, and to Rudra, power of justice, by listening and discussion.

4. (Agni & Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्नेः पक्षतिर्वायोर्निपक्षतिरिन्द्रस्य तृतीया सोमस्य चतुर्थ्य-दितै पञ्चमीन्द्राण्यै षष्ठी मरुतां ष्ठंसप्तमी बृहस्पतेर-रष्टम्यर्यम्णो नवमी धातुर्दशमीन्द्रस्यैकादशी वरुणस्य द्वादशी यमस्य त्रयोदशी ॥४॥

Agneḥ pakṣatirvāyornipakṣatirindrasya tṛtīyā somasya caturthyadityai pañcamīndrāṇyai ṣaṣṭhī marutāṁ saptamī bṛhaspateraṣṭa-myaryamṇo navamī dhāturdaśamīndrasyai-kādaśī varuṇasya dvādaśī yamasya trayodaśī.

The body-politic of the nation of humanity has thirteen ribs on the right side of the chest. The first is Agni's for light and fire. The second is Vayu's for air energy. The third is Indra's for sunlight and energy. The fourth is Soma's for coolness and life of vegetation. The fifth is Aditi's for the vastness and generosity of the sky. The sixth is Indrani's for electric energy. The seventh is Marut's for the winds. The eighth is Brihaspati's for cosmic energy. The nineth is Aryaman's for the working people. The tenth is Dhatri's for the cosmic law. The eleventh is Indra's for national honour, power and prosperity. The twenfth is Varuna's for the enlightened citizens. The thirteenth is Yama's for justice and administration.

(The world system thus is organismic. Every part is a living member, and every man, woman and community should play their part in the life of the system.)

5. (Indra & Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

इन्द्राग्न्योः पक्षतिः सरस्वत्यै निपक्षतिर्मित्रस्य तृतीयापां चतुर्थी निर्ऋत्यै पञ्चम्यग्नीषोमयोः षष्ठी सर्पाणामष्टमी विष्णोरष्टमी पूष्णो नवमी त्वष्टुर्दशमीन्द्रस्यैकादशी वरुणस्य द्वादशी यम्यै त्रयोदशी द्यावापृथिव्योर्दक्षिणं पार्श्वं विश्वेषां देवानामुत्तरम् ॥५॥

The body-politic of the nation has thirteen ribs on the left side of the chest. The first belongs to Indragni for air and fire. The second belongs to Sarasvati for speech and education. The third belongs to Mitra for friendship. The fourth belongs to Aps, waters. The fifth belongs to Nir-riti, the earth. The sixth belongs to Agni-soma for fire and water. The seventh belongs to Sarpas, subterranean creatures. The eighth belongs to Vishnu, cosmic spirit. The nineth belongs to Pusha, health and nourishment. The tenth is Tvashta's for brilliance and refinement. The eleventh belongs to Indra, the soul, for self-culture. The twelfth belongs to Varuna, enlightened people. The thirteenth belongs to Yami, nation's women. The right side is for Dyava-prithivi, heaven and earth for light and life. The left side belongs to all the nobilities of nature and humanity for the joy of enlightenment.

6. (Maruts etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

मरुतांꣳस्कन्धा विश्वेषां देवानां प्रथमा कीकसा रुद्राणां द्वितीयाऽऽदित्यानां तृतीया वायोः पुच्छमग्नीषोमयोर्भासदौ क्रुञ्चौ श्रोणिभ्यामिन्द्राबृहस्पतीऽऊरुभ्यां मित्रावरुणावल्गाभ्यामाक्रमणꣳस्थूराभ्यां बलं कुष्ठाभ्याम् ॥६॥

Marutāṁ skandhā viśveṣāṁ devānāṁ prathamā kīkasā rudrāṇāṁ dvitīyā"dityānāṁ tṛtīyā vāyoḥ pucchamagnīṣomayorbhāsadau kruñcau śroṇibhyāmindrābṛhaspatī' ūrubhyāṁ mitrā-varuṇāvalgābhyāmākramaṇaṁ sthūrābhyāṁ balaṁ kuṣṭhābhyām.

The shoulders of the nation belong to the Maruts, that is, the stormy troops of defence are the shoulders of the nation. The first and top part of the spine belongs to Vishvedevas, that is, the generous and enlightened people are the top of the nation's spine. The second part of the spine belongs to the Rudras, men of law and justice. The third part belongs to the Adityas, brilliant people and children of the earth. The tail end belongs to Vayu, breath and fragrance of the nation. The hips of the nation belong to Agni and Soma, the heat of fire and coolness of water in the national mind. The poets and artists, two beautiful hansa birds, are comparable to the loins of the nation. Indra and Brihaspati, ruler and teachers, are comparable to the thighs. Mitra and Varuna, friendship and discrimination, are comparable to the groins. Develop force and advancement by the strength and suppleness of the thighs. Judge the strength and vitality of the nation by the slopes of the groin.

(Note here that the rashtra/nation/Samraat purusha is compared to the individual purusha (Ekaraat purusha), and also to the universal purusha, i.e., the Viraat Purusha. Life thus is an organism at every stage from the individual to the universe.)

7. (Pusha etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Compare national health to food digestion and assimilation, blind serpents to large intestines, snakes to the bowels, crooked people to the intestines, water storages to the bladder and lower abdomen, vital rains and clouds to the scrotum, passion to the virile seed, food consumption to the bile, clearances to wind discharges, and judge the force of governance by the concentrations of power.

8. (Indra and Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

You are in the bosom of Indra, father of light, let not the light sink into darkness.

Stand firm, the food and fertility of the earth is where you stand. The meeting of the directions of space is in the joints of the ribs. The light within is the light of heaven. Know the shower of the clouds by the joy of the soul in the blood, the broadness of the skies by the coronary artery, the soothing liquidity of atmospheric water by the serum juices of the belly, the energy of life, like the love of chakravaka birds, by the pulmonary arteries, the purity of light by the cleansing action of the excretory organs, the hardness of mountains by digestion and assimilation, the cloud-generosity by the spleen, the paths of movement by the blood vessels, concentrations and enlargements by the veins, streams and rivers by the blood-streams, gulfs and bays by the womb and ovaries, the sea by the stomach, and universal fire by the heat of the body system.

(Note the correspondence of the microcosm (eka-raat-purusha) and the macrocosm (Viraat-purusha) and the correspondence of the working of the two systems. The individual system works within the universal system as a unit. And this correspondence is worth knowing. The human individual is in the bosom of the universal Indra.)

9. (Pusha & Others Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Know the centre-hold of the universe by the navel, liquid life of existence by the sap of nature, the waters of life by soup and decoctions, particles of light in rays by drops in a streams of oblations, the morning mist by vapours of steam, solid energy by frozen fat, precipitation of clouds by the tear glands, hail storms by shocks of disturbance, natural protections by immunity in the blood, wonders and mysteries by the limbs of the body, stars and planets by light and form, the crust of the earth by the skin of the body.

Honour and homage to the Lord Supreme with surrender in truth of word and deed.

10. (Hiranyagarbha Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

हिरण्यगर्भः समवर्त्तताग्रे भूतस्य जातः पतिरेकऽआसीत्। स दाधार पृथिवीं द्यामुतेमां कस्मै देवाय हविषा विधेम॥१०॥

Hiraṇyagarbhaḥ samavarttatāgre bhūtasya jātaḥ patireka'āsīt. Sa dādhāra pṛthivīṁ dyāmu-temāṁ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The Great Golden Womb of the brilliant forms of existence, sole lord of the universe, existed by Himself long before the world was born. He it is who holds this earth and Heaven. To Him we offer our homage and worship in libations of praise in words and deeds in truth.

11. (Ishvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यः प्रा॑ण॒तो नि॑मिष॒तो म॑हि॒त्वैक॒ऽइद्राजा॒ जग॑तो ब॒भूव॑ । य ईशे॑ऽअ॒स्य द्वि॒पद॒श्चतु॑ष्पद॒ः कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥११॥

Yaḥ prāṇato nimiṣato mahitvaika'idrājā jagato babhūva. Ya īśe'asya dvipadaścatuṣpadaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

It is He who was and is the sole lord of the living, breathing and moving world of the eye (and ear). It is He who, by His own might, rules over the world of the humans and the animals. To that same lord of power and bliss we offer our homage and worship in libations of praise and fragrant havi in truth of word and deed.

12. (Ishvara Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यस्ये॒मे हि॒मव॑न्तो म॒हि॒त्वा यस्य॑ समु॒द्र॑ꣳर॒सया॑ स॒हाहु॒ः। यस्ये॒माः प्र॒दिशो॒ यस्य॑ बा॒हू कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥१२॥

Yasyeme himavanto mahitvā yasya samudraṁ rasayā sahāhuḥ. Yasyemāḥ pradiśo yasya bāhū kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

By whose might, they say, these snow-covered mountains have come into existence and the oceans roll with floods of water, and who by His arms of omnipotence wields these quarters of space, to Him we offer our homage and worship with oblations of praise and havi.

13. (Paramatma Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यऽआत्मदा बलदा यस्य विश्वऽउपासते प्रशिषं यस्य देवाः। यस्य छायाऽमृतं यस्य मृत्युः कस्मै देवाय हविषा विधेम॥१३॥

Ya'ātmadā baladā yasya viśva'upāsate praśiṣaṁ yasya devāḥ. Yasya cchāyāmṛataṁ yasya mṛtyuḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The Lord who is the giver of birth to the soul with its power and potential, whose glory all the divinities of the world celebrate in song, whose shade of protection is immortality and falling off is death, to Him we offer our homage and worship in hymns with havi.

14. (Yajna Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

आ नो भद्राः क्रतवो यन्तु विश्वतोऽदब्धासोऽअपरीतासऽउद्भिदः। देवा नो यथा सदमिद् वृधेऽअसन्नप्रायुवो रक्षितारो दिवेदिवे ॥१४॥

Ā no bhadrāḥ kratavo yantu viśvato' dabdhāso aparītāsa udbhidaḥ. Devā no yathā sadamid vṛdhe asannaprāyuvo rakṣitāro dive dive.

May thoughts of wisdom and acts of yajna come to us from all directions—thoughts and actions noble and auspicious, pure and free from violence, irresistible and unobstructed, bursting forth and fruitful, so that young, energetic and brilliant people of divinity may arise in this assembly of ours and be the protectors and promoters of our advancement.

15. (Vidvans Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Devānāṁ bhadrā sumatirṛjūyatāṁ devānāṁ rātirabhi no nivarttatām. Devānāṁ sakhyamupasedimā vayaṁ devā na'āyuḥ pratirantu jīvase.

May the auspicious wisdom of brilliant visionaries come to us. May the wealth and knowledge of simple, sincere and generous people come to us from all sides. May we enjoy the favour and friendship of noble and dedicated people of faith and excellence. And may all these nobilities thrive and promote our life for good and joyous living.

16. (Vishvedeva Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

तान् पूर्वयानिविदा हूमहे वयं भगं मित्रमदितिं दक्षमस्रिधम् । अर्यमणं वरुणꣳसोममश्विना सरस्वती नः सुभगा मयस्करत् ॥१६॥

Tān pūrvayā nividā hūmahe vayaṁ bhagaṁ mitramaditiṁ dakṣamasridham. Aryamaṇaṁ varuṇaṁ somamaśvinā sarasvatī naḥ subhagā mayaskarat.

Those we invoke and honour in yajna with the ancient, eternal and self-proclaimed voice of the Veda: Bhaga, giver of glory, Mitra, universal friend, Aditi, mother of indestructible wisdom, Daksha, lord versatile and inviolable, Aryama, sustainer of creation, Varuna, best and highest, Soma, giver of peace, prosperity, knowledge and happiness, Ashvinis, givers of health and well-being, and all the teachers and scholars of the world.

May mother Sarasvati, benevolent and beatific, give us all the good and gracious gifts of life.

17. (Vayu Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

तन्नो॒ वातो॑ मयो॒भु वा॑तु भेष॒जं तन्मा॒ता पृ॑थि॒वी तत्पि॒ता द्यौः । तद् ग्रावा॑णः सोम॒सुतो॑ मयो॒भुव॒स्तद॑श्विना शृणुतं धिष्ण्या यु॒वम् ॥१७॥

Tanno vāto mayobhu vātu bheṣajaṁ tanmātā pṛthivī tatpitā dyauḥ. Tad grāvāṇaḥ somasuto mayobhuvastadaśvinā śṛṇutaṁ dhiṣṇyā yuvam.

May the joyous wind blow for us with the breath of life. May mother earth be green and fruitful for her children. May the fatherly sun bless us with light and brilliance. May the blissful clouds replete with the waters of life be generous with showers. And may you, Ashvinis, both sustaining powers of all round growth of body, mind and spirit, listen to our prayers and be kind and gracious.

18. (Ishvara Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Tamīśānaṁ jagatastasthuṣaspatiṁ dhiyañjinvamavase hūmahe vayam. Pūṣā no yathā'vedasāmasad vṛdhe rakṣitā pāyuradabdhaḥ svastaye.

For our protection, we invoke and worship the lord and ruler of the moving and the unmoving world who inspires our intelligence, dedication and devotion, so that He, lord supreme inviolable, may be the protector, sustainer and promoter of all our wealth of life for the sake of advancement and well-being.

19. (Ishvara Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

Svasti na'indro vṛddhaśravāḥ svasti naḥ pūṣā viśvavedāḥ. Svasti nastārkṣyo'ariṣṭanemiḥ svasti no bṛhaspatirdadhātu.

May Indra, great is His glory, be kind and grant us honour and greatness. May Pusha, lord sustainer and wielder of universal wealth, be generous and bring us health and wealth. May the inviolable lord of speed and security be watchful and grant us progress and freedom. And may Brihaspati, lord of the great world of existence, be gracious and bless us with all the good and well-being in life.

20. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

पृष॑दश्वा म॒रुतः॑ पृश्नि॑मातरः शु॒भं॒ यावा॑नो वि॒दथे॑षु॒ जग्मयः॑।
अ॒ग्नि॒जि॒ह्वा मन॑वः॒ सूर॑चक्षसो॒ विश्वे॑ नो दे॒वाऽअव॒सा-

Pṛṣadaśvā marutaḥ pṛśnimātaraḥ śubhaṁ yāvāno vidatheṣu jagmayaḥ. Agnijihvā manavaḥ sūracakṣaso viśve no devā'avasāgamanniha.

Great are the scholars, vibrant as the winds and brilliant as children of sunbeams. Riding on flying horses, they are ever on the move to goodness and glory in the battles of life.

Fiery is their tongue and blazing are their eyes, and yet they are human, dedicated to thought and reflection.

May all the scholars of the world come to bless us with protection and progress to our goal here in this life itself.

21. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

भद्रं कर्णेभिः शृणुयाम देवा भद्रं पश्येमाक्षभिर्यजत्राः ।
स्थिरैरङ्गैस्तुष्टुवाꣳसस्तनूभिर्व्यशेमहि देवहितं यदायुः ॥२१॥

Bhadraṁ karṇebhiḥ śṛṇuyāma devā bhadraṁ paśyemākṣabhiryajatrāḥ. Sthirairaṅgaistuṣṭuvāṁsastanūbhirvyaśemahi devahitaṁ yadāyuḥ.

Devas, men of knowledge and divinity, dedicated to yajna, may we hear only good with our ears, may we see only good with our eyes. Singing songs of praise with strong and stable limbs, may we live our full span of life, enjoying with strong and healthy bodies in the service of God and the divines.

22. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

शतमिन्नु शरदोऽअन्ति देवा यत्रा नश्चक्रा जरसं तनूनाम्।
पुत्रासो यत्र पितरो भवन्ति मा नो मध्या रीरिषतायुर्गन्तोः॥२२॥

Śataminnu śarado'anti devā yatrā naścakrā jarasaṁ tanūnām. Putrāso yatra pitaro bhavanti mā no madhyā rīriṣatāyurgantoḥ.

Scholars of knowledge and wisdom, while we are close to you, help us to live a full life of hundred years in good health of body wherein our children too may grow to be fathers of their children. Let not our life be hurt or injured. Let it not perish on the way in the middle of the course.

23. (Dyau etc. Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अदि॑तिर्द्यौर॒दि॑तिर॒न्तरि॑क्ष॒मदि॑तिर्मा॒ता स पि॒ता स पु॒त्रः । विश्वे॑ दे॒वाऽअदि॑तिः पञ्च॒ जना॒ऽअदि॑तिर्जा॒तमदि॑ति-र्जनि॒त्वम्॥२३॥

Aditirdyauraditirantarikṣamaditirmātā sa pitā sa putraḥ. Viśve devā'aditiḥ pañca janā' aditirjātamaditirjanitvam.

In the essence: Light is indestructible; sky is indestructible; mother Prakriti (matter-energy-thought) is indestructible; Father, the Cosmic Spirit is indestructible; Son, the soul (jiva), is indestructible; all the divinities of nature and humanity are indestructible; five people, Brahmana, Kshatriya, Vaishya, Shudra, others, are indestructible; whatever is born is indestructible; whatever will be born is indestructible. (All that was, is and shall be is indestructible in the essence.)

24. (Mitra & Others Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

मा नो॑ मि॒त्रो वरु॑णोऽअर्य॒मायु॒रिन्द्रो॑ऽऋभु॒क्षा म॒रुत॒ः परि॑ख्यन्। यद्वा॒जिनो॑ दे॒वजा॑तस्य॒ सप्तेः॑ प्र॒वक्ष्यामो॑ वि॒दथे॑ वी॒र्या॑णि॥२४॥

Mā no mitro varuṇo'aryamāyurindra'ṛbhukṣā marutaḥ parikhyan.Yadvājino devajātasya sapteḥ pravakṣyāmo vidathe vīryāṇi.

May Mitra, friend, Varuna, great, Aryama, guide and leader, Indra, ruler, Ribhuksha, mighty, and Maruts, powers of the world, never overlook and ignore our life. And we shall praise and celebrate the warlike exploits of the divine-born and tempestuous hero of the world of yajnic character.

25. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यन्निर्णिजा रेक्णसा प्रावृतस्य रातिं गृभीतां मुखतो नयन्ति।
सुप्राङजो मेम्यद्विश्वरूपऽइन्द्रापूष्णोः प्रियमप्येति पाथः ॥२५॥

Yannirṇijā rekṇasā prāvṛtasya rātiṁ gṛbhītāṁ mukhato nayanti. Suprāṅajo memyadviśvarūpa' indrāpūṣṇoḥ priyamapyeti pāthaḥ.

The persons who gratefully receive the gifts of the lord giver and with that pure and sacred wealth move the cycle of charity on ward; and also the self-developing man of immortal spirit with initiative and versatile potential in many fields; they all go forward on the favourite path of Indra and Pusha, blest with power and progress.

26. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

एष छागः पुरोऽअश्वेन वाजिना पूष्णो भागो नीयते विश्वदेव्यः। अभिप्रियं यत्पुरोडाशमर्वता त्वष्टेदेनꣳ-सौश्रवसाय जिन्वति ॥२६॥

Eṣa chāgaḥ puro' aśvena vājinā pūṣṇo bhāgo nīyate viśvadevyaḥ. Abhipriyaṁ yatpuro-ḍāśamarvatā tvaṣṭedenaṁ sauśravasāya jinvati.

When this aggressive leader, distinguished among equals of divine quality and loved of Pusha (the President), is advanced to the front by the dynamic nation, then Tvashta, maker of men and nations, receives him as a lovely gift of national yajna and, alongwith the nation, refines him with sanctification for honour and glory.

27. (Yajna Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

यद्धविष्यमृतुशो देवयानं त्रिर्मानुषाः पर्यश्वं नयन्ति । अत्रा पूष्णः प्रथमो भागऽएति यज्ञं देवेभ्यः प्रतिवेदयन्नजः ॥२७॥

Yaddhaviṣyamṛtuśo devayānaṁ trirmānuṣāḥ paryaśvaṁ nayanti. Atrā pūṣṇaḥ prathamo bhāga'eti yajñaṁ devebhyaḥ prativedayannajaḥ.

When three orders of people take the man at the head of national yajna round the national vedi (the land) according to the seasons and circumstances of the country, then the man of immortal spirit, prime agent of the divinities of progress and development, Pushan, speaking in loud accents, takes the yajna forward for all the noble citizens.

28. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

होताऽध्वर्युरावयाऽअग्निमिन्धो ग्रावग्राभऽउत शꣳस्ता सुविप्रः। तेन यज्ञेन स्वरङ्कृतेन स्विष्टेन वक्षणाऽआ पृणध्वम् ॥२८॥

Hotā'dhvaryurāvayā' agnimindho grāvagrābha' uta śaṁstā suvipraḥ. Tena yajñena svaraṅkṛtena sviṣṭena vakṣaṇā'ā pṛṇadhvam.

By the national yajna, cherished and well performed with dedication and grace, may all the functionaries, the hota with oblations, adhvaryu with meticulous organisation, agnimindha with lighting of the fire, gravagrabha with handling of soma stones, shansta with invocations, expert suvipra with vedic hymns, and all the other participants refresh, replenish and overfill all the streams of national life.

29. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यूपव्रस्काऽउत ये यूपवाहाश्चषालं येऽअꣳश्वयूपाय तक्षति। ये चार्वंते पचनꣳसम्भरन्त्युतो तेषामभिगूर्त्तिर्नऽइन्वतु ॥२९॥

Yūpavraskā'uta ye yūpavāhāścaṣālaṁ ye' aśvayūpāya takṣati. Ye cārvate pacanaṁ sambharantyuto teṣāmabhigūrttirna'invatu.

(We thank) the cutters of wood for the yajna post, the carriers of the post, the shapers of the ring for the post and all those who collect the materials and complete the preparations for yajna, and, (we pray), may all their efforts be for our good and success.

30. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

उप॒प्रागा॑त्सु॒मन्मे॑ऽधायि॒ मन्म॑ दे॒वाना॒माशा॒ऽउप॑ वी॒तपृ॑ष्ठः । अन्वे॑न॒ं विप्रा॒ऽऋष॑यो मदन्ति दे॒वानां॑ पु॒ष्टे च॑क्रमा सु॒बन्धु॑म् ॥३०॥

Upa prāgātsumanme'dhāyi manma devānāmāśā'upa vītapṛṣṭhaḥ. Anvenaṁ viprā'ṛṣayo madanti devānāṁ puṣṭe cakṛmā subandhum.

May the man of broad yajnic potential, the man able to realise the hopes of the learned, come to us spontneously and bear the wisdom of knowledge for us, so that the visionaries and intellectuals may rejoice with him and we may create a community of brotherhood among the brilliant scholars.

31. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यद्वाजि॑नो॒ दाम॑ स॒न्दान॒मर्व॑तो॒ या शी॑र्ष॒ण्या॒ रश॒ना रज्जु॑रस्य। यद्वा॑ घास्य॒ प्रभृ॑तमा॒स्ये॑ तृण॒ꣳसर्वा॒ ता ते॒ऽअपि॑ दे॒वेष्वस्तु॥३१॥

Yadvājino dāma sandānamarvato yā śirṣaṇyā raśana rajjurasya. Yadvā ghāsya prabhṛtamāsye tṛṇaṁ sarvā tā te'api deveṣvastu.

Whatever the waistband or the leg fetter or the bridle, or the reins over the head or strings of control, and whatever kind of grass is held in the mouth of the fast and powerful horse (of national yajna), all these too should be under the control of the learned and the wise people, for you.

32. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यदश्वस्य क्रविषो मक्षिकाश यद्वा स्वरौ स्वधितौ रिप्तमस्ति।
यद्धस्तयोः शमितुर्यन्नखेषु सर्वा ता तेऽअपि देवेष्वस्तु॥३२॥

Yadaśvasya kraviṣo makṣikāśa yadvā svarau svadhitau riptamasti. Yaddhastayoḥ śamitur-yannakheṣu sarvā tā te'api deveṣvastu.

Whatever fly stings and eats of the flesh of the fast running horse of the yajna of the nation, whatever smears the tempered steel, or whatever soils the hands and nails of the performers of ritual, all these too should be under the control of the learned and the wise for you.

33. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यदूवध्यमुदरस्यापवाति यऽआमस्य क्रविषो गन्धोऽअस्ति।
सुकृता तच्छमितारः कृण्वन्तूत मेधꣳश्रृतपाकं पचन्तु ॥३३॥

Yadūvadhyamudarasyāpavāti ya'āmasya kraviṣo gandho'asti. Sukṛtā tacchamitāraḥ kṛṇvantūta medhaṁ śṛtapākaṁ pacantu.

Whatever undigested waste is discharged from the stomach, and whatever are the gases of the half digested food, all that the expert yajamana (physicians) should relieve and rectify and they should also have delicious foods and fragrant materials prepared.

34. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यत्ते गात्रादग्निना पच्यमानादभि शूलं निहतस्यावधावति।
मा तद् भूम्यामाश्रिषन्मा तृणेषु देवेभ्यस्तदुशद्भ्यो रातिर्मस्तु ॥३४॥

Yatte gātrādagninā pacyamānādabhi śūlaṁ nihatasyāvadhāvati. Mā tadbhūmyāmāśriṣanmā tṛṇeṣu devebhyastaduśadbhyo rātamastu.

If your person is on the stake being developed and matured by fire, and you feel strained, exhausted, almost dead, then whatever cry of pain escapes your lips, let it not fall into the dust, nor let it be lost in the straw, but let it be a valuable subject of study for the noble scholars who are keen to rectify it.

35. (Vishvedevas Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

ये वाजिनं परिपश्यन्ति पक्वं यऽईमाहुः सुरभिर्निर्हरेति । ये चार्वतो माꣳसभिक्षामुपासतऽउतो तेषामभिगूर्त्तिर्नऽइन्वतु ॥३५॥

Ye vājinaṁ paripaśyanti pakvaṁ ya'īmāhuḥ surabhirnirhareti. Ye cārvato māṁsabhikṣāmupāsata'uta teṣāmabhigūrtirna' invatu.

Those who watch the nation's food grow to ripeness, and those who say: It is fragrant, harvest it, and those who serve their share in the growth of the nation on the move, may all their effort be for the benefit of us all.

36. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यन्नीक्षणं माँस्पचन्याऽउखाया या पात्राणि यूष्णऽआसेचनानि। ऊष्मण्याऽपिधाना चरूणामङ्काः सूनाः परिभूषन्त्यश्वम् ॥३६॥

Yannīkṣaṇaṁ māṁspacanyā'ukhāyā yā pātrāṇi yūṣṇa'āsecanāni. Ūṣmaṇyā'pidhānā carūṇāmaṅkāḥ sūnāḥ pari bhūṣantyaśvam.

Watchful stirring (replenishment) of the earth's fertility for the growth of grain and fruit, whatever containers and reservoirs of water there be for growth and irrigation, the clouds for showers and alleviation of heat, and beauty spots from place to place: these beautify and add to the grace of a nation on the march.

37. (Vidvans Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

मा त्वाऽग्निर्ध्वनयीद् धूमगन्धिर्मोखा भ्राजन्त्यभिविक्त जघ्रिः। इष्टं वीतमभिगूर्त्तं वषट्कृतं तं देवासः प्रतिगृभ्णन्त्यश्वम् ॥३७॥

Mā tvā'gnirdhvanayīd dhūmagandhirmokhā bhrājantyabhi vikta jaghriḥ. Iṣṭaṁ vītamabhigūrtaṁ vaṣaṭkṛtaṁ taṁ devāsaḥ prati gṛbhṇantyaśvam.

May the fire enveloped in smoke never extinguish or diminish your light. May the shining and fragrant dawn never disturb you into isolation. The noblest generous divinities accept and honour you as a hero, dear, brilliant, industrious, sanctified and marching forward.

38. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

निक्रमणं निषदनं विवर्त्तनं यच्च पड्वीशमर्वतः । यच्च पपौ यच्च घासिं जघास सर्वा ता तेऽअपि देवेष्वस्तु॥३८॥

Nikramaṇaṁ niṣadanaṁ vivarttanaṁ yacca paḍvīśamarvataḥ. Yacca papau yacca ghāsiṁ jaghāsa sarvā tā te'api deveṣvastu.

The start and gallop of your horse, the stop and sitting, turning round and rolling, halting and the fetters, what it drinks and the grass that it eats, may all these be good and graceful, and may they be appreciated by the noblest people.

39. (Vidvansah Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यदश्वा॑य॒ वास॑ऽउपस्तृ॒णन्त्यधीवा॒सं या हिर॑ण्यान्यस्मै ।
स॒न्दान॒मर्व॑न्तं पड्वीशं प्रि॒या दे॒वेष्वाया॑मयन्ति ॥३९॥

Yadaśvāya vāsa'uapastṛṇantyadhīvāsaṁ yā hiraṇyānyasmai. Sandānamarvantaṁ paḍvīśaṁ priyā deveṣvāyāmayanti.

The cloth for the horse, the overcloth and the golden ornaments which adorn it, the head-band, and the fetters which control this fast-moving steed, may all these be beautiful, good and appreciable among the noblest people.

40. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

यत्ते॑ सा॒दे मह॑सा॒ शूक॑तस्य॒ पार्ष्ण्या॑ वा॒ कश॑या वा तु॒तोद॑।
स्रु॒चेव॒ ता ह॒विषो॑ऽअध्व॒रेषु॒ सर्वा॒ ता ते॒ ब्रह्म॑णा सूदयामि ॥४०॥

Yatte sāde mahasā śūkṛtasya pārṣṇyā vā kaśayā vā tutoda. Sruceva tā haviṣo'adhvareṣu sarvā tā te brahmaṇā sūdayāmi.

Swift and brilliant as you are with mighty strength and power, still if ever you feel weak and weary and someone hits you from the back with a whip (to hurt you or spur you on), then I replenish all your weaknesses and animate you to full form with the Vedic wealth just as we rekindle the fire in yajnas with ladlefuls of holy materials.

41. (Yajna Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

चतु॑स्त्रिꣳशद्वाजिनो॑ दे॒वब॑न्धो॒र्वङ्क्री॒रश्व॑स्य॒ स्वधि॑ति॒ः समे॑ति।
अच्छि॑द्रा॒ गात्रा॑ व॒युना॑ कृणोत॒ परु॑ष्परु॒रनु॒घुष्या॒ वि शं॑स्त॥४१॥

Catustriṁśadvājino devabandhorvaṅkrī-raśvasya svadhitiḥ sameti. Acchidrā gātrā vayunā kṛṇota paruṣparuranughuṣyā vi śasta.

Just as a man of innate expertise and intelligence controls the thirty-four movements of a tempestuous horse, which is a favourite friend of the nobles, so should the leader, a man of innate and rightful intelligence and power, a friend of the noble and brilliant people, control the dynamic governance of a vibrant nation and maintain all the parts of the national machine in a faultless order of efficiency, having examined the system step by step and declared, every part as perfect and approved.

42. (Yajamana Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

एकस्त्वष्टुरश्वस्या विशस्ता द्वा यन्तारा भवतस्तथऽऋतुः। या ते गात्राणामृतुथा कृणोमि ताता पिण्डानां प्र जुहोम्यग्नौ ॥४२॥

Ekastvaṣṭuraśvasyā viśastā dvā yantārā bhavatastatha'ṛtuḥ. Yā te gātrāṇāmṛtuthā kṛṇomi tā tā piṇḍānāṁ pra juhomyagnau.

One is the marker of the sun's horse/chariot of time, that is the year, the annual cycle of seasons. Two are the guiding controllers, the summer solstice and the winter solstice. I take the divisions of your course, O sun, O ruler, O nation, according to the seasons, and I dedicate them to the fire of national yajna according to the seasons and the circumstances of the nation.

43. (Atma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

मा त्वा तपत्प्रियऽआत्मापियन्तं मा स्वधितिस्तन्वꣳऽआतिष्ठिपत्ते । मा ते गृध्नुरविशस्तातिहाय छिद्रा गात्राण्यसिना मिथू कः ॥४३॥

Mā tvā tapatpriya' ātmāpiyantaṁ mā-svadhitistanva'ā tiṣṭhipatte. Mā te gṛdhnura-viśastātihāya chidrā gātrāṇyasinā mithū kaḥ.

While you are on your way up in life, may your dear soul not forsake you, nor torment you. May no tempered steel fix itself in your person, nor your own power arrest you. Nor must the covetous pervert mutilate your limbs, nor tear your body asunder with the sword, for no cause or weakness whatsoever.

44. (Atma Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

न वाऽउऽएतन्म्रियसे न रिष्यसि देवाँ२॥ऽइदेषि पथिभिः सुगेभिः। हरी ते युञ्जा पृषतीऽअभूतामुपास्थाद्वाजी धुरि रासभस्य ॥४४॥

Na vā'u'etanmriyase na riṣyasi devāṅ'ideṣi pathibhiḥ sugebhiḥ. Harī te yuñjā pṛṣatī abhūtāmupāsthādvāji dhuri rāsabhasya.

This way, with this knowledge, you will not die, nor suffer wrong. Instead, you would rise to the state of the immortals by the straight paths of the divinities. Yoke your strong horses to the chariot, and let the fast horse be close to the bearer of the burden.

45. (Praja Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

सुगव्यं नो वाजी स्वश्व्यं पुꣳसः पुत्राँ२॥ऽउत विश्वापुषꣳरयिम्। अनागास्त्वं नोऽअदितिः कृणोतु क्षत्रं नोऽअश्वो वनताꣳहविष्मान् ॥४५॥

Sugavyaṁ no vājī svaśvyaṁ puṁsaḥ putrāṅ'uta viśvāpuṣaṁ rayim. Anāgāstvaṁ no' aditiḥ kṛṇotu kṣatraṁ no' aśvo vanatāṁ haviṣmān.

May our dynamic ruler work and provide for the development of cows, horses, men and women, children and all round health and wealth of the nation.

May the freedom of the land and abundance of the earth lead us to a state of freedom from sin and crime. May the leader, high-priest of national yajna, ever ready and well-provided with holy materials, build a great social order for humanity.

46. (Vishvedeva Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

इमा नु कं भुवना सीषधामेन्द्रश्च विश्वे च देवाः । आदित्यैरिन्द्रः सगणो मरुद्भिरस्मभ्यं भेषजा करत् । यज्ञं च नस्तन्वं च प्रजां चादित्यैरिन्द्रः सह सीषधाति ॥४६॥

Imā nu kaṁ bhuvanā sīṣadhāmendraśca viśve ca devāḥ. Ādityairindraḥ sagaṇo marudbhirasmabhyaṁ bheṣajā karat. Yajñaṁ ca nastanvaṁ ca prajāṁ cādityairindraḥ saha sīṣadhāti.

Just as the sun and all the divinities of nature hold, sustain and bless these worlds, so may the ruler and the noblest powers of humanity govern and sustain the regions of the world. May they and we all realise the joy of life.

Just as the sun with its light and planets and the winds through the months and seasons of the year blesses us with herbs and juices for health and vitality, so may the physician with all his aids, light and air provide us with tonics and medication for health.

Just as the sun and cosmic energy through the movement of the months and seasons carry on the creative and restorative yajna of nature for the earth and her children, so may the ruler with the brilliant leaders of the nation carry on and accomplish the social yajna for the health of the body-politic and the children of the nation.

47. (Agni Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

अग्ने त्वं नोऽअन्तमऽउत त्राता शिवो भवा वरूथ्यः।
वसुरग्निर्वसुश्रवाऽअच्छा नक्षि द्युमत्तमꣳरयिं दाः ॥४७॥

Agne tvaṁ no' antama'uta trātā śivo bhavā varūthyaḥ. Vasuragnirvasuśravā'acchā nakṣi dyumattamaṁ rayiṁ dāḥ.

Agni, light of life, closest friend and saviour, be good to us, be the very spirit of our home. Pure and immaculate, warmth and vitality of life, rest and haven of all, universal creator and giver of wealth, come and bless us with the most brilliant knowledge and wealth of life.

48. (Agni Devata, Gotama Ṛshi)

तं त्वा शोचिष्ठ दीदिवः सुम्नाय नूनमीमहे सखिभ्यः। स नो बोधि श्रुधी हवम् उरुष्या णोऽअघायतः समस्मात् ॥४७॥

Taṁ tvā śociṣṭha dīdivaḥ sumnāya nūnamīmahe sakhibhyaḥ. Sa no bodhi śrudhī havam uruṣyā ṇo' aghāyataḥ samasmāt.

Lord of the universe, most briliant power, blazing with the light of knowledge and Dharma, we pray to you for the good and well-being of life sincerely for our friends and for ourselves. Such as you are, enlighten us, listen to our prayers, save and protect us from all sin and crime against Dharma and Society.

इति पञ्चविंशोऽध्यायः ॥

CHAPTER–XXVI

1. (Agni & Others Devata, Yajnavalkya Ṛshi)

अग्निश्च॑ पृथि॒वी च॒ सन्न॑ते॒ ते मे॒ सं न॑मताम॒दो वा॒युश्चा॒न्तरि॑क्षं च॒ सन्न॑ते॒ ते मे॒ सं न॑मताम॒दऽआ॑दि॒त्यश्च॒ द्यौश्च॒ सन्न॑ते॒ ते मे॒ सं न॑मताम॒दऽआप॑श्च॒ वरु॑णश्च॒ सन्न॑ते॒ ते मे॒ सं न॑मताम॒दः। स॒प्त स॒ꣳसदो॒ऽ अष्ट॒मी भू॒तसा॑धनी। सका॑माँ२॥ऽअध्व॑नस्कुरु स॒ꣳज्ञान॑मस्तु मे॒ऽमुना॑ ॥१॥

Agniśca pṛthivī ca sannate te me saṁ namatāmado vāyuścāntarikṣaṁ ca sannate te me saṁ namatāmada'ādityaśca dyauśca sannate te me saṁ namatāmada'āpaśca varuṇaśca sannate te me saṁ namatāmadaḥ. Sapta saṁsado aṣṭamī bhūtasādhanī. Sakāmāṁ'adhvanaskuru saṁjñānamastu me'munā.

Agni, vital heat, and Prithivi, earth, go together in harmony (for this side of life, for Dharma, righteous living, Artha, earthly prosperity, Kama, worldly fulfilment). May they be harmonious and favourable for me for the other side too (Moksha, ultimate freedom).

Vayu, the air, and Antariksha, the sky, go together in harmony for this side of life. May they be favourable for me for the other side too.

Aditya, the sun, and Dyau, heaven, go together in harmony for this side. May they be favourable for me for the other side too.

Apah, spatial waters, and Varuna, the oceans, go together in harmony for me this side of life, may they be favourable for the other side too.

Seven are the conjunctions between oceans, waters, sun, heaven, air, sky, heat and earth, which hold the world. The eighth, mother earth, sustains the forms of life. May all the conjunctions and the sustaining mother's lap help us realise our aims of life.

O ruler, act well so that our aims of life be fulfilled and the paths of life be straight and clear.

By dedication to the other side, may I have full knowledge of existence and beyond.

2. (Ishvara Devata, Laugakshi Ṛshi)

यथेमां वाचं कल्याणीमावदानि जनेभ्यः। ब्रह्मराजन्याभ्याꣳ शूद्राय चार्याय च स्वाय चारणाय च । प्रियो देवानां दक्षिणायै दातुरिह भूयासमयं मे कामः समृध्यतामुपमादो नमतु ॥२॥

Yathemāṁ vācaṁ kalyāṇīmāvadāni janebhyaḥ. Brahmarājānyābhyāṁ śūdrāya cāryāya ca svāya cāraṇāya ca. Priyo devānāṁ dakṣiṇāyai dāturiha bhūyāsamayaṁ me kāmaḥ samṛdhyatāmupa mādo namatu.

Just as this blessed Word of the Veda I speak for the people, all without exception, Brahmana, Kshatriya, Shudra, Vaishya, master and servant, one's own and others, so do you too.

May I be dear and favourite with the noble divinities and the generous people for the gift of the sacred speech.

May this noble aim of mine be fulfilled here in this life. May the others too follow and come my way beyond this life.

3. (Ishvara Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

बृहस्पतेऽअति यदर्योऽअर्हाद् द्युमद्विभाति क्रतुमज्जनेषु । यद्दीदयच्छवसऽ ऋतप्रजात तदस्मासु द्रविणं धेहि चित्रम्। उपयामगृहीतोऽसि बृहस्पतये त्वैष ते योनिर्बृहस्पतये त्वा॥३॥

Bṛhaspate'ati yadaryo'arhād dyumadvibhāti kratumajjaneṣu. Yaddīdayacchavasa'ṛtaprajāta tadasmāsu draviṇaṁ dhehi citram. Upayāmagṛhīto'si bṛhaspataye tvaiṣa te yonirbṛhaspataye tvā.

Brihaspati, lord of the great universe, master of universal wealth, lord of light and yajnic actions among humanity, you shine by virtue of your own glory. Manifest in the law and order of existence and in the Veda, you blaze with your own omnipotence. Such as you are, Lord, bless us with the wonderful knowledge and wealth of the world.

Man of knowledge, consecrated you are in the yajna of knowledge as if you are an oblation in the sacrificial ladle, upayama. I accept you in the service of Brihaspati, lord of the world and its knowledge, for the sake of Brihaspati, enlightenment of the scholars with divine knowledge. This now is your haven and home, your end and aim of life.

4. (Indra Devata, Ramyakshi Ṛshi)

इन्द्र गोमन्निहायाहि पिबा सोमꣳशतक्रतो । विद्यद्भिर्ग्रावभिः सुतम् । उपयामगृहीतोऽसीन्द्राय त्वा गोमतऽएष ते योनिरिन्द्राय त्वा गोमते ॥४॥

Indra gomannihāyāhi pibā somaṁ śatakrato. Vidyadbhirgrāvabhiḥ sutam. Upayāmagṛhīto'sīndrāya tvā gomata'eṣa te yonirindrāya tvā gomate.

Indra, lord of the earth and the divine Word, highpriest of a hundred yajnas of life, come here and drink of the soma extracted by the existent scholars with the sacred stones and distilled by the clouds.

Man of divine knowledge, master of your mind and senses, consecrated you are to Indra, lord of earth and Veda. I accept you for the service of Indra and education of the people. This service and dedication is now your haven and home, the end and aim of your life.

5. (Surya Devata, Ramyakshi Ṛshi)

तन्नस्तुरीपमद्भुतं पुरुक्षु त्वष्टा सुवीर्यम् ।
रायस्पोषं विष्यतु नाभिमस्मे ॥२०॥

Tannasturīpamadbhutaṁ purukṣu tvaṣṭā suvīryam. Rāyaspoṣaṁ vi ṣyatu nābhimasme.

May Tvashta, divine artist of the world, generous to all, gain for us fast-maturing, wonderful and virile health, wealth and noursihment, place it at the hub of the nation's movement and relieve us of want and suffering.

21. (Scholars Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

वनस्पतेऽवसृजा रराणस्त्मना देवेषु ।
अग्निर्हव्यꣳशमिता सूदयाति ॥२१॥

Vanaspate'va sṛjā rarāṇastmanā deveṣu. Agnirhavyaṁ śamitā sūdayāti.

Vanaspati, scholar and researcher of the science of yajna, just as the holy fire of peaceful yajna refines and universalizes the holy materials, so you, rejoicing at heart among noble and generous scholars, create refined and powerful holy materials for the fire of natioinal yajnas of production and purification.

22. (Indra Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

अग्ने स्वाहा कृणुहि जातवेदऽइन्द्राय हव्यम् ।
विश्वे देवा हविरिदं जुषन्ताम् ॥२२॥

Agne svāhā kṛṇuhi jātaveda'indrāya havyam. Viśve devā haviridaṁ juṣantām.

Agni, lord of world knowledge, take this holy offering and, in truth of word and deed, refine and raise it to the grace and glory of Indra, spirit of power and prosperity of the world. And may all the noble people of the world and divinities of nature share this holy gift and rejoice.

23. (Vayu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

पीवोऽअन्ना रयिवृधः सुमेधाः श्वेतः सिषक्ति नियुतामभिश्रीः।
ते वायवे समनसो वितस्थुर्विश्वेन्नरः स्वपत्यानि चक्रुः॥२३॥

Pīvo'annā rayivṛdhaḥ sumedhāḥ śvetaḥ siṣakti niyutāmabhiśrīḥ. Te vāyave samanaso vi tasthurviśvennaraḥ svapatyāni cakruḥ.

All the leading scholars of the world, well-provided for living, of equal mind and noble intelligence, concentrating on the knowledge of Vayu, wind and energy, promote the wealth of the world and produce a new generation of noble descendants. And Vayu, pure and immaculate spirit and essence of life, blesses these dynamic enterprising people with grace and dignity.

24. (Vayu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

राये नु यं जज्ञतू रोदसीमे राये देवी धिषणा धाति देवम्।
अधं वायुं नियुतः सश्चत स्वाऽउत श्वेतं वसुधितिं निरेके ॥२४॥

Rāye nu yaṁ jajñatū rodasīme rāye devī dhiṣaṇā dhāti devam. Adha vāyuṁ niyutaḥ saścata svā' uta śvetaṁ vasudhitiṁ nireke.

The Heavan and the earth generate Vayu for the wealth of energy. The divine intelligence activates Vayu to reveal the wealth of the divine Word. And then, that same Vayu, pure treasure of energy, all the living beings in existence together seek, enjoy and pursue (for the sake of wealth and energy).

25. (Prajapati Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

आपो॑ ह॒ यद् बृ॑ह॒तीर्विश्व॒माय॒न् गर्भ॑ं दधा॑ना ज॒नय॑न्तीर॒ग्निम्।

Āpo ha yad bṛhatīrviśvamāyan garbhaṁ dadhānā janayantīragniṁ. Tato devānāṁ samavartatāsurekaḥ kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

When the cosmic waters of existence (that is, tanmatras, subtle elements of Prakriti, material cause of the universe, or, we can say, Mahan, the existential form of Prakriti) appear on the cosmic scene, holding the vishva-garbha, seed form of the universe in their womb, and give birth to Agni (vital heat of nature and mother of stars such as the sun), then arises Vayu, the one life-breath of the divine forms of existence. To that divine breath of life, let us pay homage with love and action in faith.

26. (Prajapati Devata, Hiranyagarbha Ṛshi)

यश्चि॒दापो॑ मह्ि॒ना प॒र्यप॑श्य॒द्दक्षं॑ दधा॑ना ज॒नय॑न्तीर्य॒ज्ञम् । यो दे॒वेष्वधि॑ दे॒वऽएक॒ऽआसी॒त् कस्मै॑ दे॒वाय॑ ह॒विषा॑ विधेम ॥२६॥

Yaścidāpo mahinā paryapaśyaddakṣaṁ dadhānā janayantīryajñam. Yo deveṣvadhi deva' eka'āsīt kasmai devāya haviṣā vidhema.

The One Supreme Lord over all the divine forms of Prakriti, who overwatches the cosmic waters with His own might of immanence and omniscience — waters (tanmatras) conducting the great yajna of evolution and producing various forms of life, to that One Lord of Bliss let us pay homage and offer worship with acts of love and faith in yajna.

27. (Vayu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

प्र याभिर्यासि दाश्वाꣳसमच्छा नियुद्भिर्वायविष्टये दुरोणे। नि नो रयिꣳसुभोजसं युवस्व नि वीरं गव्यमश्व्यं च राधः ॥२७॥

Pra yābhiryāsi dāśvāṁsamacchā niyudbhirvāyaviṣṭaye duroṇe. Ni no rayiṁ subhojasaṁ yuvasva ni vīraṁ gavyamaśvyaṁ ca rādhaḥ.

Vayu, by the waves of your own energy you fly so gracefully to the house of the generous yajamana for the desired objects. Bless us with enjoyable gifts of wealth and food. Bless us with brave heroes, wealth of cows and horses, and the power and dignity of life.

28. (Vayu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

आ नो नियुद्भिः शतिनीभिरध्वरꣳसहस्त्रिणीभिरुप याहि यज्ञम्। वायोऽअस्मिन्त्सवने मादयस्व यूयं पात स्वस्तिभिः सदा नः ॥२८॥

Ā no niyudbhiḥ śatinībhiradhvaraṁ sahasriṇībhirupa yāhi yajñam. Vāyo asmintsavane mādayasva yūyaṁ pāta svastibhiḥ sadā naḥ.

Vayu, tempestuous power of divine nature, by a hundred modes of action and a thousand currents of energy in this mighty yajna of creative evolution, you come to our holy yajna of love and action in the world. Come, rejoice in this yajna and bless us too with joy.

Sages of knowledge and yajna, you too protect us with your knowledge and your blessings for peace, prosperity and well-being.

29. (Vayu Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

नियुत्वान् वायवा गह्ययꣳशुक्रोऽअयामि ते ।
गन्तासि सुन्वतो गृहम् ॥२९॥

Niyutvān vāyavā gahyayaṁ śukro'ayāmi te.
Gantāsi sunvato gṛham.

Divine Vayu, One universal inmanent life-breath of the universe, primary leading light of nature and humanity, just as this wind, pure and immaculate, moves and blesses the house of a devotee of soma and yajna, so you, pure and immaculate, come in response to my invocation. Here I come to you.

30. (Vayu Devata, Purumeedha Ṛshi)

वायो शुक्रोऽअयामि ते मध्वोऽअग्रं दिविष्टिषु ।

Vāyo śukro'ayāmi te madhvo'agraṁ diviṣṭiṣu.
Ā yāhi somapītaye spārho deva niyutvatā.

Vayu, brilliant power divine, honey-sweet and pure, worthy of emulation and admiration, I come, invoke and invite you, leading light of holy gatherings of yajna. Come at the speed of the wind, and join here for a drink of soma.

31. (Vayu Devata, Ajameedha Ṛshi)

वायुरग्रेगा यज्ञप्रीः साकं गन्मनसा यज्ञम् ।
शिवो नियुद्भिः शिवाभिः ॥३१॥

Vāyuragregā yajñaprīḥ sākaṁ ganmanasā yajñam. Śivo niyudbhiḥ sivābhih.

Vayu, leader ever in the forefront of the noble activities of life, lover of yajna, come with your heart and soul to the yajna. Blissful you are, come with all your sagely acts and blessed powers.

32. (Vayu Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

वायो॒ ये ते॑ सह॒स्रिणो॒ रथा॑स॒स्तेभि॒रा ग॑हि ।
नि॒युत्वा॒न्त्सोम॑पीतये ॥३२॥

Vāyo ye te sahasriṇo rathāsastebhirā gahi.
Niyutvāntsomapītaye.

Vayu, leader and scholar of the speed of the winds, thousands are the paths and modes of your movement forward. Take them all and come for a wonder-work of joy with a holy drink of soma.

33. (Vayu Devata, Gritsamada Ṛshi)

Ekayā ca daśabhiśca svabhūte dvābhyāmiṣṭaye viṁśatī ca. Tisṛbhiśca vahase triṁśatā ca niyudbhirvāyaviha tā vi muñca.

Vayu, master of your own innate powers and knowledge, you conduct the yajna of life by one and ten, two and twenty, three and thirty paths and modes and speeds for the desired end and aim of life. Come here and conduct the yajna, and then release everything and be free.

34. (Vayu Devata, Angirasa Ṛshi)

तव॑ वायवृतस्पते॒ त्वष्टु॑र्जामातरद्भुत ।

Tava vāyavṛtaspate tvaṣṭurjāmātaradbhuta. Avāṁsyā vṛnīmah.

Vayu, sustainer of truth and the laws of nature, wonderful power, maker of new forms and shaper of the new generations for Tvashta, lord creator, we pray for your gifts of protection, sustenance and advancement.

35. (Vayu Devata, Vasishtha Ṛshi)

अभि त्वा शूर नोनुमोऽदुग्धा इव धेनवः।

Abhi tvā śura nonumo'dugdhā'iva dheṇavaḥ. Īśānamasya jagataḥ svardṛśamīśānamindra tasthuṣaḥ.

Indra, fearless and brave, lord and ruler of the moving and the unmoving world, it is bliss to see you! Like unmilked cows yearning for their calves, we invoke you to pay homage to you.

36. (Parameshvara Devata, Shamyubarhaspatya Ṛshi)

न त्वावाँ२॥ऽअन्यो दिव्यो न पार्थिवो न जातो न जनिष्यते।

Na tvāvāṅ'anyo divyo na pārthivo na jāto na janiṣyate. Aśvāyanto maghavannindra vājino gavyantastvā havāmahe.

Indra, supreme lord of power and glory, destroyer of pain and suffering, there is none other like you on earth or in heaven ever born or yet to be born in future. Blest with horse and speed, food and power, cows and wealth of holy Word, still yearning to move faster and higher, we come and offer homage and worship to you.

37. (Indra Devata, Shamyubarhaspatya Ṛshi)

त्वामिद्धि हवामहे सातौ वाजस्य कारवः ।

Tvāmiddhi havāmahe sātau vājasya kāravaḥ.
Tvaṁ vṛtreṣvindra satpatiṁ narastvāṁ kāṣṭhāsvarvataḥ.

Indra, lord of power and commander of the forces, sun among the clouds and defender of truth, we, leaders of men and achievers of success, invoke you in the battles of science and knowledge and do homage to you advancing into all directions like a horse on the wing.

38. (Indra Devata, Shamyubarhaspatya Ṛshi)

स त्वं नश्चित्र वज्रहस्त धृष्णुया महः स्तवानोऽअद्रिवः।

Sa tvaṁ naścitra vajrahasta dhṛṣṇuyā maha

Indra, wonderful lord of the thunderbolt in hand, lord of the clouds and strong as adamant, highly praised and celebrated by virtue of your own glory, give us abundant wealth of cows, horses, chariot bullocks as well as true knowledge of science for the sake of victory.

39. (Agni Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

कया नश्चित्रऽआ भुवदूती सदावृधः सखा ।
कया शचिष्ठया वृता ॥३९॥

Kayā naścitra'ā bhuvadūti sadāvṛdhaḥ sakhā.
Kayā śaciṣṭhayā vṛtā.

Lord of light and knowledge, wonderful and awe-inspiring, be a friend of the progressive, bless us with protection and help us join with blissful and powerful mode of action and advancement.

40. (Indra Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

कस्त्वा स॒त्यो मदा॑नां मꣳहि॑ष्ठो मत्स॒दन्ध॑सः ।
दृ॒ढा चि॑दा॒रुजे॒ वसु॑ ॥४०॥

Kastvā satyo madānāṁ maṁhiṣṭho matsad-andhasaḥ. Dṛḍhā cidāruje vasu.

Indra, the real soothing, genuine and most powerful essence of efficacious soma and herbal food which relieves and exhilarates you, that surely is the valuable and unfailing panacea for the cure of ill-health.

41. (Indra Devata, Vamadeva Ṛshi)

अ॒भी षु णः॑ सखीनामवि॒ता ज॑रितॄ॒णाम् ।
श॒तं भ॑वास्यू॒तये ॥४१॥

Abhī ṣu naḥ sakhīnāmavitā jaritṝṇām. Śatam bhavāsyūtaye.

Indra, lord of power and knowledge, you are the over-all saviour and protector of our friends and admirers. Be gracious to us in a hundred ways for our protection and well-being.

42. (Yajna Devata, Shamyu Ṛshi)

य॒ज्ञाय॑ज्ञा वोऽअ॒ग्नये॒ गि॒रागि॑रा च॒ दक्ष॑से ।

In every yajna, by every word, for the sake of Agni, power of light, energy, intelligence and expertise, we invite, honour and celebrate you. Let us all together celebrate and sing in praise of Agni, immortal and omniscient lord, as a darling friend of ours.

43. (Agni Devata, Bhargava Ṛshi)

पा॒हि नो॑ ऽ अग्न॒ ऽ एक॑या पा॒ह्यु॒त द्वि॒तीय॑या ।

Pāhi no'agna'ekayā pāhyuta dvitīyayā. Pāhi gīrbhistisṛbhirūrjāṁ pate pāhi catasṛbhirvaso.

Agni, lord of knowledge, action, love and freedom, master of life, energy and food, home and shelter of all forms of existence, protect and promote us by one voice, voice of the Riks, for knowledge. Protect and promote us by the second voice, voice of the Yajus, for action. Protect and promote us by the three voices of Riks, Yajus and Samans for knowledge, action and worship. Protect and promote us by the four voices of Riks, Yajus, Samans and Atharvans, for Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha.

44. (Vayu Devata, Shamyu Ṛshi)

Scholar, sage, teacher, learner, promote the child of life and energy, vayu, agni and knowledge, which allow not the grandeur of life to diminish, so that nature and knowledge may be our friends, protect us in the battles of life and continue to be the saviours of our persons and people. Friends as they are, we invoke them for the oblations of holy offerings in yajna.

45. (Agni Devata, Shamyu Ṛshi)

Agni, brilliant scholar, teacher, learner, you move by the law of nature like the current year, give up the weaknesses like the year gone by. You are wide-awake and comprehensive like the universally present year, and definite like the year cycle. May the dawns flourish and be favourable to you. May the day-night cycle be flourishing and favourable to you. May the fortnights flourish and be favourable to you. May the months flourish, may the seasons flourish, may the years flourish and be favourable to you.

For coming and going, advancement and return, collect, expand, control and contain.

You are the winner of life's golden beauties. Move forward in unison with that divinity of Time like the breath of life and stay fast and firm with Dharma like the fixed stars.

CHAPTER–XXVIII

1. (Indra Devata, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

होता॑ यक्षत्समिधेन्द्र॒मि॒डस्प॒दे नाभा॑ पृथि॒व्याऽअधि॑ । दि॒वो वर्ष्म॒न्त्समि॑ध्यत॒ऽओजि॑ष्ठश्चर्षणी॒सहा॑ वेत्वाज्य॑स्य॒ होत॒र्यज॑ ॥१॥

Let the hota, man of yajna, offer faithful libations of holy materials, research and study in honour of Indra (agni, i.e., energy, heat and light) enshrined in the divine Word, latent at the centre of the earth, blazing on top of heaven and thundering in the clouds.

And such a yajna, shining with lustre and most brilliant among men of might and valour, would enjoy the most delicious gifts of life.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, never relent.

2. (Indra Devata, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

होता॑ यक्षत्तनू॒नपा॑तमू॒ति॒भि॒र्जेता॑र॒मप॑राजितम् । इन्द्रं॑ दे॒वꣳ-स्व॒र्विद॑ं प॒थि॒भि॒र्मधु॑मत्तमै॒र्नरा॒शꣳसे॑न॒ तेज॑सा॒ वेत्वाज्य॑स्य॒ होत॒र्यज॑ ॥२॥ to Indra, ruling power of the world, preserver and protector of the forms of life, victorious, unviolated, brilliant and generous, and heavenly, with oblations of defensive actions along the sweetest paths of virtue ; and with his own lustre and valour, celebrated in songs of praise in society, and he would attain the best gifts of life.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna in honour of Indra.

3. (Indra Devata, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

होता॑ यक्षदि॒डाभि॒रिन्द्र॑मीडि॒तमा॒जुह्वा॑न॒ममर्त्यम् । दे॒वो दे॒वैः सवी॑र्यो॒ वज्र॑हस्तः पुरन्द॒रो वेत्वाज्य॑स्य॒ होत॒र्यज ॥३॥

And he, brilliant and generous, mighty of strength, wielder of the thunderbolt in hand, destroyer of the enemy forts, would lead you to the best and sweetest gifts of a prosperous society.

Man of yajna, maintain the yajna, don't relent.

4. (Rudra Devata, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

होता॑ यक्षद् ब॒र्हिषीन्द्रं॑ निषद्व॒रं वृ॑ष॒भं नर्या॑पसम् । वसु॑भी रु॒द्रैरा॑दि॒त्यैः स॒युग्भि॑र्ब॒र्हिरास॑द॒द्वेत्वाज्य॑स्य॒ होत॒र्यज ॥४॥

And Indra would grace the yajna of the people and lead them to the highest state of power and prosperity.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, never relent.

Man of yajna, perform the yajna in honour of Indra, powerful and glorious personality of the nation. Just as wide open gates augment the flood of waters so may the doors of yajna augment the vigour, valour and brilliance of the nation. And in this national yajna, may the saints and sages going by the paths of rectitude and extending the bounds of truth open wide the gates of glory and advancement for the bountiful Indra.

Man of yajna, go on with the yajna, relent not.

Let the hota, man of yajna, perform yajna in honour and service of the morning dawn and the evening twilight, which, like two great generous mother cows in the open air of universal energy, nourish Indra, the sun, like a calf and feed it with light and augment its glory.

Hota, do the yajna, increase and extend the beauty and glory of the world and enjoy. Never relent.

7. (Ashvinau Devate, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

Let the hota offer the oblations in honour and service for the Ashvinis, two high-priests of nature in the fields of health and well-being. They are the physicians, friends, who carry on the yajna for the health of Indra, the soul in body. Both of them, wise visionaries, brilliant and generous, masters of divine science, work for and extend the health and well-being of Indra.

Hota, carry on the yajna, augment and extend the health and well-being of humanity and enjoy yourself too.

8. (Indra Devata, Brihaduktha Vamadeva Ṛshi)

होता॑ यक्षत्तिस्रो दे॒वीर्न भेष॒जं त्रय॑स्त्रिधात॒वोऽपस॒ऽइडा॒ सर॑स्वती॒ भार॑ती म॒हीः । इन्द्र॑पत्नीर्हवि॒ष्म॑तीर्वयन्त्वाज्य॑स्य॒ होत॒र्यज ॥८॥

Let the three, teacher, preacher and physician (agents of great actions and creators of three supreme humors of body-health), as three servants of the regions of earth, sky and heaven, serve with yajna the three divinities of Ida, Saraswati and Bharati.

And the three, teacher, preacher and the physician, and the three mother-sustainers of the soul, generous with the wealth of life, would bless the soul and the world with plenty of health and well-being.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, never relent.

9. (Indra Devata, Prajapati Ṛshi)

Let the hota, yajaka, offer yajna to Tvashta, maker of refined forms beyond weaknes. He blesses, Indra, valorous, glorious and generous, physician, honourable in yajna, abundant and graceful, versatile in various fields and nobly virile, lord of power and grandeur. And Tvashta would bless you with the excellence of mind and sense and create all the knowledge of sense and mind and culture for you.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, never relent.

Hotā yakṣadvanaspatiṁ śamitāraṁ śatakratuṁ dhiyo joṣṭāramindriyam. Madhvā samañjan pathibhiḥ sugebhiḥ svadāti yajñaṁ madhunā ghṛtena vetvājyasya hotaryaja.

Let the man of yajna offer homage and honour to Vanaspati, lover of nature and brilliant as the lord of sunbeams, dedicated to peace, man of a hundred noble acts and admirer of intelligence and culture, and he would, thereby, moving ahead by the simple paths of honesty and virtue, adding sweetness and grace to the beauty and glory of life, he would taste the rapturous honey himself.

Let the man of yajna extend and expand the yajna of life with honey and sacred water and ghee and add to the prosperity of society for all and for himself too.

Man of yajna, carry on the yajna, relent not.
